Conference Studies

BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Chairman—Willard N. Tobie, Lincoln.

Registrar—J. F. McAnally, Buffalo.

Examiners—Walter Aitken, C. M. Barton, A. K. Byrns, H. M. Derby, T. N. Ewing, W. D. Fairchild, F. A. Havighurst, E. A. Hedges, E. H. Lugg, J. F. McAnally, R. F. McDaniel, C. F. McKown, J. W. Miller, J. C. Nate, A. C. Piersel, C. D. Robertson, R. L. Steed, W. A. Smith, M. M. Want.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

With Plan of Examinations for 1913-14

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners, the chairman and registrar being a committee for this purpose. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of district supervisors designated by the chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange with a member of the conference as special supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

As early in the conference year as possible all applicants for admission on trial shall send to the chairman of the board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the chairman. All such candidates may take their examinations as above.

4. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Chairman of the Board three different sets of questions, thirty days or more before the examinations take place in June, the questions to be passed upon by the chairman before being used in the examinations. After approval by the chairman, he shall send them to the registrar for issue and distribution and the registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time in the hands of the district supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special. Set No. 1 shall be used in the first examination; set No. 2 for all who fail at the first trial; and set No. 3, "doubly difficult," for all who postpone the examinations until the day before the conference session.

5. Before the day of examination the registrar will supply the supervisors with questions on all books on which examinations are to be conducted at that period, which shall cover the books for the whole course of study for the August examinations. In case an undergraduate wishes to take in June an examination on any book assigned to the August period, he shall notify the registrar in ample time where he will take such examination, that the latter may send the questions to the supervisor.

6. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study, or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time of examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the registrar of the board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the board.

7. Examiners shall report grades on all papers within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their annual conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for prepayment.

8. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

9. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the examiner preparing them, and subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

10. No syllabus or book review will be required upon the "books to be read." Instead of this, the undergraduate will be required, at the place of the June and August examinations to fill out blanks of the following form for all the books assigned to his class to be read in each respective period.

I hereby certify that I have given the book (or books.....)
(Fill in name) a careful and conscientious reading, covering the whole of its (or their) contents.

(Signed)

These certificates will be forwarded by the district supervisors to the registrar and by him recorded. A similar certificate is required for the reading of the leading articles in The Methodist Review.

11. All credits from the Methodist Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the annual conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. All grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the conference examiners, shall be designated by the letter "P", as an indication of passing grade, which neither add to, nor detracts from the general average of the undergraduate.

12. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the board. This fee shall be paid to the registrar of the board within thirty days after the adjournment of the conference session, for which the registrar shall furnish receipt. District supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the registrar except on the order of the chairman; and the financial accounts of the chairman and registrar shall be audited by the board at their annual conference meeting.

13. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the chairman and registrar of the board.

14. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the board of examiners; and it shall be the duty of the board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the board of examiners. District superintendents are requested to report to the chairman of the board of examiners, all candidates for admission on trial from other churches, and into full membership, and for recognition of orders, at least thirty days before conference or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the chairman may have ample time to investigate.

15. It shall be the duty of district superintendents to report to the chairman of the board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

16. The annual meeting of the board of examiners shall be held at the seat of the annual conference at 2 o'clock p. m., on the day preceding the opening of the session, to consider matters involved in Rule 14, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the ensuing year. Examinations for those who are eligible shall be conducted on the same day, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., and closing at 6:00 p. m.

17. "Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success, will be conferred at each annual conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but undergraduates who have been conditioned, or continued on trial beyond the regular time, shall not be eligible for such honors; and no one can be "Honor Man" who shall not have done at least 50 per cent of his work under this board.

18. The board will deduct 10 per cent or less on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing or general execution is slovenly, deduction being made as to each of these points. On all written work not in before

August 15, a reduction of 5 per cent and after Sept. 1, 10 per cent, will be made from the grades. Examinations deferred to the day before conference will be doubly rigid, and no examination will be given after 6 p. m. on day preceding conference.

(1.) All written work must be within the required limits, or deductions will be made as indicated above. These limits are: For sermons, from 2,000 to 3,000 words. For essays, 1,500 to 2,000 words.

(2.) All essays and sermons shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipt for the same shall be brought to the chairman at the seat of the conference. (Undergraduates read all rules, especially Rule 3, with great care.)

Reports and Resolutions

A. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT

To Bishop McDowell and Members of the Illinois Conference:

The year's work in the Bloomington District has been very gratifying. With the exception of two student appointments, no changes have been necessary. All the preachers went to their respective charges and have labored faithfully during the year. In connection with their work as pastors, two of the brethren have found time to write two very interesting books—"Studies in the Atonement," by Rev. Wm. N. Tobie, of Lincoln, and "Down the Year," by Rev. C. D. Robertson, of McLean. These books are having a good sale and are worthy of a careful reading.

Material

In Atlanta, under the efficient leadership of Rev. F. M. Harry, a fine church edifice is being constructed at a cost of $22,000. It will be ready for dedication about January 1st.

At Kenny, the Rev. D. H. Munson is ably leading in the erection of a church to cost $11,000. This will mean a new era for Methodism at this place.

At Saybrook, the official board, not satisfied with the parsonage in which their pastor, Rev. R. L. Steed, resided, planned to reconstruct the preacher's home. This was done at a cost of $3,200, making it one of the best parsonages in the District.

At Park Church, Bloomington, Rev. H. S. Alkire led his loyal people in the same work and a fine, new parsonage has been built next to the church that will gladden the heart of many a pastor in the years to come.

At Elkhart, Rev. B. D. Wiley rallied his members in a like project and $2,600 was expended in making the remodeled parsonage one of the most attractive residences in the town.

The salaries of the preachers were increased $1,000 during the year, making an advance for the five years of $8,500.

Benevolences

The benevolences, as far as I have been able to ascertain, will compare well with the past. Many of the pastors are not able to report definitely until the very last day of the conference year, and for this reason I cannot give exact amounts.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies are untiring in their splendid work for the extension of the Lord's Kingdom. It is our intention that there shall be in every charge one or both of these societies. In some charges all the missionary societies, both senior and junior, are organized, and give largely to their respective causes. Much praise should be given to Sisters Smith, Nate and Meyers for their self-sacrificing, faithful work in the District.

Conversions

While the pastors have been busy with many things they have not neglected "the one thing" of supreme value, namely—the winning of men to Christ and the Church. Conversions have been many—Park, 100; First, 83; Grace, 42; Lincoln, 43; Havana, 53; Clinton, 50; DeWitt, 81; Downs, 50; LeRoy, 32. In all about 600 have been brought into the Church from probation. For this we are profoundly thankful since it reveals the fact that the gospel has not lost its power and our ministers have not lost their zeal in proclaiming it.

Epworth League

The Epworth League is found in nearly all our churches. We are hoping that in all our Leagues there will come a true Wesleyan enthusiasm and a spiritual power that shall open a new era of revival interest. What a refreshing sight it would be to see these young Christians all aglow with spiritual fervor until the whole Church should catch the same spirit. Such an awakening in our Leagues this fall would undoubtedly be preparatory to a great revival campaign in all our charges. I greatly believe in the League and fully realize this inherent power of its organization.

Sunday School

Our Sunday Schools continue to flourish. In many ways, we see a decided advance over former years. Some of our schools are most thoroughly graded. There is a decided gain in the efficiency of our teachers. The Sunday School is being standardized, and altogether our Sunday Schools are endeavoring to meet the demands of the age. It will be a glad day when all our Schools shall be so organized that the Intermediate Department shall instruct the children in all those matters requisite for admission into church membership. There will thus be a distinct end in view and a definite result attained. To allow our children to grow up as non-members of the Church, and then, in after years, when our laggard energies are aroused by their imminent peril, to frantically strive to rescue them through some great revival effort, is a sad blunder and a wretched mistake. We would not withhold the "life-line", but here as elsewhere we believe that "prevention is better than cure", and that "an ounce of formation is worth a ton of reformation". I would, therefore, urge that in connection with the Sunday School work there be the organization of children's probationary classes, and junior congregations where the pastor personally may guide and instruct the youth.

Laymen

I must say a word about our laymen. I fear we often fail to appreciate the men of our Church as we should. These men are vitally concerned about the work of the Kingdom. I am profoundly impressed with their interest in the Church, and their devotion to the cause of Christ. What they say about the work of the ministry is often illuminating and instructive. I deduct the following as indexing their thought upon the preacher's task: That the Church is demanding such a preeminence of ability that "the ministry" must be synonymous with "leadership". That having accepted the ministry there should be earnestness, enthusiasm, consecration and strict adherence to the requirements of the task. That the members are anxious to co-operate with the minister who is thus furnished, or who is seeking to be thus furnished, and who is striving eagerly to fulfill his mission. That the minister has as large a field and as great a work as ever man had, and his work will be appreciated and duly honored and supported when he makes his ministry worth while. That the laity have a right to expect their minister to put into his ministry initiative, consecration, originality, endurance and zeal; to give a thoroughly prepared sermon with a virile message and to give that sermon with fluency and eagerness and whole-heartedness. There must be the "heart of love and the tongue of fire." And finally that the minister shall not withdraw himself from the people, but rather visit among them until he shall personally know their needs and have and maintain over all his field a thorough-going pastoral supervision.

Illinois Wesleyan University

Illinois Wesleyan University continues well under the leadership of its efficient President, Dr. Theodore Kemp. Last year there were 105 in the Freshman Class, which is the largest entering-class in the history of the school. The outlook for this year is fully as bright.

The Endowment Campaign has been carried on energetically—its Field Secretaries, Drs. Myers, Shields, Henninger and Smith, with the General Educational Secretary, Dr. Nate, and the President, having labored during the year most devotedly and successfully. Of the three hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($350,000), there now remains only eighty-two thousand ($82,000) to be secured. Yet this amount, upon which even greater things depend, must be secured, that Mrs. Buck's conditional offer be fully met.

Illinois Wesleyan is most fortunate in securing for next year the valuable services of Rev. Wm. H. Wilder, D. D., a former president of the institution, as teacher of English Bible and Missions.

Rev. J. W. Henninger (Master of Philosophy) has been secured to take the chair of Philosophy and Economics. His long and distinguished career as a teacher makes him a strong addition to the many able teachers of the University.

Conclusion

Looking out upon the great work committed to our hands, I am impressed with the seriousness of the task. It is not an easy task, but it is glorious. The increase of attractions to draw the attention of the people, the growing spirit of worldliness, the extreme striving after riches, the restlessness of travel in this, the age of automobiles, all tend to a neglect of church attendance and Christian duty. The call of the hour is to meet all this with an intensified earnestness, a deeper concentration of mind and consecration of heart in calling the people to repentance and a new life. The great present need is for a world-wide awakening that shall bring men to an acceptance of Christ, the Savior. Then and then only can we hope for the world's abiding peace and the day-dawn of a "new heaven and a new earth."

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference.
Dear Fathers and Brethren:

One year ago the pastors of Champaign district went forth bearing precious seed. Today they return bringing their sheaves with them. This hour it is my high privilege to speak a good word for these noble men.

One Change in Appointment

H. M. Ingram, who had been appointed to the Weedman charge, was permitted to return to the Quincy district, and Lewis Campbell, a supernumerary residing at Clinton, has supplied Weedman.

Convocations

The General Committee on Home Missions and Church Extension met at First Church, Champaign, October 25-31, inclusive. The visit of this body of notable churchmen was a benediction to the city and district.

On Thursday of the same week and in the same church the pastors and district stewards of Champaign, Danville and Mattoon districts met in joint session. Dr. H. C. Gibbs presided. Our honored resident Bishop, W. F. McDowell; Dr. D. D. Forsyth, Superintendent of Denver District, Colorado; Dr. J. O. Randall, Secretary of the Commission on Evangelism, and Drs. F. A. McCarty, C. F. Buker and J. W. VanCleve of our Conference, were the instructive and inspiring speakers.

The Ministerial Association, prevented by an epidemic of scarlet fever from meeting as planned in Urbana, was entertained, as it was last year, at Paxton. Drs. L. O. Hartman and H. C. Wilson conducted a Sunday School Institute and Drs. F. B. Fisher and F. W. Hixon an Institute on the work of the Finance Commission of the church. The program adopted at the Methodist Men's Convention at Indianapolis was stressed in both the autumn and the spring district meetings, and the New Financial Plan has been introduced in whole or in part in several charges. Whenever efficiently worked the results have justified the plan. Other charges will adopt the plan for the new year.

The annual gathering of the district Epworth League was at Rantoul on June 18 and 19. The splendid home-talent program was enriched by the messages of cheer and vision brought by Dr. H. V. Holt, of Wheaton, Rev. Ralph A. Ward, of China, and Rev. Oscar M. Buck, of India. The reports showed a membership of nearly 1,500, who take 452 Epworth Heralds, maintain 15 classes in Bible Study and the same number in Mission study and contribute for local work $837.00, for institutional Mercy and Help work, $1,306.00; for the west China University Fund, $1,100.00, and for other benevolences, $241.00. Rev. E. L. Pletcher was re-elected president, an honor merited by his efficient leadership.

The Wesley Foundation

December 18, 1913, will stand as a historic day in the calendar of the Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois. That day the first Board of Trustees, elect, met and organized. Bishop W. F. McDowell was elected president, Rev. J. S. Dancy, of Chicago, secretary, and Rev. C. B. Taylor, of Urbana, treasurer. The work and records of the Commission on work among Methodist students at the University of Illinois, and composed of representatives of the four Conferences in Illinois, were turned over to the Board of Trustees of the Wesley Foundation and the Commission ceased to exist. Rev. G. E. McCammon was formally elected Executive Secretary of the Foundation. The charter and other legal papers were disposed with the custodian, Judge F. H. Boggs, of Urbana. A committee on by-laws was appointed and an executive committee pro tem. The inauguration of the new administration was auspicious and prophetic.

A second meeting of the Board of Trustees was held June 15, 1914. By-laws were adopted, reports received and plans made. J. W. VanCleve, J. C. Baker, F. H. Boggs, R. A. Stipes and F. B. Madden were elected an executive committee. The annual report of the Board of Trustees will be presented through the Committee on Education.

Let me urge upon the pastors of the Conference the importance, the imperative necessity, of sending the names of all prospective Methodist students of the University of Illinois to Rev. J. C. Baker, pastor of Trinity church, Urbana. Dr. Baker and his assistants desire to write letters of welcome to these boys and girls before they leave home, to meet them at the train with a cordial greeting, and to enlist them at once in the social and spiritual activities of the church. This is the initial purpose of the Wesley Foundation and the pastor who neglects to write this letter is recreant to the weal of the student, Church and the Wesleyan Foundation.

Material Improvements

The new church dedicated at Rankin last year has recently been frescoed at a cost of $200. At the Pleasant Grove appointment on the Rankin charge a well appointed, modern country church was dedicated on Sunday, May 3, by the District Superintendent. Rev. W. F. Hunter, the pastor, Rev. H. F. Cusic, a former pastor, and Rev. E. L. Pletcher participated in the services of the day. The cost of the building, $5,000, is all provided for and nearly all paid. The day of dedication was the 90th birthday of Mrs. Jane Patten, whose generosity made possible the building. This elect mother in Israel presented the Church for dedication and was the happy recipient of 90 American Beauty roses.

Rev. J. O. Lehman has successfully led his heroic little band at Savoy in a needed remodeling enterprise at a cost of $1,200. The Church was raised 18 inches, the foundation repaired, a dining room and kitchen provided and the interior frescoed. The money from the burned Wesley Chapel on this charge was applied on the expense and the balance has been paid by the society and its friends. At the re-opening on August 16th, Professor J. S. Mosier, of the University of Illinois, gave a very suggestive address on the mission of the Rural Church. The District Superintendent preached at the morning service and in the evening the pastor gave one of his popular illustrated sermons. This historic charge had its first church destroyed by a cyclone before it was completed. Its second church and first parsonage were burned at the same time. It now has a good parsonage and a well equipped church, and, notwithstanding the recent loss of Brother W. H. Wisegarver and other benevolent supporters, it may again, as it did for years, lead the charges of the Conference in per capita giving for benevolences. Brother Lehman has also succeeded in effecting a joint-pastorate for next year of the Savoy Methodist Episcopal Church and the Prairieview Presbyterian Church, which will doubtless be greatly to the advantage of both Societies.

Two years ago Prairie Chapel was given over to birds and bats. Today it is a neatly repaired, painted and frescoed rural church on the Seymour charge. Last fall the pastor, Rev. H. F. Powell, and his wife, visited from house to house while for three weeks they conducted a revival that resulted in 50 conversions. Prairie Chapel now has an active membership and an efficient Sunday School and Epworth League.

The Seymour Church has recently been frescoed, completing the remodeling so skillfully begun last year by Rev. J. W. Armstrong. The work done at Seymour and Prairie Chapel cost $600.00 and is paid for.

The Enterprise Church on the Cisco charge has been renovated at a cost of $1,100 and the Cisco parsonage repaired and painted at a cost of $100.00. Pastor Hartley has the work paid for.

De Land remodeled its church basement at an expense of $800.00. Mahomet Church has been repaired and refrescoed at a cost of $465.00. Thomasboro Church has been renovated at a cost of $130.00.

Early this spring it was discovered that the roof on Trinity Church, Urbana, was spreading, owing to a defect in construction. The defect has been remedied, the building refrescoed and relighted at a cost of $1,350.00.

Rev. D. F. Nelson, of Maine, has signalized his first year in our Conference by the erection of a $5,000.00 modern parsonage at Fithian. The house is almost finished and nearly paid for.

Rev. A. B. Peck has improved the Monticello parsonage at a cost of $500.00. It now has a furnace and a new coat of paint.

Sidney spent $75.00 on its parsonage; Philo, $78.00; Trinity, Urbana, $250.00.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have raised $10,267.00.

There has been paid on old indebtedness as follows: Champaign, $5,000; Paxton, $1,100; Philo, $101.00; Urbana First Church, $900; Pesotum, $950; St. Joseph, $400.00.

Sunday, August 30th, Rev. E. L. Fletcher and the Methodists of Gibson City realized the fulfillment of their fond dreams in the dedication of their new sanctuary. Dr. J. C. Nate pronounces this Church the most perfect edifice architecturally in the Illinois Conference. Others are larger and more expensive, but there is none more artistic nor more complete in its appointments. The building is 100 feet long and 60 feet wide and rises to a height of 60 feet. The walls are of dark vitrified brick, handsomely trimmed with white Bedford limestone. The cost, including organ and furniture, is $33,000, which, with the lots, give a valuation of $35,000. On the day of dedication $16,000 were subscribed to cover all obligations. Drs. H. V. Holt, of Wheaton, and F. A. McCarty, of Jacksonville, preached the dedicatory sermons. In the money raising Dr. Holt was ably assisted by the pastor and a number of visiting ministers, among whom were two of our honored Conference field-secretaries, Robert Stephens and J. C. Nate. Rev. Presley P. Carson, the pastor's immediate predecessor, presided at the afternoon service. At ten o'clock Sunday evening the doxology was sung because the needed money had been subscribed and the building was formally dedicated by the District Superintendent.

These material improvements represent a total investment of $58,349.00, of which $36,349.00 have been paid. Against Church property valued at $658,000.00 there is an indebtedness of only $33,000.00.

Pastoral Support

The increase in Quarterly Conference allowance for pastoral support is $1,800, which makes an increase of $9,080 in five years. The increase this year is: Champaign, $400; Farmer City, $200; Seymour, $250; Cisco, Fithian, Gibson City, Rankin, $100 each; Savoy, $150, and Trinity, Urbana, $500. The total salary allowed by Quarterly Conference action is $41,450. Rev. R. O. Wyland, of the Champaign Circuit, receives, in addition to his salary at Mt. Vernon Church, $400 from Fifth Street Mission, Champaign, and $150 from Jersey Presbyterian Church. Add these sums and $400 of Domestic Missionary money and the 33 pastors, if paid in full, will receive $42,300; an average cash salary of $1,280. If the rental value of the parsonages, $6,680, be added, the average salary would be $1,484.24.

Benevolences

The total for the Disciplinary benevolences is $20,853, a gain of $1,310. Of the charges having a gain the largest increases are: Champaign, $441; Urbana Trinity, $390; Fisher, $138; Bellflower, $148; Champaign Circuit, $103; Tolono, $95; Philo, $123; Gifford & Penfield, $150; Urbana First, $133; Rantoul, $149.

Four charges gave the same as last year. Ten charges gave less than they did last year. The decrease in these charges is $740. Were it not for this decrease, the increase in the district would have been $2,050.

Under the Educational Forward Movement nineteen charges have given on the special gift plan subscriptions totaling $12,650 for the Endowment of the Illinois Wesleyan University.

Advocates

The pastors report 631 subscribers for the Advocates as against 656 last year.

Membership

Conversions and reclamations, 602. Received into full membership, 542. Received from other denominations, 104. Net gain in membership, 499. Four charges report a total decrease of 37. The number of baptized children enrolled as probationers is 196. Several charges report only one or two and some report none. These figures would seem to indicate that either the pastors are grossly careless in enrolling and shepherding the baptized children, or else that our Methodist parents are criminally negligent in consecrating their infant children to God and placing them through baptism in covenant relation with the church. The children on the cradle roll of the Sunday School should also be on the record of church membership as probationers by virtue of infant baptism.

While the number of reported conversions is not large it is true that a majority of the pastors held special service and some of them toiled faithfully in the face of great odds. Of the pastors who were their own evangelists Brothers Judy, Powell and Wyland had the largest ingatherings. Deland had a gracious revival under the leadership of Evangelist Thomas. In a number of other churches the life of the membership was quickened and deepened by the special services.

While in two or three charges the visible results are meager indeed, yet a survey of the activities of the Sunday Schools, the Epworth Leagues, the women's organizations and the work and offerings of the congregations evidence a normal growth of the Kingdom of God in the district. And for this we render devout thanksgiving to the great Head of the Church.

F. B. Madden.

DANVILLE DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

It is now my duty to make mention of the doings and happenings in the Danville District as they relate to Methodism and the Kingdom of God. It gives me pleasure to report a prosperous year and progress in almost all lines of Church Endeavor.

Pastoral Changes

The brethren without exception accepted their assignments to their various fields of labor last fall without question and promptly took up their work to which they had been appointed by Bishop McDowell.

While in one or two instances there has been severe sickness in the families of the preachers, in the Providence of God, death has invaded no parsonage in the district.

In June Rev. C. R. Williamson, pastor at Vermilion Heights and a probationer in the Conference, was transferred to the West Ohio Conference, and Rev. M. A. Madsen, a student from Garrett Biblical Institute, took up his work and has rendered good service.

In this connection I may mention that Rev. E. M. Jeffers, who has rendered thirty-two years of faithful and devoted service in the Illinois Conference, will ask to be placed upon the retired list at this session of the Conference.

Material Improvements

November 23d of the present Conference year the church at Allerton was re-opened, having been enlarged and fitted up with a commodious gallery and basement for the needs of the flourishing Sunday School, and since has been re-seated with seats of modern pattern, all at a cost of about $4,000.00. Rev. A. A. White, pastor at Tuscola, preached with great profit to the people on the day of re-opening.

December 21st, the Church at Indianola, of which Rev. O. D. Ross is the pastor, was also reopened, having been repapered, redecorated and re-carpeted and provided with new furnace, all at a cost of about $2,000.00.

The Pleasant Grove Church on the Murdock work under the direction of Rev. J. R. McBride has been greatly improved and now presents a neat appearance and has been made a comfortable place for worship.

Rev. J. W. Stoddy, the pastor at Bismarck, donned his overalls and wrought with his own hands, leading the men of Alvin in making repairs long needed, and improvements which have greatly enhanced the value of the property at that place.

June 9th, a new Church costing $3,000.00 was dedicated at West Ridge on the Camargo work. The finances had been so well managed that upon dedication day no collection was taken.

At Hoopeston the pastor, Rev. W. L. Ewing, has been busy this summer, superintending the remodeling of his Church, so as to better accommodate the largest Sunday School in Danville District. This Church has also been re-decorated and improved until it is one of the most beautiful and convenient in the District.

At Villa Grove, Rev. J. T. Stretton has been confronted with the problem of how to take care of the large and flourishing Sunday School, since the building was altogether too small to accommodate the scholars. The Board of Trustees determined to solve the problem for him by enlarging the Church building at a cost of $9,000.00.

For many years the people at East Lynn have greatly needed a new Church. The pastor, Rev. E. L. Tobie, has preached, exhorted and prayed to this end. After many months of earnest endeavor he now rejoices in the fact that the contract has been let for a new church building, which, when finished, will cost in the neighborhood of $12,800.00.

While the pastor, Rev. Wilbert Dowson, is here attending Conference, the decorators are busy putting Lincoln Church, Danville, in order for his return.

Evangelism

While we are able to report material progress and added values in Church property on the District, we are pleased to report that many of the pastors have been equally successful in revival campaigns.

During the holiday season Rev. J. W. Stooddy, at Bismarck, and Rev. C. R. Williamson, pastor at Vermilion Heights, both students at Garrett Biblical Institute, led in meetings which resulted in about fifty new converts. These brethren were ably assisted by Rev. M. N. English, pastor First Church, Danville; Rev. Preston Wood, pastor Kimber Church, and Rev. Wilbert Dowson, pastor Lincoln Church.

Rev. J. T. Stretton, pastor Villa Grove, and Rev. M. E. Ault, pastor at Hume, were assisted in their meetings last winter by Miss Caffrey, an evangelist of winning ways and deep vital piety. Both meetings were characterized by pungent conviction and thorough work and resulted in about 150 conversions at each place.

Evangelist Hugh Knowles assisted the pastor at Newman, Rev. J. L. Settles, in a meeting which wonderfully quickened the church and resulted in 110 souls confessing Christ.

During the month of June Evangelist Hugh Knowles also assisted Rev. M. E. Porter, pastor of the McKinley Church, Danville, in a very profitable meeting. A building known as the car-barn was secured, and fitted up for this work. The east side of Danville became wonderfully interested in the meetings. About 300 professed conversions and all of the Churches on the east side of the city profited greatly by it. The McKinley Church has added eighty-five new members, having been greatly strengthened and taken on new life. They are asking for a resident pastor next year, and expect to raise the salary $300.00 for the new pastor, and have the benevolences in full pledged for the coming year. No Church in the District has made a better showing this year than has McKinley.

Rev. A. S. Maxey, pastor at Georgetown, assisted Rev. Reynolds at Edgar in a meeting which resulted in great good to the community and added many souls to the Church.

Rev. D. L. McGiffin assisted Rev. J. R. Warlick, pastor at Henning, in a meeting of unusual interest. About fifty souls accepted Christ.

Evangelist Ross assisted the pastor, Rev. E. S. Vorbeck, in a meeting at Wallace Chapel on the Potomac Charge, which resulted in great good to that rural community, greatly strengthening the Church there.

Weak Churches

What to do with the weak country churches is still a serious problem which presses for solution. There are many such country churches where the greater part of the financial support has been taken to the nearby town and these churches have been practically abandoned for the want of adequate support. Yet there are left many people who cannot and will not attend the town church. And there are many children in these communities, which must grow up without any religious training, unless something is done to revive these abandoned churches.

In some instances this problem has approached solution in the Danville District by the nearby stationed pastor interesting himself in this work.

Under this head I make mention of Ames Chapel near Homer, which has run down. The people seemed to have lost interest and no regular services had been held for some time. Rev. M. M. Want in addition to his work at Homer has found time to help these people. The church building has been repaired, Sunday School has been established and since harvest a revival has been held, resulting in the quickening of the Church and the salvation of souls.

Rev. Adams, pastor at Sidell, has done a similar work at Hildreth.

Rev. H. M. Derby, pastor at Chrisman, has also acted supply for the Church at Cherry Point, in addition to his regular station work.

New Work

A new church has been started at Central Park. Central Park is located on the interurban about half way between Danville and Westville. Some of you will remember that Westville is the town where the temperance worker, Patmont, was kidnaped, the place where it is said the Postmaster ought to know thirty-seven different languages in order to intelligently hand out the mail to his patrons. Central Park is also in the vicinity of Lyons, where is located the round-house, and the freight yards of the Cairo division of the N. Y. Central R. R. Co. The town of Heggler, where is located a large zinc smelter, and which employs a large force of men, is within walking distance of Central Park. This community is destined at some day to be a strong and flourishing town. Until recently Methodism has had no Church here.

Not long ago a good woman, belonging to the Kimber Church, removed to Central Park, became interested in the spiritual needs of the people, which resulted in a house to house canvass of the community, after which a vacant store room was rented and a revival meeting of great interest was held. This meeting was conducted mainly by the Danville pastors, Preston Wood, M. N. English and Wilbert Dowson, and resulted in twenty-five converts, and the organization of the church of forty-two members. Steps have already been taken to secure lots with a view to erecting a church building at some time in the near future.

Reform Work

In many towns and villages the morals of the community are menaced by the illicit sale of intoxicating liquors. These towns are dry in name only. The boot-legger and the petty gambler get in their work and undermine the moral foundations of these communities. In some places but little attention is paid to these things, and these men carry on their destructive work unmolested, making the law a farce and leading hundreds of young men to ruin. At Chrisman, Rev. H. M. Derby has been making himself felt in this direction of law and order, teaching some of these scoundrels and law-breakers to have greater respect for the village ordinances.

In the local option fight last spring the preachers of Danville and vicinity gave good account of themselves and have helped to bring the day of victory nearer to saloon ridden Danville.

Benevolences

On account of the drought which has prevailed in some parts of the District for this, the second year, and the stringency of the money market, many of the pastors complain that the benevolent reports are not what they had hoped for. However, where the new financial system has been thoroughly inaugurated and enthusiastically worked the collections will show quite an increase, and it is confidently hoped that the effect of the new financial system will greatly increase the offerings of the people of this District, the coming year.

I come to the close of this Conference year with the profound conviction that never has there been a time in the history of Methodism when the real preacher is more greatly needed. The real preacher is the man whose chief desire is for men, to reach the soul, the seat of all their joys and sorrows, the source of all their ambitions and purposes. It is not oratory we need, not more literature, not more science, but more men endowed with power from on high—self denying men, wise men, loving men, real men of God.

H. C. Gibbs.

DECATUR DISTRICT

In the beginning of this, my third Annual Report, I wish, on behalf of myself and his brethren, to render thanks to God for the extraordinary manner in which our lives and health have been spared throughout the year. The only case of noticeable illness in the effective ranks was that of that sturdy warrior, Dr. Horace Reed, who was halted for a little while by a stroke of paralysis, but whose indomitable spirit soon put him on his feet. No parsonage threshold has been darkened by the shadow of death. The only death which touched us, as a Conference, was that of Mrs. M. D. Hawes, the honored widow of one of our most honored men. After long months of continuous and increasing suffering, she found an end of pain in the great and final "rest that remaineth for the people of God."

For the most part the pastors appointed a year ago have faithfully continued their work throughout the year. A very few changes are to be noted. Very shortly after Conference I took the liberty of removing J. C. Ewing from Butler and appointing him to La Place and Lake City, and of appointing J. M. Eldredge to Butler. The results have justified both appointments. Some difficulty was experienced in finding a man for Millersville, but, about December 1st, Joseph Hallam, who had been serving a charge in Wisconsin, was secured and has rendered strong service.

H. M. Peterson, who was appointed to supply Lintner charge, was so hampered by repeated illnesses among his father's family, two of which resulted fatally, that he was at length compelled to give up the work, and the charge was supplied for the latter half of the year by Leon A. Morrison. In July J. D. Butler, pastor of Cadwell, was offered a charge in New Jersey, which would enable him to realize an ardent desire for a course in Drew Theological Seminary. The condition of receiving the charge was immediate acceptance, so I released him, and appointed M. P. Wilkin to fill the vacancy. In June serious complaints affecting the character of W. O. Roush, pastor of Warrensburg, were brought to me. These developed into a situation which compelled the summoning of a committee. The result was that Brother Roush delivered his parchments into my hands, and at the proper time they will be presented with suitable recommendation for your action.

The usual District meetings were this year unusual meetings. The meeting of the District Stewards was called so as to fall at the time of the meeting of the General Committee on Foreign Missions which met in Decatur. The mere presence of this body, including in its membership so many men of weight in the world-councils of the Kingdom of God, was of itself an outlook and an inspiration. The marvel is that some of our ministers and many of our laymen seemed wholly to miss its significance. The men from the various mission fields were evidently picked men and gave a good account of themselves through a wide scope of territory. The Methodism of Decatur, under the worthy leadership of the Pastors of our two great churches in that city, maintained its high reputation for the fit entertaining of great gatherings. We put our District Stewards into the midst of this, and, in addition to the other good things going, we drafted Bishop Luccock for one of his breezy, delightful discourses.

The Ministerial Association in March was pronounced "the best ever." We enlarged our borders and invited the laymen in on equal terms and an unusual number came. Two days were spent in an Efficiency Conference, in which Sunday Schools, Evangelism and the new Financial Plan held the boards. Especial interest centered in the new Financial Plan of which more will be said later.

The District Epworth League Convention was held in Lovington, June 16-18. The attendance and interest were the best in recent years. Addresses of high rank were delivered by Drs. E. M. Antrim, of Decatur, R. H. Schuett, of Champaign, and Joshua Stansfield, of Indianapolis.

The true measure of the year, however, is not its peaks, but its sea levels, and we descend to more common-place things. In the care and improvement of our property interests some slight progress has been made. Early in the year, the new Church at Maroa was dedicated by Bishop Quayle. About $5,500 indebtedness still remained on the building. This was speedily subscribed on the day of dedication, whereupon Mr. J. H. Parker donated a fine $2,900 Austin organ. At Cadwell and at Grace Church, Decatur, parsonages have been purchased. Along in the middle of the summer, our church at Long Creek was totally destroyed by fire. The Trustees proceeded to collect the insurance and to plan for a church larger and more commodious and complete. The abandoned church at Emery has been torn down and the material used for an addition to the church at Forsyth, giving that building additional room and convenience. At Harristown and at Prairie Chapel on the Oconee charge, basements with new furnaces. Other improvements at Assumption, at First Church, Decatur; at Hillsboro, at Illiopolis, at Irving, at Lakewood, at Lovington, at Moweaqua, at Niantic, at Owaneco, at Stonington, at Warrensburg, and at Witt, will bring the total amount spent for improvements in property up to about $9,000. At the same time debts have been decreased at Assumption, $1,200; at Cowden, $300; at First Church, Decatur, $500; at Hammond, $250; at Hillsboro, $125; at La Place, $225; at Lovington, $300; at Maroa, $1,200; at Moweaqua, $450; at Stonington, $175. At Assumption, First Church, Decatur, and Lovington these sums paid on old indebtedness are simply steps in movements which involve the complete extinction of the debts in these churches.

Only a few of the pastors' salaries have been advanced, but, in spite of last year's drought, none are decreased. The points of increase were: Cadwell, $75; Decatur, First, $400; Lovington, $120; Moweaqua, $150; Owaneco, $400; Pana, $100; Stonington, $100; Witt, $100; a total of $1,445. The pro-rating of ministerial support was less successful. In spite of my admonitions, the following Official Boards took money belonging to the Conference Claimants and paid it to me, to the following amounts: Atwood, $2.00; Bethany, $2.00; Hammond, $3.60; Harristown, $2.70; Irving, $3.00; Sanner Chapel, $1.00; making a total of $14.30, the amount for which I will hand a check to the Treasurer. Other charges report me as apparently paid in full, where I am not really so, but the deficiency is due to an error in bookkeeping, so I pass it by.

Constant effort has been made toward the improvement of business methods in the management of church finances. From careful observation I am persuaded that we suffer a considerable financial leakage of small sums unaccounted for through carelessness in our accounts. I am insisting that the auditing committees shall do their work, that they shall demand of treasurers receipts for all money paid out and that they shall call attention to all defects and irregularities in our methods of doing business and especially that the practice of having money paid to the preachers anywhere, by anybody, shall give way to the practice of having all moneys pass through the hands of a treasurer.

An extensive survey of the District which had been planned last year was not successfully put through for two reasons. I found an incredibly large number of Official Boards, who apparently were not interested in a definite knowledge of the respective tasks, and who were unwilling to search out the actual conditions and needs of their several communities. They are content with a kind of respectable jogging along with just enough of religious interest to get the bills paid. Their problem seems to be, how shall we save the Church, and not how shall the Church save the community. Upon this situation came the concentration of attention and effort upon the new Financial Plan. The notion of the survey has not been abandoned, but is simply in suspension.

Extraordinary effort has been put upon the new Financial Plan. It has been urged in every Quarterly Conference; it has been presented in many of the congregations; it has been adopted by nearly every charge in the District, and has been actually worked by some. In some cases, the fixed purpose appeared to be, not to get the best results of the plan, but to make sure that there should be no increase of giving. In every charge where the plan has been faithfully worked out it has resulted in both financial and spiritual advance. The Benevolences have been touched incidentally in their relation to this plan. But in spite of the second drought which has fallen with especial weight upon the southern half of the Conference, the returns thus far received indicate gains all along the line except in the matter of the Educational Forward Movement, which will show some decrease from the great advance of last year, but this will be more than offset by the increase in special gifts to education.

The pressure upon the work of evangelization has been maintained, with the view of emphasizing no special method, but of insisting upon the use of every method, so that we may, "by all means", save some. We rejoice in the signal illustration of the efficiency both of revivalism and of continuous evangelism within the District this year. It is suggestive too that each of the charges which has scored a great success, Garrett in revival effort and Cerro Gordo in the more continuous work, has in a measure combined both methods. Successful revivals were held at Arthur, Hillsboro, Irving, Maroa, Millersville, Niantic and Witt, aggregating about 500 conversions, but the whole number of conversions in the District is about 800, an increase of 200 over the preceding years, while the number of accessions reported is 996, and this is incomplete. Many of these represent simply changes of residence. I am persuaded that we ought to have a rule which will secure an automatic transfer of membership with change of residence. The only plea entered against this is the loss of financial support from the local Church. No plea has been advanced in behalf of the kingdom of God or of the spiritual interests of the individual. There are at least two points in the Decatur District where we have contributed to build up some other Church than our own, when we might have had strong Churches of our own had such a rule been in force.

We record with great thankfulness the success of our spring campaign against the saloons. Decatur is now the largest dry city in the Conference, and the law is being enforced with increasing vigor and rigor. The plan of campaign is:

Mental suasion for the man who thinks.

Moral suasion for the man who drinks.

Legal suasion for the drunkard-maker.

Prison suasion for the statute-breaker.

Witt, a polyglot town, where we have the only Greek Catholic Church in the Illinois Conference, is the only oasis in the wide and arid wastes which the thirsty pilgrim must traverse in search for liquid refreshment. We hope to dry up this one wet spot the very next time we get a chance at it.

"There remaineth very much land to be possessed," but, in the name of our God and King, we are going to possess it, believing that we are well able to overcome it.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

One year ago Bishop McDowell assigned twenty-nine men to the Jacksonville District. With these went up also seven other heroic men who were Supplies. These have all wrought valiantly. Three charges were left without pastors, viz.: Waverly Circuit, Greenfield Circuit and Manchester. On account of certain pressing conditions on the Waverly Circuit, Brother E. J. Campbell was reappointed to this charge. There was a decided advance in salary, and a new parsonage purchased. He has had a happy year.

Brother W. G. Pulliam of the Northwest Indiana Conference was secured, and appointed to Bath by the Bishop. He has justified the fine representation made by his former Superintendent, and has handled a difficult situation in a masterly way.

Greenfield Circuit was supplied by Brother Harold Hartman, son of Brother T. F. Hartman, of our Conference. One of the earliest achievements of Pastor Hartman was to take unto himself a wife. He has had a good year, and would return were it not for the fact that he desires to attend school. He comes up for admission on trial this year.

Brother R. C. Myers, of the Southern Illinois Conference, was transferred and appointed to Manchester, where he has served so acceptably that his people will hear of no change this year.

The District work was launched by the Annual Fall meeting early in October. This was again held in connection with the Founders' Day Exercises at the Woman's College. Dr. W. F. Sheridan was the guest, and gave delightful and helpful addresses at both meetings.

Building Enterprises.

Bluffs completed their fine, new, modern parsonage in time for Brother Beebe and family to move into, upon their arrival. It will be a joy to succeeding pastors. Brother Beebe comes to us from the New Hampshire Conference. He has done an excellent year's work under trying circumstances.

On November 16th, the beautiful new church at Franklin was dedicated by Bishop Quayle. The church with furnishings cost $24,000. The entire amount needed on dedication day, $12,000, was raised in forty minutes, and more than half of it was paid in by noon on Monday, and nearly all the balance was paid in before Conference. Pastor Kittel and his efficient Board deserve great credit.

The Church at Alexander was destroyed by fire last year. The members were much discouraged, even doubting their ability to rebuild. However, Pastor Johnson thought differently, and led his people in a heroic campaign which resulted in building a handsome, well equipped brick church, costing $10,000, which is a joy to the entire community. The cornerstone was laid late in October. The church was dedicated April 26, by Dr. W. J. Davidson, of Evanston, a member of our Conference. The Board needed $2,000 to clear the building of debt. $2,700 was raised at the morning service. Brother Johnson is unanimously invited back for his sixth year.

Virginia has builded an addition to the parsonage, and made other repairs costing over $1,000. As noted above, Waverly Circuit purchased a parsonage, which has been paid for, and Waverly station made parsonage repairs. Rockbridge has painted the parsonage, and made extensive improvements on the church building, including painting inside and out, and putting in new art glass windows, and will have it all done in time to welcome the new preacher.

Rubison on the Greenfield Circuit redecorated the inside of the church, and Pastor Hartman is challenging the Conference to produce a prettier country church. Berdan boasts of a new barn replacing the one which burned.

In all these building and improvement enterprises the Ladies' Aid Societies were conspicuous, and rendered valued assistance. However, it is a great mistake to value the Ladies' Aid by the dollar mark. Valuable as is their money, the greatest contribution they make to the Church is not financial, but their contribution to the social life, and the hospitable spirit of the Church.

Revival

Revival fires have burned brightly in some charges. Would that they had blazed in all. Our Jacksonville churches joined heartily in the Rees union meetings in September. The results were not as large as hoped. Beardstown, Carrollton, Franklin, Astoria, Fairview, Lynnville, Bluff Springs, Meredosia, Murrayville, White Hall and Riggston have enjoyed seasons of refreshing. In most cases the pastors held their own meetings, or assisted each other, a plan greatly to be commended. More and more the pastors are urging upon their people the spirit of continuous evangelism. This plan of steadily building the Church brings permanent results.

The New Financial Plan

Fourteen charges put on the "Every Member Canvass" for the Benevolences, and saved the day for our drought stricken District. So successful has the plan been that these charges have, or will, put on this canvass for both the Current Expense and Benevolent Budgets for the coming year. The Official Boards are delighted with the way the plan works, and it should become the plan of all our charges in the near future. Our experience has demonstrated that the plan should be carefully followed in all its details. In almost every case where the plan has been modified, it has been weakened at that point.

Illinois Woman's College

Again the Woman's College rejoices to report the greatest year in every way in its history. The unsurpassed health record, the fine moral tone and religious atmosphere, and the quality of the work done, bespeak the unique physical, spiritual and intellectual conditions of the college. For more than twenty years this college kept out of the field for endowment, giving other causes and institutions the right of way. This led its friends to feel it did not need endowment. But, thanks to church legislation which compelled it to secure $100,000 endowment by last year, and requires it to double that amount by 1916, the Conference and the church have been awakened to this crying need. The campaign of last year resulted in wiping out an indebtedness of $80,000, and in providing for $100,000 endowment. This has been mostly paid.

General

The State Institute of the Epworth League was held in Jacksonville in August. It was a great Institute from the standpoint of faculty, and work done, but the attendance was quite disappointing.

It is gratifying to see some indications pointing toward longer pastorates, a consummation devoutly to be wished for. Four men signified their desire to move, but were invited back so heartily and unanimously by their Quarterly Conferences that they all return gladly. This is as it should be. There is a spirit of restlessness among both the laity and ministry that greatly handicaps our work. The preacher's work is to build the church, and this is not done spasmodically. It requires continued, persistent, well planned effort. Our greatest failure in the revival has not been in the revival itself, but in the unwillingness to stay by the results and skillfully build them into the Church life. Today it will not answer that the preacher hold the stated services, conduct the regulation revival, visit so many homes, and say, "Well done." The real pastor must study his church, and his field, learn the real needs, and settle down to a campaign to accomplish certain definite results. It may be objected that our system is not conducive to this kind of pastorates, since one may be moved any year. However, the objection is not valid. I am convinced that neither Bishop, Cabinet nor Official Board is inclined to disturb the pastorate of a preacher who has a real program and who is doing the job.

It is with gratitude to God that we record that the health of the pastors and their families has been good for the most part. The fellowship and the cordial welcome into the parsonage homes have not been among the least of the joys of the year's work.

F. A. McCarty.

MATTOON DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

We welcome you and the members of the Illinois Conference for the second time to the beautiful and hospitable city of Shelbyville.

At the last session of our Conference Bishop McDowell appointed twenty-eight men to charges in the Mattoon District, six supplies were announced. W. A. Schell was transferred from the Indiana Conference and stationed on the Kansas circuit and has done a good year's work. J. E. Willey was transferred back to the Southern Illinois Conference and F. C. Fulford of the Montana Conference was secured for the Shelbyville circuit. A. B. Cochnower was secured for the Marshall circuit and J. C. Robinette for the Redmon charge.

J. T. Carson was transferred to Colorado and Geo. Winters was secured for Toledo. H. E. Crane was transferred to one of the Kansas Conferences and E. S. Wamsley has supplied the Paris circuit.

It is with gratitude to God that I record the fact that death has not entered any parsonage home on this district this year.

One of our honored veterans, Rev. R. H. Osborne, passed to his reward December 24, 1913. Brother Osborne was a good man, thoroughly devoted to the Lord and the church. His active ministry extended over a period of only about ten years, but during that brief ministry more than one thousand persons were led into the kingdom through his instrumentality. He was active in the work of the church at Neoga, where he resided, and faithful in attendance of the services of the church.

Visit of Two of Our Chief Pastors

We are grateful to God that He did not have need for Bishop McDowell in heaven just at present and that He left him with us for a while longer. We greatly appreciated his visit to our district on November 9th when he preached in First Church, Mattoon. On the same date "our own" Bishop Robert McIntyre preached in First Church, Charleston. We can truthfully call Bishop McIntyre our own, for he began his ministry in this Conference, and two of his appointments were within the Mattoon District—Marshall and Charleston.

District Gatherings

On January 2, 1914, about thirty of the ministers and twenty of the laymen of the district met in First Church, Charleston, for an afternoon and evening meeting in the interest of evangelism and the new Financial Plan. Dr. U. G. Leazenby, of the Crawfordville District, Indiana Conference, was the chief speaker and proved of great value in the presentation of the new Financial Plan. The Spirit's presence was manifest in a marked degree from the opening till the close of the Conference.

March 5th and 6th a Sunday School and Church Efficiency Institute was held in First Church, Martinsville. Revs. L. O. Hartman and H. C. Wilson did effective work as leaders of the Sunday School end of the program. Drs. Fred Fisher and F. W. Hixson proved themselves experts in the field of a more effective financial policy for the church.

These gatherings with a large attendance of the ministers and laymen at the great Indianapolis convention greatly helped in an effective year's work on the district.

Young People's Work

Faithful and quite effective work has been done among the young people of the district through the Epworth League with Mr. Charles Athey as head of that department. The annual convention at Westfield was fully up to par. Dr. M. S. Rice and Kingsley Pease were among the chief speakers at this meeting.

Property

On February 22d our First Church at Charleston was burned. The congregation, though somewhat discouraged, immediately took steps toward rebuilding. Pastor Caseley and his noble band of officials led in a canvass which resulted in a large subscription. If the plans of the pastor and officials succeed we will have a new experience in Methodism—no money to raise on dedication day.

March 8th a fine new $10,000 church was dedicated at Redmon, with Rev. W. D. Parr in charge of the finances. This is one of the most complete churches on the district. The people of Redmon are to be commended for the success of this building enterprise.

A new parsonage has been purchased for the use of the pastor on the Martinsville circuit. D. A. Shuck has had a successful year's work on this charge.

Improvements on church and parsonage property are as follows: More than $700 expended on the Salem and Fair Grange churches on the Charleston circuit; $2,500 on First Church, Mattoon; $350 on the Etna charge; $1,400 on the Findlay circuit; $120 on the Brocton charge; $60 on the Bruce Church, Windsor circuit; $700 on the Grandview Church; $90 on the Greenup charge; $500 on the Casey Church; $1,200 old indebtedness paid on the Oakland Church.

Mattoon Memorial Hospital

This institution continues its blessed ministry to the bodies of men and women and is deserving of the hearty support of every member of this Conference. The past year has been a good one for the hospital; 383 patients were admitted, free service rendered to 45 patients, free work amounted to more than $1,000 and there are ten nurses in training. Owing to inability to dispose of the farm belonging to the hospital, the trustees have been unable to erect a much needed building.

Mattoon in the Dry Column

One of the decisive battles in the nation-wide fight against the liquor traffic was fought in the city of Mattoon last spring and I am glad to report that the enemy was dealt a crushing blow from which I trust he will never recover in that city. And, as usual, the Methodist preacher and the Methodist people were in the front ranks during the fight. The work of the women is worthy of special mention. We talk of the bravery of men on the battlefield, but it is not to be compared with the bravery of a company of women who will leave their homes by daylight on the morning of election day and in the face of many obstacles stand by the guns through all the day fighting for God and home and native land.

The New Financial Plan

Remembering that the year 1914 was to be given throughout the church to emphasizing the new Financial Plan we have made this one of the big things of the year's work. I have personally presented the matter more than sixty times, this includes the presentation to the Quarterly Conferences and to the individual churches. The district was subdivided into ten groups with a chairman over each group. These men have done good work in assisting the pastors in their groups and enlisting the co-operation of the laymen. The results have been most gratifying wherever the campaign of education was carefully put on and the organization was complete. I mention but one or two of the churches out of the many. Marshall, last year, pledges, 132; amount, $932; this year, pledges, 300; amount, $1,800. Arcola, April, 73 subscribers last year; 300 new plan, $600; Sept. 2d, 75 men canvassed pledged $700 for benevolences. Some of the churches hesitate to introduce the plan, largely, I think, because they do not understand its purpose; they think of the plan only as a financial expedient, when that is but a small part of its purpose. The great virtue of the plan, in my judgment, is the development of the lay activity of the church and the deepening of the spiritual life of the membership. On any other basis and with any less purpose the canvass had better not be undertaken. Dr. John R. Mott speaks the heart of the new Financial Plan in the following words: "I think the secret of getting all the men and women we need, and all the money we need, no matter what the country is, no matter what the age of the workers, and no matter what the size of the gifts, lies in the manifestation of the presence and working of the living Christ. Wherever Christ looms large as the great central reality, men and women fall down before Him and do what is logically implied."

The Benevolences

I was hopeful that the introduction of the new financial plan and the increased intelligence resulting from the educational campaign would result in largely increased contributions to our benevolent causes. In some instances this has been true. But I regret to have to report that some of the charges will show a decrease on the benevolences. This, however, is partly due to the unprecedented drouth which prevailed over the entire district for the past two years; partly to new building enterprises and church debts, and partly to the lack of intelligent interest and loyalty to these great causes on the part of our laymen.

Some of the churches, however, have made excellent records in their benevolences, notably Arcola, under the leadership of Rev. C. M. Duncan; advancing in two years about $800. First Church, Paris, under the faithful labors of Rev. B. F. Shipp, brings up one of the best benevolent reports in its history. Sullivan makes a substantial advance, due to the untiring work of Pastor J. F. Wohlfarth. Other churches will make substantial gains.

"Those Women"

It is gratifying to note the increasing activity and efficiency of the women's organizations of the church. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society, the Woman's Home Missionary society and the Ladies' Aid societies have done good and faithful work during the year. It is deserving of special notice that the Ladies' Aid societies are broadening the scope of their work, not confining themselves to money raising alone. Many of these societies have been a great force in the church in a social way. Others have assisted the pastor in the directly religious work of the church, one society took charge of the work of canvassing for the church papers, securing 57 subscribers.

Young Men and the Ministry

It is my firm conviction that we should give increased attention to the Master's direction and pray the Lord of the harvest that He would thrust out laborers into His vineyard. I am greatly pleased to report that nine young men in this district have given themselves to this blessed work, seven of whom are now in college preparing themselves for their life work.

Evangelism

The men of this district have approached, at least, Paul's spirit and become all things to all men that they might by all means save some. They have given, in the aggregate, several years' time to special revival services and have driven many thousands of miles through all kinds of weather and roads. Only a part of these results can be tabulated. Union evangelistic meetings were held in Shelbyville in March, with Evangelist E. C. Miller as leader. Pastor Chapman and his people co-operated most heartily, the result was 122 additions to the first church, making a total of 225 additions during Brother Chapman's pastorate. More than 100 additions to the other Methodist churches in and about Shelbyville.

In November, last, union meetings were held in the city of Paris, with Evangelists Hart and Magan as leaders. Pastor Shipp and his people heartily co-operated in the meetings, about 100 came into the First Church as a result of the meetings; a few joined Tabernacle Church.

Evangelist W. C. Ross assisted Pastor C. R. Morrison in a revival campaign in Oakland, resulting in a great awakening among the membership and the addition of 54 persons to the church.

In all other instances the pastors were their own evangelists. Much teamwork was done, the pastors assisting each other.

The results, numerically, are as follows: Arcola, 73; Brocton, 10; Casey, 11; Charleston circuit, 53; Findlay, 5; Gays, 91; Grandview, 50; Humbolt, 16; Kansas circuit, 27; Marshall, 76; Marshall circuit, 46; Martinsville, 16; Mattoon, 52; Neoga, 12; Oakland, 54; Paris, 125; Toledo, 3; Windsor, 7; Shelbyville, 124; Shelbyville circuit, 106; Westfield, 4; Vermilion, 62; Windsor circuit, 21. Total, 1,044.

A Personal Word

I desire to express my appreciation of the delightful fellowship with the pastors and people during the year. They have been kind to me beyond anything I have deserved. The women of the parsonage, God, bless them, they have hardships of which women in other walks of life know nothing; but amid it all they stand loyally by their husbands in their toils.

C. F. Buker.

QUINCY DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and members of the Illinois Conference:

It is with gratitude to our Divine Father that we herewith submit a report of some of the blessings that have crowned our labors together on the Quincy District.

Ministerial

We came to the District with six places to be supplied, and made it our first duty to secure efficient men for them. The new men gotten from far and near have all done well, some famously. Justice and gratitude would name them in this report, but a higher voice—wisdom—counsels silence.

Quite a large number of charges increased their pastors' salaries, the aggregate being $2,282. And this fact is worthy of record, the charges advancing, with the one proverbial exception, kept in a better financial condition throughout the year than those not advancing. One of the charges lowering the salary kept in a deplorable condition and only with a desperate struggle raised the lowered amount. The lesson is plain that it is easier to raise an increased salary than one decreased.

Property and Improvements

It has been a pleasure to note, and it is significant of the life of our churches, that both in town and country our church buildings are generally in prime condition. These places of worship are clean, in good repair, tastily decorated, and brilliantly lighted by acetylene or other modern light plants. The following charges have remodeled their churches, making them modern in appearance and in utility: Bowen, Stillwell, Golden and West Point.

The parsonage at Perry has been made virtually new. Harry Willard is the happy pastor there.

Sunday Schools

We took up the standard set for us by the Sunday School Board with zeal, organized the District into groups and went to work, and some remarkable gains have been made in enrollment. Many charges have made the 25 per cent gain, some 30 per cent, 50 per cent and one nearly 100 per cent. All have made gains but the guesses on the enrollment of last year as found in the Minutes make an apparent advance this year impossible for some. This work is but begun for we must have not only bigger Sunday Schools but greater Sunday Schools, say the preachers and laymen of the District.

The "Every Member Canvass" was organized throughout the District, and a majority of the charges have adopted it.

Benevolences

While throughout the District the drought was a depressant on the benevolent spirit, yet if the increase made is maintained by the one-third who did not report to me by the two-thirds who did, we shall show an increase of full 10 per cent over last year on disciplinary benevolences.

We have noted with delight the growing offerings of W. F. M. S., and soon this comely daughter of the Church will, as in the Quincy District, and in the Illinois Conference, surpass the parent, throughout the Church, in gifts and offerings for the Christless nations. Why of this? One reason, at least, is that 100,000 Methodist women get together monthly for the systematic prayerful study of the world's need of Jesus. The one who can get together 100,000 Methodist men monthly for the same purpose will see realities in the progress of the Kingdom grander than the visions of an Isaiah, or the dreams of our Thoburn.

To do something for the busy men of Methodism in this respect we secured a set of lantern slides from our Board of Foreign Missions and through the grace and zeal of the Rev. Fred Reed, an expert with lantern and slide, every night for five weeks, we entertained and instructed our people of some thirty charges, about our work in foreign lands, and in the great fields committed unto us as a Church. The work was fruitful, as laymen, hitherto regarded without the missionary vision, confessed to me, without asking, that these picture lectures opened their eyes, and if we can keep their eyes open, these will surely follow as the day the night, the open heart and the open purse.

Revivals

A large number of revival efforts were very successful. Many sinners were converted and a fuller tide of spiritual life was manifest in the churches.

In these spiritual triumphs in nearly every case the pastor was leader, as but three evangelists were in the District at the solicitation of the preachers. The Holy Ghost stamped anew upon these efforts of the preacher the highest seal of being called of God, and they knew for themselves and not another the incomparable joy that comes only to those who bring the sin-bound unto the Great Deliverer.

Those who were honored in winning many to Christ were: C. F. Whitson, Huntsville; J. E. Owens, Hulls; Wm. Hailey, Kinderhook; P. R. Powers, Grace, Quincy; C. S. Jupin, Rushville circuit; J. O. Kirkpatrick, Mt. Sterling, and D. V. Gowdy, Barry, who is closing his fourth year, witnessed a meeting of rare power and blessings. Total report, 1,105.

What was said above about the absence of evangelists in our District was not meant as a reflection on the true man of God so set apart, for it is our humble opinion that never was there a time when the gifted, consecrated, God-sent evangelist, is more needed than now, and for man's sake, and for Christ's sake, of such, O Lord of the Harvest, give us many.

Chaddock

Your Chaddock School and Home for boys is doing a worthy work. Note the boy when he comes and when he goes. No incorrigibles, no goody-goodies, no defectives, only boys of good health, talent and red blood are received, and they go out from this school not alone educated thoroughly in the prescribed course of the state for such pupils, but as fine a type of Christian boyhood as you will find in the world.

The school holds a unique place in Methodism in two respects: It is the only one of the kind in the church, and without advertisement or solicitation of any kind cannot accommodate one-half the boys that knock at the doors.

The Rev. Milton Wilson was appointed by Bishop McDowell a year ago as agent for the financial welfare of the school. Brother Wilson put into this work his tireless energy, his unquenchable optimism, his genius for ways and means, and none could have worked harder for ten months but the response was not what we hoped. The mystery that deepens with me as I know the work the school does for the boys, and the very large field for this school undeveloped in our church, and what these boys must be and do for the church, is that Methodist men of money do not see that money invested in boys, after the Chaddock plan, will yield a larger income for a longer time for the kingdom than is possible almost anywhere else.

The coming year we are sending out into the field our able superintendent, Mrs. Eva C. Fields, and are confidently hoping for the largest response the school has known. We appeal to our preachers and laymen to give her a hearing in pulpit and home.

The Quincy District in territory and population is the largest in the Illinois Conference. Within her borders, broad rich prairies abound. Many river valleys as fertile as the valley of the Nile, gently undulating sweep beautified with grazing herds, and here and there are suggestions of my boyhood environments in the Alleghanies. Coal, oil, natural gas deposits, and rich fields of mineral wealth are being developed; vast orchards of pears, peaches, and apples are very productive. The main line of the Keokuk Power Dam spans its entire length; great railroads now serve the people and many more are proposed, surveyed, and some now in process of building. A vigorous, enterprising and thrifty people dwell there. Methodism ranks first as a church and the opportunities are big for the growth of our church in every part of the District. Surely no more attractive field for the minister of the Gospel can be desired, and the most attractive feature to the consecrated, red-blooded Methodist preacher remains to be stated. I have not found an easy job in the whole District.

The Dying Saloon

Last spring witnessed the passing of the saloon from the District, with two exceptions: Quincy and Warsaw. But the "fierce old King of the Serpent Crown" in these strongholds, where once he swaggered in great arrogance, now trembles and knows no peace as his end draweth nigh.

A Personal Word

Never have we heard His voice say so distinctly, "my business requires haste", "the harvest truly is great", "woe unto the empty hands", "the time is short", "the night cometh". This voice brought no sadness but it did mightily move us to do our best.

A. S. Flanigan,

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT

Bishop W. F. McDowell, and Brothers of the Conference:

For the sixth time I arise to address to you a communication in the nature of a report of affairs in the bounds of Springfield District and it is with pleasure that I can say that during the year the preachers and their families have enjoyed the best of health, with some slight exceptions.

All the pastors went early to their respective fields and all continued faithfully at their assignments, except E. J. Williams, who, for reasons entirely satisfactory to himself and to me, removed with his family to Wisconsin in March, and that veteran, T. B. Wright, was secured to care for the work at Rochester until conference.

I think I may say, as I have said in other reports, that the work of the year has not produced spectacular results. There have been no whirlwind revivals, nor has it been a year of phenomenal material gains, but on the whole the reports will show advance along all lines. Our pastors have mostly settled down to deal with men singly or as families and, where that has been faithfully done, almost astounding results have been obtained. As an illustration of this I would cite the case of Taylorville, where the pastor decided that he would not attempt to hold the old fashioned revival, but got busy on his feet and used his heels as well as his head and during the year added more than one hundred members to his flock, three-fourths of these being adults. Similar results were secured in other charges where the same course was pursued.

As this paragraph is being written in advance of the reports of the pastors, I can not give definite figures, but all indications point to a nice increase in the membership of the district.

Ministerial Support

In the matter of ministerial support there was a gain of over $1,200 in the amounts estimated. Salaries were not all reported paid in full at my last visitation but practically all were guaranteed so that I feel sure that there will be but little if any deficit.

It has not been a year of financial prosperity for our people. Political changes at the capital hit some of our churches in the city pretty hard, and, all over the south half of the district, drouth and pestilent insects have wrought devastation. This is a disaster from which that region will not recover for some time, for this is the third year of destitution. There are some Methodist farmers in that region who raised scarcely enough of a crop to feed a goat. Yet in spite of their condition they have found some way to pay their pastors in almost every case; but we need not look for any boom in benevolences under such circumstances. However, so far as I can see at this time, there will be no great slump in the benevolences for the district and I still hope that final reports will show some gain instead of loss.

Material Improvements

At Chatham, Pastor Wehrman led his people into a church building enterprise which resulted in a splendid new church worth about $8,000.00, and with the assistance of Dr. Kemp, who furnished the pyrotechnics, I dedicated it on January 4th, entirely free from debt.

On the Curran Circuit Pastor Hostetter has been indefatigable in his efforts to put all the churches in prime condition and has succeeded. At Mt. Zion the largest expenditure was made, nearly $500.00 having been raised to put this historic old church in good condition. This church was originally dedicated by Peter Cartwright almost fifty years ago.

New City charge is rejoicing over a new parsonage which will be completed soon after Conference at a cost of about $2,000.00. Phirman Edwards is the happy pastor.

Williamsville, under the pastorate of E. V. Young, has spent nearly $1,500.00 in improving both church and parsonage.

Numerous minor improvements have been made on the property in other charges and, with some few exceptions, I can say that the property of our church in Springfield District is in really fine condition.

Early in the year Pastor Combs seized the sponge with a well settled purpose to wipe from the slate a considerable debt on the parish house of Douglas Avenue Church. He was entirely successful and the incubus of $3,500 vanished by one mighty sweep of his arm.

Mrs. D. P. Lyon

Since the last Conference Mrs. D. P. Lyon, widow of the late D. P. Lyon, of our Conference, passed to her reward and by her will left many bequests to various causes administered by the Methodist Church.

For many years she had lived the simple, unaffected Christian life at her home at Rochester, where she was greatly loved by all.

A Review

A kind of custom has grown up among retiring District Superintendents in this Conference to present a sort of inventory of results on their districts during their respective terms of office. A species of official obituary, as it were. I do not know whether to attempt it or not. As I think about it, I almost believe I could write a much longer report on what I have not done.

For instance, I have not succeeded in getting all the Apollos into my district, though nearly every man that I have traded for during my incumbency was so represented to me by the District Superintendent from whom I got him. I can not exactly account for the deterioration sometimes, either. I traded for a fellow one time from a certain District Superintendent who described the man as a genius and a perfect Apollo and when at the very next Conference I thought he was pining to get him back, I offered to let him go, that same D. S. assured me that I had entirely misunderstood him and declared that he did not say Apollo but Apollyon. Since then, when a Presiding Elder tells me that his man is an Apollo, I always make him repeat his language and I would advise my successor, if he is here, to do likewise or he will be caught with guile as I have sometimes been.

Nor have I succeeded in making every charge in my district a first class one as some of my colleagues have done. The reason for that is that we have a good many leading laymen who have a penchant for leading a retreat instead of an advance. Some have told me that that was a matter of education, and after long reflection I have reached that conclusion myself.

In the pursuit of knowledge, these fellows just got through to subtraction and got stuck fast, like a pig in a gate, and could not go forward to multiplication, nor back to addition, and there they have been ever since, doing a mighty lot of squealing and nothing else. Mighty handy in subtraction, ready to subtract from ministerial support, benevolence and church improvement. I could write a considerable report on such matters but it would not be profitable.

Notwithstanding, I have been a poor trader and an indifferent educator in mathematics, I think I can make a fair showing for the district during the period of my official career. I am unable to begin my calculations with the minutes of 1908, the year of my appointment, for the reason that there was a change in the boundaries of the district that year and the statistics could hardly be used for comparison with those of the present year.

Again, the statistics of 1914 are not as yet available for comparison; so my review will just cover the years 1909 to 1913. That is four years. But it will serve the purpose of showing that we have been moving forward during the past quadrennium. Not as rapidly as we could desire in all things, but we have not stood still.

Membership

The minutes of 1909 report 8,937 full members in the district.

The minutes of 1913 report 10,050 full members or a gain for the four years of 1,118, or 12.5 per cent. I do not feel at all complacent about it, but the gain of the Conference for the same time was 5,859 or 7 and 1-8 per cent. If the whole Conference had maintained the same ratio of gain that Springfield District did we would have a total membership of 101,388 instead of 86,970.

Property

During these four years Springfield District has gained $83,150.00 in church property, or 17.3 per cent. The ratio of gain for the Conference is 14.2 per cent. If the whole Conference had maintained the same ratio of gain as Springfield district did, it would have today $115,175 more than it has now.

Pastoral Support

During the four years, the district shows a gain of $6,224.00 in ministerial support. This is a gain of 15.3 per cent. The gain over the whole Conference is 16.33 per cent, which is about one per cent in advance of ours. This is due to the fact that the south half of the district has been smitten with drouth and insects for three out of the four years over which the comparison extends.

Disciplinary Benevolences

During the quadrennium there has been a gain of $3,103.00 in the Disciplinary Benevolences of the district. This is 26.5 per cent. The Conference gain for the same period was $16,831.00 or 19.25 per cent.

If the whole Conference had maintained the same ratio of gain in the benevolences that Springfield District has for the quadrennium it would have aggregated $23,112.00 instead of $16,831.00.

The Sunday School membership in Springfield during the quadrennium under review gained 23.5 per cent while the Conference in the same time has made a gain of 15.8 per cent.

A glance at the Epworth League statistics for these four years reveals an almost startling fact; in the Conference there has been a net loss of 1,470 members, or 11.5 per cent, and we wonder what this portends. But in Springfield District there has been a gain of 15 per cent. Thus the difference between the Conference average and that of the district is a little over 26.5 per cent in favor of the district.

The Conference has suffered in the same time a loss of 974 in the membership of the Junior Leagues while there has been a slight gain in this district.

But perhaps this is enough in the way of statistical comparisons. They are not presented in any boasting spirit, for, as a matter of fact, there is not much to boast of. But that justice may be done to the faithful men who have toiled in this portion of the Master's vineyard, I just wanted you to notice that we have kept our part of the task up to or above the average. In this great battle against sin and evil, our lines have not yielded but pushed to the front.

During these six years it has been a great joy to be associated with such royal sons and daughters of God as I have found in the parsonages. They are the real aristocracy; they wear the purple.

I think it is generally known among my brothers of the Conference that I never did have any mania for the superintendency. Once, I voluntarily relinquished the headship of one of the best districts in the Conference, and, subsequently, twice declined the appointment to other districts, not because I disparaged the office or recoiled from the work involved, but because I loved the pastorate and have always felt that, for a Methodist preacher, there was no higher office or better place to work.

And now, brethren, 'will you pardon a parting exhortation? (This is the last time that you will be afflicted with my reports). Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine. II. Tim. 4:2.

To your hand is committed the greatest work ever given to man. You are shaping destinies, building structures that must endure forever. The plastic material of youth receives the touch of your fingers, let no crude impress be there.

Even childhood and infancy look into your faces and catch therefrom an inspiration that will lift them Jesus-ward or the frown that may chill the heart toward truth. Downhearted, discouraged humanity, groping in the darkness of a selfish world and seeking for its pleasures in fields afar from God, will welcome the good tidings from your lips if you bring it like a brother whose heart is touched with compassion and if you wreathe about men the golden chains of love you may lead them where you will; yea, lead them to the feet of Him on whom all burdens may be cast.

He one time toiled at these same tasks. His holy feet marked the paths our own should take. His blessed hands set the example that eternally dignified labor and sanctified sacrifice for others. That old carpenter's shop at Nazareth, if it could be found, should and would be one of the holiest places on earth.

In one of the latest productions of his pen, our honored brother and now sainted Bishop McIntyre sings a song that will not die:

The Nazareth Shop

I wish I had been His apprentice, to see Him each morning at seven.
As He tossed His gray tunic far from Him, the Master of earth and of heaven.
When He lifted the lid of His work-chest, and opened His carpenter's kit,
And looked at His chisels and augers, and took the bright tools out of it,
While He gazed at the rising sun tinting the dew on the opening flowers
And smiled as He thought of His Father, whose love floods this planet of ours.
When He fastened His apron about Him, and put on His workman's cap,
And grasped the smooth haft of His hammer, to give the best wood-work a tap,
Saying, "Lad, let us finish this ox yoke. The farmer must put in his crop."
O, I wish I had been His apprentice and worked in the Nazareth shop.

Some wish they had been on Mount Tabor, to hearken unto His high speech
When the quick and the dead were beside Him, He holding communion with each.
Some wish they had heard the soft accents that stilled the wee children's alarms,
When He won the sweet babes from their mothers and folded them fast in His arms.
Some wish they had stood by the Jordan when holy John greeted Him there
And see the white dove of the Spirit fly down o'er the path of His prayer.
Some wish they had seen our Redeemer when into the basin He poured
The water, and, girt with a towel, the servant of all was the Lord.
But for me, if I had the choosing, O, this would then all overtop,
To work all day steady beside Him, of old in the Nazareth shop.

These heavenly wonders would fright me, I cannot approach to them yet,
But, O, to have seen Him when toiling, His forehead all jewelled with sweat.
To hear Him say softly, "My helper, now bring me the level and rule."
To have Him bend over and teach me the use of each artizan's tool.
To hear Him say, "This is a sheep gate, to keep in the wandering flock."
Or, "This is a stout oaken house sill. I hope it will rest on a rock."
And sometimes His mother might bring us our meal in the midsummer heat, Outspread it so simply before us, and bid us to sit down and eat.
Then with both of us silent before Him, the blessed Messiah would stop
To say grace, and a tremulous glory would fill all the Nazareth shop.

My brothers, are we not all apprentices of His, still working by His side and under His eye at tasks of higher order, and shall we not soon, all too soon, be confronted by the completed products of our labor where our reward shall be eternal?

C. Galeener.

B. COMMITTEES

BENEVOLENCES

We call attention to the fact that our Benevolences are not side issues, but a vital part of our Church, and that miscellaneous collections should never side-track the "BENEVOLENCES".

Home and Foreign Missions

In view of the present critical situation in Europe, occasioned by the great war, we beseech all our people to pray and give as never before to alleviate the suffering, and tide over our churches until the situation is cleared up.

Church Temperance Society

We rejoice in the present accelerated movement of this Society and, in view of the nearness of National Prohibition, would urge as never before the support of this movement.

Domestic Missions

Because of the increasing difficulties of the rural problem in our work it is of the utmost importance that this fund shall have the earnest support of all our preachers and people.

Sunday Schools

We call attention to the splendid work being done by the Board of Sunday Schools and recommend the co-operation of all our charges in the observance of Rally Day, as outlined by the Board.

Freedmen's Aid

The Committee of four of our leading educators who investigated the 22 schools of the Freedmen's Aid Society are much pleased with their work, especially along industrial and normal lines. Since the four Conferences of Illinois have been assigned Wiley University to receive our contribution to the Jubilee Fund, we urge upon all our charges the necessity of a special offering for the same.

Church Finance

We are pleased to note that so many of our churches are taking up the New Financial Plan, and urge all our churches to fall into line.

F. T. Stretton, Chairman.

O. L. Clapper, Secretary.

BROTHERHOODS

This is the Laymen's day. Never before in the history of the church have the co-operation, energies, talents and contributions of the laity been so utilized as now. In truth the laymen are the Church, and the ministry is just an anointed and consecrated laity, set apart for leadership and the special function of prophet and priest.

It is the particular business of the minister to capture and release in the manifold forms of Christian service the men of his congregation. He needs to strike for men and then for more men. The strong men should particularly be cultivated for this end.

Our men need to be given a vision and a program. The minister is the one to do it. If the organization of his men into a formal chapter of the Methodist Brotherhood will accomplish this, by all means let it be done. The women of the congregation are usually organized to release their enthusiasm in the work of one society or another. Why not the men? But let each minister study his field and his men and lay the tremendous needs of the one on the heart of the other. Not all programs of Christian service for men can be successfully worked everywhere. But, through Brotherhood, or Men's Bible Class organization or Committee of Official Board or what not, the men of the congregation may be organized to do gospel team work, to assist in campaigns of personal evangelism among men, to make an every member canvass, to undertake an anti-saloon and law enforcement campaign, to assist in the social work of the church or to discuss the great social problems of the day with a view to their solution.

Men are not usually satisfied merely with being entertained. They tire of all that. A Brotherhood without a definite program and a specific task is very likely to become the minister's "bete noir", or to die a natural and unlamented death.

We recommend that E. M. Antrim, of Decatur, be elected President and G. W. Flagge, of Jacksonville, Secretary of the Conference Brotherhood.

E. L. Tobie, Secretary.

CHURCH LITERATURE

We rejoice in the continued prosperity of our Book Concern as evidenced by the largest draft ever given to the Conference for our veteran preachers, and we recommend it to all our people as worthy of their fullest patronage.

We take pleasure in commending our Sunday School literature and urge its use in all our Sunday Schools.

C. D. Robertson, Chairman.

L. G. Cummins, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY

We, your Committee on Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid Society, reaffirm the report of the committee of last year, which reads as follows:

The increasing demands upon the funds for the Conference Claimants and of the Preachers' Aid Society, with the great need of our worthy necessitous claimants, impels us to urge that these causes be faithfully presented to the people of our congregations, and that the disciplinary provisions shall be enforced by the District Superintendents in every charge.

We commend the advance in the collection for Conference Claimants and hail with delight the dawn of a new day for our worthy brethren on the retired list.

We appreciate the strenuous and self-sacrificing labor of our Field Secretary, the Rev. Robert Stephens, and commend him and his work to the confidence and support of both our ministers and laymen, that he may have access to the pulpits and homes within the bounds of our Conference. We urge every preacher to actively co-operate in the building up of a permanent fund that will eventually yield to each a comfortable support in the time of need. We are grateful for the increasing number of friends among our laity who are showing a tangible interest in the effort to build up this permanent fund.

Since these funds are sacred to the use of the worthy, necessitous ministers, their widows and children, we urge that extreme care be used in the distribution of them, and again urge that all the facts needed be given to those who are entrusted with the distribution.

Since the number of Claimants will increase from year to year, be it

Resolved, That we urge every preacher of the Conference to become a member of the Preachers' Aid Society, and thus become a part of this great organization for self help, that will eventually be the means of certain aid in the time of the preacher's retirement.

R. Y. Williams, Chairman.

E. G. Sandmeyer, Secretary.

There were present: W. A. Smith, S. H. Whitlock, H. C. Gibbs, G. W. Flagge, E. L. Pletcher and B. F. Shipp.

W. A. Smith, the Chairman, called the meeting to order. The Treasurer read his report, which report is given under Statistics. The report announced that the sum of $800.00 was available for the retired ministers.

The report was accepted and ordered filed, and the Treasurer was ordered to pay over to the Conference Board of Stewards $800.00 for distribution among the Conference Claimants.

On motion the Treasurer's accounts were ordered audited.

The session adjourned to meet at 8:00 a. m., September 11th.

W. A. Smith occupied the chair. J. W. VanCleve appeared before the Board and presented facts regarding the sale of the Cheery Grove property on the Butler Charge, Decatur District, on which sale he had given to the Board a note for the amount of $40.00. After hearing his statement of the manner of the sale of the said property, on motion, it was ordered that on the receipt on the part of the Board of the sum of $30.00, the Board return to J. W. VanCleve the said note.

On motion of S. H. Whitlock and J. F. Wohlfarth, John W. Miller was appointed to preach the Annual Strawbridge Sermon and T. H. Tull was appointed alternate.

On motion adjournment was taken.

Loveless, as expressed in her will. And, with a view of giving effect to her intentions, we authorize the executor of her will to pay to the children of Mrs. Loveless, who is now deceased, the sum of $500.00, which was devised to their mother, and to pay this out of the residuary fund of the said estate.

DOMESTIC MISSION AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY

This society needs neither introduction nor commendation to the Illinois Conference, its work throughout our bounds speaks for itself. Many churches now doing effective work have been brought into being by the timely assistance rendered, and weak charges have been carried until they were able to stand alone.

We notice by the report of the District Superintendent that a wise policy is being followed. The fund is not scattered in insignificant amounts over a large number of places, but is given to strategic and needy points where speedy and certain returns may be expected.

The society deserves our hearty support.

C. W. Caseley, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

The Educational Forward Movement.

We recall, with gratitude in the light of its victorious progress, the organization of the Educational Forward Movement of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences at their sessions, respectively, at Peoria and at Champaign, in 1911, for a period of five years of united endeavor on behalf of all their educational institutions. It was understood that the five-year period was thus allotted to this great cause for the reasons that: No special, Conference-wide opportunity had ever been formally afforded our colleges; that a union of effort, and the period allotted, alone would seem to make victory possible for the several great campaigns about to be undertaken by the schools; that their own union of mutual agreement and plans for campaigning made the desired Conference legislation especially opportune; that the anticipated vigorous and wide-spread college campaigning might be under the oversight and direction of the Conference, itself; and because the modern conditions of educational efficiency among all schools meant that either we must build up the institutions of our own Conference, or give them up.

Three years of the period originally designated for the Movement, and as renewed in the annual Conference sessions since, have now passed. They have been years of unprecedented effort for our colleges throughout the whole territory of the Conferences. Pre-eminent in the effort has been the making of a new atmosphere of sentiment favorable to the Christian college and to our own Conference schools. Our young people have been enlisted, as Epworth Leaguers and in Sunday Schools, and not only the financial contributions but the loyalty and prayers of all our people claimed for our own institutions. Thousands of pages of literature have been distributed, enough in each year of the Movement to reach every Methodist home in the whole territory. The effort for increasing church collections for all of the schools, mutually, has been an important phase of the Movement, but equally important is the fact that under the influence of these public efforts in the churches our schools have been enabled to find a multitude of contributors of special gifts, of the larger amounts, which so far have met the requirements of their several great campaigns. To our individual colleges, and their respective Boards of Trustees under the burden of these vital campaigns, this second, or Special Gift phase of the Forward Movement endeavor, has seemed of pre-eminent importance, and they are agreed that the success of such campaigns has been made possible by the publicity and effort for increasing collections within the churches, with the better knowledge of our schools and their deep needs as thereby made known. The total Public Educational Collections of the two Conferences have increased from $8,684, the largest total ever realized before the Movement, to annual totals of $18,268, and $19,209, respectively, within the Forward Movement period. At the annual Conference sessions one year ago, we were able to report the total of $725,000, gained for our institutions in Conference collections and Special Gifts from the beginning of the Movement. We report at this time the total of $950,000, exclusive of the total Conference collections in the present year, being an increase in gifts to all our colleges during the present year of $225,000. These schools unite in heartfelt thanks to this annual Conference, for the opportunity it has thus given for their upbuilding for the cause of the Kingdom. And we fully believe that, in the two remaining years agreed for this educational effort of our Conference Methodism, God will surely bring us to the goal of $1,250,000, in Conference collections and Special Gifts, which we set out to reach at the sessions three years ago.

An important new development of the work in the past year is that the Commission on Finance for the church at large, in the desire more adequately to meet the needs of the educational cause and the requirements of numerous Conferences which, like our own, are under special endeavors for their schools, has united the educational apportionment for the whole church into the new total of $510,000, and has allotted, of that amount, the sum of $13,- 522 for the Central Illinois Conference, and $27,322 for the Illinois. These apportionments for our own Conferences have been planned after consultation with the Executive Committee of the Forward Movement and the District Superintendents of the two Conferences, as a means of facilitating our Forward Movement endeavor, and that it may be promoted more completely in conjunction with the other benevolence interests. To these ends the amounts apportioned to us are made an increasing goal over the educational collections heretofore realized in by far the larger number of churches, and are so apportioned with the express understanding that our educational collection shall hereafter be promoted as a part of the total benevolence budget of the church, rather than in the form of a special, or separate, subscription for the former larger goal of the amount equal to $1.00 per member. We commend the efforts of the present Secretary of the Educational Forward Movement as having co-operated constantly with the Board of Education and Commission on Finance of the church at large, for the consummation of this larger and better plan for all of our benevolence interests.

The new plan for the church collection phase of the Forward Movement effort, coupled with the fact that we have now reached the fourth year of the endeavor, has made possible, in the judgment of the two Conference Boards of Education, a somewhat modified form for the promotion of the work during the remainder of the quadrennium. It is recommended that the work revert to the form of administration by the Executive Committee as a whole, as in the earlier work of the Movement immediately after its first organization. The chairman of the Executive Committee will serve as the administrative officer of the work in its general and mutual relations instead of a secretary devoting exclusive time and travel to the cause. We bespeak the active co-operation with the Executive Committee of every District Board of Education, superintendent, and pastor, as having an increasing responsibility under the new plan, and as being those upon whom must always rest the ultimate success of this great Conference endeavor.

The Illinois Conference accordingly renews and ratifies all of the mutual agreements by which this Conference is united with the Central Illinois Conference in the Educational Forward Movement, as heretofore determined in the annual Conference sessions of 1911, 1912, and 1913, and adopts the following special provisions in the interest of the work for the ensuing year.

(1) The general plans and methods of the Movement shall continue as heretofore agreed, including the total goal of $1,250,000 in church collections and special gifts by October 1, 1916. But the amount of the apportionment for the Educational collection in the churches throughout the two Conferences shall hereafter be the amounts respectively allotted to the Conferences and districts by the Commission on Finance of the church at large, and shall be, for each Charge, the total sum so apportioned in lieu of the sum heretofore assigned in the Forward Movement endeavor, of the amount equal to $1.00 per member.

(2) The division of the Public Educational Collection as among the several institutions shall continue in the ratio heretofore established, and the institutions shall continue to meet all the expenses of the Movement in the same proportion as that in which the Conference collections are divided.

(3) The Executive Committee of the Movement shall be composed of the heads of the institutions, the present Secretary of the Educational Forward Movement, and the officers of the Boards of Education of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences, respectively. The Executive Committee shall have general oversight and direction of the whole Forward Movement endeavor, including the individual campaigns of each school in the mutual and Conference relations of such campaigns, with power to determine as among the schools any equities as to any church collections or other contributions referred to the Committee for determination. The present Executive Committee is similarly empowered until the new Committee shall meet and organize.

(4) It seems necessary to emphasize again, under the new plan by which the Public Educational Collection is now apportioned by the Commission on Finance as within the regular budget, that the Board of Education of the church at large receives the lump sum of $900 from the total Educational Collections of the Illinois Conference for the year, and $500 from the Central Illinois, in lieu of the twenty per cent of the collection of each Charge, which would go to the Board except for this special arrangement. The entire Public Educational Collection of every Charge is, accordingly, to be reported in one column of the Minutes, and the entire amount of the same paid to the Conference treasurer.

(5) As a due protection to all other benevolence interests of the church, it shall be the continuing rule that no institution shall receive any private (special) gift, or pledge for the same, made by or in the name of members of any of our churches within either Conference for an amount less than $100, nor providing payments upon the same at an amount less than $25 per year. But, in the case of any Charge whose pastor shall have certified to the Executive Committee of the Movement that the regular benevolence apportionments from the Commission on Finance are fully provided, our colleges may canvass the Charge for Special Gifts of any amounts. It is understood that all amounts given by our people for the saving and upbuilding of our schools, whether in the Public Educational Collections or as Special Gifts, are sought by our colleges as extra giving and never as a mere diverting of funds given heretofore to sustaining the other regular benevolence causes.

(6) We are grateful for the helpful co-operation of all our pastors and laymen in the special endowment and debt-raising campaigns which many of the institutions must wage in order to complete their great endowment efforts or to save large conditional pledges already subscribed. We would urge the absolute necessity of such campaigns for the salvation of these institutions in the attainment of the sums now required of them by our Educational Boards, or otherwise. We bespeak for their representatives the continuing co-operation of our pastors, as found possible, in the attainment of the Special Gifts sought for the institutions in these campaigns.

(7) In view of the number of special campaigns under way, and the number of workers enlisted on their behalf, it is recommended that instead of attempting to give each institution a separate representation in the pulpit, our pastors may freely limit their special educational services to the one service required by the Discipline, with its regular annual sermon for education. It is, however, further recommended that, where pastors so desire, the representative of any school in whose campaign a Charge may be especially interested be assigned for such a special sermon, both this service and any other Sunday services granted to the representatives of given schools being entirely free from direct financial solicitation for the institution thus favored.

(8) The united interest and co-operation of our college officials, district superintendents, pastors, and many laymen in these three years has resulted in the great advance they have witnessed, both financially for the schools and in a rising sentiment for them throughout all the territory of these Conferences. We thank God and take courage, bespeaking a continuance of interest and favor until this great battle of our schools is fully won.

THE GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Thomas Nicholson, Secretary.

The church does not yet fully comprehend the rapidly enlarging scope of the work actually done by the Board of Education under the legislation of the last two general conferences. The Children's Day Loan Fund, the administration of which was formerly the chief concern of this board, is of increasing value and was never more worthy of our contributions. It continues to aid more than 2,000 students a year. But, important as it is, it at present stands as only one of a number of equally valuable activities.

The Board of Education now directs and supports the mission schools among the mountaineers of the South, a work certainly worthy of the liberality of our people. In addition the board is striving to aid our Methodist colleges, universities and secondary schools to meet the ever increasing financial burdens incident to maintaining the higher degree of educational efficiency demanded by modern conditions. A few grants in aid have been made; more would be if the board had the funds. But more helpful even than this has been the policy of the board which, during the last school year, has placed the experience and personal aid of its secretary, assistant secretary, and others at the service of our schools, in the actual work of counseling, inspiring, publicizing, organizing and assisting in manifold ways in the campaigns which have actually saved several of them from disaster—all this, as a rule, without expense to the institutions. This personal aid and sympathetic co-operation has been more than gifts of money, but, if it could be accompanied by small conditional gifts which would inspire local effort, it would be worth still more.

The assistance rendered our institutions through the literature of the board, notably "The Christian Student"; through the advice and co-operation of men of wide educational experience; through its teachers' bureau, and through its efforts in co-operation with the Commission on Evangelism to promote the moral and religious care of Methodist young people in all institutions of learning, entitles the Board of Education to the increasing consideration of our people and ought to indicate to us the need of raising the collection for this Board in full.

CHADDOCK BOYS' SCHOOL.

Eva C. Fields, Superintendent.

Chaddock Boys' School has made steady progress throughout the past year. An enrollment of forty-three boys taxed the capacity of our present buildings. Of this number, fifteen, or more than one-third of the whole number enrolled, were boys who have been deprived of their natural supporters and whose finances were cared for by the school and its friends. The school thereby assisted worthy boys in the past year to the amount of $3,150. During that time applications have come through pastors and others interested from more than a hundred boys who need what the school can give them, that have not means to meet even our moderate rate of tuition. For two years the school has done no systematic advertising as the applications greatly exceed the capacity of the buildings. Without endowment we can not take the very boys who need most to come.

This year the Trustees have opened an active campaign for funds for buildings and endowment. The financial report shows that a good beginning has been made. The Executive Committee of the Educational Forward Movement has given us to understand that this year is looked upon by the Conference as Chaddock's year for special consideration in her financial plans. We appreciate this fact and mean to push our campaign to a successful issue this year.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Theodore Kemp, President.

The past year has been a very successful one for this school. The number of students in all departments was 686, of which 105 were in the freshmen college class. This is the largest freshman class in the history of the institution. There were 39 graduates in the College of Liberal Arts. The campaign has been waged with great energy for the raising of the $350,000 conditioned on the offer of Mrs. Buck. $268,000 of this has been secured in good subscriptions and it is hoped that the remaining $82,000 can be all secured within a very few months. The men who have acted as endowment secretaries of Illinois Wesleyan have done exceedingly well and are deserving of the gratitude of all friends of the school.

We feel that it will be a matter of gratification to the ministers and laity of the patronizing conferences to announce that arrangements are under way for securing the valued services of Rev. Wm. H. Wilder, D. D., LL. D., former president of the institution, for teaching courses in the English Bible and Missions for the coming year in Illinois Wesleyan. The school is fortunate indeed to secure the services of this beloved former president and member of the Illinois Conference, to whom this institution owes so much for all his magnificent services in her behalf.

Rev. J. W. Henninger, M.S., LL. B., Ph. M., of this Conference, has been elected to the Chair of Philosophy and Economics. His long and honorable service at the head of schools in Illinois, and as president of one of our State Normals, has eminently fitted him for this responsible place. Miss Olla Johnson, of Ames, Iowa, a young woman of superb training and much experience, has been elected head of the Home Economics department of the college. Mr Henry P. Eames, of Chicago, has been secured as director of the School of Music.

In scholarship, and in careful conscientious attention which our Christian teachers in the College give to the students here, Illinois Wesleyan maintains its place as a school of helpful moral and religious influence. A series of special meetings in the college has already been planned for the coming year and it is the earnest desire of president and faculty that the moral and spiritual atmosphere of Illinois Wesleyan shall be all that it should be in a Christian school.

The prospects for the coming year, from the standpoint of attendance of students, looks exceedingly bright at the present time. It is hoped that the enrollment will surpass even the good increase of last year. Illinois Wesleyan wishes to express its grateful appreciation of the generous support given to its campaign by ministers and laymen.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

Joseph R. Harker, President.

The president's annual report, at the close of his twenty-first year of service, shows that the college continues to make gratifying advance in every way. Of the $180,000 subscribed in the campaign which closed successfully a year ago, $110,000 had been paid before last June, and at this date, September 1, more than $130,000 has been received. The College has carefully refrained from special solicitation in the Conference the past year, leaving the field to the Illinois Wesleyan and the other institutions, and giving them the right of way for their special campaigns. But the standard requirement of the University Senate that the College must have a clear Endowment of $200,000 by 1916 makes it necessary to begin at once an active campaign for another $100,000. There are now subscriptions of $17,000 conditioned on raising the $100,000 by January 1, 1916. We confidently believe that the Lord, who has heretofore given success to all the college plans for advancement, will put it into the hearts of friends to meet this emergency.

The increase of regular college students is noteworthy. The Freshman Class last year numbered 72, as compared with 47 in 1912, and 36 in 1911, and a larger number enter each year with a definite purpose to take the full college course, and secure the college degree. The high scholastic standard of the work done is attested by continued membership in the North Central Association of Colleges, and in the listing of the Woman's College in Class A of Methodist Colleges by the University Senate.

The faculty numbers 33, of whom 22 are in the college of liberal arts, and 11 in the music and special departments. Of the 22 in the liberal arts faculty, all are graduates of Standard Colleges, and 12 of the 22 have the Master's degree.

The alumnae are taking an increasingly active interest in the progress of the College. Alumnae Societies have been organized in Springfield, Decatur, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, and Los Angeles. The alumnae have undertaken to secure an Alumnae Memorial Fund of $35,000 in honor of the seven presidents of the College, and have already paid in more than $12,000 of the amount.

Rev. E. B. Houck, Financial Secretary, has done efficient work during the past year in representing the college and securing new friends. The trustees desire his reappointment for the coming year.

The Woman's College recognizes and rejoices in its advantage and obligations as a College of the Church. Its motto is "Knowledge, Faith, Service," and its earnest endeavor is to send out women who are capable and willing for every womanly relation, in the home, in society and in the church.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION.

In accordance with the instructions received from the four Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Illinois the Commission on Work Among Methodist Students at the University of Illinois completed during this past year the incorporation of The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois. This Foundation is organized as an "Auxiliary" to the Board of Education at New York City. The Board of Trustees is composed of one minister and one layman from each Conference, four members at large, and one appointed by the Board of Education at New York City. The officers of the Board for the first year have been Bishop Wm. F. McDowell, Chairman, F. B. Madden, Vice-Chairman, Jesse S. Dancey, Secretary, C. B. Taylor, Treasurer.

In the incorporation papers it is stated that the object for which the Corporation is formed is "the intellectual, moral, and religious care and instruction of young people, students in the University of Illinois, especially those who are adherents of the Methodist Episcopal Church." In furtherance of this object the Corporation is to acquire property at the site of the University, erect and equip suitable buildings, secure endowment so as to provide an efficient plant and so man the work as to afford a competent leadership for the young people. The campaign for funds has been launched and the Rev. G. E. McCammon, D. D., is in the field as Executive Secretary of the Foundation.

The work at Trinity (our University Church), is being carried forward along the lines followed in other years. The pastor had the names last year of 1,147 students from Methodist homes or expressing a preference for the Methodist Episcopal Church. The central purpose of all the activities which go on at Trinity is personal contact with these students for religious culture, social life under wholesome conditions, and the enlistment for a program of definite service, both while in school and in the communities to which these students go after school days are past. The Wesley Foundation supports two assistants to the pastor of Trinity Church. We recommend that the Conference request the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension and Board of Domestic Missions to continue their appropriation for the work at Trinity.

EVANGELISM

We like the thought that Christ, the King, is coming to take possession of his world, and we ought with consecrated zeal go forth to meet him. Only the "ancient passion" for all men will restore the lost world "to the Lord and Master of us all". Animated by the consuming zeal of the indwelling Christ we are certain of the victory that conquers the world.

Complex as the yearly program of our pastors necessarily is, it is our profound conviction that the evangelistic endeavor, whether the pastor be his own evangelist, interchange with a brother pastor, or employ some approved Methodist evangelist, should have chief place. To further this end, we would urge every pastor to cultivate the gifts and graces of evangelistic preaching. Hoping to be of specific benefit we venture to suggest that each of our pastors, at the beginning of the Conference year, compile a constituency list of those whose persuasion to Christ he covets, remembering that his enrollment of the baptized children as probationers, their subsequent organization and training in catechism classes, and the advent of frequent Decision days in the Sunday School, furnish the first fruits.

We earnestly request our District Superintendents to arrange for district meetings early in the fall for conference and prayer, and for the direction of aggressive evangelistic campaigns throughout their districts.

We commend the plan of the four o'clock evangelistic services during the Conference sessions, and have greatly appreciated the addresses of Dr. C. L. Mead. We, also, believe in the street meetings, and we wish to record our appreciation of the services of the men who have done the work this year. We, therefore, advise the continuation of these plans, and that this committee, together with the entertaining pastor, have full charge of the same.

We request that no more than two Conference evangelists be appointed this year, and that the District Superintendents see that paragraph 181 is strictly enforced.

We recommend that provision be made at the next Conference session to set apart a sufficient amount of time at the last session for the one special purpose of prayer and consecration, when, as a Conference, under the guidance of our presiding Bishop, we shall "tarry" for that "power from on high" which shall fit us for our tasks and send us out to do greater things for the kingdom than we have heretofore accomplished.

P. J. Rinehart, Secretary.

HOSPITALS

Mattoon McFall Memorial Hospital

Whereas, Christ ministered both to the soul and to the body of man and did send forth his early representatives upon this double ministry, we hold that the church of today is doing the will of the Master by building and maintaining hospitals for the care of the sick.

This Conference may well be proud of the work of the Mattoon McFall Memorial Hospital for its present efficiency and financial standing, and, as it enjoys the perfect confidence and support of the community in which it is located, we desire to commend it to the pastors and the people of the Conference and ask that it may have our prayers and sympathy, and receive the support it deserves in its work of love to mankind.

Wesley Memorial Hospital

We congratulate our church upon the splendid equipment of Wesley Memorial Hospital in endowment, buildings, and modern equipment; it is unequalled by any other institution in the denomination.

The growth of this institution has been phenomenal and the wide reputation it has gained by services in relief of the sick and suffering makes it difficult to keep pace with the growing demands for help to the distressed.

Since the first patient in 1888, fifty thousand have been cared for; five thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven were received this last year. The surgical cases during 1913 were 1,926, which, with others not classed as surgical, called for 3,562 operations.

The mortality for the year was a small fraction over 4 per cent of the patients, not a few of whom were in a hopeless state when admitted.

The number of part-paying or wholly free patients treated during the year was 1,513, at a cost to the Hospital of $34,049.60.

The friends of the hospital are greatly encouraged by the gift of a million dollars from Mr. James Deering, a tribute to the memory of his father, Mr. William Deering, and his sister, Mrs. Abbie Deering Howe. This gift is in the form of an endowment, the proceeds to be judiciously used in aid of the charity work of the hospital.

During the year, the sum of $40,000 has been received from Mrs. G. F. Swift; $5,000 from another friend in Chicago, and $13,000 from donors outside the bounds of the Rock River Conference.

Thus by its growing reputation the Hospital is successfully appealing to the judgment and generosity of those who are seeking opportunity to invest their money where it will accomplish the most for God and Humanity.

It must not be forgotten that the enlarging of the capacity of the Hospital for the accomplishment of the purposes for which it exists, invariably gives rise to additional operating expenses. Two or three of the special needs may be mentioned: A Chapel, enlarged Laundry Equipment and addition accommodation for Nurses. We ask that this growing Institution continue to appeal to our people and receive their heartiest support.

Peoria Hospital

We heartily endorse and commend the Peoria Hospital and give earnest appeal in its behalf.

C. F. McKown, Chairman.

D. H. Hartley, Secretary.

JOINT MEETING OF BOARDS

A joint meeting of the Trustees and Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society was held Friday morning, September 11, 1914. Those present were: Whitlock, Wohlfarth, Beadles, Gibbs, Flagge, Smith, Miller, Edgar, Shipp, Wood and Wells. W. A. Smith was elected Chairman and A. M. Wells Secretary.

On motion by S. H. Whitlock and J. F. Wohlfarth the Secretary was instructed to report to the Conference in the case of Mrs. Roush, that we have no funds available, on account of legal limitations from which we can draw for purposes as this.

W. A. Smith, Chairman.

A. M. Wells, Secretary.

SECRETARIAL EXPENSE FUND

Whereas, It requires considerable ability as an accountant to serve acceptably upon the Board of Statistics, and Treasurer's work, and it requires no small amount of money to secure such expert ability; be it

Resolved, That this Conference be asked to request each pastor in effective work to contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his annual cash salary each year to a fund known as a Secretarial Expense Fund. Such fund to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants or stenographers or assistants to the Conference in any way; it being understood that no other collection shall be taken for this purpose during the Conference session.

If at any time the accumulated surplus shall be deemed sufficient to cover the expenses, no assessment shall be made for that year; further, be it

Resolved, That the above resolution be made a part of the permanent rules of this Conference.

F. E. Smith, Secretary,
J. S. Smith, Treasurer,

STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND MORAL REFORM

Article 1—World Peace

We thank God that our country is at peace and seeking to maintain neutrality, and that it has graciously offered its mediatorial offices to the belligerent nations of Europe. We counsel our brethren at home to avoid agitation, haste in placing blame, or anything that would tend to arouse passion. We urge our pastors to heed President Wilson's call to prayer for peace, as published in the daily press of September 9th, and request our people everywhere to answer the call with devotion and sincerity. Let us pray for a speedy disarmament of the world and a resort to the sane method of arbitration for the adjustment of all differences and the settling of all international disputes.

Article 2—Social Reforms

We rejoice that the social conscience is being aroused to a mighty crusade against all forms of evil. Sanitation, industrial equity, the rights of the child, social purity and a better citizenship are earnestly being sought.

We believe that the Bible should be restored to the public schools. We oppose the distribution of public moneys to sectarian schools, and the placing of protestant children in Houses of the Good Shepherd.

Article 3—Sunday

We heartily endorse every sane effort at Sabbath reform.

Article 4—Mormonism

We view with alarm the spread of Mormonism, and recommend that our ministry throughout the Conference study anew this menace to our country religiously and politically, and that they either preach upon the subject as occasion may require or scatter such literature as will inform our people.

Article 5—The Saloon

We register our unqualified approval of the very efficient work done by the Anti-Saloon League, "the church in action against the saloon," and greatly rejoice in the fact that during the last Conference more than one thousand saloons within the borders of our state were closed, a result made possible in most instances by the enthusiastic vote of Christian women. We further register our full determination that we will not lay down our weapons, which are "not carnal but spiritual", until the saloon in our own and every state in the nation is closed, and closed forever.

J. F. Wohlfarth, Chairman,
E. B. Randle, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUE

1—Sunday Schools

Whereas, The Sunday School is one of the greatest sources of supply for the increase of the Church and the Kingdom of God; be it therefore

Resolved, First, That we are in hearty sympathy with our Board of Sunday Schools, and we rejoice in the splendid work being done by it, in the organization of new schools, both at home and in our Foreign Missions; and in the added impetus given by its Institutes. We would urge that wherever practicable the Graded Lesson system be adopted in our schools. We urge our pastors to follow carefully the instructions of the Discipline as to the support of this work and insist on no diverting of funds belonging to this Board.

Second, That, believing parents are in a great measure responsible for the non-attendance of the children and young people on the Public Service, we would urge that they give this matter more earnest heed.

Third, That we believe the Teacher Training and Organized Class work to be of great value, and therefore urge the adoption of these methods wherever possible.

2—Epworth League

We commend the action of the General Secretary of the Epworth League in placing an Institute at Jacksonville within the bounds of our Conference.

We urge that our pastors accord the Institute a fuller support, both in enlisting the interest of our young people and in their own attendance.

We nominate C. M. Barton as representative of the Conference to act in conjunction with representatives of the Central and Southern Illinois and St. Louis German Conferences and the St. Louis City Union in planning next summer's Institute.

We regard the Epworth League as a vital part of the work of the Church, but experience has shown that, where the pastor is uninterested, the League languishes and dies. This is true not only of the local charge but of District organizations as well.

We urge our young people to continue and increase their subscriptions to the Epworth Herald.

E. L. Pletcher, Chairman,
C. E. Parsons, Secretary.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

Whereas, The demands for Christian enterprise are becoming annually stronger because of the settling up of new American territory and because of conditions in the foreign field. We heartily endorse the noble work of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies, and do pledge our support in their endeavors. We view with much satisfaction the work accomplished by the two societies. We consider it a matter for congratulation that, despite the drouth of the past year, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was able to secure contributions aggregating $39,000.00.

Whereas, The serious European situation will demand unusual generosity, sympathy and co-operation on the part of our entire constituency; and

Whereas, Some few of our ministers do not seem to appreciate and keep in touch with the two Societies; and, since the coming year is to be observed as the Golden Anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in which an appropriate semi-centennial program is to be inaugurated for the ensuing five years; therefore, be it

Resolved, That, as pastors of the Illinois Conference, we will pledge our hearty support and extend every possible aid to further the great work of these noble women.

CUNNINGHAM CHILDREN'S HOME

During the year, Cunningham Children's Home, owned by our Conference W. H. M. S., has cared for eighty-six different children, averaging fifty per month. The workers and children now eat together in the beautiful new McKinley dining room. A second teacher has been secured for the higher grades, as it has been decided to keep girls until they are eighteen, when advisable. Classes in sewing, mending, darning, cooking, and basketry are continued. With a family of fifty children to feed, clothe and educate, a corps of fourteen workers to remunerate and board, and a plant of forty-four rooms, five bath rooms and many halls and closets to keep in repair and properly furnished, the Home naturally needs money and supplies in generous amounts. Even the smallest donations will be gratefully received.

C. RESOLUTIONS

PRESIDENCY OF BISHOP McDOWELL

As a Conference we have been in favor of the intent of our General Conference legislation providing for the continuous presidency of the resident Bishop. After these few years of the experiences we have had, we are many fold more favorable thereto. We believe that the harmony, the strength, the effectiveness of the real purpose of our Conference sessions are largely due to this plan, and particularly because of the personality and gracious spirit of our resident Bishop, Bishop W. F. McDowell.

We, therefore, express to our Board of Bishops our desire and request that his presidency be permitted to extend over the entire quadrennium.

J. W. Miller,
A. C. Piersel.

BISHOP ROBERT MCINTYRE

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has taken to Himself the pure spirit of our beloved Bishop, Robert McIntyre; and

Whereas, He began his ministry in the Illinois Conference, and for many years was one of us, devoting all his noble faculties to the upbuilding of the Church within our boundaries; and

Whereas, His devoted wife is the daughter of an honored minister who served the cause of Christ also within our territory; therefore,

Resolved, That we hereby express our deep sorrow at his departure, but at the same time our great delight that we may claim him as one of the sons of this Illinois Conference and our brother in the most intimate sense. Though honored by the Church above the rest of us, he never forgot those early fellowships with us and never ceased to inquire, by name, for his old associates whom he always called "comrades".

Resolved, That we enroll his name among our honored dead and that a brief memoir be printed in our minutes.

Resolved, That we direct our Secretary to transmit to the bereaved wife and family a copy of these resolutions together with an expression of our profound sympathy.

Chris. Galeener,
E. B. Randle.

BOARD OF STEWARDS—SPECIAL CASES

Resolved, That we instruct the Board of Conference Stewards to retain a sum of money according to their judgment to be used during the year in special cases of need that may occur, and that the Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer of the Board be a Committee to care for the same.

Robert Stephens.

COLLECTION FOR CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

Resolved, That in accordance with the evident intention of the Discipline, as well as to conserve the sources of benevolent gifts for our great and growing Benevolent Boards, we request all our Pastors and Official Boards to raise hereafter the apportionment for Conference Claimants and other ministerial support in the current expense budget, rather than in the budget of Benevolences.

F. A. McCarty,
Eugene M. Antrim,
B. F. Shipp,
C. M. Barton,
W. N. Tobie.

COURTESIES

We desire to express our high appreciation of the presence with us of Bishop McDowell, our presiding Bishop, now the fourth time, three times in succession. His courtly bearing, his Christian attitude, and wise administration, his inspiring morning addresses to the Conference, as well as the forceful and illuminative sermons on Sunday, will be a delightful memory of our sessions at Shelbyville.

Therefore, we express the sense of the Conference that a request be herewith made for his reassignment to the Presidency of Illinois Conference to be held at Springfield in September, 1915. The interest and co-operation of Bishop McDowell in the Forward Educational Movement, and the newly inaugurated movement in behalf of the Conference Claimants' Fund, and because he has been the inspiration and the wise leader in these movements call for his continual administration of the Conference. We, therefore, request the Board of Bishops for his assignment, and instruct the Secretary to transmit this to the Secretary of the Board.

To Pastor A. S. Chapman, we extend our hearty thanks for his courtesy and kindness in the care, for the second time, of the membership of the Conference; as well as for the delightful sessions of the Anniversaries, and other special features of the Conference. To W. S. Phillips, we express our thanks for the pleasures afforded in his leadership of song.

We are grateful to the sister churches for the use of their buildings by the Conference; to the Chautauqua Board of Directors for the use of the Assembly Hall, and the use of cottages for families of ministers; to the Board of Education for the use of the High School Building for the Educational Banquet, and for Committees; the Library Board, the Masonic Hall, and the Shelby County Bank, for favors kindly granted; to the Daily Union for full and accurate reports of proceedings; to Dr. C. L. Mead for his eloquent and inspiring addresses each day during the sessions of the Conference; to the Wesleyan Ladies' Quartette for their presence, and charming music; and for the presence with us of representatives of the various Boards of the Church.

To the families of Shelbyville who have twice within twelve months opened up their homes and shown their hospitality and cordial entertainment, we desire to record our hearty thanks and pray God's blessing to abide in their hearts and homes.

W. J. Davidson,
John A. Kumler,
C. R. Morrison.

GROUP INSURANCE

Resolved, That we, the members of the Illinois Conference, commend the action of the Publishing Agents in the establishment of the system of group insurance for the benefit of its employees, by which the family of every employee of the Methodist Book Concern is insured by the Concern to the amount of one year's salary.

W. N. Tobie.

REFUTATION OF CHARGES

Whereas, the official organ of the American Medical Association (The Journal), has in its issues of April 11, 1914, and July 18, 1914, published articles which bring serious charges against Mr. John A. Patten and through him against the Methodist Episcopal Church; be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Illinois Conference that Mr. Patten should refute in detail those charges or retire at once from official connection with the Methodist Episcopal Church; be it further Resolved, We ask the various boards of the church with which Mr. Patten is connected to require such refutation in detail or his retirement.

METHODIST STUDENTS AT STATE INSTITUTIONS

Whereas, There are at the present time thousands of students out of Methodist homes attending the State supported institutions of the land; and

Whereas, This constitutes a situation at once of grave concern and strategic opportunity to the church, from which we cannot escape in good conscience; and

Whereas, There is urgent need of a comprehensive survey of this field and a resultant consistent policy for entering into our responsibility; be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Illinois Conference that this work of surveying the field and developing a policy belongs properly to the general Board of Education; and, be it further

Resolved, That we urge the Board of Education to undertake this work at once, and with it the most active possible co-operation in this important work as now maintained in our various State institutions.

PARSONAGE FURNISHINGS

Inasmuch as the freight rates on household furniture are very high, and inasmuch as some other Conferences have adopted the custom of furnishing their Parsonages;

Resolved, That we request the District Superintendents to present to their Quarterly Conferences on their Districts the matter of furnishing the Parsonages of the Illinois Annual Conference, requesting each society to furnish such articles of furniture as the District Superintendents may recommend at their session as advisable.

Memoirs.

BISHOP ROBERT McINTYRE.

Bishop Robert McIntyre passed to his reward from Wesley Memorial Hospital on the evening of Sunday, August 30th, after an illness of two weeks. The Bishop in returning from Michigan to Oklahoma stopped off at Chicago, as he was too ill to proceed on his journey. He was taken to the hospital, where his illness, due to uraemic poisoning, became acute and his recovery was despaired for several days. He leaves a wife, two daughters, Ruth and Nellie, who were with him at his bedside at the end; and a son, Carlyle, of Los Angeles.

Bishop McIntyre was born in Selkirk, Scotland, November 20, 1851. His father and mother were long-time Presbyterians and Robert was christened in the local kirk. The father was a weaver. The parents came to America as emigrants in 1858, landing at Philadelphia. Soon after, the mother died and Bishop McIntyre's father married the second time. He died leaving a family of small children for Robert to care for and father. He learned the trade of bricklayer and went to Chicago, after the fire, to help rebuild it, when he was twenty years of age.

Bishop McIntyre received his education in the public schools of Philadelphia and spent one year at Vanderbilt University. In 1896 he received the degree of doctor of divinity from Denver University.

He was converted in the year 1877 in a revival meeting in St. Louis. It was held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The pastor was Dr. Finney, but Dr. Bowdish, one of our pastors, was the preacher. The bishop was at that time a traveling book salesman. He at once started preparation for preaching. In 1878 he entered the Illinois Conference in company with the Revs. Chris. Galeener and E. B. Randle. He served, as his first appointment, Easton, Ill. The other Churches served in order are: Marshall, Charleston, Urbana and Grace Church, Chicago, all in Illinois. He then went to great Trinity Church, Denver, which he always packed. He remained the full time limit of five years. He then went to St. James, Chicago. He remained five years and then rested for one year. At the end of the year he became pastor of First Church, Los Angeles. During the six years' pastorate in Los Angeles the membership grew from 1,100 to 2,100.

Dr. McIntyre wrote two books, one a collection of poems called, "Early Candle Light." The other is a religious story entitled "A Modern Apollo."

He was married in 1877, just after his conversion, to Miss Ella Chatten, of Quincy, Ill., the daughter of the Rev. Barzilla Chatten, then a member of the Illinois Conference.

Bishop McIntyre was regarded as one of the most eloquent preachers in Methodism. He was famous as a lecturer. Among the most popular of his lectures was one on "Abraham Lincoln", and another on "Buttoned Up People."

Because of his former experience as a laboring man he was especially sympathetic on labor problems. He kept the trowel with which he worked as a mason hanging on the wall of his study. He never was ashamed of his former occupation.

URIAH WARRINGTON.

The Rev. Uriah Warrington was born near Alexandria, Ky., June 15, 1828, and died at Chicago, November 16, 1913. His father died at Wheeling, Va., when he was about five years old. At the age of twelve he came to Kentucky from Virginia and made his home with older sisters. His education was meager. But his desire for knowledge led to reading of all available books. On June 20, 1848, he was married to Sarah Halderman. She died October 27, 1911. To them were born nine sons and one daughter. Three sons died in early life. The oldest three entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church—F. M. Warrington, Southern California Conference; T. C. and L. P. Warrington, Rock Rover Conference. The six surviving sons acted as pallbearers. In the autumn of 1850 they moved to Quincy, Ill., where he engaged first in farming, and later in mercantile life, until he entered the ministry. In 1846, he enlisted in the Mexican War, being a private in Company E, Second Kentucky Volunteers. An attack of measles, in rainy weather and an open tent, resulted in bronchial trouble, which followed him all his life. He was discharged after several months of service. In 1862, he enlisted in the Seventy-third Regiment, Illinois Volunteer Infantry, and was made Second Lieutenant of Company G. He led his company in the battles of Perryville and Murfreesboro and some minor engagements. He was taken prisoner at Murfreesboro by a detachment under personal command of General Joseph Wheeler, but was soon exchanged. Later, on account of impaired health, because of rheumatism, he was sent to Hospital No. 4, Nashville, Tenn., and was discharged from the service in the spring of 1863. After partial recovery he was placed in charge of a ward in a military hospital in Quincy, and later spent two years on a small farm. In 1849, he and his wife were converted. On removal to Quincy they joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1868, he began his ministry as a supply near Quincy, and was admitted into the Illinois Conference in 1872. In 1893, he retired to Harvey, Ill. Considerable time was spent in evangelistic work. His ministry was unusually fruitful. Often one or two hundred were converted in a single revival. He often held camp meetings on his charge. The cause of his death was hardening of the arteries, culminating in bronchial pneumonia. After the death of his wife over a year was spent with his daughter, Mrs. L. N. Bear, at Ludlow, Ill. Later he lived in the home of his son, the Rev. T. C. Warrington. Funeral service was held in the Clyde Church on November 19, in charge of the Rev. G. K. Flack and M. E. Cady. Interment was at Ludlow, Ill., beside his wife, amid the scenes of a former pastorate.—X.

RALPH HILL OSBORN.

The subject of this sketch passed away from his home in Neoga, Ill., December 24, 1913, aged 78 ears. He was born in Delaware County, Ohio, September 29, 1835.

When he was 5 years old his parents moved to Huntington, Ind., and 8 years later to Clark County, Ill., where he grew to manhood. For ten years he worked on the farm, attended and taught school. He then entered the academy and college in Marshall, where later he became professor in mathematics. He studied law with Judge John Schofield and later was admitted to the bar. At the age of 48 years he was licensed as a local preacher. He was sent to Cowden in the summer of 1887 as a supply for two months to fill the appointment until Conference. At the session of the Annual Conference that fall he was sent to Charleston Circuit as a supply. After serving this circuit for two years as a supply he was admitted into the Illinois Conference and returned to the same work for two more years. He was sent to Martinsville for two years, Deland for two years, Moulton church, Shelbyville, one year, and Neoga two years.

At the close of his pastorate in Neoga, owing to failing strength, he took a superannuate relation and re-entered the mercantile business. He continued to reside in Neoga for six more years.

In 1863 he enlisted as a private in Co. I, 5th Illinois Volunteer Cavalry, and served for nearly two years. He had served as first lieutenant and later as captain of the home guards. In his regular army service he was promoted to orderly sergeant and later to second lieutenant. His regiment did service along the Mississippi, protecting the supplies sent to the army by way of the river.

As a Christian man and faithful Gospel preacher he did telling work for the Kingdom.

His brief active ministry of eleven years was blessed by at least 1,000 conversions. Wherever he labored the churches were quickened and the membership enlarged. Unbelief and prejudice against Christ's cause were overcome by his heart and life of burning love for souls, together with his eloquent and earnest preaching. Both in personal work and public appeal his supreme objective was the conversion of men. His one regret during superannuation was that he had no definite field in which to labor for the salvation of souls.

He was twice married; first to Miss Elizabeth Minor, who died in the summer of 1863, leaving him one son. In November, 1865, he was married to Miss Sarah J. Catlin, who survives him. To them were born four sons and three daughters.

The funeral services were held in our church in Neoga, Friday, December 26, at two o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Drake, assisted by Rev. J. B. Woodward and Rev. Samuel Balch. The sermon was preached by Dr. Horace Reed, a warm personal friend and Brother Osborn's first presiding elder. Interment was made in Neoga cemetery.

JAMES E. MORGAN.

James E. Morgan was born in Barry, Canada, April 29, 1872, of Scotch and Welsh parents and was converted at the age of ten. When twelve years of age he entered a tailor shop as an apprentice in the lumber regions where he used to amuse the men in the evenings by standing on a table and telling them stories about Christ and the Bible.

At the age of twenty he came to Chicago where he worked at his trade in the day time and did mission work in the evenings. February 24, 1900, he went to Portage, Wis., and there was united in marriage to Edna E. Wood. In 1905 he joined the Illinois Conference, and was pastor of several charges, the last one of which was East Lynn. In 1908 he decided to cease preaching until he acquired a more thorough theological education. He went to Evanston and established a small tailor shop there in order to support his family and defray necessary expenses. He entered the Garrett Biblical Institute, working in the shop in the day time and studying at night, but the strain was too much for him.

Two years ago a nervous breakdown came from overwork and worry, which ended in paresis. Two months ago his condition was so poor that he was taken to the hospital for institutional care. Despite the untiring efforts of the doctors he passed away on April 3, 1914. He is survived by a wife and daughter, a step-son, mother and three sisters, one of the latter being a missionary in China.

The funeral was held Monday, April 6, at 10 a. m., in the First M. E. Church, Evanston, Illinois, Dr. T. P. Frost officiating, and the interment was at Rosehill.

MRS. MARY B. SHAW.

Mrs. Mary B. Shaw, wife of the late Dr. James Shaw, passed to her coronation March 23, 1914, at Bloomington, Ill. Ten days before, she fell down the stairway in her home and, though at first the injuries she sustained did not seem alarming later it became apparent that she was severely injured and though she was most tenderly and skilfully cared for death ensued after several days.

Mary Coley was born in Ireland, December 17, 1835. She came from an exemplary Methodist home whose generous hospitality was ever open to the Wesleyan ministers. In early girlhood she accepted Christ as her personal Savior and for more than three score years she confirmed the testimony of her lips by a beautiful, unselfish and highly useful Christian life. It was in her parents' home that she met the young minister, James Shaw, who became her husband August 27, 1857. Her husband had already entered upon his ministerial work in the Illinois Conference and now she came with him to America. Here for forty-six years she shared the labors, privations and exacting duties of a Methodist minister in active service. In their various fields of labor she sought to faithfully perform the noble tasks devolving upon a consecrated pastor's wife. Many in these former charges remember the genial hospitality of her home and her remarkably unselfish services to such as needed her most. By her sturdy qualities of character, her broad and intelligent interest in all good causes, her genuine devotion to every interest of the church and her affectionate and sympathetic spirit she strongly impressed the communities where she lived.

Twenty-eight years ago with her husband she came to Bloomington and, though Dr. Shaw occupied conference positions and pastoral charges for a portion of this time, during all these years she remained a resident of Bloomington. In these years she made for herself a large place in the life of the First Church, of which she was a member. Nearly every interest of the church felt the touch of her consecrated personality. She was especially devoted to the work of Home and Foreign Missions and her contributions to this cause were conspicuously generous, amounting to many hundred dollars. Seldom has the heart of this church been so profoundly moved as by the news of Mrs. Shaw's death. She was the best loved member of the church. Her thoughtfulness for others was remarkable. She was utterly forgetful of herself. In countless ways and usually desiring to remain unnoticed she went on errands of helpfulness and mercy into the homes of the needy, the lonely, the sick and the bereaved. Literally like her Master she "went about doing good."

The only surviving child of Mrs. Shaw is James H. Shaw, of Bloomington, the well known Chautauqua manager. Her husband died in 1910 and two daughters died in early childhood.

Brief funeral services were held in the home and more extended obsequies were held at the First Methodist Church. The Pastor, Rev. Freeman A. Havighorst, was assisted in these services by President Theodore Kemp, and Rev. H. A. Alkire. The several women's organizations of First Church and Park Church and the W. C. T. U. attended in a body. The body of Mrs. Shaw was temporarily placed in the vault and later interred in the Evergreen cemetery, of Bloomington, Illinois.

MRS. MARY ELLEN LANE.

Mrs. Mary Ellen (Sibert) Lane was born July 12, 1840, on the Brockhouse farm, near Meredosia, Ill. and, after a life full of all good deeds, was called home from Los Angeles, California, June 6, 1914. From her earliest memories, through the helpful influences of a religious home, and the old McKendree Chapel near by, she was interested in the church. She was educated at the Illinois Conference Female College at Jacksonville, now the Illinois Woman's College, and while in attendance there her religious life was deepened, and her interest in Missions and in the extension of the church greatly increased. In 1856 her family removed to Jacksonville, and here, October 5, 1858, she married Rev. John M. Lane, a member of the Illinois Conference, with whom she shared for nine years, until his death in 1867, the joys and cares and labors of the itinerant life. They served charges at Athens, Springfield circuit and Moweaqua.

In 1862 Brother Lane volunteered at the call of President Lincoln, and was commissioned by Governor Yates as Captain of Company E, 115th Illinois Infantry. He served with honor for somewhat less than a year, part of the time acting as chaplain; but in the spring of 1863 he was compelled by broken health to return home. They served at Charleston, 1863-4, but at the close of the year he was obliged to retire from active work. They lived on her home farm near Meredosia, until 1866, when they were called to organize a new charge in Jacksonville, south of the brook. They labored so successfully here that in less than a year a new church—Brooklyn—was built, and a permanent society established. Brother Lane died in August, 1867, honored as the first pastor, and still held in grateful memory by the church. After her husband's death, Mrs. Lane, with her surviving children, William Joseph and Margaret Eliza, lived in Jacksonville and vicinity till 1905, when they removed to Los Angeles, California, together with her sister, Miss Emma L. Sibert, who has continued to live with them, and whose helpful ministrations have had a large share in all the plans of the happy home.

Mrs. Lane's life has been abundant in good works. For about ten years she served with faithfulness and conspicuous success as a teacher in the public schools of Morgan County, not only teaching well in her own school, but also proving greatly helpful in the County Teachers' Association. For many years she taught the Young Women's Bible Class in Brooklyn Sunday School. All her life she has been closely and efficiently connected with the Missionary work of the church, her most eager concern always to be actively useful, and to do with her might whatever she could find to do.

Her interest in her alma mater, the Illinois Woman's College, continued through her life, and increased with the years. While she lived in Jacksonville she was a very active member of the Alumnae Association. After she removed to Los Angeles, she assisted in organizing the Woman's College Society in Southern California, and served for some time as its first president. She was greatly interested in all the recent plans for the growth of the College, and was always ready to assist to the extent of her ability.

Mrs. Lane was an ideal mother, and devoted herself with special care to the religious education of her two children, William and Margaret. It was a great joy to her that they could be near her through all the years. Margaret, now Mrs. Chas. S. Anthony, has lived in Los Angeles since 1901, and William lived with his mother, tender and unremitting to the end in his care of her, who through all the years had given her life for them.

It was characteristic of Mrs. Lane to seek, in her new surroundings, a field of service where the need of workers was most apparent. After removing to Los Angeles she united with First Church, of which Dr. McIntyre was pastor, but soon she changed her membership to the West Adams Society, as needing more help. After this church became well established she transferred to the Arlington Heights Society, newly organized in that part of the city, always seeking a place where she could be of most assistance. At her request, the funeral services were conducted at the home, 2344 West 20th Street, by her pastor, Rev. Edward O. Thayer, D. D., with interment at Rose-dale cemetery.

The memory of Mrs. Lane is blessed and fragrant; and her influence, gentle and radiant, abides in many lives which she has helped.

(JOSEPH R. HARKER.)

MRS. ANNA HAWES.

Mrs. Anna M. Hawes, widow of Rev. M. D. Hawes, died June 9, 1914, at her home, 1120 North Edward Street, Decatur, Illinois.

She was nearly seventy-six years old. Her death was due to the infirmities of age and complications, after an illness of several weeks. She had a large number of friends and was well liked by all.

Mrs. Hawes was born October 5, 1838, at Salem, N. J. When a child she came west with her parents, who settled at Georgetown, Ill. She attended the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville, graduating from that institution in the class of 1860. She and Mark D. Hawes were married April 13, 1865. Brother Hawes was then a practicing lawyer at Danville.

Mrs. Hawes was a loyal pastor's wife, serving with her husband, from the time he entered the ministry in 1870, until his death. Their itinerary was as follows: Mahomet Circuit, Tuscola, Springfield Second Church (now Kumler), Lincoln, Carlinville, Bloomington Grace, Jacksonville Centenary, Carrollton, Mattoon, Decatur District. Brother Hawes died August 4, 1892, shortly before the expiration of his term as Presiding Elder.

Mrs. Hawes was a member of the Grace Church, Decatur, at the time of her husband's death and was a constant source of helpfulness and inspiration to the end of her pilgrimage. She was always quietly but constantly interested in every sort of church work. The work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Sunday School was especially dear to her.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Will H. Coonradt, one son, Paul T. Hawes, a sister, Miss Hal Thompson, all of Decatur, and several brothers in different states. She also leaves a grandson, Paul Lewis Coonradt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Coonradt.

Funeral services were conducted in the Grace Church on the afternoon of June 11, by the pastor, T. N. Ewing, assisted by District Superintendent J. W. VanCleve and Dr. Horace Reed. The body was taken to Danville and buried by the side of that of her husband in Spring Hill cemetery.

MRS. SARAH A. LYON.

Mrs. Sarah A. Lyon, whose maiden name was Sarah A. German, was born in Hamilton, Lowden County, Virginia, November 5, 1827.

At the age of eight years, with her parents, she moved to Adams County, Ohio, where on June 6, 1851, she was united in marriage with Charles J. Hicks. In the autumn of the same year Mr. and Mrs. Hicks removed to Sangamon County, Illinois, where the remainder of her long life has been spent. Mr. Hicks died November 6, 1858.

To this union were born three children, Laura J., George H. and Luella F., all deceased.

On November 29, 1883, she was united in marriage with Rev. D. P. Lyon, of the Illinois Conference of the M. E. Church, and for six years went with her husband in the work of a Methodist preacher. At the end of this time Rev. Lyon retired from the active work and with his wife and daughter, Grace, settled in Rochester, where on June 4, 1892, he was called from labor to reward, and where Mrs. Lyon and Grace have since resided.

In early girlhood Mrs. Lyon gave her heart and life to Jesus the Christ, and united with the M. E. Church.

To the church and its great and noble enterprises she was ever a devoted friend and supporter in every possible way.

She is survived by her step-daughter, Miss Grace Lyon; her foster son, William Byers, who had lived with and cared for her during the later years; two sisters, Mrs. Delilah E. Search, of Medoraville, Ind., and Miss Emma Bright, of Malta Bend, Mo.; one brother, George German, of Arkansas, and a multitude of relatives and friends whom she had won to herself by her consistent life of Christian service; by the influence of character and works that have uplifted all who have been swayed thereby, to life's higher and nobler ideals.

Funeral services were conducted from the late home by her pastor, E. J. Williams, assisted by the Rev. T. B. Wright, and the body laid to rest in the family lot in the cemetery near Buckhart, Sunday, February 1, 1914.

CONFERENCE RULES.

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by _____ members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than _____, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each pastor in effective work shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his annual salary each year to a fund known as Secretarial Expense Fund, such fund to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants to the Conference in any way.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Chairman—W. D. Fairchild, Clinton.

Registrar—J. F. McAnally, Bowen.

Examiners—Walter Aitken, C. M. Barton, A. K. Byrns, H. M. Derby, T. N. Ewing, F. A. Havighurst, E. A. Hedges, E. H. Lugg, J. F. McAnally, R. F. McDaniel, C. F. McKown, J. W. Miller, A. C. Piersel, C. D. Robertson, S. R. Reno, R. H. Schuett, W. A. Smith, R. L. Steed, M. M. Want.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

With Plan of Examinations for 1915-16.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners, the chairman and registrar being a committee for this purpose. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the 'Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange with a member of the conference as special supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

As early in the conference year as possible all applicants for admission on trial shall send to the chairman of the board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the chairman. All such candidates may take their examinations as above.

4. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Chairman of the Board three different sets of questions, thirty days or more before the examinations take place in June, the questions to be passed upon by the chairman before being used in the examinations. After approval by the chairman, he shall send them to the registrar for issue and distribution and the registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time in the hands of the district supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special. Set No. 1 shall be used in the first examination; set No. 2 for all who fail at the first trial; and set No. 3, "doubly difficult," for all who postpone the examinations until the day before the conference session.

5. Before the day of examination the registrar will supply the supervisors with questions on all books on which examinations are to be conducted at that period, which shall cover the books for the whole course of study for the August examinations. In case an undergraduate wishes to take in June an examination on any book assigned to the August period, he shall notify the registrar in ample time where he will take such examination, that the latter may send the questions to the supervisor.

6. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study, or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time of examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the registrar of the board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the board.

7. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their annual conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for prepayment.

8. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

9. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the examiner preparing them, and subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

10. No syllabus or book review will be required upon the "books to be read." Instead of this, the undergraduate will be required, at the place of the June and August examinations to fill out blanks of the following form for all the books assigned to his class to be read in each respective period.

I hereby certify that I have given the book (or books.....)

(Fill in name) a careful and conscientious reading, covering the whole of its (or their) contents.

(Signed)

These certificates will be forwarded by the district supervisors to the registrar and by him recorded. A similar certificate is required for the reading of the leading articles in The Methodist Review.

11. All credits from the Methodist Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the annual conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. All grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the conference examiners, shall be designated by the letter "P", as an indication of passing grade, which neither adds to nor detracts from the general average of the undergraduate.

12. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the board. This fee shall be paid to the registrar of the board within thirty days after the adjournment of the conference session, for which the registrar shall furnish receipt. District supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the registrar except on the order of the chairman; and the financial accounts of the chairman and registrar shall be audited by the board at their annual conference meeting.

13. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the chairman and registrar of the board.

14. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the board of examiners; and it shall be the duty of the board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the board of examiners. District superintendents are requested to report to the chairman of the board of examiners, all candidates for admission on trial from other churches, and into full membership, and for recognition of orders, at least thirty days before conference or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the chairman may have ample time to investigate.

15. It shall be the duty of district superintendents to report to the chairman of the board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

16. The annual meeting of the board of examiners shall be held at the seat of the annual conference at 2 o'clock p. m., on the day preceding the opening of the session, to consider matters involved in Rule 14, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the ensuing year. Examinations for those who are eligible shall be conducted on the same day, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., and closing at 6:00 p. m.

17. "Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success, will be conferred at each annual conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but undergraduates who have been conditioned, or continued on trial beyond the regular time, shall not be eligible for such honors; and no one can be "Honor Man" who shall not have done at least 50 per cent of his work under this board.

18. The board will deduct 10 per cent or less on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing or general execution is slovenly, deduction being made as to each of these points. On all written work not in before August 15, a reduction of 5 per cent and after Sept. 1, 10 per cent, will be made from the grades. Examinations deferred to the day before conference will be doubly rigid, and no examination will be given after 6 p. m. on day preceding conference. All written work must be within the required limits, or deductions will be made as indicated above. These limits are: For sermons, from 2,000 to 3,000 words. For essays, 1,500 to 2,000 words.

19. All essays, sermons and examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipt for the same shall be brought to the chairman at the seat of the conference. (Undergraduates read all rules, especially Rule 3, with great care.)

Reports and Resolutions

A. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

In assuming the duties imposed upon me last September, by Bishop McDowell, in my appointment to the superintendency of the Bloomington District, I am gratified to relate that I found the district splendidly manned, well arranged, and every appointment provided with a pastor; so my induction into the office on this district was free from special stress or strain, with no immediate distressing problems, with an outlook both hopeful and encouraging, and conditions inviting our best endeavor.

Changes

Thirty-eight appointments were made by the Bishop, or upon them he placed his seal of approval. Joseph C. Nate was appointed to Park Church, Bloomington; but because of peculiar conditions prevailing there, and that H. S. Alkire might consummate some important plans he had projected for that church, Bro. Alkire, upon the approval of the Bishop, was permitted to remain there, and Joseph C. Nate accepted the LeRoy charge, where he has enjoyed a most successful year.

A. F. Ewert, who was appointed to Newman, was permitted to remain at Havana, and George Scrimger, who was appointed to Havana, served the year acceptably at Newman. Early in January, however, A. F. Ewert withdrew from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and entered the ministry of a sister denomination. E. J. Williams, one of our supernumerary members, completed the year at Havana.

Roy L. Davis, who was admitted on trial at the session of our Conference and appointed to the Hartsburg charge, was released at the close of the first quarter, and asks to be discontinued. C. R. Underwood, a student of the Wesleyan, who was giving half time to a point on the Jacksonville District, finished the year acceptably, by giving Hartsburg each alternate Sunday.

J. L. Gilbert, a Wesleyan student who was serving the Topeka and Knox charge for the second year, passed from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant in the early spring. He was a choice soul, beautiful in spirit and noble in character, giving promise of large service for the Kingdom. Following this, the charge was served for a while by the Rev. E. A. Squier, of Atlanta, a superannuate member of the St. Louis Conference, and the year was closed by A. M. Wells, of Mason City, who brings to us the reports of the charge.

Material Interests

During the month of February a massive and beautiful church was dedicated at Atlanta, the dedicatory sermon being delivered by Bishop McDowell. This church, which cost over $24,000, is beautiful in architecture, commodious in size, convenient in arrangement, and thoroughly equipped with all modern appliances, for the highest degree of efficiency in every church activity. It reflects great credit on our people there, and the pastor, F. M. Harry, whose leadership the people followed so loyally to the completion of this enterprise. Every dollar of the cost has been more than provided.

At Kenney, on the 16th of May, another church was dedicated. This structure cost over $14,000. Dr. W. J. Davidson preached the dedicatory sermon, and led in the raising of the money necessary to the completion of the payment of the building. This amount was gladly subscribed, with a generous surplus.

This church is ample for all the needs of our congregation, doing credit to that enterprising membership. The architecture is attractive, modern in design, the arrangements are most desirable for thorough work, no feature of which was overlooked in planning the building. The dedication of this church gives promise of a new day for our people there. This enterprise was under the direction of a student pastor, D. H. Munson, heartily supported by a loyal people both with their means and service.

The first undertaking at the opening of the Conference year at Green Valley was the erection of a new parsonage. This, under the leadership of the pastor, with the co-operation of an earnest and enthusiastic people, was soon accomplished. There was a marked need of a new parsonage there, and the need was speedily met. The pastor and his family now occupy a parsonage of nine rooms, conveniently arranged, and with every modern appointment.

Extensive improvements have been made on our church property at Lincoln, costing about $2,500; at Arrowsmith, costing $800; Minier, costing $700, while minor improvements have been made on the churches at McLean, Mt. Pulaski, and Bell Chapel, on the Wapella charge, and also on the parsonages at McLean and San Jose, as well as at other points.

About two weeks ago the parsonage at Weldon unfortunately burned down, entailing a great loss to that people. They are not disheartened, but are adding largely to the amount of insurance they have received, and are planning a larger and better home for their pastor. The pastor suffered the destruction of his household effects, which, fortunately, was fully covered by insurance.

A debt-paying campaign was led by the pastor at Mason City, in which the people seemed as glad to co-operate as the pastor was to lead. Thus a $1,500 debt was liquidated, which had been incurred on improvements made several years ago.

A new church building is contemplated at Waynesville, and, by the manner the people have responded to the pastor's appeals for subscriptions for the enterprise, they are encouraged to pursue the undertaking.

Through the year there has been an advance in pastoral support to the amount of $1,100. Yet with this increase and the increases of recent years, there are some of our pastors who are still sadly underpaid.

Evangelism

It may be truthfully said that the district has been thoroughly evangelized. I cannot recall a charge on the district, which has not had its evangelistic campaign. Not a few meetings were held in the fall and winter season. Among the more successful of these meetings were those held at Mason City, Waynesville, Wapella, Atlanta, Heyworth and LeRoy, while at First Church, Bloomington, good results were secured by observing the month of January as a month of decision, when personal appeals were made and earnest instructions given, culminating in a day of decision at which time sixty-five were admitted into church membership.

At the time of the meeting of our Ministerial Association, a District Commission on Evangelism was ordered and organized. Under its direction the district was divided into several groups, there being about six or seven charges represented in each group, the pastors within each group co-operating together in each meeting. For the most part each group secured a tent, and moved it from place to place within the territory covered by that group. Thus it was by this grouping process throughout nearly all the summer season we had five or six series of meetings being held simultaneously on the district. We gave special attention to the rural charges, and endeavored to aid in the solution of the rural problem, placing the stress on the rural churches which had fallen into disuse, and caring for waste places. Out of some of these meetings new appointments have been organized and churches have been greatly revived. In the undertaking we met with many obstacles and our plans were greatly hindered, on account of the abnormal condition of the season. Night after night we were compelled to abandon our meetings because of excessive rains and violent storms. Yet all voted this plan of bearing the gospel to every community, and carrying the spirit of evangelism to every neighborhood, a decided success. Our experience was rich, and we now feel better qualified to carry forward a similar movement with better results. However, not a few professed saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, many churches were quickened, and other important results were secured, which cannot be tabulated.

Church Records

I am more fully convinced than ever of the need of a proper and careful keeping of our church records, and at the close of each year the pastor ought to have his record in perfect order. It is discouraging and unjust to a new pastor, though he has had a good revival and taken many into the church, to be compelled, in the interest of accuracy, to reduce the roll of his membership by scores so that his reports seem to discredit the actual work he has accomplished. This condition prevails in several charges on the district every year because of the lack of proper care of the records by the pastors. But in spite of this fact, which applies to some charges on this district, we shall be able to report a gratifying increase in membership.

District Meeting

One needs scarcely mention the district meeting, nor the strong program presented by the pastors, enriched and strengthened by the presence of Bishop McDowell, Drs. Blake, Bovard, Calkins and others, whose addresses in behalf of the causes they represent brought inspiration and encouragement to us all, and made for larger effectiveness in our various lines of endeavor during the rest of the year. If these meetings could be held earlier in the Conference year, their value and influence would be greatly enhanced.

Benevolences

In the matter of the Benevolences there remaineth yet much to be done before we attain to perfection. It may be that too many of us are without a definite program in this particular. There is no other part of our work in which we are so tempted to procrastinate as in this. We are prone to leave it until the close of the Conference year, when the stewards are pressing their work and everything else on the charge, of a financial nature, is being stressed, looking toward the close of the Conference year. The temptation is strong to depend on the new financial plan to accomplish it all, almost assuming that with the adoption of the new financial plan our responsibility for the Benevolences ceases.

We all appreciated the fact that the strenuous campaigns, carried on for special causes, must of necessity affect our offerings for the regular Benevolences, and yet, from the data at hand, I am warranted in reporting that we shall be able to show a substantial gain for these causes over last year. We plead guilty to the fact that we might have made a better showing, had we given this task our earlier attention and followed a more definite program.

Summoned

Late in January, in the city of Bloomington, one of our honored superannuates, the Rev. J. C. Keller, "fell on sleep." His very best had been given to the church. His call to the ministry was clear, his preaching always evangelistic, his courage strong, his convictions deep, his faith undaunted, and his was a sturdy soul. Surely he has been made ruler over many things and has entered into the joy of his Lord.

Illinois Wesleyan University

One of the greatest achievements of the year is the triumphant close of the great campaign for the Illinois Wesleyan, which was completed on June 1st, with all conditions governing the campaign fully met. Not only was the $350,000 secured to meet the conditions necessary to secure the magnificent gift of $200,000 on the part of Mrs. Buck, but the faithful and heroic service of the endowment secretaries made other friends for the institution and opened the way for other-gifts. Thus other moneys and subscriptions have been received, which could not be directly applied to meet Mrs. Buck's proposition. Since the close of the campaign gifts have been secured, which have increased the full amount to $379,800. This, in addition to a farm, subject to a life interest, which is valued at $32,000, makes a total secured by the Wesleyan of $411,800, which, together with Mrs. Buck's gift of $200,000, makes a grand total secured throughout the campaign of $611,800.

We say it modestly, but it is a fact that very few schools of Methodism have secured so large an amount in so short a time. The amount secured during the past four years represents, by far, a larger sum than the total assets of any Methodist institution in Illinois, save the Northwestern, and it may be said, save one, it equals the combined assets of any two others.

Great honor and credit is due the endowment secretaries for the noble part they had in this colossal task, as well as those who responded so liberally to their appeals, and especially to Dr. Kemp does a large share of this honor belong, for his vision, faith, inspiration and direction. It is gratifying to know that, during the past seven years, properties, moneys and subscriptions have been received by the school equal to twice the amount received in any forty years of its previous history.

Several new teachers have been added to the faculty. Mr. J. W. Hake, A. B., A. M., has been engaged to take the chair of Physics and Astronomy. Mr. Jesse Bogue, of DePauw and Boston Universities, has been secured to take the place in the college of instructor of Public Speaking and Oratory. Miss Mable Peters, a graduate of the Iowa State University, will teach Domestic Art. These come with thorough equipment and training, as well as experience, for the positions they are to fill.

Besides these, Miss Lillian Zimmerman, a graduate of last year's class of the Illinois Wesleyan, has been added to the Academy staff, and Miss May James, also a graduate of the Wesleyan, and of large and important teaching experience, takes the principalship of the Academy, in the place of Miss Helen Dean, who has been granted a year's absence.

All these teachers are men and women of sterling Christian character and will not only add strength to the teaching force but will exert a wholesome moral and religious influence over the student body.

Speaking of the School of Music, it may be said that important changes have been made in the personnel of the faculty and in the method of conducting the school. The school has been brought into close relationship with the college. Most of the stronger and more efficient teachers have been retained and others have been added. Professor Henry P. Ames, LL. B., Mus. D., has been retained as Director, and the school will this year maintain its increasingly high standards.

Dr. Wilder has spent the greater part of the summer in research work, in the Congressional Library at Washington, D. C., in connection with his department of English Bible and Religion. His work the past year has been of great value, and his courses are growing in popularity. We commend these courses to our young people who desire inspiring and thorough work in the Bible and Bible literature.

It is to be noted that the school is improved in its moral and religious tone. It promises to be more and more an important school for the training of Methodist youth, of young ministers, missionaries and workers of the Kingdom. The prospects are encouraging and the outlook bright for a large attendance this year.

Women's Organizations

The district is greatly indebted to the women's organizations for no small measure of help in whatever progress has been made, for much of that which has been accomplished would have been impossible without their assistance. Some of the Ladies' Aid Societies and kindred organizations have aided the local churches to the amount of over $1,000, while others have approached that amount. The Women's Missionary Societies have had a most successful year. The Foreign Society will exceed its offerings of last year. For the Home Society, last year was a banner year, and yet the officials of the organization assure me that their reports of this year will suffer nothing by comparison with the reports of last year.

Here let me express my high appreciation to the Brethren of the district for their hearty co-operation, and to the laity for their earnest support in the things we have sought to achieve. For all that has been accomplished has been made possible through their loyalty, service and devotion.

B. F. Shipp.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell, Fathers and Brethren:

I now present my sixth and last report as Superintendent of Champaign District. Each passing year my sense of privilege and responsibility has deepened and I have become a wiser man, a more sympathetic brother and a more charitable Christian. For all this I am indebted to the loyal ministers and laymen with whom I have been privileged to work, to the experience and discipline peculiar to the office, and to the infinite mercy and grace of my Heavenly Father. I here record my thanks to the pastors and their devoted wives and to the laity of the Quarterly Conferences for uniform kindness and generous and gracious forbearance and to God for his benignant providence and patient, constant love.

Very pleasant and helpful has been the association with the large circle of retired ministers residing in the Twin Cities. The quiet and beautiful life of these aged and honored servants and their queenly wives is a benediction to the church and community.

Transfers

Soon after Conference the two missionary pastors left us. Rev. Oscar M. Buck, of Bondville, was transferred to the Rock River Conference and later was elected to the chair of Missions in the Ohio Wesleyan University. Rev. C. H. Davis came to Bondville from the Danville District. Rev. W. D. Beal, of Tolono, returned to India, and Rev. H. A. Sherman came to Tolono from the East Maine Conference. These changes were consummated January 1st. September 1st Rev. J. E. Strevey, of Mahomet, was transferred to the Columbia River Conference, whence Rev. Charles W. Monson was transferred to the Illinois Conference.

Convocations

The autumnal meeting of pastors and district stewards, held at First Church, Champaign, was addressed by Benj. F. Kagey, Secretary of the Laymen's Association of our Conference, by Dr. Fred Fisher, of New York, and by Bishop Henderson, of Chattanooga. The financial and spiritual features of the Methodist Forward Movement were stressed in these stimulating addresses.

The Ministerial Association met March 1st and 2d in the new church at Gibson City. Marked features were the fellowship supper, the musicale by the local choir, the large number of laymen on the program and the strong addresses of Drs. W. J. Davidson and U. G. Leazenby. This meeting also accented the mutual responsibility of the clergy and laity as co-workers in the kingdom.

The Epworth Leaguers were royally entertained June 17th and 18th at First Church, Urbana, by Dr. Piersel and his young people. Drs. E. Earl Taylor, Dan B. Brummitt and Lynn Harold Hough painted inspirational visions luring us to nobler service. While no awards for efficient work were offered this year, the reports showed that the youthful hosts had wrought faithfully and successfully. They pledged themselves to continue the support of a missionary and his wife in Cheng-Tu, West China, and to leave the selection of the workers to the Missionary Board. These young people are now putting $1,100 a year into this work on the "Parish Abroad Plan" and thus lead the districts of our denomination. To work with these earnest young disciples has been a joy and a blessing.

Material Improvements

These have been less than during any previous year of my term. This is the only year of the six without a dedication or re-opening, and it is due in part at least to these facts. Nine new churches have been dedicated, five others have been so completely rebuilt as to be practically new, seven others have been extensively remodeled, and five others have been quite fully repaired. Seven new parsonages have been built or bought and three others have been remodeled.

But notwithstanding all this some things are being done. St. Joseph has torn down its shabby and musty old brick church and has under construction a modern brick edifice of twenty-one rooms. It will cost about $17,000, and is to be ready for dedication next February. When completed, Pastor Howard will have led his people to buy a new parsonage and build a new church. He and his efficient wife have conducted two gracious revivals on the charge. No wonder the people have increased the salary and insist on their return for another year.

Rev. A. A. Heinlein, of Weedman, has completed his course at Garrett Biblical Institute and has also led his people to let a contract for the remodeling of their church at a probable cost of $3,500. This will give them a good basement and an additional room for the League and Sunday School. The reopening will occur in October and then will this society have a beautiful little country church.

On the Fisher charge Pastor Dundas persuaded the Shiloh people to provide themselves with a basement kitchen and dining room. The improvement cost $500.00 and adds greatly to the equipment of the plant.

Rev. Alfred Wicks, of Ogden, raised and spent $120 in needed improvements on the Central Church.

Rev. H. S. Thrall, of the Gifford charge, has inspired the Methodists of Penfield to remodel their church. The money is subscribed and the work, which waited the subsiding of the floods and the completion of the harvest, has begun. A basement, a furnace, new pews and other improvements are planned.

A beautiful, modern, high-grade pipe organ has been placed in First Church, Champaign, as a memorial of the late Henry H. Harris, by his widow, Mrs. Melissa Harris, and his sons, B. F. and N. M. Harris. The pastor places a valuation of $15,000 on the instrument and the congregation are deeply grateful to the donors.

Rev. Wilbert Dowson has done many good things at Bement this year but that which prophecies most for the future of the church is the vision given his people of the need of a new building. Over $11,000 have been subscribed and work will begin next spring. When Bement and Mansfield build and Paxton, Gifford, Ogden and the churches of Sidney and Rantoul circuits are remodeled, the district will be thoroughly equipped with modern churches.

On Sunday, Nov. 22d, while Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Moon were eating dinner, the parsonage at Sadōrus took fire and the house was soon reduced to ashes. A neat six-room, brick-veneered house, with slate roof and basement, is ready for the new preacher. Brother Moon has worked with most commendable energy and wisdom to bring the new parsonage to completion. It cost $4,500, and is paid for except about $1,100.

Repairs on parsonages have been made at a total cost of $4,642 and $3,065 has been paid on old indebtedness on parsonages. Improvements have been made on churches that total $5,424 and $14,061 has been paid on old indebtedness on churches. Last year's Minutes reported an indebtedness of $36,320 on church property. Of this $5,000 was at First Church, Champaign, $20,000 at Gibson City, $2,000 at First Church, Urbana, $6,825 at Trinity Church, Urbana, and the remaining $2,495 was distributed among seven charges. These lesser sums have nearly all been paid and the debt at Gibson City has been reduced to $14,945, that is, within one year after dedication ten-seventeenths of the cost of the church has been paid and the balance is covered by good subscription. First Church, Champaign, still carries about $2,000 of its old indebtedness, covered by bankable notes. Trinity carries its parsonage debt and First Church, Urbana, has added $500 to its indebtedness. But the total indebtedness on church and parsonage property valued at $676,300 does not, I think, exceed $20,000, which is a remarkable record in view of the amount of building and remodeling done during the last six years. The debt now is $14,000 less than it was six years ago and the valuation is $170,500 greater.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have raised $8,793 this year, and some of these societies have contributed much to the social and spiritual life of the church.

Pastoral Support

The increase in Quarterly Conference allowance for pastoral support is $600. If the salary paid by two Presbyterian churches, affiliated by a partial federation for pastoral supervision and support, is added, the net increase would be $1,200. The increase this year is: Philo and St. Joseph $100 each, Urbana First $400, Champaign circuit $200 and Savoy $400. The increase in the last two is due to the salary paid by Jersey and Prairie View Presbyterian churches. This increase of $1,200 brings the total increase up to $10,280. By Quarterly Conference action^a the following increass have been allowed for next year: Monticello, Paxton, Seymour, $100 each; Fisher, $160; Bement, $200; Pesotum, $300. This is a legacy of $1,060 for my successor and makes the total increase in pastoral support during my term of office $11,240.

While this increase of more than $11,000 has helped the pastors, it has also benefited the charges. Increased financial support secures a better type of pastoral service, and financial appreciation on the part of the charge stimulates the pastor to more cheerful and efficient service.

But this does not tell the whole story. For by merited promotion, either within or without the district, an advance of $3,200 has been secured. Though not the result of Quarterly Conference action, but of administration, the money has been just as acceptable and beneficial to the pastors who have received it.

It is also worthy of note that with one exception this advanced salary through promotion was not received by the men getting the larger salaries and also that a majority of the men are or were on circuits.

Length of Pastorates

Of the 94 men who have served with me as pastors, five were supplies for a period of less than one year; 38 served for one year; 31 for two years; 6 for three years; 6 for four years; 3 for five years and 5 for six years. The long suffering five, who have patiently borne the burden of my superintendency, are Baker, Bell, Hartley, Judy and Powell. Caseley, Enninger and Mc-

Daniel made a safe "get-away" at the end of the fifth year, and Wells at the end of the fourth. Beck, Fairchild, Pletcher, Thrall and Wicks are un-escaped four-year men. Artz, Fultz, Mathis and Sandmeyer escaped at the end of the third year, while after three years of Maddening affliction Howard, Hunter, Schuett and Tull rejoice that the hour of my departure is at hand. And I rejoice with them.

The long termers are invited to return as is often the case when such characters are paroled, even for a few days, in order to attend Conference. Hartley, Howard, Hunter, Schuett and Tull are each invited to return for a fourth year; Fairchild and Pletcher, each, for a fifth and Baker for a ninth. Nearly all the other pastors have been invited to return.

If Dr. James C. Baker returns, he will begin the ninth consecutive year of his pastorate at Trinity Church, Urbana. This will be the longest pastorate in the history of our Conference, and it is notable in other respects. The last report of his worthy predecessor, who built Trinity Church, showed a membership of 300 with an offering of $539 for Benevolences and a cash salary of $1,000. In eight years 964 members have been received. The membership now is 750, a net growth of 450. The offering for Benevolences is over 1,700 and the cash salary $2,500. These figures tell of a healthy growth in a constantly changing congregation, but do not tell the unmeasured influence for righteousness of this strategic pulpit upon the life of the University of Illinois and through the student body upon the kingdom of God even to the uttermost parts of the world.

Did time permit and were my poor vocabulary equal to the task, it would be a pleasure to characterize the work of each pastor. All have toiled faithfully and each has his own peculiar excellence. Their combined virtues and united strength make them a peerless body of Methodist preachers.

Promotions

The average term of these pastorates would have been longer had not several of the pastors been moved sooner than their parishioners desired. I have been severely criticised, especially by one church, for moving men when the only reason was the pastor's promotion. But in every case the promotion was merited and it put the man in line for a second promotion which he could not have received without the first. His whole career as a minister was affected by his promotion. In the end both the charge and the pastor are helped by merited promotion.

But, for the average man, promotion is limited and slow. Of the 298 charges in our Conference only about one-third are paying a cash salary of $1,200 and above. From this number take the circuits that are paying $1,200 and above, and the charges like First Church, Springfield, which will never be open to most of us, and it is evident that the average man who has reached a station paying a cash salary of $1,200 has not much farther to climb; when he thinks of the number of men with whom he must share the opportunity for promotion, need he be surprised if promotion comes slowly? Let us not forget these stern limitations under which the cabinet must work and to which we all are subject. Do not all of us need often to remind ourselves that promotion is not the chief end of the ministry and that even the lesser field needs the skill and devotion of intensive cultivation and will yield a commensurate harvest?

Benevolences

Four special appeals have been responded to this year. During the December epidemic of scarlet fever at the Baby Fold at Normal, a crying appeal came for help and 16 charges responded. Their offering totaled $151. For the War Relief Fund of our Missionary Society seventeen charges gave the sum of $347.

Through Bishops Bashford and McDowell there came a call from Bishop Lewis for a special gift from the Epworth Leagues of Champaign District of $100 for Central China. The Leagues have sent $104 to the Missionary Treasurer at New York City and the pastors have the vouchers.

The report from the pastors shows that $23,025 have been subscribed since last Conference toward the endowment of the Illinois Wesleyan University.

In response to the question, "Will your report for the Disciplinary Benevolences exceed that of this Charge last year?" twenty-seven men answered "yes." If in finishing the collecting these prophecies are fulfilled, their significance will be realized when we recall the fact that there was a net gain last year of $2,147 in the Disciplinary Benevolences. Five pastors, Settles, Baker, Dundas, Jones and Thrall, report all apportionments paid in full and a majority of the pastors report an increase in the amount of the Disciplinary Benevolences.

In more than half of the charges the Stewards obey the law of the church and collect the four claims for ministerial support. Bement was the only charge to pay these four claims at the first and second Quarterly Conferences, and the first and only charge to report them all paid in full at the fourth Quarterly Conference. Some of the appointments on the Rantoul circuit made an enviable record in paying these claims promptly.

A majority of the charges use some form of the every member canvass and their financial work is greatly improved thereby. However, I am compelled to report that some of the laymen do not give the Benevolences a square deal in making the canvass. In some instances they favor the local and discount the Benevolent budget. In one charge the treasurer and official board appropriated to the expense of the local church money pledged and paid for Benevolences.

Perhaps two canvasses, one in the fall for the local budget, and another in the spring for the Benevolences, would help to remedy this defect.

Women's Societies

It is a genuine pleasure to call attention to the splendid organization and achievements of the Women's Societies. Mrs. E. G. Coon, of Rantoul, has been the efficient and beloved president of the W. F. M. S. for eleven years. During her queenly reign the society has steadily grown and its annual offerings have increased from $2,200 in 1903 to $6,100 in 1914.

The W. H. M. S. has a well equipped and splendidly officered plant in Urbana, known as the Cunningham Children's Home. The department of sociology at the University of Illinois has, after careful study of this institution, voluntarily and publicly commended its methods and work. Its increasing efficiency and popularity is due to the loyalty of its Board of Directors and the wise and affectionate administration of Superintendent and Mrs. Fowler.

Evangelism and Membership

The revival spirit has been prevalent in a marked degree in nearly every charge. Fithian, Rankin, Pesotum, Farmer City, Bement and Mahomet enjoyed gracious revivals. Pastor Schuett reports 144 accessions, of whom he received 101 Easter morning. The reported conversions number 938. Of these 132 were members of our church and 82 of other churches. The total number of accessions reported is 1,205, which is 11 9-10 per cent. Twenty-five charges report an increase of 633.

Evangelist Thomas conducted revival services at Rantoul, Farmer City and Rankin. His work resulted in the organization of five Gospel teams in the district. The teams at Farmer City and Mahomet failed to apprehend the genius of the movement; but the Rantoul, Rankin, and Pesotum men have done very efficient work in their home charges and elsewhere in the district. The visit of twenty or thirty laymen, filled with the Holy Spirit and hungry for souls, is a benediction to any charge. To hear these men pray and testify and to see them do personal work in the congregation is a wholesome stimulus to any local congregation. May their number multiply and their spirit become contagious.

Wesley Foundation

The postponed annual meeting of Board of Trustees was held Monday, January 11th, in the Y. M. C. A. building at the University of Illinois. Reports were received and trustees and officers elected. Friday evening, May 7th, President James and Bishop McDowell addressed a meeting of the business men of the Twin Cities at a banquet given by the ladies of Trinity Church. On Sunday, May 9th, the work of the Wesley Foundation was presented in the Methodist pulpits of the Twin Cities by Bishop McConnel and President Robertson, of Wesley College, Grand Forks, North Dakota. On Sunday, May 23d, Bishop McDowell, Executive Secretary McCammon, and Dr. J. C. Baker made the final public appeal of the May campaign for $40,000 from the people of the Twin Cities. The report, through the committee on education, of the Executive Secretary, Rev. G. E. McCammon, will show the result to date of this campaign and of his work during the past two years.

So far as active campaigning in the Illinois Conference is concerned, the Wesley Foundation has given way to the urgent needs of other institutions. This year substantial help is desired in raising the one hundred thousand dollars needed at once.

Summary

The statistical reports for this year have not yet been verified, but the totals will not probably differ greatly from those of last year. The comparison between the statistics of 1909 and those of 1914 is interesting and suggestive. Where a change in the form of the tables has affected the grouping of items and the totals, the necessary correction has been made. And yet, as I shall point out in a moment, the percentages resultant from these figures are not in every instance entirely fair.

Membership: 1909, 9,230; 1914, 10,778. Increase, 548, or 16 per cent.

Property: Value of Churches: 1909, $424,000; 1914, $542,300. Increase, $118,300. Value of parsonages: 1909, $81,800; 1914, $134,000. Increase, $52,500. Total increase in property, $170,500, or 33 per cent.

Pastoral Support (house rent not included): 1909, $33,820; 1914, $41,350. Increase, $7,530, or 22 per cent. If we take the figures for the full term of six years given in a previous paragraph, the increase is $11,240, which is 33 per cent.

Disciplinary Benevolences: 1909, $13,891; 1914, $29,455. Increase, $15,564, or 112 per cent. While this is true according to the published statistics, it is only just to say that $9,000 of last year's increase was a special gift. The normal increase last year without this special gift was $2,147 and for the five years it was $6,564, or 47 per cent.

Recapitulation: The per cent of increase for the five years 1909-1914 is: Membership 16, pastoral support 22, property 33, Disciplinary Benevolences 47.

Spirit of Our Stewardship

According to the Conference average of gain as given last year by Dr. Galeener, Champaign District seems to have much whereof it might boast. But when our gains are measured by our resources our boasting is vain. Not in a complacent spirit but in a sense of justice to the men whose faithful toil has with God's blessing produced the harvest, have I tabulated the visible results of their labor. May the silent, the invisible and the unmeasured results, known only to God, revealed only by the lapse of time, be far greater. May His Grace grant this and His mercy pardon us for the work we might and should but have not done.

With gratitude for the privilege of this stewardship, I now return to you,

Bishop McDowell, the commission given me six years ago by the now sainted Bishop Goodsell and renewed annually by his honored successors. To my brethren of the Illinois Conference I pledge anew my love and loyalty and to God I rededicate my life for service in His kingdom.

F. B. Madden.

DANVILLE DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

The past year has been marked by earnest labor on the part of the pastors, and in almost all instances faithful co-operation on the part of the churches, so that I am able to report at this time prosperity and progress along all lines of church endeavor.

However, the year has not been without its usual anxieties, its disappointments, and in some homes pungent grief, for since the close of the last Conference three of the retired preachers of the Danville District have been summoned to their eternal reward, viz.: H. T. Collins, who died in Oklahoma and was brought to Catlin for burial, and W. M. Poe and N. E. Parsons, both of whom held a large place in the affections of the people of Homer. In addition to these three noble men I here make record of the death of the devoted wife of Chaplain T. A. Parker.

Pastoral Changes

Soon after the close of the last Conference, Dr. G. E. Scrimger was appointed to Newman because Rev. A. F. Ewert failed to go to his appointment after the Conference. Dr. Scrimger has completed a year of faithful and successful labor.

January 1st, C. H. Davis, pastor at Metcalf, was appointed to Bondville in the Champaign District, and Metcalf has since been very acceptably supplied by M. A. Madsen, who was appointed last fall to Vermilion Heights, Danville, and Vermilion Heights has been taken care of during the remainder of the year through the efficient ministry of Rev. T. F. Shouse, who now holds a supernumerary relation and resides at Danville.

Material Improvements

December 27th, the church at Villa Grove, enlarged, rebuilt, and redecored, was rededicated. Since that date Rev. J. T. Stretton has had the satisfaction of being the pastor of a church whose equipment is abundantly sufficient to accommodate his large and growing Sunday School. The cost of this improvement was $11,000.

February 2d, at Rossville, a fine new pipe organ costing $3,000 was dedicated with appropriate services. This organ is a memorial gift of Phillip Cadle, a trustee of the local church. The church building since has been frescoed and steps have been taken to provide a new heating plant.

May 2d, a beautiful new church was dedicated at East Lynn. The building is brick, trimmed with Bedford stone, having sixteen rooms with full basement, equipped with steam heating plant, and electric lights,—a model building for a small village. The marvel is that it could be built for $12,500. This structure is a monument to the untiring zeal and the heroic determination of Rev. E. L. Tobie, the pastor, and his faithful wife.

The church at Scotland on the Edgar work has been repaired and much improved. Also the churches at Armstrong and Sidell have been redecored.

At Easter time, Bishop Quayle lectured to a large audience at Newman on a Saturday evening, and preached to the delight and satisfaction of a great and appreciative audience Sunday morning. After the morning sermon $1,300 was subscribed to be applied on an old indebtedness.

Work has been begun on a new church at Camargo. This building is to be modern in all its appointments and to cost when completed about $14,000. Great credit for promoting this enterprise is due the pastor, Rev. Gye Park.

Grace Church, Danville, has taken on new life under the leadership of Rev. J. L. McGriffin, the pastor, and now plans extensive improvements which will mean the expenditure of more than $4,000.

At Georgetown, the Buchanan sisters proposed to give $2,000 towards a new parsonage, provided the congregation would give an additional $2,000. The money has been subscribed, the contract has been let, and the pastor, Rev. S. N. Wakefield, is glad.

A benevolent lady whose death occurred some months ago left a legacy of $1,000 for the church at Chrisman. This will probably encourage the Chrisman people to build a much needed new parsonage.

At Hoopeston plans are now upon foot to erect a men's chapel, the first floor of which is to be used as a boys' gymnasium, and the second floor to afford accommodations for the large and flourishing men's class of this growing church. In this connection, I may say that the credit for this enterprise is largely due to the efforts of Rev. W. L. Ewing, the capable and efficient pastor of this church for the past three years, and whose transfer to Centenary Church, Terre Haute, is accounted by the Hoopeston people a great loss to them.

Evangelism

Revival meetings have been held during the year in nearly every church and about 1,000 conversions have been reported. If these reports made at the fourth Quarterly Conferences are correct every charge in the district will show an increase in membership, except two, and one of these would have shown an increase but for an error in the report of last year.

The churches reporting the largest increases in membership are Armstrong, First Church, Hoopeston, Kimber, Lincoln, Vermilion Heights, Homer, and Rossville.

The plans for the Methodist Forward Movement did not reach the pastors in time for them to do very much this summer. When they are again settled, the indications are that this important movement will be pushed with vigor.

Benevolences

The continued wet weather, and the difficulties which the farmers have encountered in threshing their grain, may affect the Benevolences unfavorably in some of the charges, but it is hoped that the totals will be in advance of last year, for many of the charges have made material advances over last year.

The Ladies' Aid Societies are becoming more and more financial and social factors in the life of the churches. Large amounts have been raised to aid in the creation of new building, make improvements, and pay off old indebtedness.

Among the districts of the Illinois Conference under the Educational Forward Movement the Danville District stands second in the subscriptions made to the Endowment Fund of the Illinois Wesleyan University. The amount subscribed will total more than $30,000. Added to these subscriptions is a farm valued at $32,000, subject to a life interest, making in all more than $62,000.

District Meetings

The District Ministerial and Laymen's Association held at Hoopeston March 2d and 3d was well attended. The practical lectures delivered by Prof. W. J. Davidson, of Evanston, the stirring address of Dr. U. G. Leazenby, of Crawfordsville, Ind., on the new financial plan, and the helpful messages of Dr. J. S. Dancy, of Chicago, were greatly appreciated by both pastors and laymen.

The District Epworth League Convention was held at Tuscola, June 9th and 10th, and brought together about 150 of our best young people.

Danville had the privilege of entertaining the State Sunday School Convention in June. The effect of this convention upon the nearby schools was marked by an increased attendance on the part of the scholars and an increased interest on the part of the teachers. The wide awake pastors are giving more and more attention to this important department of church work. That pastor will not do lasting and permanent work who fails to recognize the importance of religious education.

Robert Stephens

Robert Stephens, the indefatigable and efficient Field Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society, will not be present at this session of the Conference. This will be the first roll-call and session he has missed since he became a member, 42 years ago. He instructed me to answer to his name "present in spirit."

For a number of months he has been seriously ill and for some weeks unable to leave the house. On September 3d he was further afflicted and his heart saddened by the death of his son in California, who has been sick a long time.

However, he hopes for an early recovery and plans to be in the field next year in the interest of the society, which has such a large place in his thoughts. The full scope of his work for the retired preacher can hardly be appreciated by those who are not intimately acquainted with what he has accomplished. Taking everything into consideration, he has done a remarkable work.

Conclusion

During the past six years $130,000 has been spent in improving church property and in the erection of new buildings.

There has been an increase of nearly 2,000 members during the past six years.

Six years ago the amount paid for ministerial support was $42,537; this year it is a little more than $50,000, making a gain of about $8,000 in six years.

Six years ago the Disciplinary Collections amounted to $14,852; last year the report was $18,160, an increase of $2,000 in five years.

Six years ago there were 9,314 scholars in the Sunday Schools. Last year the report was 11,148, an increase of 3,308 in five years.

The praise for whatever advance has been made belongs to the faithful and loyal pastors, whose fellowship I have greatly enjoyed, and whose friendship I appreciate. I desire here to thank the pastors and people of Danville District for their hospitality and their loyalty, and for every act of kindness which has been extended to me throughout the six years of my service upon the district.

H. C. Gibbs.

DECATUR DISTRICT

Bishop W. F. McDowell and Brethren:

When the appointments were read last year only two charges in Decatur District, Cadwell and Sanner Chapel, were left to be supplied. Cadwell was to have been supplied by J. F. Harvey, but certain statements in the daily papers seemed to indicate that at least two men had been appointed to Cadwell, and, before the confusion could be resolved, Brother Harvey felt himself compelled to accept another appointment, leaving Cadwell vacant. The vacancy was filled by the appointment of E. A. Weaver, who presents a good report of his work. Sanner Chapel was supplied by the appointment of P. L. York, who has wrought so acceptably that there is a unanimous request for his return.

Not in any year of my service on the District have the pastors worked more earnestly and faithfully up to the very last day of the Conference year, and their work has not been unappreciated. It is a pleasure to record that in spite of the hard financial conditions of the year the salaries of the preachers have been well maintained. In some cases there has even been an advance. Sharon, formerly attached to Harristown, has advanced from $300 to $400 (this largely because it is now a federated church); St. Paul's, Decatur, from $400 to $600; Tower Hill from $750 to $800; La Place and Lake City from $800 to $850; Nokomis from $1,000 to $1,200; Stonington from $1,200 to $1,300; Warrensburg from $1,000 to $1,300; and Lovington from $1,320 to $1,400. Specially honorable mention should be made of the church at Niantic. In addition to having its share in the prevailing depression this town was hard hit by the closing of a coal mine, which was a large financial asset to the community. A number of people were compelled to seek employment elsewhere and there was a resulting loss of about one-third of the membership of the church. In spite of all this the heroic little band has not only refused to lower the salary but has paid it every month. A few places have reduced their estimates on the plea of hard times, although, strangely enough, these charges are situated in the less injured portions of the district. That part of the district which has suffered longest and most severely from crop failures shows some of the advances but none of the retreats. Moweaqua falls back from $1,500 to $1,400; Argenta from $1,100 to $900; Harristown from $700 to $600. In a readjustment of Rosemond and Millersville charges, Rosemond makes an advance of $184, while Millersville and Buckeye balance with a gain of $20 at Buckeye and a loss of $20 at Millersville. The excess of gains over losses in the district is $864.

This year will show further progress in the matter of prorating. It has been urged and explained with increased emphasis and detail. In spite of this a few Boards of Stewards persist in putting their hands into the pockets of the old preachers and taking money therefrom to pay the pastor and the District Superintendent. Personally I object to being made party to the transaction.

As it is my purpose to refund the amounts overpaid me, as I have done with the like deficits of last year, I ask permission in consultation with the Statistical Secretary to make corresponding reductions in the amounts reported as received by me.

A fair degree of progress has been realized in the increase and improvement of our property holdings. Two churches have been dedicated this year and two have been formally re-opened after extensive improvements. A considerable addition to the church at Forsyth was made at an actual cash outlay of $500, but was easily worth twice that and is used more than any other part of the building. It was formally re-opened on Jan. 3d, the pastor raising the money needed to clear the building of debt. On June 20th the re-opening service for the church at Mt. Zion was conducted by Rev. Parker Shields, who preached, raised money and rededicated the church, all with consummate skill. The church was raised, provided with a basement, decorated and re-seated at a cost of about $1,600. The most interesting event of the year was the dedication of the new St. Paul's Church, Decatur, on May 9th. The First Church generously threw open its doors and invited all Decatur Methodism to come in and help finance the enterprise and then led off splendidly in the giving, an instance of the connectional spirit of Methodism not often exhibited. The invitation was accepted. Bishop McDowell preached the sermon, Dr. John Thompson, of Chicago, managed the financial end of the occasion, and then in the evening, after a splendid burst of giving by the people of St. Paul's themselves, Bishop McDowell dedicated the church. The whole cost of church and parsonage was $12,000, while the church alone is easily worth $15,000.

Just a week later the new church at Long Creek was dedicated. The cost of the building was $8,000, of which $2,000 was to be raised. This business was in the hands of our own, only and original Robert Stephens, who handled it with his wonted skill and good humor. The victory of the year has been realized at Arthur, where a new church has long been needed and strongly urged in the face of what seemed to be an immovable opposition. Brother Enninger has succeeded in overcoming the opposition. A lot has been purchased near the business center of town. A comparatively new house which stood on the lot and is being made fully modern will give the charge one of the best parsonages in the district. The old parsonage and church have been sold, and the foundation for a new and modern brick church is already in. Millersville has purchased a small and unsuitable parsonage. It happened to be the only house in the village that was for sale and they were afraid that the preacher would be left without shelter. They are thinking of building something more suitable. Illiopolis, Stonington and Lovington have all expended considerable sums in the improvement of their properties. These with various and sundry other improvements bring the total amount spent for building and improving up to more than $6,000. At the same time the slow process of paying old debts goes on steadily. At La Place $287 has been paid on the parsonage debt; at Cowden the lingering debt on the church, amounting to $1,840, has been wiped out; the debt on the church at Maroa has been reduced by $1,000, and at Stonington an old debt for improvements has been paid.

After exhibiting this real record of real progress, we must confess that, in some places, the work of the kingdom is seriously impeded by defective buildings and equipment. At Blue Mound, Harristown, Owaneco, Rosemond and Witt the Sunday Schools are cramped in quarters entirely too narrow for efficient work and some of them are in danger of dying by slow strangulation. We are sustaining losses which cannot be repaired. Young people in the most critical period of life are slipping out from under the influence of the church because of these conditions while complacent old saints are saying that the conditions are good enough for them, as if that were the last word on the question. Sanner Chapel worships in a fairly good building which has reached the stage where it will require constant repair and is not suited to any function of a church which is to minister effectively to that prosperous and progressive community. It is encouraging that all these places are beginning to recognize their problems. It is to be hoped that, instead of debating for a long time whether or not to do anything and then deciding offhand what to do, they will resolve speedily to do the needful thing and then take time to consider what that thing is. Nothing else is so wasteful as to build inadequately.

Our report on the Benevolences is not satisfactory. Under advice and urgent pressure from the Commission on Finance, much of the work for this year's Benevolences was put through last fall just before the Conference session when the feeling of general depression over the financial condition was at its lowest ebb. The situation was further complicated by the fact that our Educational Forward Movement was placed in the General Benevolence Budget, and that so late that neither preachers nor people were fully adjusted to the change when the canvass was made. Subscriptions under the old arrangement were continued under the new, the people imagining that they were keeping up to the standard, when in fact there was an actual loss to every cause. The report shows a slight decrease in most of the causes represented. In order to reach even this result the every member canvass had to be supplemented by the strenuous personal effort of the pastor, in most cases. This year the new plan has been urged but not crowded for immediate adoption, because it has been demonstrated that, with an unwilling or unready Official Board, the plan is as likely to prove a hindrance as a help.

In all our financial work both for Benevolences and for local expenses, we are hampered by the unwillingness of many of our churches to really work any system. Some of our charges are without any real financial plan, others are dragging along content with the methods of our grandfathers who wore homespun and drove ox-carts. The ox-cart rate of speed for a modern church soon puts it out of the procession. Many churches have adopted a plan which seems to be progressive, and then have failed to work it through. A great spurt at the beginning, a drifting process through the year, and an abandonment of the Benevolences to the care of the pastor, is a description of their financial program. Not a few official members seem to be infected with the notion that some plan or other is to be sought which will do the work and leave them all their time to make money. When a plan fails to do this it is discarded for some other novelty and so the chase for the end of the rainbow goes on.

A conscientious effort has been made throughout the year, to urge the cause of evangelism upon the preachers and people as the first and indispensable work of the church. It is a pleasure to record that every year of my service on the district has marked a rising of the evangelistic tide, a little at first and then more rapidly. The swell of the movement is indicated by the following figures: In the year 1911-12 there were 600 conversions; in 1912-13, 635; in 1913-14, 800, while this year the total number of conversions amounts to 1,335, which passes the standard which I have been asking the district to reach. The number of additions to the church has been 1,284. Notable revivals of the year were the union evangelistic meetings at Assumption, Hillsboro, and Pana. Almost equally worthy of note, at least for our own churches, were revivals held by some of our pastors: J. C. Brown at St. Paul's, Decatur; F. P. Bonnefon at Tower Hill, J. C. Stamper at Mt. Olive, and G. A. Cox at Witt. Certain of the charges have suffered losses. Niantic loses about one-third of its membership. Blue Mound loses 65 members, Irving 45, Elwin 39, Grace, Decatur, 97. We lose much by reason of the fact that we have no organized and continuous effort. This primal task of the church is often left by deliberate purpose to the play of mere impulse, and so is occasional and spasmodic and apart from the ordinary work and life of the church. Only in very rare cases is the organization of the local church adjusted and applied to this business.

Special attention has been given through the year to the work with children and young people. Scarcely anything in Methodism is more misplaced than the habitual merriment over the question, "Have the rules respecting the instruction of children been observevd?" Our Sunday Schools are doing much to answer this question, and are capable of doing much more, but they will not unless the pastor is able to answer that question by something more than the hackneyed phrase, "in part." As far as possible I have given to each church to which I have made a Sunday visit a whole day rather than a single hurried service followed by a hasty flight to a like service elsewhere. In that day I have visited and studied the Sunday School and have afterward met the officers and teachers for a heart to heart talk on the conditions and needs of that particular school. In the same way when I could I have visited Epworth League Chapters and held conferences with the cabinets. In some cases definite conclusions have been reached as to improvements of method in both Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues, in others after a respectful and kindly hearing things have gone on in the same old way "world without end."

Again we are confronted with the habitual difficulty, lack of system. This is especially true of our Sunday Schools. In some of them the preferences and whims of the pupils determine the literature, the music, the teaching force, in fact practically the whole policy and conduct of the school. Quite a number of schools have the pastor teaching a class of grown-ups whose ideas and habits are fixed, while the school is without a teacher training class. Occasionally the graded system of lessons is adopted in a sort of formal deference to a prevailing fashion with little or no definite effort to make the work effective. We have some schools that are well organized and whose influence upon the schools of the district is helpful. The school at First Church, Decatur, has a national reputation for efficiency organization. Moweaqua is making rapid progress on the same road. Favorable mention may be made of Grace, Decatur, Harriestown and Warrensburg. The most hopeful feature of the situation is the growing desire for more efficient organization and work.

In order to promote more thorough organization and better methods of work in evangelism, in church finances and in Sunday School work, the district has been divided into efficiency groups comprising from four to seven charges. An effort has been made to hold an efficiency institute in each church in the district, but because of the extraordinary weather conditions this has not been accomplished. The experience of the year seems to suggest smaller groups and more intensive work as likely to yield better results.

Generally speaking it has been a good year. The district gatherings were full of profit and interest and inspiration. Our fall meeting was supplied as to program by our own men. The ministerial meeting was helped by the presence of Dr. U. G. Leazenby of the Northwest Indiana Conference, and our own Dr. Davidson. The Epworth League Convention was favored by having as its special speakers Dr. Dan Brummit of the Epworth Herald and Dr. Lynn Harold Hough of Garrett Biblical Institute. These names tell their own story. For the most part the parsonage households have been free from illness serious enough to cause any serious embarrassment to the work.

Death has not knocked at any parsonage door this year, and yet he has not left us undisturbed. At our last Conference session Dr. Horace Reed entered upon his fifty-second year of effective service with ardor undiminished. Some of us thought him smitten more deeply than he knew but few had any thought that he would so soon join the "choir invisible." After Conference he failed steadily until on November 15th he heard the call to come up higher.

"Tranquil amid alarms,
It found him on the field,
A veteran slumbering on his arms,
Beneath his red cross shield.
His sword was in his hand,
Still warm from recent fight,
Ready that moment at command
Through rock and steel to smite.

On February 5th Mrs. Reed followed him. Their separation was brief. For many strong and happy years they "clamb life's hill thegither," then for a few trembling years, still happy, they "toddled down" and now they "sleep thegither at the foot."

In the late winter Brother D. E. May "in age and feebleness extreme" finished his course, having fought a good fight and kept the faith. When almost every other fact had faded from his crumbling memory, still outstood clear and ineffaceable the glorious testimony, "It is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners."

"Thus star by star declines
Till all are passed away
As morning high and higher shines to pure and perfect day.
Nor sink those stars in empty night,
But hide themselves in heaven's own light."

So may we all work and live that of us it may be said, as of these, "He fought a good fight, he kept the faith."

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Members of the Illinois Conference:

To make a complete report of the Jacksonville District would be to record the doings of thirty-eight pastors, write the history of seventy-two churches, and unfold the spiritual experiences of some eleven thousand souls. The larger part of this, by far, would be to recount the steady, faithful, plodding pull, which is always prosy, and never shines in public print or speech, and yet after all is the bone and sinew, the body proper of our church work.

"They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint." These three experiences are common to most all religious work. The soaring on the eagles' wings is always published, marked feats of running usually get into the newspapers, and adorn the district report, but the commonplace, steady, toilsome walk, the gait that breaks up the fallow ground, harrows in the seed, and harvests the grain, makes very uninteresting reading. Hence I shall not try to put this service into words, but may I in the beginning speak this word of tribute for those faithful, patient, toiling pastors, stewards, workers in the Sunday School, Epworth League, Ladies' Aid, Missionary Societies, and other branches of work, whose quiet heroism and sacrifices are published only in cold totals of figures that gladden our hearts, but reveal nothing of the splendid effort which produced them. Thank God, they are fully written in heaven, and will be the most interesting kind of history to gladden eternity.

Getting Started

After Conference the pastors hastened to their fields of labor, and began to plan the year's campaign. The autumn meeting of the pastors and stewards was largely given to organization plans, and successful methods of revival work. We were delighted with the presence and help of Dr. U. G. Leazenby, of the Northwest Indiana Conference, who presented "The New Financial Plan," and from his large experience gave valued information to perplexed pastors and laymen. Twenty-two charges have either completely or in part adopted the New Plan. It is needless to say that these charges have financed their churches more easily and promptly than those following any other method. Besides all this, the plan is rich in spiritual results. It works successfully wherever it is worked. It is a consummation devoutly to be wished, that the sixteen remaining charges who are still using antiquated financial methods will soon wheel into line.

Revivals

The revival work began early. It may be in some cases too early. The proper time for holding a revival meeting is interesting and vital. For the most part the pastors held their own meetings. They helped each other, and some had assistance of Evangelists. Over five hundred conversions were reported, but our great regret is that we cannot report the ten per cent. The Evangelistic Forward Movement has been presented to the Fourth Quarterly Conferences for consideration; constituency rolls have been compiled, and we expect to move out and do our part in winning the two hundred and fifty thousand for Christ. The coming of Evangelist Towle into our district to live is most welcome, and we trust will be helpful in carrying out our evangelistic plans. He holds his second meeting after Conference at Carrollton.

Building and Improvements

The people of Concord are realizing a long time dream. Under the efficient leadership of Brother W. P. Bowman the sentiment for a new church was crystallized into definite plans early in the Conference year. In spite of a most unseasonable summer the work has been pushed forward, and the beautiful new ten thousand dollar church is nearing completion. It is built of Toronto brown pressed brick and modern in every respect, steam heat, and of beautiful design. It will be ready for dedication in the late autumn.

Bluffs, Bluff Springs, Carrollton, Fairview, Meredosia, Brooklyn, and Rockbridge have improved and beautified their churches. Ashland and Virginia made valuable additions to their parsonages. Other improvements are under way or contemplated. Centenary, Jacksonville, will renovate their parsonage, Lynnvile will build a social room and kitchen. Fairview, Oakford, and Kilbourne are putting in commodious basements.

Episcopal Visitation

The spring meeting was a great occasion. We shared together with the other districts of the Conference the joy of having Bishop McDowell with us, also Dr. Bovard, Dr. Trimble, and Dr. Calkins. Dr. Blake did not reach us. Not only did these men enrich the two days program, but the value of the fellowship and personal touch can hardly be overstated. Our entire district is thoroughly convinced that the District Meeting is the ideal place for the Bishop and the General Conference Officers to come into real touch with the preachers and laymen.

The Survey

The distinctive feature of the year's work has been the District Survey, or rather the first steps toward such a survey. The spring meeting constituted a committee to work out practical lines of investigation. There was some difficulty in determining the limits of such an attempt. It was finally decided to get out questionnaires along four lines. First: The Church. Second: The Constituency. Third: Other Churches, and Fourth: Educational. For the most part the men worked out this survey in good shape; others not so well. In some cases the other churches joined our people in working out the constituency roll, by making a united house-to-house canvass of the entire community. Indeed in one instance the Catholic Church joined in the investigation.

One part of this survey called for a map of the charge showing roads, streets, churches, schools, and homes of members and constituency, homes of members in different color. This work has been well done. Some of the thrifty pastors enlisted members of their Epworth Leagues to make these maps and many of them are very attractive. Perhaps the men of this district never answered question thirty-three so heartily and honestly, "Has the pastor made a visiting list, etc." Pastors coming into this district this year will be delighted to find the new seas so well charted.

Another interesting feature of the survey was the weekly report of attendance at the Church services, Sunday School, League, and Prayer meeting, but not enough of the pastors joined in this part to make it a real success.

The Woman's College

The Woman's College, as usual, reports the greatest year of its history. During the summer, enrollment has been slow in all the Colleges, but prospects are now bright for another great year. The College has kept pretty quiet along financial lines on account of the other campaigns, but President Harker now launches upon the long announced campaign to complete the $200,000 endowment required for standard Colleges by January next.

Benevolences

It would seem that during this year we have felt the financial stringency resulting from general conditions, and recent crop failures, even more than during the years of those failures. Nevertheless pastors and people have realized the need of special effort, and have stood by both the current expense budget, and the Benevolent causes. We hope when the final totals are made they will show a gain over last year.

The Reaper

For the first time since my coming to the district work, the Death Angel has entered a parsonage home, and to claim Harold, the eighteen year old son of Brother and Sister W. A. Boyd, and under most distressing circumstances. Harold was a magnificent type of young manhood, brilliant, clean, manly, Christian. He had completed his junior year in the High School. He was seriously considering the ministry as a life work. An expert musician, he played first cornet in Jeffries' Concert Band. While the band was filling a Chautauqua engagement at Gallatin, Missouri, Harold was accidentally drowned in the Grand river, August 19th. Words cannot express the strain and agony of the stricken home until the body was recovered. Brother and Sister Boyd, and daughter, have tested the promise, "My grace is sufficient." Harold had won a large place in the hearts of Jacksonville people, and the city was deeply stirred by his tragic death. Young as he was, and with all life's bright prospect before him, he was ready for life, but none were better prepared for God's call to come up higher.

The year, with all its joys and sorrows, its victories and defeats, has been a good year. The pastors have labored faithfully, they have not realized all their ideals and aspirations, but have proved good workmen. We turn to the new year desiring to follow Paul's admonition, "Be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

MATTOON DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren of the Conference:

In presenting this, my fourth annual report, as Superintendent of the Mattoon District, I desire to express my gratitude to God for His continued goodness. I also desire to express my appreciation of the kindness and consideration of my brethren in the ministry.

All the pastors appointed by Bishop McDowell last fall have remained faithfully at their work during the year. I secured J. H. James for the Findlay charge, where he has done a good year's work and is unanimously invited to return. I secured E. B. Timmons as supply for the West Union charge. J. B. Woodyard left his work in the middle of the year and the Neoga circuit was discontinued, the churches being placed with other charges.

The following brethren in the retired relation live within the bounds of the district and are doing faithful work in their respective charges: Bros. Coombe, Ellis, McIntosh, Means, and Stout. Bro. Jasper Miller, a supernumerary, lives in Charleston.

A great sorrow came to Bro. and Sister Balch in the accidental death of their son, Horace, last November. The young man was prospering in business and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Bro. and Sister J. L. B. Ellis had journeyed long together but during this Conference year there came a temporary separation, in the passing of Sister Ellis. She was one of God's quiet souls but her life was beautiful and effective. She had much to do in influencing her husband to accept Christ after their marriage and also in turning his mind toward the ministry.

One of the most beautiful things I have witnessed in many a day was at the last Quarterly Conference of First Church, Shelbyville, when Bro. Ellis requested that his wife be allowed to remain a member of the church. It is needless to say that the request was unanimously granted.

"One family we dwell in him,
One church, above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death:
One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of his host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now."

Doings in the Churches

Arcola has had a very prosperous year under the efficient leadership of C. M. Duncan. The church building has been remodeled and redecorated at a cost of more than $4,000, about forty persons have been received into membership, the Benevolences are well provided for, and all societies are active and bring up good reports. With a fine church building, one of the best parsonages in the Conference, and a loyal and intelligent people, this is one of the most desirable charges in the Conference.

Brocton charge has had a year of steady growth with M. D. Tremaine as pastor. Above thirty persons united with the church, and the contributions of the people to Benevolent causes are in excess of last year.

Findlay Circuit has prospered under the leadership of Theo. A. Dowler. More than forty conversions and accessions. All interests of the kingdom well cared for.

Bro. H. G. Swope will bring up one of the best Benevolent reports in the history of the Stewardson charge.

Westfield is one of our strong and up-to-date churches. The past year has seen steady growth along all lines. The debt has been reduced more than $2,000. The every member canvass for next year's budget was successful and points to the continued prosperity of this church. C. H. Thrall is the efficient pastor.

Charleston Church has been doing things on a large scale during the year. A fifty thousand dollar building was dedicated in March, with Bishop McDowell as preacher for the occasion. It is needless to say that his visit to this church was a delight and inspiration to the people. I said in my report last year that I hoped this church would do a new thing in Methodism, namely, dedicate without making an appeal for money on the day of dedication. I am pleased to report that this was accomplished. The money was all provided before dedication and more than $28,000 has been actually paid, leaving an indebtedness of about $7,000 on the building, but well provided for.

Much of the credit for this successful enterprise is due the pastor, A. L. Caseley. I predict a great future for this church. Martinsville charge has prospered under the strong sermons, the optimistic spirit, and the restless activity of pastor J. D. Shouse. The Benevolent report will be much in excess of last year.

C. W. Grant, on the Vermillion charge, refuses to simply hold the fort; he is constantly leading his people to new conquests for the Master. He brings up a fine report.

The North Arm Church on this charge is deserving of special mention as a country church that is undertaking to care for all the interests of the people of the community.

Charleston Circuit has had another prosperous year under the pastorate of Thos. Symons. About $1,000 was spent for improvements and there were forty-five conversions and accessions. There was also a good Benevolent report. Gays charge reports seventy accessions. I. S. Haverfield has been untiring in labors.

H. S. Jackson, in spite of very discouraging conditions, has done a good year's work in the Windsor Church.

The work of D. A. Shuck on the Windsor Circuit is deserving of special mention. He went as pastor to the charge where he was born and brought up, and in the church of his boyhood he had one of the best revivals in the history of the church. The conversions and accessions total more than thirty.

Marshall Church has had one of the best revivals in its history, more than fifty persons being received into membership. An indebtedness of more than $10,000 has stood against this church for some time, greatly hindering the prosperity of the church. Soon after Conference the pastor, E. G. Sandmeyer, and his people heroically attacked this debt and I am pleased to report that it has all been safely provided for. This church is very carefully organized and is doing effective work.

Casey Church has had a year of remarkable development. Material improvements amounting, when completed, to about $15,000, are now under way.

The improvements include a new parsonage and an enlarged church. The most important part of the year's work in this church was a revival of far reaching results. More than forty conversions and accessions. One fine feature of the revival was that all classes in the community were reached. H. W. McPherson is the wise and efficient pastor.

Mattoon Church has had a year of great activity in all departments. The very carefully prepared reports to the fourth Quarterly Conference, covering all departments of church activity, showed advancement along all lines. Special evangelistic meetings under the direction of Evangelist Bromley resulted in an awakening of the church and a goodly number of conversions. Two hundred and twenty-eight persons have been received into membership during the year. The net gain in membership will not be so large on account of a large number of removals and a careful revision of the records.

Dr. G. F. Oliver has endeared himself to the people of this church and community and is unanimously invited to return as pastor for another year.

What shall I say more of the work of Galeener at Paris, where a great year's work has been accomplished, of Chapman at Shelbyville, where, in spite of drought and hard times, the best Benevolent report in the history of the church will be brought up, of Morrison at Oakland, of Parsons at Toledo, of Wohlfarth at Sullivan, where preaching and work of the highest order have been done through the year?

Every pastor and every church in the district is deserving of special mention but time and space do not permit. And not all the charges have done things that can be easily tabulated.

But I wonder if there is not a danger of over-magnifying the things that are reportable, and of turning the energies of the church too largely toward work that can be tabulated. The men who maintain a high grade service of worship, who are faithful in their pastoral labors, and who carefully look after every interest of the Kingdom are doing the extraordinary things, although the full results of their work may not be tabulated in Conference Minutes or reported by the District Superintendent.

World-Evangelism

Many of the charges will make substantial gains in their giving to the great world enterprise, but some will not measure up to other years. I am wondering if we are making the right kind of an appeal for the support of these great Benevolent boards. I am convinced that we should change our terminology a little. We have been emphasizing Benevolences so long that many of our people have come to look upon all work outside their immediate community as a charity that may be supported or not as they see fit. I believe our appeal should be more concrete and definite and should emphasize the fact that all the boards have for their ultimate object the saving of men, and that supporting the various boards is the only way we have of helping save that portion of the world outside our immediate community.

Stewardship Campaign

Believing it to be utterly impossible to meet the demands being made upon the church by the present age with the present notion of stewardship prevailing among many of our people, I planned a stewardship campaign in connection with the third round of Quarterly Conferences. Dr. H. R. Calkins was the speaker in this campaign. The charges were grouped and the entire district was covered, more than eighty per cent of the churches being vitally touched with the stewardship message. This campaign has been followed by an emphasis on the stewardship of the whole life, believing that money cannot be secured by mere mechanical devices. The reaching of the individual for large things for God must be accomplished through spiritual methods.

Sunday School Work

I have emphasized the importance of the Sunday School work in the Quarterly Conferences, urging a more exact enrollment, a definite missionary organization, the use of the graded lessons, and evangelism. If it be true, as pointed out by the commission on evangelism, that we have nearly 400,000 teachers and officers, and 1,500,000 scholars above eight years of age not members of the church, we surely have here the greatest single evangelistic opportunity in Methodism. This opportunity should not be neglected in the present Forward Movement.

Epworth League

Some really effective work has been accomplished through this organization. The annual convention was above par. The messages brought by Dan. B. Brummitt, Lynn Harold Hough, and S. Earl Taylor were of a high order and will accomplish lasting good.

Women's Work

The women, through the W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S. and the Ladies' Aid, are contributing much toward the coming of the Kingdom.

Memorial Hospital

This institution has closed one of the best years in its history. Three hundred and thirty-three patients were admitted, considerable free work was done, and the year's work was closed with a small surplus in the treasury. I am pleased to report that definite steps have been taken toward the erection of a new building.

Some Needs

Direction and help from some of the general boards of the church in solving the rural church problem. Here is a place where Methodism's heart beat is weak. I think we should have some one of the General Boards to give the time of a secretary to the rural church problem, and to whom our pastors could apply for expert advice and help.

Something of the glory that attaches to the work in foreign fields attaching to the work in difficult fields in the home land. Why should not men feel the same glory in going to a difficult field in the home land and working out the problems there as going to the foreign field?

A passion for God and men—"Human crimes are many, but the crime of being dead to God's voice, blind when the divine hand-writing is on the wall—certainly there is no crime which supreme powers do more terribly avenge."

"Revive us again,
Fill each heart with thy love,
May each soul be rekindled,
With fire from above."

QUINCY DISTRICT

Dear Bishop McDowell and Fellow Servants of Our Lord Jesus:

We rejoice that it is ours to report to you in some measure things done and attempted in His name on the Quincy District.

It is easy to give wrong conceptions of our labors by words and figures. But there is a kind of expression, which we often hear, "Our work is so great no language can utter it," and to refrain from doing so is much easier. It is also a very dangerous doctrine as it contains scarcely any truth, yet it is able to silence conscience and to put one to sleep at mid-day in harvest time. For the slightest growth or development, and the most delicate ebb and flow of the invisible life must and will record itself in visible symbols, if we do not, even if the stones cry out. So we present to you in words and figures some of the results,—not all—for the Conference Minutes would not contain all the attainments of forty-two preachers and nearly eleven thousand Methodists working together with Him in the Quincy District.

Buildings and Improvements

Practically three new churches were built this year. Stilwell, under the leadership of H. M. Ingram, transformed the old structure into a beautiful and modern church. Rev. Robert Stephens raised the money needed to dedicate free from debt. We have seen those called masters in this art operate but he excelled them all. He got about all the money our people had, and about all the other people had, which was enough and more, yet they were happy and loved him then and love him still.

Golden has had the question of remodeling their church in process during three pastorates, and consummated their work by rededicating it December 13th. They have, in every way, a building adapted to all departments of a present day church.

We have a new church near Camden, called Bethany, the finest country church in Schuyler County. This triumph was initiated and carried through largely by the laymen. The District Superintendent had the privilege, on February 21st, of raising the money and of dedicating it.

Most of the churches spent some money in some form of improvements. Among those doing so quite extensively are Vermont Street, Rockport, Payson, Pittsfield, New Salem, Barry, Littleton, and Versailles. Three of the parsonages have been more or less modernized; Clayton, Pittsfield and West Point.

Ministerial Support

Our laymen believe in a better support of their preachers and this year they will pay at least $1,200 more to their pastors than last year. And already more than $800 advance over this year is promised for next year. They in return are demanding of us a higher service and a fuller devotion to our high calling. I am compelled to believe that if we do not disappoint them in our service they will not disappoint us in their support.

Benevolences

In all the Fourth Quarterly Conferences we asked "What is the outlook for the Benevolences on your charge compared with last year?" A large majority said that it would either be up to last year or in advance of last year, if they were able to collect their subscription. Written reports received from nearly all of the pastors last week repeat the same. So we are hopeful of some advance.

Through the persistency of C. E. Taylor, of Camp Point, the President of the District Epworth League, we will give $100 to Bishop Bashford for the emergency in China.

W. F. M. S.

This society of the district is exceptionally efficient, and will mark another advance in its gifts to hasten that "Divine event to which the whole creation moves," "When Jesus Christ is all and in all."

W. H. M. S.

This organization in our district has not had the attention its great work deserves. Last May a district organization was effected, and we are glad to report that the numbers of Auxiliaries have doubled this year.

Ladies' Aid

These elect women of the church are now doing a work so great, by ways and means so proper in developing the social life of our churches as well as in aiding financially so largely all our churches of the district that their helpfulness can only be spoken of in words of unstinted praise. Their reports to the four Quarterly Conferences are almost without exception the finest and most complete offered. One feature of their work is worthy of all imitation by the men. The ladies promise much, do more, yet never spend all of their money.

New Financial Plan

The adoption of the new Financial Plan in whole or in part in nearly three-fourths of the charges has not alone enlarged their offerings but has made the question of Ministerial claims, which used to take so much of the time of the Quarterly Conference, take but little of it, thus giving the District Superintendent the time to study more carefully the charges, what they are doing and not doing, their weak points and strong points, their life, tone, temper and characteristics. And in the process he comes to know his preachers in the same respects. And so he is enabled more intelligently to be useful to both the preachers and the churches.

Chaddock Boys' School

Many friends of the Chaddock Boys' School think that, judged from every viewpoint, the school has had the best year of its history. This is true from the viewpoint of the work done for the boy; this is apparent in the better organization of its home and school condition; it is surely true in the strength and fitness of its faculty and working force; and this is clear in its hold upon the city of Quincy as a live factor in the city's life, evidenced by the larger response of the city to its growing needs. Mrs. Eva Fields, the Superintendent, with some of the boys, visited during the year nearly all parts of the district in the interest of the school and received everywhere very generous support. The school is also in fine favor throughout the district with both the preachers and the people.

Rev. H. C. McPherson, recently chosen Dean, has produced high faith in the management for the immediate future of the school as to buildings and endowment. Already he has plans and specifications for a new cottage that will accommodate 24 boys and the helpers. The building will cost about $10,000. In design and appointments it is in every way modern for such a building. He says work on this will soon begin. This is only one of many such cottages we hope to see grace our beautiful grounds soon. The annual report of the Superintendent and the Treasurer will surely be gratifying to all the friends of Chaddock.

Revivals

There were many revivals in the district of great power and blessing. The preachers and churches signally blessed were T. E. Smith, of Augusta; C. T. Pilch, of Versailles; A. C. Adams, of Rushville; J. O. Kirkpatrick, at Marden; Norman Rostron, at Brooklyn; N. M. Rigg, of Vermont Street, while J. H. Pence, at Clayton, has had a revival most of the year. One hundred thirty-one were added to the church, every department of the church shows a like advance and the officials will add to his salary $270 over last year.

But contagious diseases stopped short many meetings that had just started with large promise, and some in the midst of the soul harvest. For, when the doctors said that the microbes of smallpox, diphtheria or scarlet fever were in the land and "If you go to church they will surely get you," great dread laid hold on saint and sinner. Would that we knew how to produce such dread in the hearts of the people of those deadlier microbes of sin, and that, when one was so infected, we would demand that he be quarantined, and when we nailed on his door post the warning card people would walk blocks out of the way rather than go past even the house. Such quarantining seems to be God's ultimate plan in the impassable gulf.

The preachers have reported to me over 1,100 converts, and a membership increase of nearly six hundred for the year.

Sunday Schools

We have come to regard the Sunday School as a truer test of the vitality of a church than most anything else though we are not inclined to make any one department of the church such a test but to judge by the whole result of all.

"As 'tis not a lip, or eye, we beauty call,
But the joint force and full result of all."

But however good, however old or young we are, systematic study of the Word is fundamental to Christian growth. We have noted in twenty-five years in the pastorate that the members we could keep in the Sunday School with fair regularity rarely backslid, and the unconverted, old as well as young, that we could hold to fair regularity we could win to Christ and the church. While we have sought as last year to increase the enrollment of our schools, and will report a fine increase in this respect, we have done our best to make the impression that our schools were failures if they did not win to Christ their pupils and build them into Christlikeness of character. Many of our schools have seriously undertaken to hold all to the public worship and such have been highly rewarded.

This fact I think worth recording. I have in nearly every school counted the boys and men, the girls and women present to find in many cases as many men as women and in quite a few schools more men than women, and in one twice as many men as women as a normal condition. This does not mean that we have fewer women in our schools than a decade ago but more men. Two of our 83 schools report not so good as a year ago, six as good, and all the rest better.

Bishop McDowell Ministerial Association

Our annual Ministerial and Lay Association met in Barry. Nearly every preacher was present and more than twice as many laymen as preachers attended. It was very manifest that preachers and laymen were glad to see each other's face, and each delighted in the other's efforts. The hum of enthusiasm pervaded all sessions and the preachers were in their finest key as they did their part. The General Secretaries and their Representatives, Blake, Eovard, Calkins and Lockwood, did us great good by their messages. Bishop McDowell was there, too. He served notice on us that he would under no circumstances speak more than once. Coupled with this notice were dire threats as to what he would do to the one who should ask him to speak oftener. But under the inspiration of the Quincy District Association we could hardly keep him quiet, greatly to our delight.

To speak of the fine effect of his visit upon the city of Barry and the Association (as my friend Ruskin would say "in the severest English,") it met the high expectation of a community which was for the first time visited by a live Bishop. And upon the Association the benediction of his coming will long abide. And in testimony of our sincerity he is invited to visit the Association the coming year and nothing will be hailed with greater jubilation than the assurance by him that he will do it.

Gerald J. Janssen

Great Death walked among our ranks this year and breathed upon one of our stalwart sons of God. But he caused no tremor but great inspiration, for as the angels passed through the gates of light with the soul of Gerald J. Janssen we caught a new vision of the Home of God's elect and push with vigor on.

A year ago Bishop McDowell appointed Brother Janssen to Pittsfield without the least intimation to him till his name was read. He was in his place on time. The first service captured both preachers and people. He soon had big plans for his Lord in Pittsfield. And with great skill and rare ardor his plans were being wrought out. The entire membership were royally supporting him for they had caught his spirit and were confident of great things for our church. The throb of his high spirit was felt throughout the county. Three months had scarcely elapsed when in the midst of his labors, on Saturday, January 19th, at 4:30 p. m., "God's finger touched him," and 6:30 p. m. same day the "Heaven sent was recalled."

With only a few hours notice the whole city poured out to weep in love at his departure. Everywhere were questionings of God's move in taking him away. For we think God should multiply his kind a hundred fold instead of taking them away, as to us no world can surely need such men so much as ours. But we have learned by observation and personal experience that His moves are not as we would, but "as the heavens are higher than the earth so are his ways higher" and better than ours. And we are persuaded that, whatever the hours have brought or whatever they may bring,

"All is well, tho' faith and form
Be sundered in the night of fear;
Well roars the storm, to those who hear
A deeper voice across the storm."

Confession

There was a brief period when I was young in the ministry and had this vain thought, that I was keeping up in full my work on the charge. During that period I picked up the discipline and my eye fell on the caption, "Rules for a Preacher's Conduct." I read it in reality for the first time, and the other sections that follow, "How to Preach," "Spiritual Qualification," "Pastoral Fidelity"—and my vain thought died.

That no such vanity should ever possess my soul as District Superintendent, I set myself to read the discipline through this year from the viewpoint of the District Superintendent. And I found, in addition to paragraph 186 with its 26 "Thou musts," 98 other things he should do or not do, and that he should do for others and that others may do to him. I will state only one conclusion to which I came: Beyond all doubt the church did not create this office of District Superintendent for an idler.

That we might have the summer opportunity better taken care of our district undertook something we have long had in mind: "A Practical Evangelistic Institute"—not alone to tell how to win men to Christ but to go out after prayer and discussion and do it. D. V. Gowdy, a prince in winning strong manhood to Christ, was asked at a district gathering to discuss the question of a Gospel Tent, in relation to such meetings. Laymen as well as preachers were enthusiastic for them. We decided to get the money for the outfit by asking our people in the district to loan us a dollar—no more no less. We thought at first of a tent 40x60 as large enough, but the dollars came in so fast that we said one 60 feet in diameter would still be better and still the dollars came and we bought one 60x90. The district was divided into three groups, about fifteen preachers in each. A summer more unfavorable for such meetings could not be. Yet, save the one at Barry, when the winds blew and the floods came, the meetings were up to our highest hopes. The meetings at Columbus and Littleton were held in harvest, a time when all the men, women, and even children are busy. Yet, excepting rainy nights, every night and three times on Sunday the great tent was filled and often hundreds could not be seated. Nearly one hundred bowed at our altars, the local churches were given a great uplift, and the preachers had the advantage of a school in real evangelism. By merely passing the pudding pans we have nearly money enough to pay for our outfit.

These meetings showed unmistakably that there is nothing today so popular as simple Gospel singing and plain Gospel preaching.

So we have tried to keep busy during the year grateful to God for the plenteous grace that has kept us and that has enabled us.

A. S. Flanigan.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

In entering upon the work assigned me last Conference I was greatly assisted by the kindly suggestions and brotherly counsels of my predecessor, Dr. Christie Galeener, who did everything in his power to help me, and I here record my appreciation of his kindly services. The district was in fine shape and all over the field I heard the praises of the former District Superintendent sung and I found that he was, indeed, a 'Brother, beloved of the brethren'.

The preachers assigned soon adjusted themselves to the tasks at hand, and were soon in the good graces of the respective congregations, as was evidenced by the fact that over $1,000 were added to Ministerial Support. From reports at the fourth Quarterly Conference we trust there will be but small deficiencies on but a few of the charges. We have insisted on the prorating of all ministerial claims.

Revivals

Special meetings were held in practically all the charges, in many instances the pastors were their own evangelists and proved that Methodist preachers had the old time power that can be adapted to modern methods and needs. Hugh Smith, M. Edwin Johnson, and Mrs. Hayes, evangelists, and Misses Goodall and Sorensen, Deaconesses, rendered valuable services in several of the charges. The number of conversions reported was nearly 1,200, and the accessions in proportion. The reports of the pastors will reveal this work.

Benevolences

The amount apportioned will not be reached in all cases but many will report all in full and many others an advance so that we will at least hold our own. Several special gifts by devoted laymen will also make creditable showing.

Improvements

The parsonage at Virden was remodeled at a cost of $2,000, making it an ideal preacher's home with every modern convenience. The First Church here has been painted outside and brightened inside and a new system of lighting installed, at a cost of over $4,000. Edinburg Church has also been redecorated at a cost of $400. Several of the parsonages have been painted and electric lights installed, and several of the churches have had small improvements that add to their appearance and usefulness.

New Enterprises

New City built a new parsonage, costing $1,800, and last Sunday cleared the debt on this enterprise in good subscription.

Early in November the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Kincaid was organized, in the Coal-electric City. The Kincaid Land Association gave deeds to two choice lots valued at $1,600, and a cash donation of $500 on the new church. The contract will probably be let this week for a church costing $7,000. The nucleus for a strong society is found here and Dr. M. G. Coleman deserves great credit for the able manner in which he has handled this matter.

Last March the Eighteenth Street Church in this city was organized. It now has a membership of 65, a fine Sunday School, and will serve a portion of the city in a very acceptable manner.

The Springfield Methodist Union was organized early in the Conference year, and is composed of the Methodism of the city with an executive committee of three members from each church and the pastors and District Superintendent. This organization has had charge of the arrangements for the present Conference session. If there is anything lacking that will minister to your comfort "speak now or else hereafter forever hold your peace." The first annual banquet was held in May. Bishop McDowell and Dr. John Thompson were our guests and speakers.

The good women of the district have not been idle. The reports of the W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S. and the Ladies' Aid societies will show the labors abundant of these faithful workers.

We have been favored during the year with visits from Bishop McDowell, Drs. Blake and Bovard of the Sunday School Board, and Drs. Trimble and Calkins of the Finance Commission. A series of group meetings for a financial efficiency campaign was held in August in the interest of the every member canvass. A few of the pastors have already put on the canvass and reports will show increases all along the line. Others will put the canvass on as soon after Conference as the month's campaign of education can be had. The retired ministers of the district have been abundant in labors and a blessing in their respective communities.

The health of the preachers and their families has been unusually good. Death unbidden has entered but one parsonage home during the year. During July Mrs. Kruzan, mother of the pastor at Grove City, came to visit at the home of her son, was taken ill, and on July 18 was not, for God had called her to her home.

We have enjoyed the association and the fellowship with the brethren, a heroic band who have toiled faithfully and well, all worthy of praise for the service rendered and all equally worthy. Never was Methodist faith, hope and love stronger, deeper or sweeter than now, and for the year's record we give God the glory.

Preston Wood.

B. COMMITTEES

BENEVOLENCES

Home and Foreign Missions

Never were the needs of the home and foreign missionary work greater than they are today. With these increased needs and opportunities come a call for greater giving on the part of the church.

Church Temperance Society

The Temperance Society is waging a valiant fight against the entrenched drink demon and we must give to the movement our most loyal support.

Domestic Missionary Society

The needs of the Domestic Missionary Society are such that every pastor should endeavor to raise his full apportionment for this cause.

The Board of Sunday Schools

We rejoice that our Board of Sunday Schools has taken front rank in the Sunday School world as an educational and evangelistic agency. We urge our pastors to prorate the claims of this cause with all other benevolences.

Freedman's Aid Society

The work of our Freedman's Aid Society has been greatly hampered by conditions caused by the European War. To keep our work going without incurring heavy indebtedness by the society it will be necessary that there be increased offerings, and we recommend the observance by all of the pastors of Lincoln Day Anniversary, February 13, 1916.

The American Bible Society

We heartily recommend to our people the splendid work of the American Bible Society and especially the efforts now being made to supply the soldiers on the battle field of Europe with Testaments. We deplore the decrease of the contributions for this cause in the time of its greatest need as well as its greatest opportunity. We urge upon all our people a more generous support of this work.

Church Finance

We note with pleasure the increasing number of churches that have adopted the new financial plan, and also that where adopted it has proven satisfactory, and recommend that all of the churches throughout the Conference adopt the plan in its entirety.

J. T. Stretton,
J. P. Edgar.

CHURCH LITERATURE

The award at the San Francisco Exposition, of the Grand Prize for excellence of manufacture and the material superiority of the publications of the Book Concern, and of the gold medal for high quality of the Sunday School literature issued by our publishing house, is gratifying in that it not only recognizes the efforts of our editors and publishers to give the church the best that is possible in religious literature, but advertises to the world the excellence of the product of our publishing house. In that this award has been made by a jury cosmopolitan in both nationality and religion, we congratulate the publishers and editors upon having put religious literature into a position of significance and respect as a part of the literature of the world.

We congratulate the publishers upon the growth of the business, both financially and in influence, and especially upon the fact that it is at present yielding a dividend of 5 per cent upon its entire capital, thereby indicating that mere expansion has not been their purpose.

We rejoice in the literary and financial success of the Epworth Herald. We are glad to note that a number of the Advocates are steadily increasing in circulation and thereby becoming year by year more nearly self-supporting.

We most earnestly recommend to our pastors and people the circulation and use of these books and periodicals which are of such high literary and material excellence and which in a no less degree are the expression of the thought and life of the Church. And we particularly urge the pastors to emphasize the function of the Advocates as church papers and exhort our people to subscribe to and read them for that reason. We believe that only so can we develop an intelligent Christian life and effective Christian leadership.

C. D. Robertson, Chairman.
Albert M. Ewert, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY

Your Committee on Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid Society commend the advance in the collections for our Conference Claimants and hail with delight the dawn of a new day for our worthy brethren on the retired list, many of whom are now in the evening of life.

We appreciate the strenuous and self-sacrificing labors of our Field Secretary, the Rev. Robert Stephens, and commend him and his work to the confidence and support of both our ministers and laymen, that he and any other person officially chosen for that work may have access to the pulpits and homes within the bounds of the Conference. We urge upon every preacher in the Conference to actively co-operate in the building up of a permanent fund that will eventually yield to each retired minister a comfortable support in the time of need. We are grateful for the increasing number of friends among our laity who are showing a tangible and substantial interest in the effort to build up this permanent fund.

Since these funds are sacred to the use of the worthy, necessitous ministers, their widows and children, we urge that extreme care be used in the distribution of them, and that all the facts needed be given to those who are entrusted with the distribution of them.

We recommend:

First. That the Illinois Annual Conference enter heartily into the campaign planned by the Board of Conference Claimants of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the year 1915 and 1916 for the purpose of raising an endowment fund of $5,000,000 for the retired ministers, and that we agree to raise the sum of $250,000 as our share.

Second. We recommend that each person coming into full membership in the Conference be asked the question:

"Will you join the Preachers' Aid Society?"

Third. We recommend to the Board of Stewards that they apportion for the Conference Claimants for the year 1915 and 1916, 6 per cent of the pastor's cash salary.

Fourth. We further recommend that beginning with the Conference year 1916-17 the apportionment for the Conference Claimants be 6 per cent of the pastor's cash salary if his salary is under $800, 7 per cent if the salary is $800 and less than $1,200, and 8 per cent if the cash salary is $1,200 or above.

Respectfully submitted,

R. Y. Williams, Chairman.
E. G. Sandmeyer, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSION AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY

Though Illinois is now one of the old settled states it still has many waste places. New industrial conditions in some sections have given us again problems that are not unlike those on the frontier.

This society is the only arm rendering timely aid to this great need in our midst.

We have reviewed the financial report of the Treasurer, Lee Matheny, and heartily commend the business-like manner in which the affairs of this society are conducted.

This is our own institution, rendering aid to our weak churches and the self-sacrificing brethren who serve them, and we urge that collections next year reveal a greater interest in this society by all of our stronger pastors and churches.

W. W. Henry.
Peter Kittel.

The Educational Forward Movement.

The present Conference sessions close the fourth year of the Educational Forward Movement of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences as organized at their sessions, respectively, at Peoria and Champaign, in 1911, for a period of five years of united endeavor on behalf of all their educational institutions. The past four years have been a period of unprecedented effort on behalf of our colleges, not only by their own authorities and special workers, but by District Superintendents, pastors and people everywhere. In this great effort we have also had the deep interest and constant help of our Bishop, Wm. F. McDowell; of Secretary Thomas Nicholson, of our Board of Education; of Dr. John W. Hancher, Assistant Secretary of the Board; the special assistance of Bishop Wilson S. Lewis; and the encouragement and aid of many other friends among the officials of the church at large.

The remarkable results of the four years are indeed cause for congratulation and gratitude. The total Public Educational Collections of the two Conferences, in the churches, have been $52,000, exclusive of the past Conference year, not yet reported. The total of Special Gifts gained for the institutions reported at the end of the first year was $390,000; for the second year, $298,000; for the third year, $225,000; for the past and fourth year, $197,500, making the total of $1,110,500 in Special Gifts for our Conference institutions in the past four years. This great total includes the three lines, of debt-paying, new buildings, and enlarged endowment. The total of $52,000 in Conference collections for the first three years has been available as a Sustentation Fund for the schools in their great burdens of the present transitional and upbuilding period. If our churches fully appreciated the vital character of this latter form of assistance, to every school, the collections of the present year would exceed any heretofore. And it is certain that, in any case, they will bring the total results of the Movement, in Special Gifts and Conference Collections for the four years, well up to the remarkable total of $1,175,000.

The outstanding event of the work in the past year has been the completion of the campaign of the Illinois Wesleyan. The total amount of new funds attained for Wesleyan in this great victory is no less than $611,000. Yet, the most significant feature of the victory is its augury that, God leading us, every other school shall likewise complete its great endeavor in the present mutual campaign. That the remaining year of the Movement will much exceed the original total goal of $1,250,000 for our schools is now evident. May we again unite as Conferences for the great final consummations—the cancellation of all former indebtedness of each institution, the attainment of new buildings and equipment everywhere, the placing of each institution upon a basis of safe endowment, and the enduring new era for the colleges of these Conferences.

Not a less cause for gratitude in estimating the results of the Educational Forward Movement is that it has claimed not only the increasing gifts of all our people, but also their increasing interest, loyalty, and prayers for our own institutions. Educational literature is systematically provided for every congregation and home. Methodist boys and girls are claimed for our own schools. The moral obligation of our people to our church schools for their enduring influence in communities, and churches, and in the commonwealth, is felt as never before. The completion of the work, in another year, will have brought nothing less than a practical transformation of sentiment, educationally, within these Conferences.

In the past year we have been under our modified plan for the church collection feature of our work. Instead of the original method of special subscription Sundays in each church, we have co-operated in the plans of the Board of Education and the Commission on Finance of the church at large, by which the collection has been regularly apportioned as a part of the church benevolences. Because of our participation in this larger and better plan for all the benevolence interests, the Commission on Finance has allowed us the worthy totals of $13,522 as the Educational apportionment for the Central Illinois Conference and $27,342 for the Illinois. Our superintendents and pastors have recognized, in many cases by special resolutions of the District Ministerial Meetings, the absolutely like validity of this educational apportionment with every other benevolence apportionment sent to the Charges by the Commission on Finance and the District Superintendents. The requirement, also, of exact pro-rating of all undesignated benevolence subscriptions as among all the causes, including the educational, has been similarly recognized. We cannot know until the returns from the Conference collections are finally reported just what totals have been realized for the vital and especially equitable claim of our colleges constituted by all the factors herein indicated. But we anticipate that this amount may be such as to continue to encourage our colleges and constitute a new total for the present year worthy of these great Conferences with their important educational interests. The plan of educational apportionments herein indicated, as a part of all the benevolences under the direction of the Commission on Finance, continues for the ensuing year. We bespeak the continuing faithfulness to this plan of our superintendents, pastors, and people, in order that we crown the fifth and final year of our Forward Movement endeavor by attaining in every church and district of the two Conferences the largest total of educational collections yet realized.

The modified plan of administration adopted in the past year has permitted a great reduction in the outlays of our colleges for the expenses of the Movement. The entire burden of the work has been maintained as a volunteer endeavor on the part of superintendents, pastors, and, especially, the members of the Conference Boards and Forward Movement Executive Committee. The total expense budget required, divided among all six of the institutions, has been $2,400. This amount, while most reasonable as to the share of either Conference, and especially so as to the contribution of any single institution, has been sufficient for all printing of educational literature, and of official printing, postage, stenography, expenses of committee meetings, and similar necessary items. The plans of the Executive Committee, and much of its special literature in these concluding years of the work, are directed toward reaching our young people, personally, with the call upon their lives of the Christian College. The whole original plan of the Forward Movement endeavor of the two Conferences is thus being increasingly attained. It is believed that, with the whole scope of the endeavor, now better understood, the final and fifth year has every promise of being made the most victorious of all.

The preceding years, with their successive adjustments, have led also to a general familiarity with the working plans of the Movement. It is accordingly suggested that the necessary legislation for the work of the ensuing year may be limited to a formal ratification of all prior mutual agreements of the two Conferences and the direction for a continuance of the same. With thanks to God for the progress so far attained for our schools in this great endeavor, we pray for the continuance of His favor, and bespeak the co-operation of our people as we enter with confidence upon the final year of the Educational Forward Movement of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Rev. Thomas Nicholson, Secretary.

The Conference Board of Education is in receipt of letters and reports from the Board of Education, which reveal the great and increasingly helpful work of the General Board on behalf of Christian education in our church and nation. The following items upon the work and plans of the Board are suggested for adoption by our Conference:

1. The co-operation of our Board of Education with our schools in standardizing curricula, faculties, plants, equipment and endowment has been eminently helpful.
2. Its action at its recent annual meeting authorizing a Director of Religious Work for our institutions of learning and for work for Methodist students at State Institutions is especially commendable.
3. Its thorough and far-reaching "Survey" of educational conditions throughout the country, now in progress, promises much for the Board's coming semi-centennial forward movement.
4. The Children's Day Collection, which has aided from the beginning 22,984 students—2,189 last year, and this year 2,238—continues increasingly helpful and efficient.
5. We commend and approve the apportionment by the General Conference Commission on Finance of the One Public Educational Collection authorized by the Discipline, 80 per cent at the order of the Conference, and 20 per cent for the Board of Education, subject to the special agreement with this Conference whereby in lieu of 20 per cent from our charges the Board receives the lump sum of $900 for the whole Conference.

6. "The Christian Student," the Board's official organ, improves constantly and should be read widely. It is receiving most flattering recognition without our own denomination as well as at home.

CHADDOCK BOYS' SCHOOL.

Eva C. Fields, Superintendent.

The Trustees of Chaddock Boys' School have gone forward with care and yet with confidence throughout the year. They have "strengthened the stakes and lengthened the cords," carrying the work forward in an all-round way that is most gratifying to all who are deeply concerned for the welfare of our boys' school.

By the action of Conference, with confirmation later by the District Ministerial Association, we were permitted to present the School in the pulpits of the Quincy District. The churches made a gratifying response and thereby materially increased the Sustentation Fund.

In June of this year the Trustees elected the Reverend Hugh C. McPherson, of St. Joseph, Mo., to the office of Dean of Chaddock Boys' School. Dean McPherson comes to us with the unqualified endorsement of leading educators and other notable public men of Missouri. With a clear vision of the possibilities of the far reaching influence for good upon boy life which he understands and deeply appreciates, Dean McPherson brings, we believe, just what Chaddock needs to best carry forward the well laid plans of its founders and Trustees.

There is never a vacancy in our enrollment. Our buildings are always taxed to the limit, with other applicants waiting for vacancies. Complete plans for a new dormitory, accommodating twenty-four boys, to be erected this year are in the hands of the architect.

We have added to our faculty for the coming year Miss Helena Munson, recently graduated from the Illinois Woman's College. Trustees who have been connected with the Boys' School from its very beginning say without reserve that we are just closing what they consider has been in every way the best year in the history of the School. It has been a good year and we feel strongly the upward pull. From the summit to which we have climbed this year we look up to what the coming year holds for us. We pause on the threshold to thank Him who has led us through the past year and to listen as He says "Behold, I set before thee an open door."

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Theodore Kemp, President.

Illinois Wesleyan completed, on June 1, the greatest campaign in its history of sixty-five years. After the campaign had formally closed, subscriptions and gifts continued to come in until the total of over $379,000 has been received to date. In addition, certain other properties which could not be counted on Mrs. Buck's conditional subscription were given to the school. The latter are worth thirty-two thousand dollars, and with Mrs. Buck's gift make the remarkable total of over $611,000.

Within the last seven years Illinois Wesleyan has received cash subscriptions and properties to the total amount of over $821,000 or an average of $117,000 per year. This total in the last seven years is more than double the amount secured in any previous twenty-five years, and nearly double the amount received in all the previous fifty-eight years. For this remarkable consummation all honor and glory be to God who has led, and blessed our efforts in this great campaign. Too much praise cannot be given to loyal alumni, to ministers and to laymen who have given generously, and many at great sacrifice. Trustees and the campaign committee labored faithfully, and the endowment secretaries worked heroically and efficiently. Especially may we ever remember the princely gift of that elect and beloved woman, Mrs. Martha A. Buck, of Decatur, whose loyalty and munificence made the great victory possible.

The strong religious life of the school is manifested in many ways. Many young men are here preparing for the ministry, and the missionary interest in our midst is evidenced by the increasing list of Wesleyan missionaries in many far fields.

Under the efficient Presidency of Rev. J. C. Nate, D. D., the Alumni Association effected a complete reorganization at its annual meeting, in June, and unanimously voted to undertake a new gymnasium project as rapidly as conditions may warrant the promotion of this much needed new addition to our facilities. Extensive repairs have recently been made on the main building. The Department of Physics will be placed this year upon a strong, permanent basis, a new professor of excellent training and experience having been secured for the position.

A very capable new teacher has been secured for the work in Rhetoric and English, heretofore in charge of Miss Lyde Porter. Miss Porter, who feels it necessary to retire from the work of teaching, has been with the Wesleyan for twenty-five years and, by reason of her long service and faithful, efficient work, will be greatly missed. Her successor is a man of very extensive training and experience in public speaking. The Wesleyan will thus again be able, for the first time in several years, to offer this fall full courses in public speaking and debate.

The courses in English Bible and Religion have been very helpfully conducted under the able leadership of Dr. Wm. H. Wilder. Dr. Wilder has spent part of the summer in special investigations in the line of Bible study, in the Congressional Library at Washington and elsewhere, and his courses will be more popular and profitable than ever. A new teacher on full time has been engaged for the Academy. Miss Dean, who has been the efficient Principal of the Academy, has been granted a year's leave of absence on account of poor health. The work of the various departments is now conducted in a manner worthy of the best schools of the land. Much personal attention is given the individual students by members of the faculty. The teachers of the College are Christian men and women, and the purpose of Illinois Wesleyan is stronger than ever to help its students in the development of strong Christian character.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

Joseph R. Harker, President.

The Illinois Woman's College enters the seventieth year of its history with gratitude to God for His guidance and sustaining grace, and with deep appreciation of the sacrifice and devotion of the men and women who have served the College through all these years. Founders' Day is annually observed in October, to keep fresh the memory of these builders and founders, and to inspire us to emulate their devotion. Plans are being made to make the next Commencement, June 7, 1916, a special historical celebration for the seventieth anniversary of the founding of the College.

The past year has been free from sickness and accident, and a year of advance in every department. The general recognition of the high standard of the College is especially gratifying. The College is in Class A of Methodist Colleges; it is accredited by the North Central College Association; and it is recognized by the Illinois State Superintendent as of standard college rank, its graduates being entitled to teachers' certificates without examination, and to membership in the Association of College Women.

In spite of the general financial stringency, the College has again made the unusual College record of closing the year without a current deficit. The financial report herewith submitted is interesting. Friends are assured that all gifts invested in the Illinois Woman's College will be wisely and carefully administered.

The standard set both by state and national college authorities requires a clear endowment of $200,000. With the aid of many friends, the first $100,000 was secured two years ago, most of which has already been paid. There still remains the task of securing another $100,000 by January 1, 1916.

We have now only $20,000 subscribed on the required $100,000 and we must set ourselves vigorously to secure the other $80,000. The executive committee and the endowment committee have been authorized to make such plans and secure such assistance as may be necessary to bring success by the final date, January 1, 1916.

We are praying that God will put into the hearts of the old friends to continue their help to the extent of their ability, and that He will also aid us in finding new friends so that altogether the College emergency may be met. God has given us an unusual opportunity here in the building of a great College for women. Let us work out with energy and fidelity the task which He has given us.

We respectfully request that the Conference recognize the next four months as a time of special emergency for the College, and that the Trustees may have the united support and co-operation of the entire Conference for the successful issue of their plans in this campaign.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION.

James C. Baker, Pastor.

The necessity of social and religious care for our students from Methodist homes attending the University of Illinois is becoming increasingly apparent to the Methodism of Illinois. Those having in charge the Wesley Foundation at the University, which was founded for this purpose, during the past year have given themselves largely to a quiet campaign for friends for the movement. Because of the imperative need of the Illinois Wesleyan there has been practically no solicitation for funds in the Illinois Conference. The time has now come when the friends of the Wesley Foundation should give expression to their friendship in a tangible way. It is to be hoped that before another Conference session funds will be in hand for the actual beginning of the Social Centre Building which is to furnish more adequate facilities for the religious and social life of more than one thousand Methodist students at the University of Illinois. We urgently press this exceedingly important enterprise upon the Methodists of the Illinois Conference. The Wesley Foundation should have $100,000 at once. Dr. G. E. McCammon continues as the Executive Secretary of the Foundation.

The student work centering in Trinity Church continues to reach scores of young people. More students were actually in some kind of religious work at Trinity than in all the other student churches at the University combined. Many more enrolled for Bible study than could be accommodated with the meagre facilities available.

We recommend that the Illinois Conference request the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension and the Board of Domestic Missions to continue their contribution for the work at Trinity.

HEDDING COLLEGE.

Hedding College is one of the institutions of the Central Illinois Conference. It is, however, especially subject to present report to the Illinois Conference by reason of the mutual two-Conference Forward Movement endeavor in which all institutions of either Conference have some agreed share in the church collections of both. The College has a beautiful location at Abingdon, Ill., the Rev. W. D. Agnew, D. D., being its President. Hedding College is privileged to claim almost a third of the ministers of its own Conference among her graduates, as well as many missionaries, Home and Foreign. A most important achievement during the past year has been that of correcting certain old irregularities in the title to the main campus, at Abingdon, on which are located the College buildings. This title has now been made absolutely clear as vesting wholly in the institution, and the way has thus been opened for the vigorous renewal of a pending campaign for enlarged endowment. To the latter end, Dr. G. H. Myers, recently active as Endowment Secretary of the Illinois Wesleyan, has been enlisted in a similar capacity with Hedding College for the ensuing year. The College is fully accredited, educationally; and is building for the Kingdom as a standard College of our common Methodism.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY.

Grand Prairie Seminary is also an institution of the Central Illinois Conference, associated with the institutions of Illinois Conference in the Educational Forward Movement. And, inasmuch as the Seminary shares in some degree, under the Forward Movement plan, in the church collections of this Conference, some indication of the work and character of this excellent secondary school is submitted herewith. The institution is favorably located at Onarga, Illinois. Mr. Hubert Phillips, A. B., is the President. The school is affiliated with Northwestern University. It has a most excellent property with several good buildings and exceeding $150,000 endowment. It has a present campaign for a greatly enlarged endowment, under a special conditional gift of $50,000 offered by the Hon. W. A. Rankin, President of the Board of Trustees. The institution has shared, and promises to share even more largely, in the inspiring story of educational influence which has been exercised in Methodism by the seminaries and academies of the church.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education reports to the Conference the several reports of the Conference Board of Education as referred to us in printed form, and recommends the adoption by the Conference of these reports as printed, and that they be incorporated in full in the Conference Minutes. We further recommend the following special enactments under the several reports thus approved:

The Illinois Conference renews and ratifies all of the mutual agreements by which this Conference is united with the Central Illinois Conference in the Educational Forward Movements, as heretofore determined in the Annual Conference sessions of 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1914, respectively. We direct that the general plans and methods of the Movement shall continue as heretofore agreed, and enacted by the successive Conference sessions. The general oversight and direction of the whole endeavor shall be under the direction of the Executive Committee as heretofore authorized and empowered. The Committee shall provide District Superintendents and pastors with all required statements of the work and its requirements under the present, or preceding, Conference enactments, and shall take all measures necessary to the successful conclusion in the ensuing year of the five-year, mutual two-Conference plan. There shall be brought to the ensuing Annual Conference sessions in printed form an adequate report of the entire work, together with the reports of individual institutions.

CHADDOCK BOYS' SCHOOL.

It is recommended that the plan for a special sustentation fund for Chaddock Boys' School in the Churches of the Quincy District be renewed for the ensuing year. It is further recommended that the campaign of Chaddock for New Buildings and Endowment be encouraged during the coming year among our people throughout the Conference, to the end that a great gain may be made this year toward the goals of the school in the present campaign.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

We bring to the special attention of the Conference the emergency phase involved in closing the campaign of the Illinois Woman's College. A balance of $80,000 remains to be secured by January 1, 1916, under standardization requirements as well as under the conditions of large gifts already made. We recommend that our Forward Movement Executive Committee, our superintendents, and pastors, co-operate with the Trustees of the Woman's College in every way found possible for the victorious closing of this campaign by the date required.

WESLEY FOUNDATION.

We heartily approve the plea of the Wesley Foundation for the attainment of $100,000 within the state in the ensuing year, upon its program for the care of Methodist students at the University of Illinois. We recommend that this campaign, so far as it pertains to our Conference, receive the encouragement and assistance of all our pastors and people.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

We commend our Theological Schools for their great service to the Church and the Master's Kingdom. Under alert and consecrated leadership they are introducing new courses, adding new professors to their faculties, increasing their Endowment, enlarging their material equipment, and adapting their curricula to the needs of our age. We note with deep satisfaction the high scholarship and profound spirituality of these Schools of the prophets. We rejoice in the large registration and the fine type of students availing themselves of the rare privileges in these great centers of instruction and inspiration. We commend these splendid schools to all our ministerial candidates, believing that these theological seminaries are divinely appointed institutions to furnish those who study in their class rooms and become imbued with their spirit and atmosphere such an equipment that they may become workmen who need not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth.

We nominate the following persons as Conference Visitors:

EVANGELISM

We heartily endorse the Forward Movement program of our Commission, and urge its adoption as a real means to our great aim of at least a 10 per cent increase in membership.

We earnestly request our District Superintendents to arrange for district meetings early in the fall for conference and prayer, and for the direction of aggressive evangelistic campaigns throughout their districts.

We request that no more than three Conference evangelists be appointed this year, and that the District Superintendents see that paragraph 181 is strictly enforced.

In order to make the appointment of Conference Evangelist stand for as much as possible we submit the following recommendation:

Be it Resolved, That each of the members of the Illinois Conference who are elected and appointed to the relation of Conference Evangelist shall have each pastor for whom he holds a revival meeting make out a report covering the following items, the same to be sent by the pastor direct to the Secretary of said committee. These shall be kept on file and at the next annual Conference the Committee on Evangelism shall carefully consider and pass on the same and if they deem the year's work worthy of him holding such an appointment they shall recommend his re-appointment as Conference Evangelist to the annual Conference.

HOSPITALS

Whereas, Christ ministered both to the soul and to the body of man and did send forth his early representatives upon this double ministry, we hold that the church of today is doing the will of the Master by building and maintaining hospitals for the care of the sick.

Memorial Methodist Hospital

Our hospital at Mattoon has just entered upon a new era. The sale of endowment farms has been effected and the initial steps, long hoped for, have been taken towards an immediate campaign for a new building and equipment costing $60,000.

This institution is the only hospital under Methodist supervision within this Conference. It is the property of our church and the whole Conference is its patronizing territory. We may safely commend the work accomplished in recent years.

The year just closed has witnessed some of the finest results in management, and the proudest record in the art of surgery and nursing which we have ever been able to report. All this has been wrought with the minimum of cost to patrons and the maximum of success with the patients.

Nearly $1,000 worth of free work has been done this year. The community, in total disregard of church lines, has adopted the Hospital as its very own, and thus proved their confidence. This is further confirmed by the remarkable support of a Hospital lecture course carried on by the Board at a handsome profit from year to year.

The adjacent Epworth Leagues and Churches have increased their donations of supplies, and have sent frequent cases for treatment.

• Special consideration is given to the recommendations of pastors within the Illinois Conference. The Trustees invite visitation. They request the aid of all churches in the coming campaign for a new building. These improvements will make it second to none in all essentials of a first class Hospital, and worthy the pride and confidence of the public everywhere. Also the best training will be provided for pupil nurses.

Miss Delphine Pearson, Superintendent, will cheerfully furnish all desired information to visitors or correspondents.

The newly elected Board of Trustees, which the Conference is asked to confirm, are: S. W. Phillips, President; H. W. Clark, Vice-President; Chas. E. Odell, Secretary-Treasurer; G. S. Tarbox, S. G. Auer, E. C. Craig, Attorney; G. H. Cokendolpher, the Superintendent of Mattoon District, and the Pastor of Mattoon Church.

Wesley Memorial Hospital

We congratulate our church upon the splendid equipment of Wesley Memorial Hospital in endowment, buildings, and modern equipment; it is unequaled by any other institution in the denomination.

The growth of this institution has been phenomenal and the wide reputation it has gained by services in relief of the sick and suffering makes it difficult to keep pace with the growing demands for help to the distressed.

The number of part-paying or wholly free patients treated from the beginning is more than 53,000. During the past year $50,000 has been used in free treatment.

The growing reputation of the Hospital is successfully appealing to the judgment and generosity of those who are seeking opportunity to invest their money where it will accomplish the most for God and humanity.

It must not be forgotten that the enlarging of the capacity of the Hospital for the accomplishment of the purposes for which it exists invariably gives rise to additional operating expenses. Two or three of the special needs may be mentioned: A Chapel, enlarged Laundry Equipment and additional accommodation for Nurses. We ask that this beneficent Institution shall continue to appeal to our people and shall receive their heartiest support.

Peoria Hospital

We heartily endorse and commend the Peoria Hospital and give earnest appeal in its behalf.

C. F. McKown, Chairman.
S. N. Madden, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND MORAL REFORMS

We thank God that, after a year of a world war that has surpassed in deadly destructiveness all records of the past, we remain, by the wise guidance of our President, Woodrow Wilson, and his advisers, at peace with the whole world.

We would urge our people to maintain the neutrality of the nation by supporting our beloved President in this trying hour of our nation's peril, so that when the time shall come we may be the better able to aid in matters of world wide peace.

We deplore that the Bible has been driven from our public schools and that the morals of our nation as a result are suffering, and, therefore, every effort possible should be made for its reinstatement. We would urge our school boards to employ Christian teachers in all our public schools.

We would suggest that this Conference urge upon the managing Boards of our Chautauquas that they keep their Sunday programs in strict harmony with the spirit of the Sabbath day, keeping out of the Sabbath program the secular and commercial spirit that often pervades it.

We rejoice in the degree to which the social conscience has been aroused and the success which has been attained in the crusades waged against all forms of evil.

It is with great satisfaction that we note the fearless and impartial way in which Sheriff Wheeler of Sangamon County has fulfilled his duties as a County's Peace Officer.

We most heartily rejoice with the leaders of the Anti-Saloon League in the large success which has been gained during the past year in the war waged against the legalized liquor traffic. We would urge all of our people to follow, regardless of party affiliation, the leaders of the Anti-Saloon League in this war against the saloon until National Prohibition has been attained.

The basic institution is the Christian family; the maintenance of its integrity is the most important of social problems; the prevalence of divorce on unscriptural grounds seriously threatens the permanence of the family, and the creation of a more wholesome public sentiment on the subject of divorce depends perhaps more on the attitude of the clergy than any other agency; therefore, we discountenance the action of any Methodist minister who performs the ceremony of matrimony for persons divorced on other than scriptural grounds; and we call the attention of our ministers to the fact that this is a violation of the law of our Church as expressed in Section 67 of the Methodist Discipline of 1912.

J. F. Wohlfarth, Chairman.

J. S. Tharp, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUE

1—Sunday Schools

The past four years have witnessed the largest increase in our church membership of any quadrennium in the history of our denomination. It is significant that this period of the greatest gain in our church membership parallels the period of the greatest gain in our Sunday School membership.

Since the Sunday School is one of the greatest sources of supply for the increase of the Church and the Kingdom of God; be it therefore Resolved, First, That we are in hearty sympathy with our Board of Sunday Schools, and we rejoice in the splendid work being done by it, in the organization of new schools, both at home and in our Foreign Missions; and in the added impetus given by its Institutes. We would urge that wherever practicable the Graded Lesson System be adopted in our schools. We urge our pastors to follow carefully the instructions of the Discipline as to the support of this work and insist on no diverting of funds belonging to this Board.

Second, That, believing parents are in a great measure responsible for the non-attendance of the children and young people on the public service, we would urge that they give this matter more earnest heed.

Third, That we believe the Teacher Training and Organized Class work to be of great value, and therefore urge the adoption of these methods wherever possible.

Recognizing the Epworth Herald as a vital force for Godliness and Christian activity, we urge a more hearty support and a more determined effort in securing subscriptions for it.

We heartily commend the "Win My Chum Week" movement set this year for November 7 to 14 and urge every pastor to avail himself of this means of soul winning.

We regard the State Institute plan with much favor and call attention to our last Institute, at Litchfield, Illinois, where twenty-three of our young people definitely decided to devote their lives to the preaching of the gospel, some form of missionary work or Deaconess work.

We urge a more hearty support on the part of our pastors and their co-operation in securing a larger attendance on our Institutes.

Whereas, An intelligent understanding of the fields in which our Epworth Leagues are working, both at home and abroad, as to peoples and conditions, is very necessary to the greatest degree of success, we therefore urge the faithful use of the study courses as outlined by our Central Office.

We desire to call attention to the challenge sent out by the Epworth Leagues of the Pittsburg Conference in which they propose to lead all Conferences in Mission Study Classes. We accept the challenge and urge our pastors to heartily co-operate in the effort to organize a Mission Study Class in every Epworth League Chapter.

We recommend that the officers elected at this session of the Conference be re-elected next year in order to correspond with the state organization, whose officers are elected for two years.

We nominate for Conference President G. V. Metzel, and for Secretary E. L. Tobie.

E. L. Fletcher,
H. G. Beck,

Committee.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

We recognize the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society as a potent factor in preaching Christ in foreign fields, and the Woman's Home Missionary Society in giving the gospel to the millions coming to our shores and establishing churches on the frontier. We therefore view with satisfaction the noble work they are doing and rejoice in the growth of these societies, the large increase in collections, and spiritual influence in the church.

The terrible conditions in Europe, because of the war, demand unusual sympathy, generosity and co-operation on the part of our entire constituency.

Some few of our ministers do not seem to appreciate the work of these two societies and keep in touch with them; therefore, be it

Resolved, That, as pastors of the Illinois Conference, we pledge our hearty support, and give them every possible aid to further the great work these noble women are doing.

C. RESOLUTIONS

ADMINISTRATION OF BISHOP McDOWELL

To the General Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church:

Whereas, The Chicago Area, because of its central location, large Methodist population, and wide range of denominational interests, is a strategic point in Methodism; and

Whereas, The Episcopal administration of Bishop Wm. F. McDowell, during the past quadrennium, has been most successful, and highly satisfactory in every way, and because of his intimate knowledge of the conditions and needs of this territory, and his tireless labors to meet them, because of his genuine brotherly cordiality, and the high confidence and deep love in which he is universally held by both preachers and laymen, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Illinois Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, hereby most earnestly petition the General Conference to return Bishop McDowell to this Area for the coming quadrennium, pledging him our most enthusiastic co-operation and support.

F. B. Madden, Chairman.

F. A. McCarty, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The cry of the child has awakened the social conscience of the civilized world. The church is now hearing the "cry" of the claim of the retired minister and the widows and orphan children of ministers.

We thank God there is an awakening ethical conscience responding to that claim for comfortable care and support. It is an inherent right which was created by the church and the minister when the minister's offer of himself for a life of undivided service was accepted by the church.

The signs of that awakening ethical conscience are evidenced in the legislation of the general Conference of 1908; in the increased and increasing annual collections in the churches for the cause; in its contributions for endowment foundations, especially in the Annual Conferences; in the fact that great business enterprises created and controlled by so-called soulless corporations, many commonwealths and municipalities are now recognizing and applying the principle underlying the law of our church.

It is further evidenced by the utterance and action of the Board of Bishops at Washington, D. C., October last when that Board gave a mighty impulse to the proposition of the General Conference Board of Conference Claimants that 1915 should mark the beginning of a great mass-movement throughout the entire church for the purpose of creating endowments to aid in meeting the accumulated debts on this claim, so long overdue. Hear their word:

"The church which educates its ministry and then discards or casts it off as soon as old age comes will shortly have no ministry, and the church will be gone. The world will never pay its debt to these men. But the church will not repudiate their claim. The debt is just. It is long overdue. Let us make 1915 memorable for the veterans."

While the Illinois Conference was one of the foremost in voicing this claim, and has done much in agitation and education; and while its advance in the annual collections and contributions for endowment are highly creditable, only a few of our people are sufficiently informed of the need or the nature and real merits of the claim. We cannot be true to ourselves and these worthy men of God and delay long in joining this church-wide movement which was so auspiciously inaugurated in October at Washington; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a commission on the endowment movement for Conference Claimants shall be now appointed. That this Commission shall consist of seventeen persons, nine ministers and eight laymen, who shall be elected by this Conference upon nomination as follows, namely:

Two members by the District Superintendents; two by the Conference Board of Stewards; two by the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society; two by the Board of Trustees of the Conference, and one by the presiding Bishop; and eight laymen, one from each District, who shall be chosen by ministerial members of this Commission.

It shall be the duty of this Commission to devise and put into operation plans for increasing the annual contributions of the churches for the retired ministers and widows and orphan children of the retired ministers of the Illinois Annual Conference, and to increase our endowments to a sum not less than $500,000.00.

For this purpose this Commission is hereby given full power and is directed to proceed to the discharge of its function with careful and prayerful deliberation, but with a determination and enthusiasm commensurate with the need and the righteousness of these claims.

W. H. Wilder.

CHURCH OFFICIALS

Whereas, God's kingdom is now arrayed against the liquor traffic as "the church in action against the saloon," and as each denomination should be consistent in its attitude toward such traffic; therefore, be it

Resolved, That no member of our church who aids, or is in any way connected with this iniquitous business, should hold any official position whatever in our church.

W. A. Smith,
M. G. Coleman,
F. A. McCarty.

COURTESIES.

The Illinois Conference desires to express its sincere appreciation in this and other years of the supervision of our resident Bishop, W. F. McDowell. His wise statesmanship, his keen insight, and his faithful leadership have demanded our admiration, while his sympathy and brotherliness have won our love. The Illinois Conference heartily endorses the action of the last general Conference creating Episcopal areas, and hereby requests the Committee on Episcopacy at the coming general Conference to reappoint Bishop McDowell to this area for another quadrennium.

We desire to express our deep appreciation of the lectures of Dr. H. F. Rall, Ph. D., of Garrett Biblical Institute. His clear-cut presentation of truth, as it needs to be presented and emphasized today for the creating and holding of faith, furnished us both the ideal and the method of dealing with modern problems of thought. His address will long prove a benediction to us all.

We also desire to express our appreciation of the Methodist churches, with their pastors and local committees, who have so unreservedly and enthusiastically entertained us. We also appreciate the assistance given by the other churches of the city in entertaining the Conference, especially those who have opened their homes to us; the trustees of the First Presbyterian, First Congregational and First Christian churches, who have permitted the use of their buildings during the week; of the local papers, who have given such full and complete reports of the meeting; of the Sangamo Club and Leland Hotel for special courtesies; of the management of the Y. W. C. A. for the use of their building; also of the Striffler Ice Company and Western Union Telegraph Company for special favors.

We express our appreciation of the services of our brother W. S. Phillips, who has so sweetly and effectively led us in song.

We congratulate Springfield upon its possession of an official who has the courage to enforce the laws as they are found upon the statute books, and wish for all communities fearless officials like Sheriff J. A. Wheeler.

We are grateful to all the above and others who have assisted in making this one of the best sessions of the Illinois Annual Conference ever held; and pray God's blessing to abide in the hearts and homes of all Springfield.

C. W. Hamand, Chairman.

A. S. Chapman, Secretary.

HONORARY DEGREES

Whereas, Believing that Methodist colleges should represent the highest educational standards, and that degrees, both academic and honorary, conferred by our colleges should be accepted anywhere as a certain evidence of scholarship; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we disapprove the conferring of honorary degrees upon persons by virtue of mere personal prominence or official position without reference to scholarly attainments or achievements which imply scholarship.

W. N. Tobie.

THE NICKEL FUND

Resolved, That as there is a deep craving among the armies in the field, hospitals and prisons of Europe for the Bible, the Illinois Conference recommends that all the Sunday Schools of the Conference give a nickel for each scholar for "The Nickel Fund" from a million scholars for a million Testaments for the soldiers of Europe.

This request has been made by the Sangamon County Bible Society, auxiliary to the American Bible Society.

Ira B. Blackstock, President.

Ministers of Protestant Churches, Vice-Presidents of the county.

H. E. Barker, Treasurer.

I. R. Dillar, Secretary.

G. W. Dungan, County Agent.

TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP

Whereas, There are multitudes of members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who are floating around, not having their membership anchored in the place of their residence, and

Whereas, This situation is so ramifying in its relationships that individual churches can not make a clean-up and correction of such members in their respective communities, and of their churches in other communities.

Believing that a nation wide, thorough-going movement of Methodism along this line is the only possible comprehensive corrective, therefore,

Resolved, That we request the General Conference of 1916 to enact such legislation as will authoritatively put this whole matter under the supervision and direction of the Commission on Evangelism, to the end that for a specific year and a half—so as to give a full year to fall and spring conferences alike—Presiding Bishops, District Superintendents, and Pastors, in their several capacities, give specific attention to the tracing and transferring of all such members, to the end that they may become vitally related to the church in the community where they are living; and,

Furthermore, We raise the question whether it would not be well that such legislation be enacted as would automatically effect a transfer of membership upon a change of residence; making suitable provision, however, for the exercise of individual choice.

Memoirs.

NANCY J. ELLIS.

Nancy J. Bland, daughter of Joel and Harriet Bland, was born in Licking County, Ohio, December 23, 1837. With her parents she removed to Shelby County, Illinois, about 1849.

She was united in marriage to J. L. B. Ellis. Ten children were born of this union—five sons and five daughters, three of whom survive, viz., Elizabeth, residing in Denver, Colorado; Mrs. E. Ruth Richardson, of Shelbyville, Illinois, and Sergeant J. K. Ellis, of the United States Army, stationed at Ft. Logan, Colorado, all of whom were permitted to be present at the burial of their devoted mother.

When a child of tender years she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, remaining, through her long and useful life, a consistent and faithful member.

In 1860 her husband was, through her prayers and beautiful life, converted and became a member of the church with her. Some little time afterward, her husband felt the call to the ministry and entered the itinerancy, becoming a member of the Illinois Conference. With him Sister Ellis traveled circuit after circuit, doing faithful work for the Master.

She was truly adapted to this special work. Exceedingly hospitable and kind, in all the many duties and varied calls of a pastor's wife she did not shrink nor falter. She had peace within her soul and her smile ever gave token of her passion of love for her Master and people whom she endeavored to lead into the beautiful life in God.

For 28 years she wrought well and was loth to quit when age and affliction caused both her and her husband to seek the life of the retired relation to the Conference.

They chose Shelbyville, Illinois, as the place of abode after retiring.

The deceased identified herself with the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Shelbyville, where she exercised the gifts and graces with which she was endowed, for the good of the local church, for many years.

It was a cross for her when failing health compelled her to do less for her church than she was wont to do.

She enjoyed all the means of grace, the preaching service and prayer meetings, as well as the work of the various women's enterprises in the church.

She, like Dorcas, was full of good deeds and, as long as she was able to do so, she ministered to the needs of any who visited her home.

She passed away, without a struggle, Saturday night, February 6, 1915. Her last sickness and death were the result of a fall which caused much pain and suffering.

The funeral services were conducted at the home on Tuesday afternoon, February 9, by her pastor, Rev. A. S. Chapman, assisted by Rev. C. F. Buker, District Superintendent, and Rev. J. F. Wohlfarth, of Sullivan, Illinois. The remains rest in Glenwood cemetery, Shelbyville, Ill.

J. C. KELLER.

After a well-rounded life full of high and useful service, on Tuesday morning, January 26, 1915, Joseph C. Keller passed to his coronation. He had been in declining health for several years, his serious illness being of some five or six weeks duration.

Brother Keller was a native of Urbana, Ohio, and was born March 30, 1838, being the younger son of William and Mary Keller. He was educated in the public and High schools of Urbana. At the early age of fifteen years he became a teacher, at first in his native state and later in Logan County, Illinois. After several years' experience as a teacher he became ticket agent of the Chicago & Alton railway at Broadwell, Illinois. He was united in marriage to Nancy E. Braucher, April 10, 1860. To them were born three daughters, Mary, wife of Samuel Ijams, of Bloomington, Illinois; Maud, wife of Rev. J. L. Hardesty, of Divernon, Illinois, and Lena, wife of Jas. M. Goodwin, of Clarence, Illinois. Mrs. Keller preceded her husband in death June 2, 1912.

Mr. Keller was converted and united with the Methodist Church at Broadwell while he was ticket agent at that place. His conversion was a remarkable one and in the very meeting in which he was converted he arose and delivered an exhortation which carried such conviction to his former companions who were present, among whom he had been a leading spirit, that several at once responded to his appeal and were converted. Immediately at the time of his conversion he felt a clear call to the ministry. In his reminiscent moods he frequently referred to the impressions that came to him at this time. Throughout the years of his life, that call remained in his mind as an audible voice whose certainty he never doubted. He at once became an earnest and aggressive Christian worker and was licensed as a local preacher. He held meetings in neighboring places and was greatly blessed of God in the winning of souls to Christ. The beginnings of the strong Lincoln Circuit of today date back to this period of his work as a local preacher.

In 1869, at the Conference held at Shelbyville under the presidency of Bishop Randolph S. Foster, he was received into the Illinois Conference, and in the succeeding years of his ministry served the following charges: Bethany, Girard, Lovington, Mt. Pulaski, Hopedale, Atlanta, New Hartford, San Jose, Heyworth, LeRoy, Rantoul, Kansas, Newman, Old Town, Downs, Morrisonville. Throughout all these years he faithfully and earnestly did the work of a Methodist minister. His ministry was honored by great revivals, the most fruitful of which were held at Bethany, Lovington, and Mt. Pulaski. On the Lovington Circuit he also built two churches and bought a parsonage. The Prairie Creek Church on the San Jose Circuit was also built under his pastorate. It was characteristic of his ministry to open up new preaching places and to effect the organization of new churches. Like many of the pioneer preachers, in his evangelistic work he often met with the spirit of opposition on the part of the ungodly, but he always proved masterful in dealing with such emergencies and frequently won the ringleaders of such opposition to Christ.

Brother Keller as a preacher was thoughtful, logical and convincing. He was a systematic sermonizer and magnetic and sympathetic in delivery. Even in recent years he often preached with fervor and power. He was apt in illustration and his sense of humor was marked. He was a successful administrator and a true pastor. He built up the churches committed to his care both spiritually and materially. He was one of the pioneer advocates of prohibition in the days when it required courage and aroused some opposition to stand out fearlessly for this cause. As a man, Brother Keller was modest in character, kindly and gracious in disposition and yet a man of strong and tenacious convictions.

Since his retirement from the active work Brother Keller has lived at Normal, Rantoul, on his farm in Jasper County, and in more recent years with his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Ijams, of Bloomington, Illinois. Brother Keller is survived by one sister, Mrs. Belinda Pierce, of Urbana, Ohio, by his three daughters, Mrs. Mary Ijams, of Bloomington, Illinois, Mrs. Maud Hardesty, of Divernon, Illinois, and Mrs. Lena Goodwin, of Clarence, Illinois, and by three grandchildren, John Vernon Hardesty, William Keller Goodwin, and Florence Louise Goodwin.

Brother Keller leaves to his daughters the memory of a loving and thoughtful father, to his brethren in the Conference the memory of a faithful gospel preacher and to his wider circle of friends the memory of a kindly and noble Christian life.

Funeral services were held at the residence of Mrs. Samuel Ijams, at Bloomington, Illinois, conducted by the pastor, Dr. Freeman A. Havighurst, assisted by Rev. H. F. Cusic and Dr. W. H. Wilder. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery, Bloomington.

HENRY TILLMAN COLLINS.

Henry Tillman Collins was born in Caroline County, Maryland, November 4, 1849, and died at Atoka, Oklahoma, September 21, 1914.

The deceased came to Illinois with his parents, George W. and Mary Jane Todd Collins, about 1850, and settled two and one-half miles northeast of Fairmount, Vermillion County, Illinois.

He obtained his education in the common schools of Vermillion County. In 1870 he was united in marriage to Mary E. Neville, daughter of G. R. Neville, an old pioneer of Illinois.

There was born a son, Neville A., of Joplin, Missouri.

In 1875 the deceased entered the De Pauw University at Greencastle, Indiana, where he spent seven years preparing for the ministry.

In 1881 he entered the Illinois Conference, and for 20 years served the following appointments: 1881, Tuscola Circuit; 1882-4, Tower Hill; 1885, Elkhart; 1886, Auburn; 1887, Palmyra; 1888, Manchester; 1889-90, Topeka; 1891, Pilot; 1892-3, East Lynn; 1894, Ludlow; 1895, Weldon; 1896, Oakford; 1897, Loraine; 1898, Warsaw; 1899-1914, retired.

On account of failing health he retired for three years, after which he did supply work in Kansas Conference.

His health so far failed him that he was compelled to take a superannuate relation and retire from all pulpit ministrations. He removed to Atoka, Oklahoma, and resided there until his demise.

His remains were carried to Catlin, Illinois, where appropriate services were held. Rev. Preston Wood, assisted by Rev. Robt. Stephens, Rev. Merle English, and Rev. John W. Heninger, conducted the services. The interment was in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

KATE E. BARTON.

Mrs. Kate E. Barton died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Johnson, at 912 Lincoln Street, in Neodesha, Kans., Wednesday, August 4, 1915, at 4:30 p. m., aged 80 years, 4 months and 19 days.

Kate E. Rohrer was born near Waverly, Illinois, March 12, 1835, where she grew to womanhood and, March 13, 1853, married Wm. B. Barton. They came to Kansas in March, 1872, and settled on a farm in Prairie Township, Wilson County, where the husband died February 10, 1899. Mrs. Barton continued to live on the old home place and about two months ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis, when she came to Neodesha to visit her daughter in the hope that the change and her daughter's tender care would restore her. She continued to fail in health until the end came. She ran the journey of her life in eighty years. It is a path marked with deeds of kindness and cheer. She scattered flowers and sunshine all along the way, and her friends were limited only to her acquaintancés. Mrs. Barton was an every day Christian. The beautifying influence of a pure religion were spread over a life and character as spotless and charming as was ever possessed by any of the noble women who have lived and died during the days that are gone.

The remains were taken to Fredonia, where, on August 6th, the funeral was held from the Farmington Church. Rev. E. C. Moore, her pastor, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. J. R. Blackburn.

The interment was made in the Farmington cemetery where she was laid beside her husband.

Thus, after a long useful life, she sank to rest and died in the hope of eternal peace and rest with the people of God.

Mrs. Barton is survived by four children, as follows: Alva Barton, of Salem, Oregon; Rev. W. B. Barton, of Caldwell, Kansas; Mrs. Kate B. Harrison, of Elk Head, Oregon, and Mrs. C. W. Johnson, of Neodesha, Kansas.

NATHANIEL EMERSON PARSONS.

Rev. Nathaniel Emerson Parsons, the youngest child of Rev. John Wesley and Salinda Stanfield Parsons, was born April 24, 1849. Departed this life July 3, 1915, aged 66 years, 2 months and 9 days. Left an orphan at the age of nine, he was adopted into the family of Abraham Yeazel, near Homer, Ill., whose wife, a woman of more than ordinary intelligence and Christian character, become strongly attached to the orphan boy, who returned her love in full measure. To her he ascribed, more than to all others, whatever of success and usefulness he has had in life.

In the spring of 1864 he enlisted in Co. K, 33d Illinois infantry, and served to the end of the war. He was very enthusiastic in the local G. A. R. and took but recently a prominent part in the organization of the Sons of Veterans.

He was educated in the public schools of Homer and the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill.

He became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at sixteen, and a Sunday School Superintendent and class leader. At seventeen he was licensed to exhort, and at eighteen to preach. He taught school in Illinois for several years, and in 1872 went to Indian Territory as a missionary to the Chickasaw Nation, teaching school and preaching to the whites and the Indians, and organized a church and built the first house of worship in that nation.

In 1873 he joined the Indian Mission Conference of the M. E. Church, South. He married, October 1, 1874, Clara J. Williams, of Homer, Ill., a devout Christian woman who entered heartily into his work among the Indians for the next four years.

In 1882 he joined the Columbia River Conference of the M. E. Church in Oregon and the territory of Washington and Idaho, and the next 16 years were spent in laying the foundation of Christ's kingdom in that western country. He served the charges at Waitsburg, Sprague, Spokane and Pomeroy, in Washington; Moscow, in Idaho, and Milton, in Oregon; and was presiding elder of the Walla Walla and Spokane districts. He organized the first Epworth League in the northwest. In 1897 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference and appointed to Seymour. Afterwards he served at Ludlow, Meredosia, Rockport, New Salem and Metcalf. In 1907 he took a supernumerary relation and came to Homer to give his entire time in caring for his foster and adopted mother.

Six of the seven children are living, viz.: Mrs. A. P. McCarty, of Scranton, Pa.; Miss Anna Pearl, trained nurse, of Chicago; Mrs. Earl Barton, of Elmwood, Ind.; Wilber Emerson, of Houston, Texas; John Ray, of Millersburg, Ind.; Mrs. Lorena Hebert, of Houston, Texas. One sister, Mrs. A. L. Cunningham, of Mammoth Springs, Ark.; foster sisters, Mesdames Lydia Oaks, A. C. Poage and H. E. Hoffman; these, with the sorrowing wife and mother, are the immediate relatives of our brother.

Although his salary was only ordinary he provided for all the children a splendid education, sending them to the Woman's College at Jacksonville, University of Illinois, and the Illinois Wesleyan, Taylor University of Indiana, and the College of Music in Chicago.

He was a devoted father and husband. He loved his church and was the happiest when he saw the church prospering. He gave not only the best part of his life for the church, but also gave of his means until he felt it. His attachment for the children was very marked and the esteem for him by all who knew him is high tribute to his life of kindness and love. Truly he was a useful and a good man. For him to die was gain. His smile is lingering upon our memory, his life inspires us to a greater devotion to our Lord.

Funeral services were held at the Homer M. E. Church at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The music was by the regular church choir. The Rev. F. B. Madden, District Superintendent of the Champaign district, made the opening prayer. The scripture lesson was read by the Rev. Leo Howard, of St. Joseph, and the obituary was read by the pastor, the Rev. J. P. Edgar. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. H. C. Gibbs, District Superintendent of the Danville district. The Rev. M. M. Want, of Rossville, spoke on "As I Knew Him as His Pastor," and Rev. S. H. Whitlock on "As An Associate Preacher." The pastor, Rev. Edgar, addressed a few remarks to the family. The service at the church was concluded by the choir and the entire congregation singing Rev. Parsons' favorite hymn, "O, Happy Day."

GERALD J. JANSSEN.

"On the earth the broken arcs; in Heaven a perfect round."

It is not given to those who see only in part, and for the present through a glass darkly, to understand the mysteries of God's ways with men. Two years ago our Conference sorrowed in sympathy with Brother Janssen, whose wife and child had been taken by death, and now we are in tears for our brother, who on the nineteenth day of December, 1914, answered the final summons. To mortal vision this stroke is not clear, for we all say the world needs just such families, and the ministry and our Conference just such men, as God in this case has chosen to transplant to fields of life eternal. Though we do not understand why God's kingdom on earth, at once so needy and withal so nobly served by our departed brother whose life was full of hope and promise, should be thus bereft, may we not forget that our Father knows best, and,

"Our times are in His hand
Who saith, 'A whole I planned.'"

Gerald J. Janssen was born January 17, 1880, in Oldenburg, Germany. At the age of ten years he came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Janssen, to Springfield, Illinois, which place was his home until he entered the ministry. He graduated from Central Wesleyan College at Warrenton, Missouri, and took his seminary course in the Garrett Biblical Institute, at Evanston, Illinois. August 26, 1908, he was united in marriage with Miss Caroline F. Barz, who faithfully and courageously shared his self-sacrificing labor until April 28, 1913, when she was called in death. Their only child, Virginia Grace, died August 4, 1913. Thus Brother Janssen was called to bear a double burden of sorrow, which with Christian fortitude he did, for a few months only, till God called him to a sweet family reunion in heaven. He is survived by his parents, five sisters, and two brothers.

Funeral services were held in Springfield at the home of Brother Janssen's parents, and also in the Methodist Church in Waynesville, Illinois, where he was pastor for four years prior to September, 1914, when he was appointed to Pittsfield, Illinois. The earthly remains were laid to rest by the side of the wife and child in the Waynesville cemetery.

Brother Janssen entered the Illinois Conference in 1907 and served with marked success as pastor of the following charges: Palmer, Grove City, Waynesville and Pittsfield. In Pittsfield, where he had served less than three months, he had won a large place in the hearts of his people, and was entering with all his consecrated enthusiasm upon what promised to be a most fruitful pastorate.

We are dazed in the presence of what seems a most untimely ending of a life at once so noble, so pure, so thoroughly equipped, and so consecrated to the most worthy calling; but may we be inspired by the example of our departed brother, who in the darkest days endured as seeing Him who is invisible, and let us pray God to bring forth an abundant harvest from the faithful sowing of this brief life of service.

Though in tears yet in confidence, we

"Chant the hymns of sorrow
Loved ones lay to rest;
Ours is not the morrow,
He who gave knows best."

HORACE REED.

The Illinois Conference has lost another of its heroes and makers. A pioneer in time, a Cartwright in capacity and labor, a preacher of the old school that knew how to adjust his message to the new age, a man of executive ability and spiritual attainments; such, and more, was the Rev. Horace Reed, D. D.

The Sabbath day was calling men to rest and worship and on this Sabbath (Nov. 15, 1914,) in his home at 1616 N. Main Street, Decatur, at the "hour of high noon he was called from labor to refreshment."

For some time Dr. Reed had been failing in health. It was noticed with pain last fall at the Conference and many of the brethren realized that very likely he was attending his last Conference session on earth; and it proved to be so. A slight stroke of paralysis last spring was the beginning of the end.

Two days before his death a letter was received by the Quincy Methodist from the hand of our Conference Saint John, viz., the Rev. S. H. Whitlock. He had heard his brother's "cry of distress" and came to his bedside. The letter is as follows:

"I am at the home of Dr. Horace Reed in Decatur. He has been confined to his bed now for two weeks. His trouble is a general breakdown of the physical forces. Mrs. Reed asked me to send this note to your paper. He will be glad to hear from his preacher friends though he sees no one now but the family."

Dr. Reed was born in northeastern Ohio, Geauga County, January 9, 1841, making his age at the time of his death 73 years, 10 months and 6 days. At the age of 23 he entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church and continued in the active ranks till the end came. It was the desire of his heart never to be retired.

He was a student when the Civil War broke out and he enlisted in Company A, of the Eighty-ninth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, August 26, 1862. He served until July 29, 1863, when he was honorably discharged on account of illness.

His ministerial career began in the Cincinnati Conference in 1864. From that day and date to November 15, 1914, is a lengthy stretch of years in service given to his church and Redeemer. His various appointments were as follows: 1864, Cincinnati Ladies' Home Mission; 1865-1866, Harrison;

1867, Piqua, Wayne Street; Southern Illinois Conference; 1868, Salem; 1869-1870, Jerseyville; Illinois Conference: 1871, Champaign, First; 1872, Griggsville; 1873, Springfield, Second Church; 1874-1875, Decatur, First; 1876-1878, Quincy, Vermont Street; 1879-1881, Jacksonville, Centenary; 1882, Lincoln; 1883-1886, Mattoon District; 1887-1888, Bloomington, Grace; 1889-1890, Clinton; 1891-1892, Danville, Kimber; 1893-1896, West Jacksonville District; 1897-1898, Danville, First; 1899-1904, Decatur District; 1905-1907, field agent Illinois Woman's College, Jacksonville; 1908, Secretary Conference Evangelistic Commission; 1909-1911, field secretary Illinois Vigilance Association; 1911-1914, field secretary and organizer of Purity and Reform work.

A number of times he was honored by his brethren by being elected a delegate to the General Conference of the Church, where he always served the church with ability and received no little distinction as a leader among men in the affairs of the church.

For one quadrennium, or more, Dr. Reed was a member of one of the most important General Conference Committees, that of the Book Concern. Here he served with ability and distinction and had his due share and part in making this great institution what it is today.

Dr. Reed was a natural leader among men. He was always a "master of assemblies" and, on many occasions, when the bishop had to ask a brother to preside in his stead, Dr. Reed was called upon, when he always presided with dignity and grace.

He had a career as presiding elder that took him over a period of fourteen years in duration and extending to three districts, viz., the Mattoon, West Jacksonville and Decatur. He was an adept at handling men and making appointments. The charge was never brought against Dr. Reed that he was using the church instead of serving it. He always recommended to the bishop the appointment of his men for service rather than shelter and refuge.

Since leaving the Decatur District in 1904 his pastoral work in a way ceased, for he was put into what is called "detached service." This included the field agency of the Illinois Woman's College, the Secretaryship of the Conference Evangelistic Commission, Field Secretary of the Illinois Vigilance Association and Field Secretary and Organizer of Purity and Reform Work.

In each of the above positions he served with distinction and ability and gave his life to the very last to these causes.

But the end of labor has come at last. The time for reward has dawned. Surely he has fought a good fight, finished his course and kept the faith. Illinois Methodism is richer because of his life and extensive labor of love.

Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church, Decatur, Illinois, in charge of Dr. Eugene M. Antrim, pastor, assisted by Dr. W. H. Webster, of Danville, Ill.; Rev. John W. Miller, of Jacksonville, Ill.; Rev. T. N. Ewing, of Springfield, Ill.; Rev. S. H. Whitlock, of Homer, Ill.; Rev. Chris Galeener, of Paris, Ill.; Rev. J. W. Van Cleve, of Decatur, Ill.; Rev. R. F. McDaniel, of Decatur, Ill.

He was buried in Greenwood cemetery, Decatur, Ill.

SARAH A. McKINNEY.

Sarah A. Swain was born two miles east of Loraine, December 6, 1857, and died January 28, 1915, aged 57 years, 1 month and 22 days. She was united in marriage to William Cubbage, the 11th day of December, 1879, who died September 7, 1900.

On the 30th day of June, 1904, she was married to Rev. W. A. McKinney, a member of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Baughman, then pastor of the Loraine M. E. Church. She made a complete surrender to Christ and joined the M. E. Church in the year 1892, under the pastorate of Rev. Jasper Miller.

On the 18th day of Dec., last, she was stricken with paralysis, and again on the 25th of this month. Even after the first attack she was not able to make all of her wants known, as she lost the use of her tongue and was only able to make motions with her left hand and her head. But, after the second attack had come upon her, she was never able to recognize any one and lay in the same position until last Thursday, when, shortly after the noon hour, her soul, kissed by the Angel of Death, left the earthly tabernacle quietly and peacefully to be borne on wings of snow into the City Four Square, and into a mansion prepared for her from the beginning; into an eternal home which is free from sorrow and pain, where there will be no more shedding of tears nor farewells; where there is no night nor need of sun, for Jesus is the light. This is the home of which we sing: "When I've been there ten thousand years, I'll have no less to live."

Sister McKinney is survived by her sorrowing husband, one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Pittman, of Loraine, and one brother, John Swain, of Hutchinson, Kans., other relatives and many friends, who are sorrowing with the loved ones, and not a few of whom are praying for the deeply bereaved husband.

She will be missed by her neighbors and all who knew her; she will be missed by her pastor, and there will be a vacancy in the home which never can be filled. But earth's loss will be heaven's gain.

Charles Kingsley said upon his death bed: "It is not darkness I am going to, for God is light. It is not lonely, for Christ is there with me. It is not an unknown country, for Jesus is there."

The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church on Saturday at 2 p. m., under the direction of her pastor, Rev. H. R. Kasiske. The sermon was delivered by Rev. A. S. Flanigan, of Quincy, the District Superintendent. Rev. H. M. Ingram, of Stillwell, offered the prayer.

ANNIE M. REED.

Annie M. Maples was born at Cincinnati, Ohio, September 6, 1845, and died at Louisville, Ky., February 5, 1915.

She was the oldest daughter of a family of six children. Her father died in her childhood. Her mother later married the brother of her first husband, the latter being a pioneer Methodist preacher and a member of one of the Ohio Conferences.

Sister Reed had no knowledge of the time or place when she was converted, for there was no time in her recollection when she did not love her Savior, as well as everything that was good and true. Among the treasures of her childhood which, in the later years of her life, she prized very much, were the love feast tickets which were used by her mother in the early days of Methodism.

She attended the More's Hill College at More's Hill, Indiana. After her graduation she engaged in the work of teaching for some years, her last school being at Centralia, Illinois, at which place she was married to Rev. Horace Reed, February 20, 1867. Following the wedding, in the fall of 1867, Dr. Reed and his bride came by appointment of the Cincinnati Conference to the Wayne Street Church, Piqua, Ohio.

Mrs. Reed very helpfully shared her husband's work in the Cincinnati, the Southern Illinois and the Illinois Conferences. She was always cheerful, and sought in every way to make other lives happier and more useful. She was ever ready to catch step with all the advanced movements of the church as well as the civic and moral reforms. In the great temperance crusade of 1873 she took a very active interest and was very helpful in pushing that crusade.

For many years she was especially interested in the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and served as Conference Secretary from 1885 to 1892. Her home was always a resting place for the missionaries and she was enabled to impart her enthusiasm to her children and those with whom she labored.

She became greatly interested in the Primary Department of the Sunday School, and became the head and leader of the department while serving the First Church, Decatur; Vermont Street, Quincy, and Centenary Church, Jacksonville, Illinois.

She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, of Upper Mount Clare, New Jersey, and Mrs. John Shaw, of Lawrence, Kansas; and one brother, Mr. Frank Maples, of Oklahoma.

Four children are left: Clarence Reed, Palo Alto, Calif.; Miss Louella Reed, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Roy W. Sanner, Decatur, Ill., and Mrs. George R. Coffman, Missoula, Mont.; also two grandchildren, Edward Reed Sanner and Virginia Reed Sanner, of Decatur, Ill.

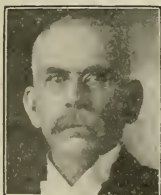

Mrs. Reed was a queenly woman; her outstanding traits were simplicity and charity. Her whole life was one of real benevolence, always seeking to make the pathway of others brighter and easier in life. Her home was her throne, where she ruled only by the law of love and gentleness.

For the itinerant minister, her home was a resting place, where he could drop his burden. With her, station was naught; if he was God's messenger, he was welcome to rest in her home.

And now that she has passed into the larger life, what a beautiful going it was. The wife and mother only separated for a few short weeks from the husband and father, now united beyond the Blue where together they will live forever.

Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church in Decatur, in charge of Dr. Eugene M. Antrim, pastor, who was assisted by Dr. W. H. Webster, of Danville, Ill.; Dr. C. B. Taylor, of Urbana, Ill.; Dr. R. F. McDaniel, of Decatur, Ill.; Dr. S. H. Whitlock, of Homer, Ill.; Dr. J. R. Harker, of Jacksonville, Ill. She was buried in Greenwood cemetery, Decatur, Ill.

WILLIAM MADISON POE.

W. M. Poe was born in Owen County, Indiana, August 13, 1844, and died in Whittier, Calif., November 21, 1914. While a boy he moved with his parents to Illinois and located in Clark County. In early manhood he taught school, and later prepared himself for the ministry. In 1875 he united with the Illinois Conference and was stationed at York. He served his church in active pastorate 29 years, having the following charges: York, Grandview, Mattoon Circuit, Pawnee, Buffalo, Lincoln Circuit, Griggsville, Cerro Gordo, Jacksonville Circuit, Homer, Sidney. He was Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society for many years. Upon taking a retired relation he located at Urbana, where he lived until 1911. After spending the winter of 1911-1912 in California he returned to Illinois and located in Homer, where he has made his home. The last of September, 1914, he went to California again for the winter, hoping it might be a help to him in health which had been failing for about one year.

Brother Poe married Miss Amanda J. Ryan in 1868. Two children were born unto them—Miss Alice, who resides in Homer, Ill., and Mrs. Laura Poe Cadwell, of Whittier, Calif. In 1875 he married Miss Melinda Frances, of Casey, Ill. Three children were born to them—Mrs. Nellie Tudor, of Homer; Edward, who died when two years old, and Fred M., of Chicago Heights. The widow also survives and lives in Homer, Ill.

Brother Poe was a successful pastor. Wherever he was stationed he built up the membership by having good revival meetings. He was true to the church and loved the brethren of his Conference. He suffered much ere he left earthly scenes but was cheerful through it all and gave many evidence of his complete trust in his Lord and Master.

His body was brought back to Illinois and laid away in the cemetery in Homer. The funeral service was held from the church which he was instrumental in building in Homer in 1902.

The pastor, J. P. Edgar, had charge and was assisted by a number of brethren of the Illinois Conference, about twenty of whom attended the services. Thus the story of a life that was instrumental in the love of Jesus in winning many souls for the Lord and eternity will reveal the many other lives he helped while journeying to the Heavenly home.

THE REV. HOWARD M. HAMILL, D. D.

The Rev. Howard M. Hamill, D. D., departed this life at Tate Springs, Tenn., on the evening of Jan. 21, 1915. For fourteen years preceding his death he was the superintendent of the Sunday School teacher-training work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was also the President of the International Sunday School Association, having previously been for a number of years the Chairman of the Committee on Education of that Association. The announcement of the death of Dr. Hamill was received with profound grief wherever, throughout the world, the work and development of the Christian Sunday School are known. And within the boundaries of the Illinois Conference of which he was a member for sixteen years the sense of loss was personal, as of one known among us as a man both great and good.

Dr. Hamill became a member of the Illinois Conference at its session held in Rushville, in September, 1885, resigning his position as Superintendent of the city schools of Jacksonville, Ill., in order to devote his life wholly to the Christian ministry. Professor Hamill, as he always continued to be known among us, held but one pastorate, of four years, at Franklin in the Jacksonville District. It was a pastorate characterized by a most unusual evangelistic fervor and success, and the memory of its fine scholarly ministry is still fragrant among the people whom it blessed. But the great life work of Dr. Hamill was destined to be the ministry of teaching, especially in connection with the work of the Sunday School. In this field he will have enduring rank as one of the great constructive pioneers and leaders. He established in Illinois the first State Sunday School Normal Department; prepared a literature for its work; and attained wide prominence both as a writer and as a leader in the work of the International Sunday School Association, in which he served for many years as Field Secretary.

In the Illinois Conference Dr. Hamill rendered noteworthy service in the cause of ministerial education. In 1895 he became associated with the late Dr. J. T. McFarland in the work of a complete reorganization of the method of Conference courses of study. A year later, he succeeded Dr. McFarland at the head of this work in this Conference, and continued as the Chairman of our Board of Examiners until the close of his membership in the Illinois Conference in 1901. His constructive skill and his devotion in this service will have our permanent gratitude. Especially among his "boys", as he affectionately called those who pursued the Conference courses of study under his direction, his memory is precious. His interest for and fellowship with young men in the ministry became for them an abiding inspiration.

At Lake Geneva, Wis., at Conference Point, on July 3, 1915, there was laid the corner-stone of what will be known as the Hamill Memorial Library. This beautiful building will preserve the name of Dr. Hamill as a memorial structure. But Howard M. Hamill has builded by the labors of his life a monument taller, more imposing, more enduring, than any which can be constructed of brick, or stone. It is a monument builded in the hearts of children, in Sunday Schools world-wide, and whose unending influence will continue through all the years to speak of him. It is directed that a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mrs. Hamill as an expression of the esteem and sympathy of the Illinois Conference, and that they be printed in our Conference Minutes, together with a portrait of the man whom we thus have known and loved.

JOSEPH C. NATE,
C. M. BARTON,
WALTER AITKEN.

ELEANOR CARTWRIGHT RANDLE DAVIS.

On December 14, 1914, Mrs. Eleanor Cartwright Randle Davis slipped away to the spirit land after a long and useful career. On the 17th of December, 1914, funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Eugene M. Antrim, from her late home in Decatur, and she was buried in Greenwood cemetery at that place.

She was the widow of the late Rev. W. H. Davis, who was a member of the Illinois Conference from the time when, in 1854, he traveled the Jackson-ville Circuit until his death, Jan. 11, 1899. During all those years, both of his active and retired ministry, as well as during the years when he practiced medicine before he yielded to the call to preach, she was a loyal, faithful and consecrated companion and helper of her husband.

She was born in Godfrey, Ill., Aug. 1, 1828. She was married to W. H. Davis near the place of her birth October 18, 1848. She was the mother of ten children, four sons alone surviving her, Charles W., Newton, J. Frank and George R. Davis. It was six years after their marriage that Brother Davis responded to the call to preach, sacrificing both the income and opportunities of his profession to enter upon a higher calling. In all the ensuing sacrifices his wife was a willing and enthusiastic sharer.

Of gentle disposition, beloved of all who knew her, she passed into the unseen with the benedictions of her family and friends following her, and her itinerating, which in the earlier days of her wedded life was a stern reality, was at length at an end.

MRS. A. N. HORNEY.

The death of Mrs. A. N. Horney, one of the prominent characters of Russell, Kans., occurred at her home in that city, Saturday afternoon, June 12, 1915, at the mature age of 89 years, 3 months and 7 days. She had been in very poor health for many weeks. The cause of her death was advanced years.

Ann Nicely Miller was born in West Moreland County, Pa., March 5, 1826. Her first marriage was to Dr. Porter at Danville, Ill., where she spent the greater part of her life. Here she became a practicing physician and, for many years with her husband, followed that profession actively. She attained considerable prominence and her services were eagerly sought. Dr. Porter died and is buried at Danville, Ill., as is also Peter Walsh, an adopted son. After the death of her husband she resided at Fairmount, Ill., and from there came to Russell. Mrs. Porter was united in marriage to Rev. A. N. Horney, of Fairmount, Ill. He lived only a few years. Mrs. Horney was buried beside the body of Mr. Horney in the Russell cemetery. She leaves a number of nephews and nieces in Pennsylvania. A cousin, E. J. Schreckengost, and his wife, of Nevada, Mo., were present at the funeral. Funeral services occurred Sunday afternoon at three o'clock from the house, conducted by Rev. W. G. Lamont and Rev. J. E. Wilson. The pallbearers were from among her friends, M. H. Fox, J. E. Smith, E. W. Voorhis, Frank Clarke, John F. Woelk and Dr. A. L. Browne.

From her earliest years Mrs. Horney was a very successful financier. She possessed a shrewd mind and used it to good advantage. Her investments proved uniformly profitable, resulting in the accumulation of considerable property. Her gifts to charity and religious objects were numerous, several of them going to the Methodist Church, of which she had been a faithful member. She assisted in the erection of church buildings on destitute fields. Three years ago she built a 20-room cottage on the camp meeting grounds near Ogallah. At another time she contributed $500 to the Kansas Orphanage work.

In her will she made liberal bequests to the church, to the Illinois Conference in particular, namely: $2,000 to The Children's Home Association of the city of Danville, of the County of Vermilion, State of Illinois. $2,000 to The Lakeview Hospital Association of the city of Danville, Vermillion County, Illinois. $1,000 to The Bethany Hospital of Kansas City, Kansas. $2,000 to The Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Horney was an earnest Christian woman and, many times during her last illness, requested prayer while her near friends were present. In early life she traveled a great deal, going abroad at one time. In the early 50's she crossed the plains, but remained in the west only a short time. She was a lifelong, ardent Republican, and was in Abraham Lincoln's company many times while he practised law in Danville. Mr. Lincoln frequently came to her home to be entertained and the two brilliant minds enjoyed the company of each other. When Mr. Lincoln made his first campaign for the presidency he went to Danville for a political rally. Mrs. Horney organized a large delegation of ladies and, in the parade, rode on horseback next to the now famous president's carriage. She continued to be a fast friend of President Lincoln's during all his career, and could tell of numerous conferences she had with him.

DANIEL E. MAY.

Daniel E. May was born in Port Republic, Va., February 24, 1829. He married Sarah A. Merica, August 10, 1852. They came to Illinois and settled at Oakland in 1856.

During his residence there he became a local preacher. He and his wife were charter members of the Oakland M. E. Church.

In the year 1866 he became a member of the Illinois Conference and served the following charges: Martinsville, Mattoon, Bement, Vermilion, Humboldt, Mt. Pulaski, Harriestown, Moweaqua, Macon, Homer, Decatur Circuit, McLean and Green Valley. In 1896 he retired from the ministry and located at Mt. Zion where he died, February 12, 1915. Dr. W. H. Wilder preached the funeral sermon at the M. E. Church in Mt. Zion. The funeral was in charge of the Masons. Rev. T. T. Peters, pastor of Mt. Zion Church, assisted in the funeral services.

CONFERENCE RULES.

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by _____ members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than ———, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each pastor in effective work shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his annual salary each year to a fund known as Secretarial Expense Fund, such fund to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants to the Conference in any way.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

SECRETARIAL NOTES.

The tabulated arrangement of subject matter in the Annual Minutes has been made to conform to the standard table of contents as ordered by the General Conference.

In compliance with the action of the Conference the following list of delayed copy is published:

W. F. M. S. report received from Mrs. Jos. C. Nate, September 28th.

Stewards' report received from Walter Mitchell, September 30th.

Report of Treasurer of Educational Forward Movement received from Hiram B. Prentice, October 2d.

A large number of alterations were made after the copy had been handed in, and after the ten days' limit for copy had expired, including appointments, reports, statistical data, etc., and some copy and corrections were received too late to be printed in the Minutes.

It still remains a question as to the desirability of speed or accuracy. Unless all copy is furnished in a correct form upon the close of the Conference session, one or the other must be sacrificed.

W. A. Smith offered a resolution of thanks to the children of the late Dr. and Mrs. Horace Reed for their liberal gift to the Claimants of this Conference. (See Resolutions.)

Kirkpatrick moved to amend by the addition of the words, "And all other reports not in the nature of disciplinary action and therefore properly subject to editorial revision." J. M. Judy moved, as a substitute, that the District Superintendents' reports be omitted from the published Minutes. J. W. Miller moved to amend the substitute to the effect that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to take up with the District Superintendents and the publisher of the Minutes this whole matter of the abbreviation of reports, together with the inclusion in the published Minutes of the Sunday School statistics. The amendment was adopted. The substitute, as amended, was adopted. The chair announced as such committee: T. N. Ewing, E. M. Antrim, and C. Galeener.

Order of the Day—T. N. Ewing moved that the report of the special committee on the publication of Minutes be made the order of the day for this evening session, immediately after the reading of the Journal.

Delay of Publication—W. A. Smith moved that, unless copy for the Minutes be in the publisher's hands within ten days after the adjournment of the Conference, the publisher be authorized to close the forms and publish the Minutes with the exclusion of delayed matter. R. Y. Williams moved as a substitute that if, after ten days, copy for the Minutes is not in hand, the Secretary shall be authorized to publish the names of those parties, the delay of whose copy has caused the delay of the publication of the Minutes, which motion carried, and the substitute was adopted.

Extension of Time—On motion of G. E. Scrimger, the time of the morning session was extended.

Excused—Walter Mitchell and J. W. Dundas were excused from further attendance upon the sessions of the Conference.

Reports.

(A) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

B. F. Shipp, Superintendent.

Bishop Wilson and Brethren:

The year has been replete with faithful toil and earnest devotion on the part of almost every pastor.

Changes.

There has been little disturbance through the year due to changes of pastors. The Topeka and Knox charge, which for some years has really been continued against the wish of the people, was discontinued at the beginning of the year, the territory to which the Topeka church ministered having been almost completely colonized by German Lutherans. However, some needed improvements have been put upon the church building at Topeka, also at Knox. The people have been inspired to try again, and ask for a pastor for the ensuing Conference year, the money having been all pledged to carry forward the work.

About May 1st, the health of our Brother W. N. Tobie failed and he was compelled to seek a more congenial clime. W. D. Fairchild, of Clinton, was selected by Bishop McDowell to succeed Brother Tobie, as Superintendent of the Danville District. No successor was appointed to W. D. Fairchild at Clinton, but during the rest of the year the pulpit there has been supplied by special appointment, chiefly by former pastors.

Material Improvements.

The year has been noted for its material gains. Clinton has refrescoed its church and otherwise improved its church and parsonage property. Arrowsmith has made extensive improvements both on its church and parsonage property, at an expenditure of several hundred dollars. DeWitt has nearly completed the remodeling of its church, at no small outlay of toll and means, while Rucker Chapel, on the same charge, has been beautified and new pews have been installed. Havana has refrescoed its church and made other substantial improvements, involving a cost of about $1,800. Lincoln Circuit is considering plans, which have been submitted, for a new church at the Harmony appointment. These plans, if accepted, make ample provisions for every legitimate need of that advanced rural community. Abundant provisions have been made for the full liquidation of a long standing debt at Middletown, which amounted to $2,700. Those knowing the conditions involved will regard this as one of the notable achievements of the year. This will all be paid by January 1st. The people of San Jose have wisely selected and purchased a site for a new church building. With the new location and the erection of the new church, according to the plan contemplated, the social and spiritual needs of the community should be fully met. The subscription for the completion of the enterprise is well under way. Delavan has already accepted plans for a new church, which plans are lacking neither in beauty nor in convenience. The minimum cost is to be $25,000. Already subscriptions have been secured equal to the minimum cost. Early in the Conference year Weldon completed a commodious parsonage, which the pastor is now occupying. This was at a cost of about $3,000. For convenience and equipment it would do credit to a charge of much higher grade. The new church at Waynesville was dedicated on Sunday, August 27th. In architecture it is beautiful and in plan and equipment most convenient. It is so arranged as to minister to every side of the church and community life. Every appointment is thoroughly modern. The needs of every department of church work have been anticipated, and the need of no activity in the church life has been overlooked. Its beauty and convenience are seldom surpassed by any church of its class. What funds were needed, on the day of dedication, to complete the payment for the building were over-pledged, and all will be paid by January 1st, 1917, thus removing any barrier to the progress of the society, in other lines of endeavor, for years to come. Such a happy consummation of this enterprise speaks much for the sacrifice of the people, the inspiration and leadership of the pastor.

Evangelism.

The district threw itself heartily into the plan of evangelism, mapped out by the General Conference Commission, and thus the advantage and worth of the different methods of evangelism were fully tested, and truly we followed the Apostle Paul's principle, of becoming all things unto all men that by all means some might be saved. On Easter Sunday there was scarcely a charge that did not have a gracious ingathering of members. Though a couple of charges, through failure to keep their records of membership thoroughly revised annually, will report a decrease of about 100, the district will show a gratifying increase in membership, exceeding, I think, three hundred in number.

Benevolences.

Most of the pastors addressed themselves, in good season, to the task of enlightening our people concerning the duties, opportunities and needs of our Benevolent Boards. Where this was done our people responded worthily to the appeals of the pastors and encouraging offerings were received. In spite of the threatened shortage of crops on the district, due to the prevalent drought, we shall be able to report a gratifying increase in the benevolences. Had we all addressed ourselves earlier to the task, doubtless larger offerings might have been reported.

Women's Organizations.

Some of the Ladies' Aid Societies have made as many as one thousand calls upon the sick. Besides such labors they have spent thousands of dollars on material improvements and have strengthened every department of our church work. The church is greatly indebted to them.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society has been abundant in labors, gleaned here and there. The total fragments thus gathered will exceed that of last year by over three hundred dollars.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has enjoyed the very best year in its history. It has fully met its increased pledge, and will show a substantial gain along all lines. It has had a good advance in auxiliaries, in membership and in interest, as well as in its offerings.

Sunday Schools.

We have sought to stress the Sunday School work. The fruit of the united endeavor of the district is found in an increase in the total enrollment, in a better equipped teaching force, in better graded schools, in an enlarged church membership from the Sunday School, and, generally, in work of a much higher order.

Epworth League.

Aside from a few exceptional chapters, the Epworth League has not shared, as it ought, in the general advance of the district; its status being much as a year ago. It is possible the organized Sunday School class, and the teacher training classes, are including in their activities some of the duties formerly claiming the attention of the Epworth League. Be that as it may, there is no doubt that some of their functions overlap. In the latter part of June, however, a very inspiring convention was held at Clinton, which gave added emphasis to the work and furnished a new inspiration.

Finance.

An earnest endeavor was made to introduce the new financial plan in every charge. By Quarterly Conference action every charge adopted the plan, but it is not in operation in all the charges, and this is especially true of some of the rural charges; but where it is in operation it is producing most gratifying results. Others are planning to put it in operation during the new Conference year.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

This institution has enjoyed a year of marked success. There was an increase in enrollment in the literary department of over eight per cent. Following the splendid achievement of the previous year, mentioned in my last report, which was the successful conclusion of the great financial campaign which brought to the institution the sum of $611,800, there come other gifts, increasing further the financial strength of the university. One of these is the munificent gift of Mr. Hobart Williams, of Cheshire, Conn. Mr. Williams placed in trust a large portion of his fortune for the benefit of ten charitable and educational institutions in Illinois, naming the Illinois Wesleyan University, as one of the beneficiaries. The Wesleyan receives the net income from $211,500 of this trust fund to be used in helping worthy yet needy students in securing an education. This fund is given in honor of Eli B. Williams and Harriet B. Williams, parents of the donor.

Another gift is that of the late E. M. Kirkpatrick, of Parma, Idaho, an alumnus of the class of '93, and a loyal friend of the Wesleyan. He has left to the institution, by will, his estate, valued at about $50,000, subject to the widow's life estate.

New courses have been added in Mechanical Drawing and Descriptive Geometry, as well as the two first years of the Engineering Courses and the first two years in Agriculture and Medicine.

There have been additions also to the faculty.

Miss Florence B. Caton, of Foxboro, Mass., has been elected to the position of Assistant Professor of Domestic Art. She comes to the institution from the Kansas State College, Manhattan, Kansas, with thorough preparation and considerable experience.

Miss Francoise Laitmen, of Cleveland, Ohio, has been secured to fill the position of Instructor in French and Spanish. Her preparation was made in Cornell and Wisconsin Universities, and also in Paris, where she received her degree. She has taught successfully in Mt. Union College and DePauw University. The addition of Spanish to the course will be welcomed by many, because of the growing intercourse between this country and South America.

Professor Burton F. Tanner has been elected to the Chair of Rhetoric and Public Speaking, to succeed Professor Jesse Bogue, resigned. His thorough training and rich experience fully equips him for his new position. He has just closed a successful career of three years, as the head of the Public Speaking Department of the University of Oklahoma.

Several of the recitation rooms have been redecorated and other material improvements have been added, making more attractive and inviting the surroundings of the students.

The new year is full of promise for the institution, which was never better equipped to meet the needs of our young people than now.

I would that every man of the District could receive personal mention for his achievement, but the fields differ so much, the problems are so varied, and the tasks are so unequal, that, in some instances, those whose toil and devotion are the most marked in results will not, in the present survey, appear the most conspicuous. All have been faithful and I count myself happy to be associated with such a band of men, to share in some measure their toil, and rejoice with them in their victories.

THE CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT.

Joseph C. Nate, Superintendent.

The Plan of the Year.

The plan of the year has been that all our conventions, literature, and successive Quarterly Conferences should be systematically planned and related for the attainment of definite District goals. In the first round of Quarterly Conferences the Forward Movement for Evangelism was presented; in the second quarter, plans for the regular Benevolences; in the third, the Sunday School and Epworth League; and in the fourth the business affairs of the church. Liberal use has been made of the literature of our denominational Boards, of the Book Concern, and of the Commission on Finance. The great campaigns of church and Conference for our Conference schools, Conference Claimants, church literature, the central conventions, etc., have had our active co-operation. The response of pastors and people to the whole program has been for the most part both cordial and purposeful. For whatever results may be recorded, the credit is due quite entirely to the folks of the churches and the pastors who have led them as generals in charge upon the actual fields of battle.

We are a District of more than a half hundred preaching places, a pastoral leadership gifted, capable, and consecrated, a membership of 11,000 Methodist men, women and children. The purpose is that such an army as that shall save itself from a merely average sort of District and devotional life, and set about real achievements for the church and Kingdom. As a territory the District is unusually blessed in the fertility of its soil and the established character of its people. It accordingly follows that when the returns are all in, and results seemingly generous in aggregates, we none of us can feel that they are in any degree adequate to our actual resources for the Kingdom. We need increasingly larger programs and increasingly greater definite "drives" for their consummation. We may not attain them all, but we shall keep ourselves awake for God and the church and improve the average of results reported.

The Workers and the Work.

The appointments of last year assigned nineteen men to a first year in their respective charges, eight to the second year, one to the third, two to the fourth, one to a fifth, and Dr. J. C. Baker, with our Conference record in this relation, to his ninth year at Trinity church, Urbana. Brother R. S. Fairchild came to Rantoul by transfer from the Colorado Conference, and has had a successful year. For Rantoul Circuit, which was left to be supplied, we were enabled to secure the services of Brother John W. Starr, a student at Garrett Biblical Institute, and a member on trial of the Montana Conference. Brother Starr has had a good year among the people of this important Circuit. The other considerable change in pastoral relations among us was our loss of Dr. A. C. Piersel from his devoted leadership of our First church, Urbana, under his appointment by Bishop McDowell to the superintendency of the Springfield District. The same occasion brought to the pastorate at Urbana Dr. W. F. Pitner, from Grand Junction, Colorado. Dr. Pitner has entered upon the work among us with fine enthusiasm and success already marked. The work at Ogden following the death of Brother E. D. Wiley has been in the careful hands of Brother M. P. Wilkin, of our veteran forces at Urbana, assisted at Central, the rural work attached, by Brother W. A. Boyd, of Fithian.

I should be glad if conditions permitted some statement of the achievements of each pastor in his own field. There is not a charge in the District whose affairs do not deserve a paragraph of special report. There is not a pastor among us who has not skillfully worked out matters of general interest and importance, and scored interesting successes in one or more fields of the work, albeit there have been hoped-for features in which most of us have fallen far short of our ideals. Conditions permit reference only to some things which seem fairly to call for special mention.

Revivals, Membership, and Benevolences.

Revival campaigns of unusual scope and significant results in numbers, accessions, etc., occurred at Bellflower, DeLand, Fisher, Gibson City, Mansfield, Monticello, Paxton, Centerville, on the Scymour charge, Sidney, Tolono, Trinity church, Urbana, and Weedman. Special revival effort was made in practically all of the other charges, with helpful results. Reports to September 1 show that twenty-six charges have gained a net total, for all, of 641 members on the roll. Seven charges have lost the net total, for all, of ninety-five members. The District has accordingly made a gain, on the whole, of some 500 in membership. The Benevolence records of all charges are reckoned, and reported to Quarterly Conferences, on the percentage basis, of the amount contributed compared with the amount apportioned, rather than the less meaningful method of a total in dollars raised. On this basis the following seven charges report that the collections of the present year will reach or very closely approximate 100 per cent of the askings of the Commission on Finance for the regular causes: Bondville, Champaign, Fisher, Mansfield, Pesotum, Sadorus, and Trinity church, Urbana. The reports indicate a substantial advance upon the excellent benevolence totals of last year. There should be such under the prosperous conditions in the District, and if it shall appear that we have failed in any way or degree there is no very good excuse. The Atwood bequest, a $4,000 special gift for Foreign Missions, is reported through our church at Gibson City.

Property Interests.

The requirement by which the present report is limited for printing makes it possible only to list the important property improvements without due tribute to the skill and methods of the pastors concerned. Such improvements have been: The new church, $20,000, dedicated by Bishop McDowell at St. Joseph on March 26, Leo Howard, pastor; the largely improved church building at Weedman, $4,500, reopened on Easter Sunday, Verne P. Mitchell, pastor; the improved property at Penfield, $1,500, reopened on January 2, E. J. Williams, pastor; the new parsonage at Mahomet, $3,500, J. S. Smith, pastor, following the destruction of the former parsonage by fire on April 19; an excellent rural center church, $8,500, at Shiloh, on the Fisher charge, J. W. Dundas, pastor, now being planned to take the place of the former building destroyed by lightning and fire on July 19; $6,000 additional paid upon the beautiful new church structure at Gibson City, E. L. Fletcher, pastor, leaving less than $10,000 remaining unpaid, all fully subscribed; the remaining $2,000 of indebtedness on the new parsonage at Urbana now raised in full, Dr. W. F. Pitner, pastor; a splendid new church, $20,000, now under way at Eement, Wilbert Dowson, pastor; $1,000 subscriptions each recently raised for proposed improvements at Fithian, W. A. Boyd, pastor, and at Sidney, Alfred Wicks, pastor; and lesser improvements at most of the other points in the District.

The Wesley Foundation.

The limitations of printed space render it necessary to pass, without adequate mention, the great, and heretofore delayed, victory in the past year of the Wesley Foundation, Dr. J. C. Baker, Director. This was the subscription in full by the citizens of Urbana-Champaign of the $50,000 necessary to assure the most strategically located new site. There have been additional gifts of $10,000 in cash, and $5,000 on annuity. The educational report in these Minutes will contain further facts of interest in this connection. Similarly worthy of more extended mention, and of large commendation, is the developing work of the Cunningham Home and Orphanage under the direction of Rev. and Mrs. X. M. Fowler.

District Institute and District Reports.

Brief reference only is possible to a District Institute and Church Rally plan, held in co-operation with our Board of Sunday Schools and with the central office of the Epworth League. A successful central Institute, at Urbana, was followed by extension meetings in every charge. The latter had a total attendance reported of over 5,000, and the sales in the charges of more than 300 volumes on Sunday School work and methods. Careful reports, statistics, etc., have been gathered not only as to Sunday School work in the District, but for all other main directions of our affairs as pastors and churches. These records are of definite interest, and a complete printing of the same by charges is contemplated for distribution to the official members in the District.

In Parsonage Homes.

The District has shared in the burden of sorrow and heartache which has fallen upon us so largely this year as a Conference. To the homes of Brother and Sister R. S. Fairchild of Rantoul and of Brother and Sister H. F. Thrall of Sadorus came little ones who tarried but briefly and then passed on ever to behold the face of the Father who is in Heaven. From the parsonage of Brother and Sister J. C. Baker there went away on Sunday, April 2, little Elizebeth Benson Baker at the tender age of eight months. On Jan. 7, Mrs. L. F. Walden departed this life at her Urbana home, and a few weeks later, February 10, the daughter, Mrs. Alice Walden Borton, wife of Brother E. S. Borton, of our supernumerary forces, went to join the mother in Heaven. Our honored veteran, Rev. M. W. Everhart, D. D., departed this life at his Urbana home on June 16, 1916. Our one loss from the active ranks was that of Brother Benjamin Diamond Wiley, whose spirit went out from the parsonage at Ogden on Palm Sunday, April 16. In our memorial service, and in printed memoirs in these Minutes, more worthy tribute is permitted to these, our now glorified departed ones.

My concluding word is one of appreciation for helpful co-operation—to Bishops McDowell and Nicholson in their residential relation, to Bishop Wilson since his assignment to our Conference presidency, to Brother F. B. Madden, my predecessor, to Dr. C. B. Taylor, who cared for District interests during my absence in May at Saratoga Springs, to our many veteran retired ministers in the District, and to all our pastors for their kind co-operation in all the official requirements of the District work, and for the generous hospitality of their homes.

DANVILLE DISTRICT.

W. D. Fairchild, Superintendent.

Bishop Wilson and Brethren:

At the session of the Illinois Conference one year ago in this church the Rev. W. N. Tobie was appointed by Bishop McDowell to the superintendency of the Danville District. He entered at once on his work with his accustomed energy, laying plans and pushing his work vigorously. But on account of failing health he was compelled to give up his work in April and seek a more favorable climate.

My appointment by Bishop McDowell to the vacancy in the Superintendency of the Danville District became effective May 1, and soon after I entered upon my work.

The brief period of four months has not sufficed to gain an intimate acquaintance with the work of the District, and it is very probable that I may pass by some items that ought to have mention in this report.

Pastoral Changes.

On the adjournment of Conference the pastors went to the various charges to which they were assigned, except that Rev. A. L. T. Ewert appointed to Tuscola remained at Kimber church, Danville, and Rev. A. A. White appointed to Kimber church, Danville, remained at Tuscola. In May, Rev. Ewert effected an exchange with Rev. P. H. Chapple, of LaJunta, Colorado, the exchange becoming effective June 1. June 1, Rev. E. E. Turner, a supply serving the Tilton charge, gave up his work and Rev. T. F. Shouse, of Danville, was appointed to fill out the year. All other charges have been served continuously throughout the year by the pastors appointed at the last session of Conference.

Evangelism.

The pastors of the District have been keenly awake to the fact that Methodism stands for aggressive evangelism, and their special efforts have greatly strengthened the church. A special feature of the year was the Evangelistic Forward Movement, reaching a climax at Easter time, and resulting in a very satisfactory ingathering.

Almost all the charges have engaged in special evangelistic efforts of one type or another. Some pastors conducted their own services, others were assisted by neighboring pastors, while others had the services of organized evangelistic parties. Among churches employing evangelists may be mentioned Chrisman, Newman, Collison, Murdock, Kimber church, Danville, Georgetown, and Homer. These meetings are reported as being very successful. Many of the churches held special services under the direction of the pastors, yielding gratifying results, among which may be mentioned Danville First, Villa Grove, and Hoopeston. There are perhaps others of which I have no information. Almost all the charges report conversions through special meetings, and from advance reports made by the pastors the District will show a large increase in conversions and membership over last year.

Benevolences.

I came to the District at the time of year when pastors are accustomed to be closing up their subscriptions to the Benevolences. I made a survey of the Benevolence giving, and issued a letter setting forth the conditions, urging the pastors to exert every energy to bring the Benevolences up to a higher standard.

Two things seem to be responsible for the low standard of giving in the District: (1) A lack of information among the laity concerning the work of the Benevolence Boards, and (2) Our faulty methods of securing the offerings. In many charges a simultaneous canvass for both the current expenses and the Benevolences has resulted disastrously to the Benevolences. It would be vastly better if two canvasses were made and separated by a reasonable lapse of time. Where the whole matter of securing subscriptions to the benevolences has been left to the pastor the results have been very satisfactory in most instances. In a few cases the canvass was too long delayed and was embarrassed by other collections incident to the closing of the year.

But, notwithstanding some unfavorable conditions, the reports coming from pastors indicate that the District will advance substantially over last year. I am taking account here of the regular Benevolences, such as the pastor is considered responsible for gathering. There has been a large increase in special gifts this year due to the generosity of Dr. W. H. Webster's gift of $7,000 to the Foreign Missionary Society, and a gift of some $1,500 by Miss Emma Boyse, of Danville, to the W. F. M. Society.

Both the W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S. have enjoyed a prosperous year. The reports will show an increase over the reports of last year.

Ministerial Support.

Many of the churches of the District have been canvassing the matter of ministerial support and some have become convinced that the present support is inadequate. By Quarterly Conference action the following charges have increased the salaries for the coming year: Armstrong, $200; Danville First, $400; Danville, McKinley Memorial, $100; Edgar, $50; Rossville, $100; Villa Grove, $200.

Material Interests.

Many charges have been busy building, repairing, and paying debts.

At Camargo the new church which was begun late in the preceding year was completed early in the spring of this year. On April 30 Dr. W. J. Davidson preached the dedicatory sermon and the church was dedicated free from debt. This church is one of the most complete in the District, and cost $14,000. Much credit is due the pastor, Rev. Gye Park, for pushing this enterprise to completion.

At Georgetown a handsome brick veneer parsonage costing about $4,300 has been built. This much needed improvement was made possible by the gift of $2,000 by the Buchanan sisters, of Georgetown.

At Chrisman, where a new parsonage is very much needed, the church is planning to erect a modern home for the pastor costing about $5,000. A large part of the subscription has already been taken.

Danville First church has added improvements on church and parsonage costing about $1,800. Kimber church, Danville, has expended some $1,500 in re-decorating and otherwise improving the church building. Catlin has added some $500 in repairs to church property, East Lynn, $300, and Rossville, $600.

Grace church, Danville, was completely rebuilt during the year at a cost of about $5,500. The church is now new and modern and thoroughly equipped for work.

Besides the charges mentioned many others have expended smaller sums. The total amount reported by pastors for building improving church property is about $43,000.

A number of charges have taken care of part or all their indebtedness. Those assuming the larger amounts are Bismarck, $342; Kimber, $300; Lincoln, $240; Vermilion Heights, $161; East Lynn, $3,000; Georgetown, $555; Hume, $850; Indianola, $200; Potomac, $335. Total amount of indebtedness reported cancelled is about $6,500.

Deaths.

Three times this year has death entered the homes of brethren connected with the District. On the fourth of March, Grace Evangeline Patrick, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Patrick, of Joliet, fell asleep. Grace was a young girl of fourteen years, a member of our First church, Joliet, and was a sweet and devoted Christian girl.

On March 30 Mrs. O. B. Hess, wife of our pastor at Villa Grove, after a brief illness, passed into the Great Beyond. She was a cultured Christian woman, a noble companion, and a most efficient toiler in the Master's vineyard.

On May first Rev. Robert Stephens, whose name has become a household word in the Illinois Conference, answered to the final summons. For more than a year before his death he was so seriously afflicted that he was unable to perform his usual labors. Forty-three years ago he entered the Illinois Conference, and for forty-two consecutive sessions he answered to the roll-call. Through rain and sunshine, storm and calm, in season and out, he steadfastly pushed on in the Master's work. He was made of heroic stuff and few men have wrought more valiantly than he. No man was better known throughout the Illinois Conference, and few better known in Methodism.

Personal.

I have been among the brethren on the District but a short time, and have had but a limited opportunity to visit in the parsonages, but I have been deeply impressed by the expressions of good-will, and I desire to express my deep appreciation of the spirit of loyalty and co-operation so manifest among both the ministers and the laity.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

J. W. VanCleve, Superintendent.

Bishop Wilson and Brethren of the Conference:

In presenting this, my fifth annual report, I wish to render thanks to Almighty God for His constant care over the lives and health of the preachers of Decatur District and of their families. During the year the shadow of the death angel has darkened only one parsonage doorway, that of Brother R. A. Illk, at Elwin, and, when the shadow passed, there went with it the bright form of the baby of the household, John Rupert Illk, who for five short months had gladdened the parsonage with his presence. On June fifteenth that exact lady, Martha A. Buck, the widow of Dr. Hiram Buck, the munificent patroness of Illinois Wesleyan, died full of years, with mental faculties unimpaired, with ambition for achievement unchilled, and regretting to depart, only because there was yet much she desired to do.

At the beginning of the year three charges, Butler, Mt. Zion, and Witt, were left to be supplied. By arrangement with the District Superintendent and with Bishop Thirkield, Paul Shields was transferred from the Southern Illinois Conference and stationed at Butler; J. C. Coleman, who was not able to be present at the session of our Conference last year, having been duly recommended by his Quarterly Conference, was first received on trial in the Rock River Conference and then was immediately transferred by Bishop McDowell to our Conference and stationed at Mt. Zion; after some delay Witt was supplied by C. A. Sullivan, who was transferred from the Kansas Conference. Some changes occurred after the Conference session. The wife of Brother Flagge, who had been appointed to Sullivan, was so ill at the close of Conference that it seemed impossible for her to be moved, except at the peril of her life. Arrangements were quickly made, with the consent of Brother Buker and Bishop McDowell, for Brother Flagge to remain at Assumption. Brother Tharp, who had been appointed to Warrensburg, was placed at Sullivan and Brother Johnson, who had been appointed to Assumption, was sent to Warrensburg. E. L. Darley, who had been appointed to Oconee, did not report for duty and, on inquiry as to whether he was going to his appointment, said very positively he was not. The vacancy was filled by the appointment of Estil Franklin, who has done an excellent year's work. The case of E. L. Darley was presented to a committee, in accordance with the discipline, and the finding of the committee will be submitted at the proper time. In the middle of the year C. J. Williams, pastor at Millersville, was offered an appointment which would afford him the opportunity of attending Garrett Biblical Institute. In order to secure the appointment he must take charge at once and, not having been left without an appointment to attend school, it was necessary for him to be transferred to the Rock River Conference, which was done. T. B. Lugg, a student at Garrett, having finished his year's work, was secured to fill the charge until Conference.

The record of the year has been adorned with great meetings of more than ordinary significance. The meeting of the District Stewards was made the occasion for the largest gathering of pastors and laymen that had ever been convened at any District meeting during my term on the District. Early in January Bishop Henderson conducted in Decatur one of the great meetings of his Forward Movement, presenting a program of unusual strength. In spite of the fact that the attention was divided by a similar meeting in connection with the great Chapman Revival in Springfield, a most excellent attendance was secured, and the whole District greatly benefited. In April the Laymen's Missionary Movement came to the city of Decatur with an array of talent that is not often brought together. The immediate effect upon the community was intense and awakening, but the widespread and lasting result that the meeting was intended to produce did not materialize to any appreciable extent. Our District Epworth League Convention, which was held in Grace church, Decatur, was possibly the most effective meeting of the year. A general revival in league work has followed, and the leagues of the District have undertaken to raise two hundred and fifty dollars a year for the erection of a memorial church or parsonage to be built, if possible, within the Great Falls District in the North Montana Conference.

The work of the year has not been without embarrassments beyond those which usually attend the labors of a District Superintendent. The District Superintendent was absent at General Conference during the entire month of May. In the latter part of June, without any warning or expectation, he was elected General Secretary of the Commission on Finance. His desire to be immediately relieved from the responsibility of the District was overruled by the resident Bishop and the District Superintendents, and the result has been two positions very indifferently filled and one man decidedly overworked. This deficiency in the supervision of the District in the culminating portion of the year can not fail to show itself in results more or less diminished.

The first undertaking to be stressed, and which has been continuously stressed, was the matter of evangelism. Every phase of it has been insisted upon, and the results have shown in the work of the year. Revivals have been specially successful at Cowden, in Decatur at Sargents and Sharon and First church, at Asbury on the Linter circuit, at Macon, Nokomis, Tower Hill, Witt, and Garrett. The method of continuous evangelism has had special success at both First and Grace churches in Decatur, at Cerro Gordo, Illiopolis, and Owaneco. Most of the charges in the District have participated in a greater or less degree in both forms of evangelistic effort. The Sunday School has shown itself an especially valuable field for personal evangelism wherever proper attention has been given it. The reports received from the pastors indicate a very successful year.

A fairly good record has been made in building and improving. The new church at Arthur was completed and on the second of April was dedicated by Dr. W. J. Davidson. In January our church at Argenta was burned and was practically a total loss, nothing being saved but the piano and the basement. With rare courage and sacrifice the little congregation undertook the task of rebuilding and a beautiful little modern church was dedicated on August sixth by Rev. W. D. Parr, of Kokomo, Indiana. As a result Methodism in Argenta occupies a stronger position than ever before. This church will apply to the Board of Church Extension for a donation of five hundred dollars. At Witt, where the Ladies' Aid Society had purchased lots for a new church two or three years ago, with very small prospect of ever using them, a very successful revival stimulated the people to undertake the task of building. Eight thousand dollars have been subscribed, the contract has been let, and the work is in progress. The Quarterly Conference at Owaneco voted to build a new church long needed, and ten thousand dollars of the necessary money has been subscribed. During the year Millersville charge has undertaken the building of a new parsonage. The church at Owaneco paid Millersville six hundred dollars for its share in the parsonage at that place; the congregation at Buckeye received a like amount for its interest in the parsonage at Rosemond; to this the two churches have added a like amount given by themselves and are building a very attractive parsonage. Extensive improvements have been made on the churches at Sharon, Nokomis, Pana, and Stonington, and upon the parsonages at Assumption and Moweauqua. We notice a very praiseworthy tendency toward the modernizing of parsonages. Especially should every parsonage be supplied with a furnace or with stoves. Many of our preachers are required at one place to buy stoves, at their next move they must either sell the stoves at a great sacrifice or set them away to rust because they come to a parsonage supplied with its own heating apparatus, and this process, repeated in endless round, especially on the small charges, uses up in a wasteful way the already too small salary of the preachers and, at the same time, swells the bill for moving expenses. It would be to the advantage of both preachers and people if every parsonage were furnished with stoves. At the same time something should be done toward reducing the indebtedness on church property. First church has wiped out the last dollar of its debt of three thousand dollars, an inheritance from the past.

The work of gathering the Benevolences this year has encountered some of the difficulties that beset our whole benevolent program. Lapping over from last year to this was a special call for relief in China. The very time chosen by many of our churches for their supreme effort in behalf of the Benevolences was more or less embarrassed by a special call for a Self-Denial Week in behalf of Missions. I am glad to say that this Self-Denial Week was very generally observed and, I think, with good results. There is an increase in the number of charges using the Every Member Canvass in full, and handling faithfully their funds. There is an increase in the number of those which include the Conference Claimants and the Episcopal Fund in the regular budget for ministerial support. I think that all the Benevolences will show some gain.

A few things I would like to say in closing this, my last report as District Superintendent of the Decatur District. I have spent upon this District five most interesting years. In this period I have been associated with fifteen District Superintendents. I have had under my care for a greater or less time just one hundred different pastors and I have had the privilege of introducing into the Conference by transfer and otherwise fifteen men who promise to be permanent additions to its forces. It is a pleasure to record that there has been a steady growth in every vital factor of the church life. Throughout the five years, the salaries of the pastors have increased from $38,751 to $43,436, eight new churches and seven new parsonages have been added to the property holdings of the District, and the increase in church property has been more than $100,000. Every year since my first report as Superintendent of this District there has been an increase both in the gross amount of the apportioned Benevolences and in the per capita giving of the District. My relations with all the one hundred and fifteen men who worked with me and under me have been, so far as I am concerned, most pleasant. With scarcely an exception I have found every District Superintendent working with all his energy all the time for the promotion of the interest of the Kingdom of God and of the men under his charge. Our glorious translated brother, Preston Wood, gave as his estimate of the work of the Cabinet that, to him, the most surprising thing was the careful and particular attention given to the humblest man and the weakest charge. For myself I may say truly that I have done for every man the very best that could have been done in justice to the Kingdom of God. That I have not been able to accomplish nearly all that I have desired is the most certain fact of my service and my only regret. I shall lay down the office most willingly. It is just such a combination of great services and small vexations as would make any man glad to be out of it, for the relief from its petty annoyances, and still glad to be in it, for the sake of the Kingdom and for his own joy in serving.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

F. A. McCarty, Superintendent.

Bishop Wilson and Members of the Illinois Conference:

The thirty-seven pastors appointed a year ago went bravely to their work, and for the most part have wrought faithfully. In March, Brother Milton O. Beebe, pastor at Roodhouse, received from the United States Government the appointment as Chaplain of the Twelfth Cavalry, U. S. A., and in April was released from his charge by Bishop McDowell and took up his new work. Roodhouse has been efficiently supplied by Dr. F. M. Rule, of the Minnesota Conference, whom we are delighted to have live within our borders.

While the Superintendent was attending the General Conference, there came another break in our ranks. Brother R. C. Meyers, pastor at Bluffs, received a cordial invitation to the Northwest Kansas Conference, and accepted with equal alacrity. In the meantime, Bluffs, upon their request, has been without a pastor. Otherwise the men have stuck to their jobs.

The Pastors and Laymen's Meeting at Virginia for two days in October was a great inspiration to the opening of the year's work. Plans and methods were presented and discussed. Here the Conference Movement to finance the Commission on Conference Claimants was successfully launched.

Evangelism.

The prime work of soul-winning has been kept to the front. The revivals were begun early, and there were times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. The outstanding revival of the year was the meeting at Beardstown during the month of May. Evangelist Hugh Smith assisted the pastor, A. K. Byrns, and one hundred eighty were converted, and the church was greatly blessed. Evangelist Towle did us good work at Carrollton, Palmyra, and Grace church, Jacksonville. Brother Towle has just finished a great meeting at Macon with sixty conversions, and as many reclamations, and the spiritual atmosphere of the church renewed. Brother Towle does deep, thorough work, and we bid him Godspeed in winning men to Christ. The revival at Waverly was held in a tent during the hottest part of July. Pastor Smith was assisted by Brother Stewart, of Iowa, a pastor. The meeting lasted but two weeks, and had to close just as it was getting under way. There were a number of conversions and a season of blessing. I am convinced that one weakness of our revival work is a temptation to put too little time and intensity into them. There are so many to hold on the circuits, and so much to be done in all the charges, that the revival does not have the chance it formerly did.

Buildings.

The new church at Concord was completed during the year, and dedicated January 23 by Bishop Quayle. It is a beautiful brick structure costing about $13,000. There is probably not a better planned church of this size in the Conference. The pastor, W. P. Bowman, did a masterly piece of work. Grigg Chapel, on the Bluff Springs charge, was entirely remodeled on the inside. The reopening was July 16. Pastor Symond and his people are happy. Hebron church on the Jacksonville Circuit is building a beautiful new church, to cost about $8,000. The cornerstone was laid August 30. Dr. Harker assisted pastor Davis and the Superintendent. Other churches which have made improvements are: Manchester, Hettick, Lynnvile, and Wesley Chapel on W. Jacksonville Circuit. The parsonages are also receiving attention. Carrollton is erecting a beautiful new $4,000 house, modern throughout. Brother Boyd expects to move in before winter. Astoria Circuit remodeled their parsonage. Other parsonages improved are: Ashland, Bath, Chesterfield, and Oakford. Franklin Circuit paid off the debt on theirs. The parsonage at Beardstown was accidentally flooded by someone leaving the faucets open all day while the family were away. This, of course, means redecorating, and new floors.

Woman's College.

The Woman's College has had a remarkable year, as it always does. The great triumph of this year has been the completion of the campaign for $280,000 for buildings and endowment. Of this entire amount less than $45,000 yet remains unpaid. The last Commencement marked the seventieth anniversary of the College, and alumnae and old students were present in large numbers to swell the rejoicing. A very gratifying feature of the College situation is the increasing interest taken by the alumnae. Less than seven years ago a movement was inaugurated to secure a Scholarship fund of $5,000 for each of the seven Presidents. Already $25,000 has been paid in, and the funds for Drs. Short and Harker are completed. Now another enterprise is on foot to endow a chair each for Dr. Short and Dr. Harker; and already several thousand dollars have been subscribed. A new wing to the main building, being an addition to the library, is almost completed; and a new $40,000 gymnasium is under construction. The attendance has remained stationary for the past two or three years, on account of crowded conditions. If any friend of the College wishes the steady increase in attendance, which was reported for twenty years, to continue, all he needs to do is to provide more buildings, that new students may be accommodated.

Benevolences.

Our District will report an increase in Benevolences and membership, but the Pre-Conference reports are too meager to tell just how much.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is a small but heroic band of women. Although their entire membership in Jacksonville District is smaller than the membership of some of our churches, yet these consecrated women give to Foreign Missions more than all the churches and Sunday Schools together.

The Reaper.

Again our parsonages have been called upon to give up their treasures. On November 28, little Martha Eleanor, the five year old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Artz, slipped away to be with God. It came as a sudden and crushing blow. Through it all Brother and Sister Artz had the most loyal sympathy of their people, and above all they found His grace sufficient. On March 30, we laid to rest Mrs. Martha Dimmitt, the widow of Rev. J. H. Dimmitt, formerly of this Conference. She was the mother of Mrs. W. P. Bowman, in whose home she spent her last years, receiving every care and attention that love and devotion could bestow. She was the mother of three Methodist preachers, one of whom is the Rev. F. L. Dimmitt, of our sister Conference, the Central Illinois. She looked forward with longing to her translation, and died triumphantly. In less than two weeks we were again called upon to mourn the death of Mrs. Sarah Dimmitt, of Jacksonville, widow of Rev. J. P. Dimmitt, of our Conference, and sister-in-law to the aforementioned Mrs. Dimmitt. She was a woman of remarkable sweetness and strength of character. Few pastors have had more loyal or more sympathetic members than she was. It was a unique experience, the Superintendent was permitted to enjoy visiting these aged saints regularly during their last illness, and carrying their messages to each other, both fully realizing and rejoicing in God that "My latest sun is sinking fast,

My race is nearly run,
My strongest trials now are past,
My triumph is begun."

Still another bereavement was left to us. On April 24, Mrs. E. S. Vorbeck, wife of our pastor at Franklin, was called home after an illness of just one year to the day. Sister Vorbeck was a woman of fine Christian experience and Christian character. She professed and lived the doctrine of holiness. She was a great inspiration to Brother Vorbeck in his work, and was greatly beloved by the people in every charge where they have served. She leaves two bright boys, aged seven and four. During the year's illness, Brother Vorbeck did double work. He took the burden of loving ministry to his sick wife, during the night, and also did faithful work on his charge.

There will, of course, be some changes in the District for the coming year. To those who are looking for soft snaps, I want to say, There are none in this District; so don't come this way. But men who have not lost the glow of their high ideals, who feel profoundly the "Woe is me if I preach not the Gospel," who are fitted to the task, and eager to do a full man's work, these will find a most hearty welcome in any of our charges.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

C. F. Buker, Superintendent.

Bishop and Brethren of the Conference:

I am pleased to report that every man appointed to a charge in the Mattoon District last fall has remained at his post during the year and has done faithful work. I am also happy to report that death has not entered a single parsonage home during the year.

The following brethren in the retired relation remain with us: Joseph Coombe, Elijah Gallagher, J. L. B. Ellis, D. D. Kensil, W. E. Means, Jasper Miller, J. A. Stout, E. S. Wamsley.

Decrease in Membership Last Year.

At the session of our Conference a year ago it was discovered that the Mattoon District with other Districts in the Conference reported a decrease in membership. I have endeavored through the year to discover the cause of that decrease.

I find in one or two instances brethren made mistakes in reporting. About two hundred persons can be accounted for this way. Another contributing cause is the desire of some officials to unduly prune the membership roll in order that the apportionments may be kept down. Another cause was a misunderstanding as to the meaning of non-resident membership.

The question has repeatedly been raised in Quarterly Conferences as to what to do with members who utterly ignore their obligations to the church. My advice has always been that we must keep within the law of the church on this matter; that we must not keep names on the roll of active membership who have no right to be there, even for the sake of keeping up a good showing; that we must not illegally drop names even though the parties may not be living right.

When every possible explanation has been offered we must acknowledge that with the whole church we failed to bring people to the Lord in sufficient numbers to offset the loss through deaths and renewals.

Special Gatherings.

At the beginning of the Conference year there was held a successful District Meeting in our church at Kansas. The attendance at this meeting included the constituency of the District Conference. Four phases of church work were emphasized: the Sunday School, better financial methods, the rural church and evangelism. Dr. Hartman, of the Board of Sunday Schools, rendered good service; Rev. C. M. McConnell brought a helpful message on The Rural Church.

In March a very successful Sunday School Institute was held in our church at Charleston under the auspices of the Board of Sunday Schools. The Institute faculty consisted of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Bovard, and Miss Patten. Their work was of a high order and has meant much to the Sunday Schools of the District. Following the central meeting the message of the Institute was carried by the pastors to every church in the District.

The Epworth League Convention at Casey in June was not so well attended as some former conventions, owing to the condition of the roads, making it impossible for the people to use their autos; but the program was good and the young people took advanced ground in the program outlined for the ensuing year.

Doings in the Churches.

If it were not for taking too much of your time and too much space in the Conference Minutes, I would be pleased to mention the name of every pastor and church in this report. Every man is deserving of special mention. Because every charge is not mentioned in this report it is not to be implied that faithful and successful work has not been done.

I want to repeat what I said last year, that in my judgment there is a danger of over-magnifying the things that are reportable, and of turning the energies too largely toward work that can be tabulated. The men who maintain a high grade service of worship, who are faithful shepherds of the flock, who keep up a still hunt for souls, who carefully look after all the interests of the Kingdom, are doing the extraordinary things; although the full results of their work may not be tabulated in Conference Minutes or reported by the District Superintendent.

I am pleased to note that an increasing number of pastors are giving attention to teaching as well as preaching. They are undertaking to have their people study to show themselves approved unto God, thoroughly furnished unto every good work. More than one pastor is planning, during at least one month in the year, to have every member of the church in some kind of a study class.

The remodeled church at Casey was dedicated December 26th. In addition to the remodeled church, a new parsonage was also built, making a total outlay on property of $18,000 in the past two years. Pastor McPherson reports a net gain in membership of fifty-three for the year. In point of membership, buildings and willingness to work, this is one of the most desirable charges in the District.

The church at Kansas has been redecorated and other improvements have been made amounting to more than five hundred dollars.

The Grandview church showed its appreciation of the untiring labors of pastor A. G. Carnine by advancing the salary $100.

An evangelistic campaign was conducted at First church, Paris, under the leadership of Evangelist Oborn, resulting in a net gain in members of 54. The pastor, Chris. Galeener, has proven himself a faithful New Testament minister in every respect.

First church, Shelbyville, reports a net gain in membership of 35. Pastor C. M. Duncan is planning next year to have a period of one or two months when every member of the church will be in some kind of a study class. The people say he must return.

At Mattoon, First church, material improvement amounting to $1,300 was made on the church building. Dr. Oliver reports a good meeting under the leadership of Evangelist Kendall. More than one hundred persons were received into the church during the year but owing to heavy losses by death and removals the net gain in membership will not be large. In point of membership and opportunity this is one of the great churches of Methodism.

The Charleston church has had a prosperous year under the pastorate of A. L. Caseley. The Sunday School is being organized on modern lines that it may serve its purpose in the religious instruction of the people. I am pleased to report that the subscriptions covering the new church building are being rapidly paid and there will be little if any shrinkage.

Rev. J. S. Grahl, who came to us from Florida, has had a good year at Neoga, and is asked to return.

Rev. L. G. Adams has had a pleasant and prosperous year at Arcola. His work has been somewhat hindered, however, by his own sickness. Brother Adams asks for a supernumerary relation this year.

It is scarcely necessary to say that Rev. E. G. Sandmeyer has had a good year at Marshall. Sandmeyer does only high grade work. The same may be said of Thrall, of Westfield; of Ross, of Martinsville; of Morrison, of Oakland; of Jackson, of Windsor; of Tharp, of Sullivan. W. A. Schell and the good people of Stewardson are happy over the success of the year. Stewardson becomes a station and will pay almost as much salary as the three churches formerly composing the charge.

Rev. I. S. Haverfield conducted a very successful revival in the Tabernacle church, Paris. All departments of the church show a marked development.

Rev. D. T. Black, pastor at Humboldt, retires from the active work on account of ill health. Brother Black reports that, through his ministry as pastor and evangelist, more than 11,000 people have been won to Christ.

The Rural Church.

And I am pleased to note that most of the men who are dealing with the rural church are giving serious study to the question. Two of the men serving rural charges in the District, are deserving of special mention. They are: Abner Clark and Samuel Balch.

A few of the churches that are seriously working at the problem in their communities are Harmony church on the Kansas Circuit, one of the outstanding country churches of the Conference; Greenwood church on the Brocton charge, Cottonwood church on the Toledo charge, St. Mary's church on the Findlay charge, Wesley church on the Martinsville Circuit, Gaskell church on the Gays Circuit, and the Grandview church. I mention these churches either because they are working at the problem in a serious way or because of their opportunity. It is my purpose next year to give more serious attention to this most interesting part of our task.

The Benevolences.

I cannot give a complete report of the giving of the churches to the Benevolent causes. Many of the pastors reported in the Quarterly Conference considerable advance over last year.

A comparison of the giving of the charges to Benevolences in the years 1914 and 1915 shows that twenty-six of the charges increased their per capita giving to Benevolences in 1915 over 1914. The per capita giving in 1915 ranged from $4.70 to 2 cents. The per capita giving to ministerial support and Benevolences combined ranged from $9.68 to $1.95.

Memorial Hospital.

The year just closed has been the most successful in the history of the institution. Nearly four hundred patients were admitted; and almost one thousand dollars of free work was done. The institution has paid its way with a small balance in the treasury.

It is with pleasure that I report the new building well under way. This will be one of the most up-to-date and thoroughly furnished hospital buildings in the country. The cost will be above sixty thousand dollars.

Some Observations.

The necessity for a more united appeal for our Benevolent causes.

I am convinced that our appeal would be more effective if it were more united. There is need that the various agencies of the church be brought into a more harmonious and effective co-operation.

The necessity for greater emphasis being placed upon lay activity.

In the early history of our church lay preaching and lay leadership counted for much. Mr. N. K. Rowell said, at the Washington Laymen's convention, "The power and influence of the church today is not measured by the number of her members, but by the percentage of her members who definitely enlist their lives for service in the cause of the church."

I have observed also the necessity for a deeper love for the church. Bishop Quayle has said "Nobody can valiantly develop the church if he does not valiantly believe in the church. It is either divine in origin and history or it is not. If it is not then we may cast it away like a yesterday's newspaper. But, if it is, then we had best study to promote it, strengthen it, build up its towers nearer the skies."

I have observed the necessity for a fuller dependence on our spiritual resources. Robert E. Speer recently said "There is a strong temptation to think of our resources on a humanized basis, to leave as much of the supernatural out as we can, to make business and the psychology of business promotion our guiding principles. We must more and more learn that our sufficiency is of God. Our great need is a robuster trust, and faith in a living God."

QUINCY DISTRICT.

A. S. Flanigan, Superintendent.

Things Ministerial.

Bishop Wilson and Brothers:

We began the year with but one place to supply, New Canton. J. M. Harrell, formerly Presbyterian, but having, like St. Paul, learned a more excellent way, was appointed pastor at New Canton and served the charge in a very acceptable manner.

H. W. Olinger, who was appointed by Bishop McDowell to Columbus a year ago, left his appointment the seventh day of February. A. M. Ewert, who was reappointed to Griggsville last year, withdrew from our ministry and church the first of February. We had no trouble in getting good men for these places thus made vacant. Fully forty ministers from every part of the United States and Canada were eager to get into the Quincy District, and, through the deep interest of Dr. W. J. Davidson, C. E. Pettit was appointed to Griggsville and H. H. Waltmire to Columbus. These Brothers each have won a right to a high place among us by the quality and the abundance of their labors. Their respective Quarterly Conferences have unanimously requested Bishop Wilson to return them for another year.

Material Advancement.

Littleton will soon have completed a fine, eight-room parsonage, modern in every respect. The pastor, H. R. Kasiske, will move into it soon, if Bishop Wilson wills it so. A magnificent elm will shadow it, but no debt.

Detroit has the money raised and plans made for the remodeling of their church. The Rev. G. L. Losh has been the one to give this fine work its impulse.

The heavy debt on the church at Huntsville, which, like all debts, grows day and night, had, under the sleepless persistence and diplomacy of C. R. Underwood, become a thing of naught.

Our church at Lima, through the efforts of Pastor G. G. Maple, has been made like the King's daughter, "all glorious within."

Plainville has greatly improved their church by putting in a fine basement. G. F. McCumber is pastor.

Several hundreds of dollars have been spent in improvements on the parsonage at Mt. Sterling. The need of a new church had long been recognized at Mt. Sterling; and the pastor, Rev. P. R. Powers, was not well settled before the old church had vanished and the foundation for a new church had been laid. And now on the site of the old church stands a magnificent new one nearly completed at a cost of $25,000. Bishop Quayle will dedicate this church soon after Conference.

Salaries.

The money support of our preachers has advanced this year over $1,200.

It is pleasing to know that our advance has come because laymen have said "Our preacher is worth all we pay him and more." And, in many cases where no advance was made, they have said "We deeply regret that we are not able to do better as our preachers is deserving of much more." Some of these are proving their sincerity by pledging an advance for the coming year.

Benevolences.

We gladly report, though the wheat crop was nearly a failure in the bounds of our District, and the oats and corn are estimated at not more than a half crop, the Disciplinary Benevolences will exceed those of any other year of the past three; and, including two bequests for the Foreign Missionary Society and one for the Home Missionary Society, it will exceed all previous records of the District.

The Passion Week Self-Denial Offering was taken in nearly all of our churches and several hundred dollars were sent to the Missionary Treasurer. The Woman's Home Missionary Society reports a very large increase, both in the number of new auxiliaries organized and in their offerings.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will not depart from their well-established habit of doing better each year than ever before.

Chaddock Boys' School.

Much has been done by the school and for the school that merits special mention.

One cottage has been completed, which will accommodate twenty-four boys, besides those in charge of the building. The building is of the most approved pattern for the purpose. Other buildings of like nature are provided for, and will soon adorn the grounds.

The course of study has been extended to a four-year high school course.

A campaign for $20,000 was successfully undertaken by forty men of Quincy. The management regards this campaign as exceedingly valuable, not only for the money pledged, but for the wide interest it produced in the school. The school will go right on in its campaign for buildings and endowment till the goal is attained. It would be difficult for Christian men of means to find a place where the investment of their money will yield so large returns in good achieved.

Revivals.

More unfavorable conditions for revival services during the time we usually hold them, I have never known. We were greatly distressed as faithful preachers, one after the other, wrote us, "Had to close our meeting on account of weather or sickness. Will try again;" and many did try again, and were not confounded. Nearly all of the charges held evangelistic meetings during Passion Week.

We also held four Gospel Tent Campaigns this year. These have grown in favor, as a practical school of evangelism, as an inspiration to preachers and people for greater devotion to this high work, and as a means of leading many to the Lamb of God.

The following facts are interesting in connection with these campaigns. Golden will report a gain in membership this year of 39 per cent, Plymouth 32 per cent, Versailles 27 per cent, and Pleasant Hill 34 per cent. We do not credit these gains to the campaigns alone, for in a large degree the pastors of these charges are to have the credit. But equal gains were not made at any other places in the District.

By all the means used for the saving of the people, twenty-nine charges report over 800 conversions; and the district has made a net gain of 489 members.

Epworth Leagues.

The day of the spectacular in the Epworth League seems to have largely passed away, yet this organization has had an exceptionally fine year, under the presidency of C. E. Taylor. We have proven that all departments are workable by working them.

Two Observations.

I have observed two things with reference to our ministry: First, that, while there is a double standard of chastity among men and women of the laity—for it is too true that many a man with all his swinishness passes unchallenged in society—for the minister of the Gospel, I am glad to note, there is no double standard, but he is as easily dethroned from the high esteem of a community as are our sisters, wives or mothers; and I have observed that, though it is true that "earth's crammed with heaven and every common bush afire with God," yet, to the people in the ordinary pursuits of life, God is only a name, as the name of a stranger, and they rarely see God, or feel God, except through a man trained, consecrated, full of faith and of the Holy Ghost. This kind of thing we have witnessed: The officials have wanted to close the church doors. They have said, "Nobody comes, nobody will pay, and nobody cares. What is the use?" When I have been able to answer their statements by such a man as I have indicated above, the time is short till the church is filled, money comes in freely for all needs, and everybody cares.

I am sure, though the church is looking for better methods, and this is well, that God is looking and calling for better men. Men are God's methods. The Holy Ghost does not flow through methods, but through men. The prayer, therefore, that arises out of the depth of my being for myself and my Brothers is that we may have the clear consciousness that we are His only; and that He will do for us all that the Triune God can do for a poor human soul, called to this mighty task.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

A. C. Piersel, Superintendent.

The death of Preston Wood, late Superintendent of the Springfield District, was, humanly speaking, an irreparable loss to the Springfield District, to the Illinois Conference, and to Methodism. He was a brother indeed, universally beloved of the brethren. He was doing and planning to do things worth while on and for the District. Whoever follows the track of his trail will be about the Father's business, going about doing good, and will find this trail leading into "The City that lieth four-square." Preston Wood's translation took place March 18th. As his successor I was appointed in April, and though getting in touch with the work shortly thereafter, owing to the fact that my successor at First church, Urbana, was not to be on hand till June 1st, I did not enter actively upon the duties of the District till that date.

Because of my short acquaintance with the work and the workers of the District, I am sure that my report will show some omissions that ought not to occur. In matters material I note the following: The outstanding enterprise of the year culminated in the dedication of the $8,000 brick church at Kincaid on July 2d, Bishop Nicholson giving the strength of his presence. This is the only Protestant church of this growing community. The Ladies' Aid Society was the first woman's organization of the town. The consummation of this undertaking is largely due to the leading of our pastor at Taylorville, who has acted as pastor at Kincaid as well.

Auburn and Buffalo now rejoice in up-to-date parsonages. On the Curran charge at Wesley Chapel they renovated and reopened at a cost of several hundred dollars and much devotion. The work at Farmersville was deepened by the placing of a basement under the church. Petersburg has modernized its parsonage. Bethel, on the Pleasant Plains charge, has renovated. Sharpsburg church has basemented itself and otherwise improved. We had a fire in our church at Morrisville on the evening of August 30th—$2,700 in canceled notes were burned. There have been other fires of a different nature over the District—revival fires, the largest of which was here in Springfield in all our churches in connection with the Chapman-Alexander meetings of last winter. There have been other revival fires in proportion out over the District. Matters in general on the District are in good shape, due to the program and the push of my predecessor, and of the pastors of the District. We hope that the District will show an advance in Benevolences, the time for the pushing of the same being at the first of the year, and not in the closing. In not more than two charges did we find the laymen rather uninterested in the real work of the church and of the Kingdom. There is not a pastor of the District who is not honestly in earnest about the Father's business. Some of us ministers, to be sure, need a readjustment of our mental and spiritual carburetors, need to learn that the New Birth should be allowed to make over one's nature, so that one may be all things to all men in the way of adaptation for the sake of the Kingdom. Some of the District's laymen need to learn that God has but one standard for lay officials, set as it was by Him in the infancy of the church, they are to be men, and now women, too, "Of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom." From God's point of view no other standard is admissible.

Though happy to leave the District work at any time, should I be continued I report the following as some of the facts and features that would face me. The District is the working unit of Methodism, and should be unified for the sake of the Kingdom. To this end we would hold a Sunday School Institute in early November, the two days Central Institute to be under the direction of leaders from our Board of Sunday Schools, to be followed by a one day's institute in every charge in the District. The inspiration for this plan comes from the Champaign District, where I was a former pastor.

Some pastors are prone to tamper with their consciences when they report on their made-up visiting list at the fourth Quarterly Conference. This needs to be checked up and changed, so that there will be an actual plan on paper for the membership, for the constituency, giving the streets and numbers where given, and otherwise showing the roads and the residences. The pastor ought to be assisted in this by a company of men and women, an adaptation of the class leaders of former days, perchance, who will be in vital connection with some certain group.

The ministers of the District, and the laymen, too, need for the summer a central camping-place for recreation and inspiration. Maybe it is now time for the re-birth of the camp meeting of other days.

Religion in the homes of our people is our greatest need. The church was established in order to re-establish religion in the home and in the hearts of men. Religion, "An ever-increasing and a never-ending fellowship with God," must be regnant first and foremost in the hearts and homes of us ministers.

As ministers we can speak with authority, as did Jesus, when we dare to devotedly live, as did He, the Gospel that we preach.

With the growing certainty that at no distant day the pastor may look forward with no misgivings as to the care of the church for him financially following his retirement, we must the more swing away from rating and ranking pastors primarily on the basis of salary. No prejudice should be held against a pastor who is put into a place of lower salary in order to work out a particular problem for which his type is required.

As I have traveled the District this summer I have seen a face that would be a benediction to any District—the face of Preston Wood. I have heard a voice—"I left my task unfinished—do your best for His dear sake." I now pray as never before, whatever and wherever it may be, "O, God, give me the burning heart for the unfinished task."

(B) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS.

BENEVOLENCES.

Unprecedented world conditions make the claims of the Board of Foreign Missions more urgent than ever before, while the opportunities of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension are constantly increasing. We urge our people to stand by the Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals until our land is free from the curse of strong drink. The Board of Sunday Schools commends itself to the judgment of the entire church. The work of the Freedman's Aid Society is such that every patriot should heartily support it. We commend the American Bible Society to the confidence of our people. The apportionment for the Domestic Missionary Society should be fully met, as this is an arm of aid to the weaker charges. We recommend that the distribution of these funds be made with great wisdom and care. The newly constituted Deaconess Board is worthy of the nurture and care of the Church.

We urge that all our pastors acquaint the Church with the work of our various Benevolent Boards, that the importance of the work be emphasized and that they earnestly seek to bring up the apportionment in full.

J. P. Cummins,
J. W. Dundas.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

We rejoice in the continued prosperity of our Book Concern in the face of unprecedented world conditions. We again express our conviction that the Sunday School publications of the Methodist Episcopal Church are unsurpassed, and we urge upon both pastors and people the importance of an increased loyalty to and patronage of the publishing interests of our Church.

We regret that because of the increased cost of material the publishers are forced to announce an advance in price of subscriptions to our Church papers; but, recognizing the necessity for such action, we pledge ourselves to abide by it, and to endeavor to place one of our Church papers in every Methodist home.

C. D. Robertson, Chairman.

C. W. Gant, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Your Committee feels, with every member of the Conference, that in the death of our beloved Brother and friend, Robert Stephens, the Conference Claimants and the Preachers' Aid Society lose one of their most loyal and devoted friends. It had been recognized by all the men of the Illinois Conference that this man of God was a lover of men, and especially of the preacher. Tho' he be dead, yet his work will continue, and we pledge ourselves to carry on to completion that which he began.

We appreciate the strenuous and self sacrificing labors of Henry C. Gibbs, and commend him and his work to the Conference, and to the support of both ministers and laymen. We urge that the District Superintendents, the preachers, and the laymen heartily co-operate with him and his assistants, in the work of completing the five hundred thousand dollar Endowment Fund.

We heartily endorse all the resolutions presented to the Conference by the Commission on Conference Claimants.

We recommend to the Board of Stewards that we apportion for the Conference Claimants, for the year 1916-17, six per cent of the pastor's cash salary for our Superannuates.

E. G. Sandmeyer, Chairman.

J. P. Edgar, Secretary.

COMMISSION FOR CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

Report No. 1.

To the Bishop Presiding and the Members of the Illinois Conference:

Your Commission on Conference Claimants Campaign was appointed one year ago "to devise and put into operation plans for increasing the annual contributions from the churches for the retired ministers and widows and orphan children of retired ministers of the Illinois Annual Conference, and to increase the endowment funds of the Conference to a sum not less than $500,000.00." To carry out this purpose the Commission was given "full power."

We have proceeded in the discharge of our responsibilities knowing full well the magnitude of the task assigned us. According to your instructions, we selected the following laymen as members of the Commission: Leslie J. Owen, John Kissack, Wm. G. Cathcart, Benjamin F. Kagey, John W. Breckon, G. S. Tarbox, D. L. Musselman, and Ira B. Blackstock. At the request of the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society, Robert Stephens, the Field Secretary of said Society, was made a member ex-officio. Our beloved Brother, Preston Wood, was called home during the year, and Frank A. McCarty was chosen in his place. The Commission met at the earliest day convenient and effected an organization by electing Benjamin F. Shipp, Chairman, Reuben Y. Williams, Secretary, and Wm. G. Cathcart, Treasurer; Benjamin F. Shipp, Joseph W. Vancleve, Wm. H. Wilder, Leslie J. Owen, and Wm. G. Cathcart were appointed on the Executive Committee; and John Kissack, Leslie J. Owen, Wm. G. Cathcart, G. S. Tarbox, and Ira B. Blackstock on the Finance Committee.

We have studied closely the various phases of the problems involved, and have exercised the power given us and financed the campaign so far, including the salary and traveling expenses of Henry C. Gibbs, the Executive Secretary, who was appointed by Bishop McDowell.

I—Problem of Finance.

The first problem your commission met was the fact that the Conference made no provision for financing the work of the commission or for paying either the salary or other expenses of the Executive Secretary. The condition was met by certain members of the commission underwriting for the beginning of the work. Then each effective member of the Conference was requested to contribute a certain per centum of his cash allowance for the year which could be drawn upon for necessary expenses. This contribution of the preachers is credited to their account on the endowment funds. It should be said to the praise of the preachers that they promptly and almost uniformly approved of the plan and agreed to make the contribution. It was estimated that $4,000.00 would be required. The Treasurer's report will show what has been received, and the sources from which it came. It will also show the total expenses incurred during the year, including the salary of the Henry Gibbs.

It is due the Executive Secretary to say that he entered upon his work with his customary enthusiasm which has increased during the year. This with his courage and determination is full proof of his fitness to serve you in this campaign.

II—The Campaign Paramount.

To raise an endowment that will aggregate $500,000.00 is the paramount duty for this Conference. It will require the income from that amount to supplement the funds from all other sources to meet an obligation long over due the Conference claimants. Not only the comfort of these veterans in meeting the obligation, but the future of the church itself is involved. As has been so well said and often, the church can get along without its accessories but it cannot get along without preaching.

III—Campaign of Instruction.

It must first be a campaign of instruction. The problem is complex, but not insolvable. Its varied elements must be understood by the Conference. They may be summarized as:

- (1) Insufficient knowledge of the nature and basis of the claim for support.
- (2) An indifference and lack of an awakened conscience on the righteousness of that claim.
- (3) A lax application of the law of the church providing for these claims; and
- (4) The existence of two funds, one held by the Trustees of the Conference and the other by the Preachers' Aid Society.

We have sought diligently to plan for an intensive as well as an extensive campaign of education for awakening a greater interest on the part of our people and to beget a better ethical conscience on the subject. Through the Executive Secretary much literature has already been distributed, and the right to use the literature already in best form for most effective service has been acquired; much of it, at little expense to the commission by the grace of the general board.

IV—Some Pertinent Facts.

It is estimated that the aggregate deficit due the members of the Illinois Annual Conference for the last forty years is something more than Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000.00). That deficit is still increasing. But we thank God and take courage; for we recognize a new interest on the part of many preachers and laymen, and the amounts annually raised are increasing. However, we must not overlook the fact that the annual collections can never meet and discharge the full obligation, neither can they be what they should be until the Conference sets before the people the facts regarding the full amount and nature of the claims.

2—The amount asked from the churches by the Conference for last year was but thirty-three (33) per cent of the actual amount needed to meet the claims in full. The record shows that even that was not paid in full. The law requires that the moneys raised for ministerial support shall be applied on the several claims by the Quarterly Conferences in "pro rata" shares. This law is painfully violated to the hurt of the veterans. The published minutes of this Conference last year tells this story. The claims, inclusive of house rent, were:

For Pastors, $368,905; deficit, $2,862; per centum of def., .78.

For Claimants, $18,850; deficit, $2,124; per centum of def., 11.27.

Only 33 per cent of the claim was asked for, and on that apportionment there was a deficit of 11.27 per cent. Brethren, if these facts were predicated of the legislature of the commonwealth, how would they be characterized by us? Are they evidence of incapacity? Of dishonesty? Or of perversion of funds? Without doubt the pastors are not the persons most responsible for the lax application of the law. We respectfully request that consideration be given to this subject by the Board of Stewards, or by a special committee, and a report with recommendations be brought to this Conference before it closes. The perfect remedy lies only in a large endowment fund, but a partial easement might be found perhaps at an early day.

3—The fund commonly spoken of as the Trustees' Fund is $20,000.00; that of the Preachers' Aid Society is now nearly $200,000.00. The one has been gathered in large part not by gifts or bequests, but by lapsed properties of the church and held for the use of claimants. The other has been secured by annual dues from ministers, and special gifts and bequests. The Conference cannot do otherwise than recognize the integrity and perpetuity of both funds.

The betrayal of such trusts as these committed unto us must never be considered for a moment. Therefore, we recognize our obligation, both legal and ethical, to conserve the rights of the beneficiaries of these funds. But a righteous basis of procedure must be found before we can proceed as a commission with reasonable hope of success. Co-operation between the ministers and laymen, between both and the commission, is an absolute necessity. Whatever plans are adopted should have the unqualified support of every man and of every church organization in the Conference.

To this problem of a working basis looking toward a perfect unification of administration of all endowment funds, your commission has given much thought, and the recommendations which we shall make appear to be the best solution of the problem open to the Conference. We ask your patient consideration of the method proposed in Report No. II, and of the plans for the campaign this next year. Should there be no better method found, we ask you to act favorably upon all our recommendations. It is apparent that early action is necessary in order that the commission may have time to arrange for the details of action upon any plan adopted.

V—Recommendations.

We recommend:

1—That you appoint a commission with power to plan and conduct an Every Church Campaign throughout the Conference during the ensuing year.

2—That you approve the plan which in outline divides the churches into three groups: (a) a rural group which shall be canvassed during the autumn months; (b) a city group which shall be canvassed during the winter months; (c) and a small town and station group which shall be canvassed in the spring months.

3—That you request the appointment of Henry C. Gibbs, as Field Secretary to the Commission, who shall work under the authority and direction of the commission; that you also authorize said commission to fix his salary and provide for all necessary expenses of the campaign. It is understood that there shall be no assessment upon the preachers for the expenses of the Commission for the ensuing year.

4—That the Conference fix a standard amount to be raised for these endowment funds by each of the several churches, which standard shall be not less than the cash allowance for the pastor's support for the present year.

(a) From this standard amount shall be excluded all annuity gifts and bequests.

(b) This standard apportionment shall continue in force until the amount has been realized from each of our churches.

5—That Christmas Sunday shall be observed in every Sunday school of the Conference as "Saddle Bags Sunday", at which time an offering shall be taken for our veterans; each member of the Sunday school shall be asked to contribute a minimum of ten cents which shall be placed to the credit of his church on this campaign.

Report No. II.

To the Annual Conference—

Brethren: We foreshadowed in Report No. 1 some of the difficult problems confronting us. For the most delicate phases of these problems we offered no solution in our recommendations. Having given close and continued study to them for a year, especially to the nature of the endowment funds, how they should be held and administered, and their relation to all the interests of Conference claimants, we have reached a conclusion and present it to you for your consideration and approval. We believe our propositions will fully conserve every interest of all classes of claimants, and practically remove all obstacles to a successful every church campaign, and at the same time practically unify endowment funds of every description. We feel keenly the necessity of unification and hearty co-operation. Until we have it, we can scarcely expect from the Master, "Well done, good and faithful servants."

Therefore we present a series of resolutions which, if adopted, we hope will prove to be a binding agreement between the Trustees of the Conference, the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society, and the Conference Board of Stewards. We recommend:

1—That all moneys and properties secured by the Commission on Conference Claimants Campaign shall be permanent funds and the income therefrom shall be subject to annual distribution to claimants on their annuity claim only.

2—Until such time as $500,000.00 shall have been secured, including the sum total of the funds of the Preachers' Aid Society and of the Board of Trustees, all moneys which shall be raised by this commission shall be held by the Treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society, who shall keep it as a fund separate from all others;

(a) The commission shall report to said treasurer quarterly through the treasurer of the commission;

(b) The treasurer of the commission shall give bonds approved by the commission;

(c) The bond of the treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society shall be approved by the commission and by the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society.

3—We recognize all the legal and ethical rights of "Beneficiary Members" of the Preachers' Aid Society, which rights must and shall be both legally and ethically conserved; but, to hasten the perfect unification of all the interests of all claimants, we recommend that the Preachers' Aid Society be requested to so amend its constitution that the "Beneficiary Member" may be permitted to increase his annuity rights up to thirty-five years including the two years of his probation in the Conference, thereby harmonizing the constitution as to the basis of annuity rights with the Book of Discipline.

4—Deeming it vital to the success of the commission that all interests be unified, we further recommend

(a) That when the amount raised by the commission, together with the funds of the Preachers' Aid Society and of the Board of Trustees, shall aggregate $500,000.00, then these funds shall be merged into one fund for administrative purposes.

(b) That the income from the entire merged funds shall be distributed alike to "Associate and Beneficiary Members," except that the annuity which shall have been awarded to any member of the Conference shall first be applied to his credit until his credits shall equal the amount of his dues with interest accrued thereon for the years upon which his claim for annuity has been based and according to the rules of the constitution of the Preachers' Aid Society.

Basis of Agreement.

5—(a) Resolved, That when Report No. II of the Conference Claimants Commission shall have been adopted by the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society and by the Trustees of the Annual Conference and it shall have been certified to by the presidents and secretaries of these respective Boards, said Report No. II shall constitute a basis of understanding and agreement for the unification of all interests and for the adjustment of all questions which may arise as to the nature, the holding, and the distribution of the permanent funds of the Conference.

(b) Resolved, That the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society and the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference are hereby requested to act upon these propositions and report to the Conference on Friday morning.

Report No. III.

We recommend that the Conference appoint this Commission for the ensuing Conference year as follows:

Resolved, That we endorse the plan of the finance committee of the Commission, which asked that the effective ministers of the Conference contribute the sum of $4,000 for the purpose of meeting the expenses of the Commission for the first year, which, it was understood, should be placed to their credit on the Endowment Fund. That we confirm the apportionment made by the finance committee of the Commission and urge each preacher, who has not already done so, to pay his apportionment as soon as convenient, and instruct the Treasurer of the Commission to report the names and amounts paid by each contributor toward this expense account. This is especially important in order that each preacher may have his contribution placed on the records of the Conference.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY.

This society has an apt and well deserved name. It has sent timely aid to scores of our weak churches throughout the Conference, and in some instances came with help at such an hour as to save some churches from great loss and possible ruin.

We fear that this society has been overlooked, in our efforts to build up other causes. We seriously call attention to this tendency and urge a larger consideration and a more liberal support to this, the only society among us which brings aid to needy churches of our own Conference.

We have reviewed the financial report of the Treasurer, Lee Matheny, and heartily commend the business-like manner in which the affairs of this society are conducted.

T. A. Adams, Chairman.

W. W. Henry, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

Committee on Education.

The Committee on Education reports to the Conference the several reports of the Conference Board of Education as referred to us in printed form, and recommends the adoption by the Conference of these reports as printed, and that they be incorporated in full in the Conference Minutes. We further recommend the following special enactments under the several reports thus approved:

1. That all the special educational matters suggested in the report be referred to the Conference Board, giving said Board full power to adjust and safeguard the same, subject to any Conference action taken.

2. That the Conference Board of Education be empowered to meet in joint session with Board of Education of the Central Illinois Conference for the purpose of continuing all possible mutual helpfulness of relationship among all of the institutions of the two Conferences for the ensuing quadrennium.

3. That the Conference Board of Education consist of two ministers and two laymen from each district. And that said Board, at their first meeting, determine their term of service, as per discipline, Paragraph 465, Section 1, by lot. Whereas, the nomination of members of Board of Education cannot be made until the appointments are announced, Resolved, That the nomination of the committee on education for members of the Board of Education be hereby confirmed.

4. That the continued co-operation of the Conference extend until the campaigns on behalf of Chaddock Boys' School and the Wesley Foundation are completed.

5. That the Public Educational Collection be divided for the ensuing Conference year on the same decimal ratio between the Central Illinois Conference and the Illinois Conference, as heretofore, provided that similar action be taken by the Central Illinois Conference. Otherwise the ratio of division to be determined by the Conference Board of Education.

6. That the following be appointed as Trustees:

Theological Schools.

7. We commend our Theological Schools for their great service to the Church and the Master's Kingdom. Under alert and consecrated leadership they are introducing new courses, adding new professors to their faculties, increasing their Endowment, enlarging their material equipment, and adapting their curricula to the needs of our age. We note with deep satisfaction the high scholarship and profound spirituality of these schools of the prophets. We rejoice in the large registration and the fine type of students availing themselves of the rare privileges in these great centers of instruction and inspiration. We commend these splendid schools to all our ministerial candidates, believing that these theological seminaries are divinely appointed institutions to furnish those who study in their class rooms and become imbued with their spirit and atmosphere such an equipment that they may become workmen who need not to be ashamed, rightly divining the Word of Truth. We nominate the following persons as Conference Visitors: Iliff—E. M. Antrim; Poston—A. K. Byrns; Drew—G. E. Rainsberger, G. V. Metzel; Garrett—C. F. Juvinal, W. G. Lloyd; Hedding—A. C. Adams.

THE EDUCATIONAL FORWARD MOVEMENT.

Concluding Report of the Chairman of the Executive Committee for the Five-Year Movement Period.

A Historic Period.

The present Conference sessions conclude an epoch, educationally, in the history of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences. The Educational Forward Movement of these Conferences was organized at their sessions, respectively, at Peoria and Champaign, in 1911, for the period of five years of united endeavor on behalf of all their educational institutions. It was found, preceding those Conference sessions, that the several institutions were developing individual campaigns which would aggregate $1,250,000, and that to a considerable extent the same forces, official and personal, were relied upon to help achieve the victory of several of the proposed forward movements. The educational leaders of Methodism, the heads of these Conference schools, and their co-laborers, ministers and laymen, were thus led to unite all these contemplated campaigns and keep them related in definite, mutual helpfulness and understanding until the victory of each and of all should be won. The total goal was officially placed by the Conferences at $1,250,000. January 1st, last, became a historic day in these Conferences, educationally, when the completion of the endowment campaign of the Illinois Woman's College, at Jacksonville, rounded out a total of combined Conference collections and special gifts for all institutions of $1,256,500.

The Splendid Results.

The great campaign of the Illinois Wesleyan which had been previously completed, in June, 1915, with its final total of $611,000, was included in the tabulation of January 1, 1916. But the latter did not include the present Conference year additions to the campaigns then still pending, of Grand Prairie Seminary, Hedding College, Chaddock Boys' School, and the Wesley Foundation for Methodist students at the University of Illinois. It is now possible to report that the gains up to the present time in these four pending campaigns, additional to all reports tabulated for them at the Conference sessions of 1915, are as follows: For the Grand Prairie Seminary campaign, $26,000; for Hedding College, $71,000; for Chaddock Boys' School, $25,000; for the Wesley Foundation, $65,500. The total amount thus authorized to be reported to the present Conference sessions under this great educational effort is, accordingly, $1,444,000 exclusive of the Conference Public Educational Collections of the present Conference year. To this total may be added the gifts, last June, of the new Williams fund, the Kirkpatrick bequest, and the Kemp Hall fund completion, of Illinois Wesleyan, totaling $311,500 and of $15,000 in the new movement for the Library and the Gymnasium of the Illinois Woman's College. The sum of the Educational gifts is thus brought up to the grand total of $1,760,500 within the period of the Educational Forward Movement. The completions of the still open campaigns confidently counted upon for January 1, next, will bring the figure to the remarkable achievement of Two Millions of Dollars for our Methodist Schools.

The total public educational collections of the two Conferences have been $66,000 exclusive of the present Conference year, not yet reported. The total of Special Gifts gained for the institutions reported at the end of the first year was $390,000; for the second year, $298,000; for the third year, $225,000; for the fourth year, $197,500; and $583,000 as above stated in the Conference year now closing. These amounts have included the three lines of debt-paying, new buildings, and enlarged endowment, while the enlarging Conference collections have been available as a sustentation fund for our schools in their great burdens of the present transitional and upbuilding period.

The Campaigns Still Pending.

A significant feature of the Movement has been the completion of the great campaigns waged during these years on behalf of the Illinois Wesleyan University and the Illinois Woman's College, with the large overflow of gifts to those schools consequent, as in so many similar cases, upon the fact of these great victories. Under these conditions we should have the deepest concern, as Conferences, for the four campaigns, as yet unfinished, of Grand Prairie Seminary, Hedding College, Chaddock Boys' School, and the Wesley Foundation. These campaigns have not only been delayed, in one year or another, by the conditions of crop failure, commercial uncertainty, or other emergency of affairs, but they also had to be modified as to the time and place of endeavor by conditions of comity among the six institutions. Especially also, in the cases of Grand Prairie Seminary and Hedding College, is the fact to be noted of a large increase rendered necessary in the total amount sought, under the new requirement of the large conditional gifts, of $50,000 in the case of each of these institutions. The conditions of campaigning for Chaddock Boys' School and the Wesley Foundation have been affected by other but no less insistent factors, so that the present Conference year has first begun to record their larger progress and to indicate the point at which the present campaigns may be victoriously concluded. A special concern of the present Conference sessions will be carefully to provide for such completions of these campaigns, so as fully to safeguard the large amounts now conditionally subscribed for the same.

The Limitations of the Giving.

There is a point to be guarded in our conception of these great financial blessings for our institutions. While the amount given is large, the total number of different contributors is relatively small. In scores of our churches there have been no contributors of special gifts to any of our schools, and in very few of them have such gifts represented any considerable portion of the membership. It may be borne in mind that, in the magnificent total of $1,760,500, there are two gifts of some $200,000 each, four gifts approximating $50,000 each, two contributions of $25,000, and some twelve gifts of $10,000 each, with gifts of $5,000, $2,500, $1,000 and $500, in due proportion. Furthermore, very large sections of each special endowment campaign have been taken care of by the home cities of the several institutions, as $50,000 in Abingdon for Hedding College, $20,000 in Onarga for Grand Prairie, $90,000 in Jacksonville for Illinois Woman's College, $125,000 in Bloomington-Normal for Illinois Wesleyan, $20,000 in Quincy for Chaddock Boys' School, and $50,000 in Champaign-Urbana for the Wesley Foundation. The total number of different subscribers to the whole Illinois Wesleyan campaign, of $611,000, was 1992, of whom 604 represented all church denominations in the city of Bloomington. In the $200,000 so far subscribed in the great campaign of Hedding College, 617 different subscriptions are recorded, including 476 in Abingdon. The Illinois Woman's College campaign total of $280,000 was given by 696 subscribers in Jacksonville and 910 in the whole field at large. The $50,000 recently raised in Urbana-Champaign for the Wesley Foundation represents 420 contributors of our own and other churches. When it is noted that these aggregates are in Conferences whose Methodist membership is upwards of 140,000 people, it will become evident how slightly representative the educational campaigns have been of the whole field, splendid as the total contributions have been. Clearly, there remains within our territory the great duties of developing public educational offerings in all the churches for all the schools fairly representative as a Benevolence of the great masses of our people who have not made the special educational gifts, and the development of the latter among the many who have still to learn the duty and privilege of making such.

The Larger Influences.

There is a larger range of influence to report for the Educational Forward Movement than simply its financial phases. The Movement has claimed not only the increasing gifts of our people but also their increasing interest, loyalty and prayers. The field has been thickly sown with educational literature, the valuable output of each institution being added to the very large amount of literature issued by the Forward Movement in common for all the schools. Such literature, as issued by the Movement, has been sufficient in quantity annually, not only for every congregation but for every home. "Educational Sunday" has been claimed as one of the eventful days of the church year in all our churches. District and local Epworth Leagues, and our Sunday Schools, have been definitely related to our whole program. Methodist boys and girls are claimed for our own schools. The moral obligation of our people to our church schools for their enduring influence in churches and communities, and in the commonwealth, is felt as never before. To those who recall how different were all the related conditions when this Movement was inaugurated five years ago, how almost impossible for even the largest faith the goal of a million and a quarter dollars in gifts seemed, the new spirit of co-operation as among all our people for our schools must be regarded as nothing less than a practical transformation of sentiment, educationally, within these Conferences, in these five years.

The Public Educational Collection.

Two years ago, we modified our method of special subscription Sundays in each church in order to co-operate with the plans of the Board of Education and the Commission on Finance of the church at large, under which the Public Educational Collection is now regularly apportioned as a part of the church Benevolences. Our Conference apportionments, as allotted by the Commission on Finance, were made $13,500 for the Central Illinois Conference, and $27,300 for the Illinois Conference. The absolutely like validity of this educational apportionment with every other regular Benevolence apportionment is recognized in our Conference legislation, and, in many cases, by special resolutions of District Ministerial Meetings, or other gatherings, of Superintendents or pastors, and laymen. The requirement, also, of exact prorating of all undesignated Benevolence subscriptions as among all the causes, including the educational, has been similarly recognized. That the returns have not been fully proportionate is doubtless due to a considerable extent to the tendency evidenced by the reports of many charges, of permitting the limited number of "special gifts" of a charge, to a single institution, to represent the contribution of all our people for all our schools. To remedy this anomalous status of the educational collection, under the great needs of all our schools for enlarged sustentation income, is one of the great remaining goals, educationally, for us to attain as Conferences. We are excelled, in this respect, by many Conferences which are providing both large endowment funds and adequate annual sustentation funds for their institutions. It is ever to be remembered also that through this offering alone may we have our due relation as Conferences to the great work and mighty responsibility of our Board of Education for the church at large in its aid of needy institutions. With the closing of our Forward Movement endeavor, this year, the new educational apportionment allotted by the Commission on Finance for the ensuing Conference year, is $7,149 for the Central Illinois Conference and $13,180 for the Illinois Conference. May it become the new glory of these Conferences and their great encouragement for their colleges, that these amounts shall be attained in their due and full proportion as among all our Benevolences.

Our Great Indebtedness.

The Conference record of these Forward Movement years may not fittingly be closed without an expression of appreciation to those leaders of our Methodism, especially of its educational interests, who have been with us in counsel, encouragement, and earnest efforts upon our local fields of action from the inception of the Movement. Our unceasing gratitude will be due to Bishops W. F. McDowell and Thomas Nicholson, the former as resident Bishop in the Area and the latter as Corresponding Secretary of our Board of Education during the past quadrennium. In close official co-operation, and with the largest vision and helpfulness for us under Conference educational conditions, they have planned, advised, and labored for us and with us through all the years. The special helpfulness of Bishop William F. Anderson in the earlier organization of the work, of Bishop W. S. Lewis in the Illinois Wesleyan campaign, and of Bishops F. J. McConnell and T. S. Henderson in connection with our efforts at the University of Illinois, were great special contributions for our cause. The help of Assistant Secretary J. W. Hancher, of the Board of Education, has been repeatedly extended and always with his great skill and success both in critical local campaigns and for the work at large. Our church press has been more than generous with space given to the successive phases of our task. We recall, with deep appreciation, the very large benefactions of Mrs. Martha A. Buck, of the Hon. W. A. Rankin, and of E. M. Kirkpatrick, all of whom have finished their life's labors during the past year, leaving as enduring monuments of their high purpose and usefulness for church and state the educational benefactions which have meant so much in our several campaigns. There have been many other makers of gifts, both large and small, and all marked by sacrifice and devotion, whom we may not name. To all such and to our superintendents, pastors and people everywhere, is due our gratitude. Above all, to God, the Giver of every good and perfect gift, we offer our meed of thankfulness and praise.

Concluding the Movement.

A movement of the scope and character of this, so long extended as a mutual endeavor of Conferences and colleges, should be concluded with the utmost solicitude for all the large interests involved. There are many details of the work which will have bearings vitally important to our schools, financially, in respect to mutual comity, and for their enlarging clientage of patrons and students. The new Disciplinary plan of permanent Conference Boards of Education seems providential in this connection. The reference of all the problems herein suggested to the respective Conference Boards is recommended, giving to these Boards full power to adjust and safeguard the same in mutual conference, as found necessary. In this legislation is involved the due protection and completion of the great endowment campaigns still pending at this Conference time, the due relation of the same to all other Conference movements and benevolence endeavors; and the conservation and equitable division among the institutions of the continuing annual Public Educational offerings in the churches. Personally, the chairman of the Executive Committee of the Educational Forward Movement desires to submit, in conclusion of the work, his expression of gratitude to God and thanks to all of the Conference educational forces, the college heads, superintendents, pastors, and laymen, for the privilege of having served during these five historic years in his official relation to the great cause of our Christian schools. May all our schools and all of us be increasingly dedicated to the service of our Christ and the coming of His Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH C. NATE, Chairman Executive Committee.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Bishop W. F. McDowell, President.

A. W. Harris, Corresponding Secretary.

(a) The Children's Day Collection, which has aided from the beginning more than twenty thousand students, last year 2288, is more efficient than ever. This collection is not yet large enough to meet the demands.

(b) We endorse and commend the apportionment of a religious worker to serve our own schools and tax-supported schools when and where requested.

(c) The Educational Jubilee of our Church is worthy the devout support and co-operation of all our people. It means better kept campuses, better buildings and equipment, strengthened faculties, enriched curricula, and greatly increased endowments.

(d) The one Public Educational Collection—80 per cent at the order of the Annual Conference and 20 per cent for the Board of Education—enacted by the General Conference of 1912 and continued by the General Conference of 1916, is a fortunate provision in that it calls for one collection instead of two.

(e) Now that the General Conference has placed the support of the religious work in tax-supported institutions with our Board of Education, the demands upon the Board's treasury are nearly doubled. Clearly, it should have its 20 per cent up to the amount apportioned to this Conference, for the one Public Educational Collection by the General Conference Commission of Finance, which is all it asks or will accept.

(f) We congratulate the Board upon "The Christian Student", so much in favor with educators of many denominations. Its superior excellence commends it to us and to our people.

CHADDOCK BOYS' SCHOOL.

Mrs. Eva C. Frields, Superintendent.

The backward look over the sixteenth year of Chaddock Boys' School convinces all who know the record of the year that there has been steady progress in all directions. Our Board of Trustees, representing the strongest business interests in Quincy, have invested liberally their time, their money, and themselves to the end that the school might be a better place for boys. The faculty, made stronger this year by the addition of Miss Munson, from the Illinois Woman's College, Mr. Clair J. Thomas, from the University of Illinois, and Dean McPherson, of Central College, Mo., have made Chaddock Boys' School a wholesome place for wholesome boys.

A beautiful new home that will accommodate twenty-four boys is nearing completion. Cash and good pledges sufficient to cover the cost of this and another such building are in the hands of our Treasurer. The Treasurer's report shows all bills paid for the year, with some balance, and this in spite of the fact that we have as yet no productive endowment.

Sixty-two boys have enrolled with us this year. Eleven of these were provided for by friends of the school, twenty-three were part-pay students, leaving twenty-eight who paid in full. We rejoice that we have been able to reach out a hand to the boys who need us most. A finer or more promising group of lads would be hard to find. We have added two years to our course of study, thus completing the high school course. This makes it possible for us to take the lad of six years and care for him until he is eligible for employment, sending him out, if he cannot go on in school, equipped to make a place for himself. Many of our boys are ambitious to go on to college. With the practical training which they are given along with their school work at Chaddock, we expect many of them to find within themselves the means of providing a college education. Under the direction of the scientific, as well as the practical, farmer, the boys study and practice agriculture and horticulture, as well as the care of stock and dairy products.

The school has passed the goal in the local campaign for buildings and grounds and is now ready to promote the campaign in the wider field of the Conferences at large. It bespeaks a sympathetic and prayerful co-operation for the arduous, but welcome, task which it takes from the hand that was outstretched to the children when He said, "Suffer the children to come unto Me."

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Theodore Kemp, President.

The past year has been a very successful one. The number of students in the College of Liberal Arts has materially increased, the freshman class, numbering 92, being the largest in the history of the school. All departments have been maintained with increased efficiency. The new department of Public Speaking and Debate has been very popular and augurs well for the future. For the coming year, some new courses will be added. The first two years of regular courses in Civil, Mechanical and Electrical Engineering will be given; also the first two years of a four years course of agriculture. These will enable prospective students to spend two years at the Illinois Wesleyan after which they will be enabled to complete their courses in two years at the University of Illinois, or in other Engineering and Agricultural schools. The work will be fully credited and the student may thus have the advantage of a school like the Illinois Wesleyan with its moral environment for the first two years. The standard medical schools now require two years of college work for admission. There is outlined, in the catalogue this year, a course of two years for those who wish to enter the best medical schools.

The movement for a new gymnasium is progressing and it is hoped that actual work may begin before many months. The Trustees, at their last meeting, voted that, as soon as $25,000.00 was raised, work on the building should begin. The new gymnasium will cost about $60,000.00. All friends of Illinois Wesleyan were greatly rejoiced to learn that, early in May of this year, Mr. Hobart Williams, of Cheshire, Connecticut, had made this institution one of the beneficiaries of a great trust fund. This means a gift to the Illinois Wesleyan of $211,500.00, the income of which is to be used to assist worthy young men and women to obtain a college education. This is the greatest gift ever made by any one person for this purpose to any institution of America. The coming year, Illinois Wesleyan will distribute probably over $3,000.00 in scholarships to worthy young men and women. This fact, together with the fact that Bloomington offers unsurpassed opportunities for young people who desire to work for part of their expenses, should make possible a large influx of students to Illinois Wesleyan. The prospects are already good for an unusual freshman class.

Mr. E. M. Kirkpatrick, of Parma, Idaho, an alumnus of Illinois Wesleyan, departed this life in April. He has ever been a valued friend and helper of the school, and gave fresh proof of his devotion by devising that all his personal estate, valued at some $50,000.00, should, at the death of his wife, be given to Illinois Wesleyan.

Kemp Hall, the magnificent dormitory for women, has been formally turned over to the Board of Trustees and thus becomes the property of this institution. All together, during the past year, the school has added over $300,000.00 to its assets. This is a remarkable showing—it means much for the future of the institution.

The moral and religious tone of the school has been good the past year. The usual number of young men have been in attendance preparing for ministry, and a number of students are making their plans to go to the missionary field.

On Thursday, June 22d, Mrs. Martha A. Buck, a trustee, and devoted, loyal, and self-sacrificing friend of Illinois Wesleyan, passed from labor to reward. Her magnificent gift of $200,000.00 to this school, at a time when the institution sorely needed friends, resulted in much of the progress of the last five years and made possible hundreds of thousands of dollars to the institution. Illinois Wesleyan can never forget its great indebtedness to this noble woman.

THE ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

Joseph R. Harker, President.

The past year is notable for the successful completion, on December 31, 1915, of the campaign begun in 1912, for $280,000. The closing days of 1915 were strenuous ones, but they were glorious days and will always be "Red Letter Days" in the Woman's College calendar. The college gratefully acknowledges the interest and help of thousands of friends, both within and without the Conference, and appreciates the assistance during the campaign by district superintendents and pastors, and by the officers of the Educational Forward Movement.

In attendance and general efficiency this has exceeded last year, and such has been the record of each successive year for the past twenty-three years of President Harker's administration. During all these years there have been no deaths and no serious accidents by fire or otherwise in the institution. But this gracious providence should not beget a false security. One extensive fire or one serious epidemic—and either might occur at any time—would overtax all present resources to tide the institution through the calamity. The possibility of such a crisis makes apparent the need of a larger endowment.

The growth of the college may be seen by the recital of a few facts. The attendance has increased from 128 to 350; the faculty has increased from 10 to 37; the assets of the college have increased from $75,000, in 1893, to $675,000, at the present time. The annual budget of the college in its income and expenses has increased from $18,000, in 1894, to $116,000, the past year.

Full recognition of standard college rank has been given by the highest college and university authorities of the country. The ethical standards and spiritual tone of the school are very high. A special meeting continuing for one week was held in February, under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. A. C.

Piersel, then of Urbana, and the spiritual life of the school was greatly quickened.

In 1921, five years from now, the college will have reached its seventy-fifth year, and will celebrate a great diamond jubilee anniversary. The Trustees have announced the need of the college for additional endowment of $300,000, and of $100,000 for additions to plant and equipment, making a total needed increase of $400,000. It is the plan to organize for this purpose and to endeavor to secure this added endowment and equipment at least by the time of the diamond jubilee anniversary in 1921. The Trustees of the college bespeak the continued interest and help of the Conference in these plans for the advancement of the school.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION.

James C. Baker, Director.

A substantial beginning has been made this year towards the realization of the plans for the social and religious care of students at the University of Illinois. Citizens of Urbana-Champaign have raised $50,000 to pay for the Wesley Foundation site. This site is central and adequate for present purposes. It is ideal in its location.

The Trustees at their annual meeting voted to draw plans at once for the erection of the first building—the social center—at a cost of $100,000. An anonymous friend made the first contribution toward this building, a cash gift of $10,000. Additional special gifts are $5,000 from Rev. M. P. Wilkin, and $500 from Rev. L. F. Walden.

Trinity Church has had the most successful year of its history in its work for students. A new feature of its work was a training class in Rural Church Service conducted by Dr. C. L. Stewart. Sixty students enrolled, all of whom expect to spend their life in rural districts. The work was eminently practical and the class attendance averaged ninety per cent of the enrollment. Because the Trinity Church building could not accommodate the numbers of students enrolled for Bible study, the authorities of the University of Illinois granted temporary quarters in the Transportation Building.

HEDDING COLLEGE.

Hedding College is one of the institutions of the Central Illinois Conference. It is, however, especially subject to present report to the Illinois Conference by reason of the mutual two-Conference Forward Movement endeavor in which all institutions of either Conference have some agreed share in the church collections of both. The College has a beautiful location at Abingdon, Ill., the Rev. W. D. Agnew, D. D., being its President. Hedding College is privileged to claim almost a third of the ministers of its own Conference among her graduates, as well as many missionaries, Home and Foreign. A most significant advance has been made in the affairs of the College, ensuing upon the important achievement, reported to the Conference one year ago, of absolutely clearing the title to the campus property of certain former technical irregularities. At the session of the Central Illinois Conference, of 1915, at Kankakee, announcement was made of a new gift of $50,000 conditioned upon increasing the pending endowment campaign goal for $200,000 to the new goal of $350,000. The college and its friends have bravely accepted this fine challenge of their faith and courage. The new campaign, the time limit of which has been placed by the trustees on January 1, next, is under steady advancement. Its victory will finally assure the great future mission of the institution as a standard college of our common Methodism.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY.

Grand Prairie Seminary is also an institution of the Central Illinois Conference, associated with the institutions of Illinois Conference in the Educational Forward Movement, and subject to general report to the Illinois Conference during the present Forward Movement period. The school is favorably located, in a fine community environment, at Onarga, Ill. Mr. Hubert Phillips, A. B., is the President. The Rev. D. D. Campbell, D. D., of the Genesee Conference, has become the Financial Secretary, in succession to the late T. W. McVety, D. D., deceased during the past year. The Seminary has advanced into the final phases of its campaign for a greatly enlarged endowment, under the special $50,000 conditional gift of the estate of the late Hon. W. A. Rankin. The institution has shared, and promises to share even more largely, in the inspiring story of educational influence which has been exercised in Methodism by the seminaries and academies of the church.

EVANGELISM.

In view of the gratifying results of the Methodist Forward Movement, as evidenced by reports received from charges where it has been tried, we recommend that this movement in a modified form be continued. We advise that each pastor make a religious census of his charge, and enlist his membership in a campaign of personal solicitation with that portion of his constituency who have lost their interest and zeal for the Church, and with those who are without Church relations (See Discipline, Paragraph 48, Section 5), and suggest that he shall also enlist the various Departments of his Church in this same campaign.

Realizing the value of earnest and aggressive evangelism, we again earnestly request our District Superintendents to arrange for District meetings early in the fall for conference and prayer, and for the direction of evangelistic campaigns throughout the Districts.

We recommend that not more than three Conference Evangelists be appointed at this Conference.

We also recommend that the Conference Statistician secure from each member of the Illinois Conference appointed as Conference Evangelist a report of their work to be submitted to the Evangelistic Commission, that the efficiency of these men may be properly passed upon, said report to include the following items with such additional matter as may be of importance:

Evangelist's Report Blank.

Remarks

We strongly emphasize the importance of continuous evangelism and urgently request that all our pastors throughout the year be notably evangelistic in their preaching and that the Sunday evening service be utilized as an opportunity for soul winning.

We believe the importance of the Church in the rural community and small towns demands that they be given more consideration and urge that the Districts plan special evangelistic meetings for them.

We wish to express to Dr. Harlow V. Holt our high appreciation of his addresses upon "Evangelism," vigorous, practical, and inspiring. We would suggest to the Committee on Program for the next Conference that, on the bill of fare, they give us some more of the pure milk and strong meat of evangelism. We further recommend that a post-graduate course on "Evangelism" be arranged for by our Board of Examiners, and that a school of methods on the above study be arranged for in connection with the proposed addresses on "Evangelism," the book or books for such a course to be chosen by the Board of Examiners and the names thereof to be placed in the Minutes of Conference. No fee shall be charged but an examination may be held at the close of the school or during the sessions of the Conference as decided upon by the Board and stated in the Minutes.

Presley Carson,
J. C. Brown.

HOSPITALS.

The awakened social conscience demands of physicians, surgeons and nurses the greatest skill in the treatment of disease and the care of the sick and suffering. The highest degree of efficiency can be secured only through the agency of the hospital. And the hospital, to render the finest ministry, should be Christian. It is true that Protestantism was slow to enter this special field of service, but it is cause for profound gratitude that at length it has entered, that hospitals are today being founded, equipped and efficiently operated under Protestant management, and that Methodism is beginning to do its part.

Memorial Methodist Hospital.

This institution, the only hospital within our Conference, and under our control, has been doing excellent work the past year. Most gratifying results have been obtained, notwithstanding the hampering conditions of the old building. The Secretary reports that from September, 1915, to September, 1916, there have been admitted 371 patients, an average of 11 1-10 per day. There have been expended for free work, $1,000. Amount of county work, $447. Number of county charges, 20. The capacity of the old building, still in use, is 18 beds. At times patients have been rejected for lack of room.

Early last year a lot adjoining our present location was purchased for $4,000. In early December a ten-day campaign for a new hospital building was thoroughly organized in the community. $32,000 were subscribed. Early in April of this year the contract was let for a new building, now well under construction, which will be ready for occupancy during the present year. The new hospital will have a capacity of 53 beds, and will be thoroughly equipped with best modern appliances. The entire cost of building and furnishings will be $60,000.

In the new building, the school for training nurses will be conducted under the most approved rules and regulations. Miss Delphine Pearson is the Superintendent.

The Conference is asked to confirm the following re-elected Board of Trustees: S. W. Phillips, President; G. H. Cokendolpher, Vice-President; Chas. E. Odell, Secretary-Treasurer; Pastor of Mattoon, Superintendent of Mattoon District, S. G. Auer, G. S. Tarbox, H. W. Clark, Chas. W. Kincaid.

Wesley Memorial Hospital.

We note with gratitude the success of this great institution, ministering as it does to the suffering masses, and hope that its appeal may still be heeded by our people.

Peoria Hospital.

This is another worthy institution and we heartily endorse and commend it, and make an appeal in its behalf.

David F. Nelson, Secretary.

J. D. Shouse, Chairman.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND MORAL REFORMS.

The Bible and the Public Schools.

Whereas, The morals of our nation suffer as a result of discarding the Bible from our Public Schools, we plead for its return, and recommend that our people demand, of those who shall represent us in the halls of State and National legislation, that they use their influence to bring about its restoration.

Chautauquas.

We recommend that the managing Boards of our chautauquas prepare their Sunday programs in strict harmony with the spirit of the holy Sabbath day, eliminating all secular and humorous numbers.

Divorce and Remarriage.

We urge upon our ministers and members the strict observance of the disciplinary prohibition of the remarriage of divorced persons.

Child Labor.

We heartily endorse the passage of the Child Labor law and earnestly request, to the fullest extent, the enforcement of the same.

Anti-Saloon League.

We heartily commend the work of the Anti-Saloon League, and call upon Methodist voters to give support to the League endorsements at both primary and general elections.

Clean Up or Quit.

It is with great satisfaction that we note the fearless and untiring efforts of Sheriff Wheeler of Sangamon County in his "clean up or quit" order, under the Kate Adams Vice Abatement Law.

Capital and Labor.

We are in full sympathy with the sentiment of the last General Conference as expressed by its action regarding Capital and Labor. We recommend that our people create and foster a humane spirit toward unskilled labor, to the end that suitable provision shall be made for them in old age and incapacitation by injury, by obtaining their release from employment one day in seven, and their right to organize, our standard being: "a living wage as a minimum in every industry and the highest wage that each industry can afford, and the most equitable division of the product of industry that can ultimately be devised".

We plead that, at the close of the present great war, all the nations of the world, realizing the indescribable horror and the uselessness of war, shall unite in a common purpose to preserve for all times to come a Universal Peace, and, to this end, the establishing of an International Court of Peace, upheld by an army of the world, to which all international differences shall be referred.

Ralph C. Jones, Secretary.

A. A. Heinlein, Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUES.

I. Sunday Schools.

In view of the great importance of the Sunday School as a missionary and evangelistic agency; and because it has come to occupy so significant a place in the life of the Church, having an attendance which in recent years has reached the enormous total of 4,598,000, with an increase in the last year of 213,000;

Be It Resolved, First, That we very heartily endorse and support the work of the Board of Sunday Schools in the conduct of its eight departments; in its support of twenty-four Sunday School missionaries in this country, and fifteen foreign missionaries, and the furnishing of literature for nineteen mission fields; and in its Institutes and Schools of Methods.

We urge wherever possible that the graded lessons be adopted in our Schools, and that our pastors follow the instructions of the discipline as to the support of this work and insist on no diversion of funds belonging to this Board.

Second, That we very heartily recommend that Teachers' Training Classes be organized and maintained wherever possible; we also recommend the organization of adult classes for more efficient work, and urge that we as pastors make it clear to the adult membership of our Schools that the main reason for their being in the Sunday School is to serve, rather than to be served.

II. Epworth League.

We recognize that the Epworth League, where it is actively at work, is now producing the highest quality of results in its history. Its program for the practical religious training of the young people covers every side of Christian experience and service. Its members have proved that they can be trusted to manage their work effectively, and to serve the Church faithfully. We are increasingly assured of the large value of the Epworth League Institutes held during the summer.

Resolved, That we endorse the work of our General Secretary and his efficient leadership; that we urge our pastors to support the Institute, which may be placed in the territory of the Illinois Conference; also that we urge our young people to subscribe for and read the Epworth Herald, believing that this paper is essential to the life and growth of the Epworth League.

We nominate for Conference President J. M. Judy, and for Secretary C. M. Barton.

L. S. Ellison, Secretary.

C. F. Juvinal, Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME AND WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

We recognize the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society as a potent factor in preaching Christ in foreign fields; and the Woman's Home Missionary Society as an efficient helper in giving the gospel to the millions coming to our shores and in establishing and maintaining churches and the work on the frontier. We view with satisfaction the noble work which these societies are doing and rejoice in their growth, the large increase in their collections, and their spiritual influence in the church. Further, the terrible conditions in Europe, resulting from the war, demand unusual sympathy, generosity, and co-operation on the part of our entire constituency. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as pastors of the Illinois Conference, pledge to the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies our hearty support, and promise them every possible aid in the great work they are doing.

J. C. Ewing, Secretary.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.Letter of Transmittal.

To the Members of the Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Dear Brethren: In transmitting this, my final report as Treasurer of your Society, I wish to express my sincere appreciation of the signal honor you have bestowed upon me and the unwavering confidence you have shown by electing me annually for the last twenty-five years as your Treasurer. For two years prior to my first election, by your appointment, I assisted the then Treasurer, Hon. Joseph G. English, in collecting a large number of small notes and subscriptions, so that the duration of my entire service now covers a period of twenty-seven years. During that time more than one hundred and fifty members of the Illinois Conference have passed on to their everlasting reward, and its great interests are now in the hands of another generation.

My interest in your Society has been because of the inherent and inherited interest I have always had in the welfare of the retired minister, and also for my father's sake, who was one of the incorporators of the Society. After so long an official connection and brotherly association with you, it is with sincere regret that I now inform you that the duties of the office have become so enlarged and my plans for the coming year are such as to make it impracticable for me to longer continue my service in this capacity. I shall, however, always continue to have the welfare of the Society at heart, and remain ready to give any aid to the cause that I may be able to render. I have tried to prove worthy of your great trust and confidence and have been glad to grant my services gratuitously for the entire period of twenty-seven years.

During that time I have handled in receipts and disbursements an aggregate of $815,361.67 without any loss whatsoever, either from bad loans, default of interest or any other cause. In this respect your Society has an enviable record that is unsurpassed by any bank or other financial institution, and only equaled by very few, and it is under these auspicious circumstances that I turn back to you the trust with which you have honored me for so long a time, and it is fitting that this action should be taken here in Springfield, where, in the year 1891, I first took over the responsibilities of the office.

Respectfully submitted,

Hiram B. Prentice, Treasurer.

CUNNINGHAM CHILDREN'S HOME.

Rev. Xenophon McKee Fowler, Superintendent.

Cunningham Children's Home was founded and is sustained to accomplish humane, educational and spiritual results. Such results cannot be tabulated, but we are glad to report that 103 children have been taken care of during the past fiscal year, 91 of whom were taught in our day and Sunday schools, 90 in our Junior League and Missionary Societies, and 69 had some form of industrial training.

Our Home has been open to visitors every day, excepting Sundays, and hundreds of people have noticed and remarked upon the genuine home atmosphere that makes our institution unique in its class. We ask for public donations; therefore, we have no secrets at Cunningham, and consider no question about the management impertinent. We freely show all books and explain all matters to all interested patrons.

Any institution, like any individual, that "makes good" is bound to win confidence and friends. We believe that Cunningham Children's Home is worthy the help of Illinois Methodism, and, inasmuch as it is the only Methodist charitable Home within the bounds of Illinois Conference, we are expecting substantial support, not only in the form of donations of fruit and household supplies, but also in cash gifts toward current expenses, scholarships, or the endowment fund, recently established and now amounting to approximately $4,000.

Plan of Conference Examinations.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Chairman—C. D. Robertson, Arcola.

Registrar—J. F. McAnally, Bowen.

Examiners—C. M. Barton, A. K. Byrns, H. M. Derby, T. N. Ewing, F. A. Havighurst, E. A. Hedges, E. H. Lugg, R. F. McDaniel, R. H. Schuett, W. A. Smith, R. L. Steed, W. R. Leslie, P. C. Sommerville, E. L. Tobie, H. W. McPherson, C. F. Juvinall, A. A. Heinlein, G. V. Metzel, C. E. Taylor, E. G. Sandmeyer, C. W. Hamand.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

With Plan of Examinations for 1916-17.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners by the chairman. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange with a member of the conference as special supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

As early in the conference year as possible all applicants for admission on trial shall send to the chairman of the board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the chairman. All such candidates may take their examinations as above.

4. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Registrar of the Board three different sets of questions, 90 days or more before the examinations take place in June. The Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time in the hands of the district supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special. Set No. 1 shall be used in the first examination; set No. 2 for all who fail at the first trial; and set No. 3, "doubly difficult," for all who postpone the examinations until the day before the Conference session.

5. Before the examination in June the Registrar will supply the supervisors with questions on the entire course of study.

6. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study, or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time of examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the registrar of the board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the board.

7. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their annual conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for prepayment.

8. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

9. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

10. The undergraduate will be required to file with the Registrar before the Annual Conference a statement similar to the following form:

I hereby certify that I have given the book (or books.....)
(Fill in name) a careful and conscientious reading, covering the whole of its (or their) contents.

(Signed)

11. All credits from Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the annual conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. All grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the conference examiners, shall be designated by the letter "P", as an indication of passing grade, which neither adds to nor detracts from the general average of the undergraduate.

12. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the board. This fee shall be paid to the registrar of the board within thirty days after the adjournment of the conference session, for which the registrar shall furnish receipt. District supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. The financial accounts of the Registrar shall be audited by the board at their annual conference meeting.

13. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the chairman and registrar of the board.

14. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the board of examiners; and it shall be the duty of the board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant. District superintendents are requested to report to the chairman of the board of examiners, all candidates for admission on trial or from other churches, and candidates for admission into full membership, and for recognition of orders, at least thirty days before Conference, or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the chairman may have ample time to investigate.

15. It shall be the duty of district superintendents to report to the chairman of the board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

16. The annual meeting of the board of examiners shall be held at the seat of the annual conference at 2 o'clock p. m., on the day preceding the opening of the session, to consider matters involved in Rule 14, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the ensuing year. Examinations for those who are eligible shall be conducted on the same day, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., and closing at 6:00 p. m.

17. "Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success, will be conferred at each annual conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but no one can be "Honor Man" who shall not have done at least 50 per cent of his work under this board, or whose standing in the course of study is irregular.

Examinations deferred to the day before Conference will be doubly rigid, and no examination will be given after 6 p. m. on day preceding Conference.

19. All examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipt for the same shall be brought to the chairman at the seat of the Conference.

Undergraduates will give especial attention to paragraph 599, Sec. 1, of the Discipline of 1916.

Memoirs.

MARTHA A. BUCK.

Martha Ann Hammet was born in Bourbon County, Ky., September 14, 1827, and moved with her parents to Douglas County, Ill., in 1830. She received such education as the schools of that early day afforded, one of her instructors being Rev. Jesse H. Moore, afterwards a distinguished civilian and soldier, but then Principal of Georgetown Seminary, one of the many church schools that Methodism in Illinois provided before the public school system was established and which did so much to lay the educational foundations in the young and developing Prairie State. She was married to Rev. Hiram Buck in Coles County, Ill., September 17, 1846, and, until his death in 1892, shared with him in the bounds of the Illinois Conference the sacrifices and labors, the joys and rewards of the Methodist itinerancy. Mrs. Buck was a remarkable woman in many ways and a fitting helpmeet to her distinguished companion, who, as a natural leader of men, was always kept in the forefront of church activities by his brethren of the Conference, and also took high rank in the councils of the church at large. She knew well Cartwright, Akers, Crews, Prentice, Crane, Moore, James, Stamper, Kimber, Barger, Leaton, the Munsells, the Rutledges, the Adams, Buckner, Jaques, Davies, McElroy, Short, Phillips, Dimmitt, Wood and all the host of noble men whose lives were given up to establish and perpetuate the church they loved, and also thus poured out their rich contribution of consecrated effort to lay broad and deep the foundations of truth and righteousness in the new and growing state and country. During the life of her husband she also had an acquaintance with most of the Bishops and leading churchmen of that day. The loss of such a life, therefore, is indeed the severing of a link that binds the present to the heroic and glorious past. Reared in such a company, she, too, was inspired with the same aims and ideals and, before her husband's death, they jointly agreed to leave their possessions in a way that would perpetuate these ideals after they had ceased to labor and to live.

Mrs. Buck was a woman of many good deeds. Her most notable benefaction was her gift to the Illinois Wesleyan University of practically all of her estate, conservatively valued at $200,000.00. This large estate was acquired through the foresight of Dr. Buck, who, in an early day, from his meager savings, began to buy land when it could be entered from the government at $1.25 an acre, and later, as he had opportunity and the means, added to his possessions, until he had acquired approximately one thousand acres of rich Illinois farming land that afforded him a good income after failing health compelled him to retire from the active work of the ministry. Mrs. Buck, upon the death of her husband, with singular business ability, continued to conserve and manage her estate, which through the fortunate rapid rise in land values during the last twenty years made her the possessor of a large fortune, which she regarded as a sacred trust to be handed down to the future to preserve and further the ideals for which she and her husband had lived and planned.

Dr. and Mrs. Buck always believed strongly in the church school and looked with special favor upon the Illinois Wesleyan University because of its plan of Christian education, and because it ministered especially to the youth of the region to which their lives of service had been given. Believing in the efficacy of large gifts to aid weak but worthy causes, Mrs. Buck, many years ago, decided that she could best promote her ideals by making this school her principal if not exclusive beneficiary. In order to free the school from debt and provide an adequate endowment fund, Mrs. Buck offered to bequeath to the school property valued at $200,000.00—provided an active and earnest campaign was started which would liquidate the outstanding indebtedness and provide an endowment fund of $400,000.00—by January 1, 1916. She lived to see this work gloriously accomplished and her name must ever be honored by this school as the saving power and the inspiring force that gave to it new life and made secure and lasting its foundations.

Mrs. Buck was a woman of more than ordinary business acumen. This trait was given marked expression when, a few years ago, the school was so heavily in debt that the men who had become security on its paper became anxious about their personal liability, and, in order to relieve them and also to provide additional funds for operating purposes, the Trustees of the School authorized a bond issue to take up the outstanding indebtedness, the bonds to be secured by a mortgage on the buildings and grounds. Upon learning of this, Mrs. Buck promptly advised the Trustees that unless their action was rescinded she would withdraw her promised aid to the school and place it elsewhere. With equal promptness the Trustees revoked their former action. It was afterwards that Mrs. Buck suggested the saner and more heroic plan of starting a campaign to raise the necessary funds with a view to placing the school on a safe and solid basis, and such an undertaking she was willing to lead with her magnificent offer that brought ultimate success to the school and unbounded rejoicing to its many friends. This offer was made, however, upon the condition that the Trustees would never allow the campus or buildings to be mortgaged. Verily, it may be said of this rare woman, "She hath done what she could."

Dr. and Mrs. Buck were denied the comfort and companionship of children but they opened their home to her sisters' children and grandchildren, to six of whom they became as father and mother, giving to them the same care as if they were their own. Mrs. Buck had a vivid memory and could recall in detail the events that occurred when she was a mere child. She abounded in reminiscences of early times and remembered distinctly the journey from Kentucky to Illinois in a covered wagon when she was three years old. She remembered the Indians and many incidents of early times and it was interesting to hear her tell of the many experiences of an itinerant life. Mrs. Buck was an unusually forceful and interesting character, strong in intellect, superior in judgment, keen in her perceptions, generous in her impulses, broad in her sympathies, determined in will and exacting in her requirements. Her tastes were aesthetic. She loved the beautiful in nature and art. She also loved poetry, fine prose and eloquence of speech. She had a fine sense of humor and was a good story-teller. To the last she kept up with the topics of the day and maintained an undiminished interest in the church and all good causes. She had been somewhat feeble for several years but not prostrated, and up to within two days of her death she was up and about the house, and was mercifully permitted to pass away without a long spell of suffering. She died June 15, 1916, at her home in Decatur, Ill., and the funeral services were held on Sunday, June 18. While the chime of bells of the First Methodist church impressively and fittingly intoned the comforting strains of "Abide with me," the cortege slowly moved from the home of the departed to Grace Methodist church, of which she had been a member for many years, where the last services of loving regard and tribute were held. These services were in charge of Rev. R. F. McDaniel, pastor, assisted by Rev. J. W. Van Cleve, D. D., District Superintendent. The memoir, an eloquent recital of the eventful life that had closed and also a beautiful tribute, was read by Rev. E. M. Antrim, D. D., pastor of First church, Decatur. Words of tribute and praise were also spoken by Rev. Theodore Kemp, D. D., President of Illinois Wesleyan University, by former President Wm. H. Wilder, D. D., a close friend and a devoted disciple of Dr. Buck, and by Rev. W. A. Smith, D. D., of Bloomington, one of the older members of Illinois Conference and an old time friend of Dr. and Mrs. Buck. The pallbearers were: Hiram Buck Prentice and Salm Welty, representing the Trustees of the Illinois Wesleyan University; Rev. Joseph C. Nate and Rev. William S. Phillips, representing Illinois Conference; Henry B. Wise and Samuel A. Hess, representing Decatur Methodism. The body was laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery at Decatur by the side of her distinguished husband, with the usual ritualistic ceremony. Rev. Wm. H. Wilder, D. D., pronounced the benediction.

HIRAM BUCK PRENTICE.

MRS. A. C. ARMENTROUT.

Susan Phillips Wright was born in Adair County, Ky., on August 25, 1839. Soon afterward, her parents moved to Sangamon County, Ill., where most of her girlhood was spent. There she was married on October 3, 1858, to Rev. A. C. Armentrout, a rising young member of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and to them were born eight children, two of whom, Mrs. L. C. A. Cockill and Mrs. J. L. Cosner, with the husband and father, preceded her in death.

The remaining children are: Elmer, of Hannibal, Mo.; Gideon and Henry, of Perry, Ill.; Roy, of Chicago; and Mrs. D. R. Wade and Mrs. K. F. Skinner, of Griggsville, Ill. Mrs. Armentrout was converted in early childhood, and had remained an earnest Christian worker throughout her life. For forty-eight years she toiled beside her husband, for the advancement of the cause they both loved, and when she was left alone she remained faithful to the best interests of her church.

For several years she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. D. R. Wade, and, although in reasonably good health, had become almost totally blind. In the spring of 1916, she began to fail rapidly in health, due to her grief over the illness of her eldest son, Elmer, who had suffered a severe stroke of paralysis. Following this, her eyesight failed entirely, and her sufferings during the last few weeks were intense.

At the home of her daughter, Mrs. K. F. Skinner, where every care was given her, to make her last days easier, she passed away on July 26, just ten years and nine days after the passing of her husband.

On July 28, private funeral services were held, conducted by Rev. T. L. Hancock, and, as the evening sun sank in the west, she was tenderly laid to rest beside the resting place of her life's companion, whom she had so longed to join.

T. O. BATEY.

T. O. Batey was born in the County of Durham, England, September 21, 1841, and died April 5, 1916, at Wilsall, Montana, whither he had gone for the restoration of his health. He had been in a state of decline for over a year, and failed rapidly since last December. He was a great sufferer from bronchial trouble, contracted several years ago, and complicated with a form of dropsy near the close of life, his suffering at times being intense. But, during his sickness, he talked freely with his family. He said the way was clear, all was right, and he was ready to go. At the last he fell asleep sweetly in Christ, and was buried amidst the vast plains and towering mountains of Montana, according to his expressed desire, to await the resurrection call.

Brother Batey was an itinerant in England in the Wesleyan Methodist church, from 1862 to 1867. He then came to the United States, and worked for two years in Pennsylvania. He next moved farther west, and labored in Indiana in the ministry of the United Brethren church. He came to our Illinois Conference in 1885. His itinerary was as follows: Tower Hill, Martinsville, Philo, Ridge Farm, Fairmount, St. Joseph, Rankin, Fisher, Chatham, Morrisonville, Grand View, Walnut Prairie, and Detroit; retired, 1907-16, and lived at Yankton, South Dakota. He has gone to rest and reward, so truly earned, for he wrought faithfully and well, leaving the legacy of a good name behind him, and is now up among the heroes, under a weight of glory. His companion and their children survive him.

MRS. JAMES H. BARGER.

Mrs. Eliza A. Barger, widow of Rev. James H. Barger, a deceased member of the Illinois Conference, died at her home in Clinton, Ill., November 5, 1915, having passed a few days beyond her eightieth year.

She was but a child when her father, Dr. William Reddick, one of the pioneer practicing physicians of Illinois, died, and she thereafter made her home with her maternal grandfather, Col. Andrew J. Wallace, of Midland City, Ill. Under his direction she received her education in the public schools and the Illinois Woman's College.

On September 8, 1853, Miss Reddick was united in marriage to Rev. James H. Barger, a young and rising minister of the Illinois Conference, the first graduate of the Illinois Wesleyan University. Together these two young people entered joyfully into their chosen work, but death soon cut short a promising career, and left a young widow with three small children to face the struggle alone. In the fall of 1861 Rev. Barger was appointed Presiding Elder of the Quincy District, and had just entered upon his work, when on October 31 he was accidentally killed by the discharge of a gun in the hands of an intimate friend.

When the young widow had recovered from the immediate shock of this tragedy, she returned with her children to Midland City, where she resided for a brief time, and then moved to Clinton, Ill., where she lived till her death. She was the mother of three children, J. William Barger, of Clinton, Ill.; Mrs. Mary Lee Twadell, and Mrs. Leonora Florence Moss, both of Chicago.

Mrs. Barger was a life-long Methodist, having united with the church when a child. She was a woman of deep consecration, and faithfully devoted to the work of the church. She possessed a remarkably beautiful Christian character, and her saintly life left its impress on all who knew her. Notwithstanding the withering blight that struck at her life so early, her faith in God brought her out "more than conqueror," and enabled her to live heroically, and to carry the beauty and charm of her noble life down to her death. To those who knew her best she never grew old. She lived nobly and died triumphantly.

The funeral services were held from the home and were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. D. Fairchild. She was buried in Woodlawn cemetery in Clinton, Ill.

MRS. E. S. BORTON.

Mrs. Alice Walden Borton was born in Rolla, Mo., August 8, 1869, and departed this life February 10, 1916, at Los Angeles, Cal.

She and her father, Rev. L. F. Walden, had just arrived on the coast for a few months' visit, when it was discovered that she had an attack of blood poisoning, which rapidly grew worse, despite the skill of the best physicians and surgeons.

Her untimely death came most suddenly and unexpectedly to the dear ones she had left at home, but a week before. It was like a clap of thunder out of a clear sky.

She had left home in her usual health, and in the best of spirits, happy in anticipation of a pleasant trip and a delightful time with her sisters and friends on the coast.

January 26, 1893, in the Newman parsonage, where her father was stationed at the time, she was united in marriage to Rev. Edson S. Borton, a member of the Illinois Conference.

For about twenty years, she faithfully and untiringly labored side by side with her husband in the itinerancy of the Methodist Episcopal church, being a most valuable assistant and counselor.

She was well qualified to be a pastor's "helpmeet" in all the activities of the church, especially as a Junior League superintendent.

She graduated in the School of Music in the Illinois Wesleyan University in 1887. She was a great lover of music, was a member of the Twin City Musical Club for a number of years, and was efficient in church music. She has been a life-long member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and she lived a true Christian life to the end.

She was truly a faithful wife and a good mother. She ever cherished high ideals of life, and strove to be of real service to others. Many can testify of her bright and cheerful spirit. While she has been a great sufferer for months at a time in bed, yet she endured patiently, and retained a happy and hopeful disposition, always looking forward to a brighter day. Those of her near relatives to survive her are her husband and her son, Cecil W. Borton; five sisers, named in her mother's memoir; also her aged father, the Rev. L. F. Walden, of Urbana, Ill.

Her life was as pure and sparkling as the morning dew. To her father she was "Sunshine"; in her home, a radiant light; to her sisters she was a "joy beam", shining by day and night. But now, since that light of life is gone, deep darkness and the pall of death have settled down. But through the gathering gloom a gleam of light from the heavenly world breaks through, revealing the glory of the immortal life into which she has entered, and where we shall meet and greet her in the morning of heaven's eternal day. The funeral services in the home, February 17th, were in charge of A. C. Piersel, with a sermon by W. A. Smith, followed by interment in Urbana cemetery.

MRS. MARY A. BURKS.

Mrs. Mary A. Burks passed to her coronation November 20, 1915, at Bement, Ill. She had been in poor health for three years, and while helpless for six months before her death she was confined to her bed just two weeks.

Mrs. Burks was born in Pennsylvania September 30, 1834. She came west with her parents and was united to J. A. Burks in the state of Indiana. After marriage she came to Fairmount, Ill., where they farmed for some time. When the war broke out Mr. Burks enlisted and Mrs. Burks finished raising the crop. At the age of fourteen she accepted Christ as her personal Savior and for more than three score years she lived an unselfish and highly useful Christian life. For twenty-three years she shared the labors, privations and exacting duties of a Methodist minister in active service. Together they had the pleasure of seeing over one thousand souls converted. In these years of devotion to the church she made for herself a large place in the lives of those whom she met. Her thoughtfulness for others was always manifest. It was not unusual to see her going on errands of mercy, visiting the lonely, the sick and the bereaved. Those who needed her most could always depend upon her. Her genial hospitality is remembered by many of the former charges. She was one who "went about doing good."

She is survived by an adopted son, C. A. Burks, of Decatur, Ill.

Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Church in Bement, Ill., Sunday, November 21, by the pastor, Wilbert Dowson. The body was taken to Fairmount, Ill., and buried by the side of that her husband in Mt. Vernon Cemetery.

MRS. J. H. DIMMITT.

Martha Dimmitt, daughter of Thomas and Mary Hull, was born near Kinderhook, Ill., January 24, 1834, and died March 24, 1916, in Concord, Ill., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rev. W. P. Bowman, aged 82 years. She was married to Rev. J. H. Dimmitt in 1856. They were in the effective ministry in the Illinois Conference thirteen years, and two years in the St. Louis Conference. From 1864 to 1870 Mr. Dimmitt took a supernumerary relation and retired to the old homestead near Griggsville and here they took care of his aged and afflicted father for seven years. In 1870 they moved to southwestern Missouri where they were located several years, and from there to Prescott, Ia., in 1887, and to Mt. Pleasant, Ia., in 1891. There Mr. Dimmitt died in 1893.

To them were born seven children, all of whom are still living, five of whom have been engaged in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church, as follows: Mrs. W. P. Bowman, of Concord, Ill.; Mrs. A. B. Hightshoe, of Hedrick, Ia.; the Rev. L. F. Dimmitt, of First church, Galesburg, Ill., and the Revs. J. L. and J. H. Dimmitt, of Los Angeles, the last having located in recent years. The other two sons are C. E. Dimmitt, of New York City, and T. H. Dimmitt, of Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Dimmitt was converted when eight years of age and united with the church and maintained a rich Christian experience through her long and useful life. The last fifteen years of her life she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Bowman. Thus she lived thirty years in Methodist parsonages and had opportunity to know the hardships of the itinerant ministry. She was a great reader and kept in touch with the work and progress of the church. She was in failing health for several years, yet patient, strong in faith, and her hope bright. She said to her daughter just before her death, "My hope is in God through Jesus Christ. Do not grieve for me but rejoice."

Her funeral was conducted by Dr. F. A. McCarty in the Griggsville M. E. church and her body was laid to rest beside that of her husband in the Bethel cemetery.

MRS. J. P. DIMMITT.

October 14, 1829—April 6, 1916.

"A lamp lit from heaven is in woman's eye,
That souls lost on earth remember angels by."

In no class of women is this more clearly seen than in the women of Methodist parsonages. Of these Mrs. Louisa Rush Dimmitt was an illustrious example.

From early childhood she manifested the traits of the noble strains in her ancestors both of the flesh and of the spirit. She was in the line of direct descent from Judge Thomas White through his daughter Priscilla, who was the mother of White Brown. Judge White was of incalculable value to the beginnings of Methodism in this country. It was he who gave shelter and a home to Asbury for two years during the stormy period of the Revolution. He and White Brown, his grandson, were converts of Asbury, and most influential as pioneer Methodists in Maryland, Delaware, the latter also in Ohio. White Brown was a lieutenant of a company of Minute Men and served the cause of the Colonists as faithfully as afterward he did the cause of Christ as a leading pioneer of Methodism. Not only Asbury, but Bishops Whatcoat, McKendree, and George, and many of the great men who were co-laborers, and of whom the world was not worthy, shared the hospitality of his home and preached the Gospel in his cabin. The type, both of citizen and Christian manifest in these people has reappeared in every generation to this day and in the subject of this sketch.

Mrs. Dimmitt was the daughter of John Wesley Rush and Sarah Canly Brown. Westward from the Scioto Valley, Ohio, to Indiana, then later to Illinois; her parents settled near Perry, Pike County, in 1840. Here she grew to womanhood. Methodism had anticipated the public school system by establishing here and there Seminaries. By an excellent home training and the aid of the Seminary at Barry, whose president was Rev. Asa McCoy, she became well equipped for the wife of an itinerant preacher.

In 1853 she was united in marriage to Rev. James P. Dimmitt, D. D., of blessed memory, with whom she shared the experiences of the early itinerants. Whether on the big circuit, the still more difficult small station, the city pastorate, or on the district, Mrs. Dimmitt adjusted herself to the conditions as admirably as did her versatile husband, who more than once passed from the best city station to a hard country circuit with perfect grace and efficiency and then back again to city work with the same astonishing adaptation.

After the death of her husband in 1895, she still maintained the faith as becomes the noblest of all the sisterhoods of women, surrounded by her children and grandchildren at Jacksonville, Ill., the scene of so many of their great victories. Near here, where lies the dust of her husband in the Hebron cemetery, her body also was laid to wait the will of the Master.

Mrs. Dimmitt was quiet, modest but the blessedness of her influence on all with whom she came in touch was immeasurable in human terms. For many years, because of the infirmities of age, she was deprived of the services of the sanctuary. Failing eyesight made it impossible for her to read the Book, but her interest in the things of this world, especially in their relation to the church, never waned. She was better posted as to the organized present day activities of her church, up to the end of her pilgrimage, than the average member. She often astonished others with her knowledge of the details of fields and workers. After it was no longer possible to read, she would recite whole chapters of the Word to the edification and comfort of her friends. Her pastors sought and secured her inspiration for their best work, and happy were all concerned for such a "mother in Israel." The secret of her life was a simple, but firm faith in God, a Christly love for a world redeemed by Christ, and a perfect mental poise. Multitudes hold her name in precious memory.

The surviving members of her immediate family are George R. Dimmitt, of Brant, Canada; Miss Della Dimmitt and Mrs. Lucy D. Kolp, of Jacksonville, and Miss Lillian Dimmitt, Professor in Morningside College, Sioux City, Iowa. There are seven grandchildren, four Swain and three Kolp children. In the serenity of faith, and the fulness of hope and joy, she quietly passed on to the greater company of friends, April 6, 1916.

W. H. WILDER.

M. W. EVERHART.

Marion Washington Everhart was born June 28, 1842, in Salem Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, and departed this life in Urbana, Ill., June 16, 1916. His father, Thomas M. Everhart, was a sturdy farmer. He was a Godly and devout man, so thoroughly respected among his neighbors that he was frequently called on to adjust disputes and misunderstandings among them and more frequently still to pray with the sick and dying. The Everhart home was a headquarters for all itinerant ministers and presiding elders.

Marion Washington was one of the younger children of a large family. He received his education in the schools of Newcomerstown and Port Washington, Ohio.

On June 28, 1863, Brother Everhart married Sarah Isabel Wiandt, who survives him. Six children came to bless the home: Thomas Ward Beecher, Philip Embury, Lois Viola, Rollin Orlando, Franklin Derondo, and Leon Ulysses, all of whom survive, with the exception of Philip Embury, who died in infancy. There are four grandchildren.

Three years ago, at the family home in Urbana, Rev. and Mrs. Everhart celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary, the ceremony being resaid for them by Rev. F. B. Madden, a beloved son in the Gospel. The golden wedding dinner was served on the tablecloth which was used at the wedding a half century before.

Brother Everhart joined the Illinois Conference in the fall of 1864 and his long and distinguished ministry was spent entirely within the bounds of this Conference. He was ordained Deacon at Bloomington in 1866 by Bishop Ames, and Elder at Quincy, in 1868, by Bishop Janes. His appointments were: Windsor, Sullivan, Friends Creek, Cerro Gordo, Paxton, Tuscola, Farmer City, Hillsboro, Griggsville, Monticello, Beardstown, White Hall, Mattoon, Champaign, Champaign District, Lincoln, West Jacksonville District, Pana, Clinton, Carlville, and Gibson City.

While pastor at Gibson City Brother Everhart's health broke, and he was compelled to retire from active service. For years he has been a sufferer. An attack of pneumonia last January left his heart weakened, the outcome being the sickness resulting in his death.

Brother Everhart was known as one of the strongest preachers of the Illinois Conference and one of its most competent administrators. He was once chosen by his brethren as a delegate to the General Conference of the church and was honored by them in many other ways.

"They also serve who only stand and wait," wrote Milton. The days of physical disability for Brother Everhart were not fruitless days but days of real service even in the waiting. It was a benediction to go into his home. With a growing soul and broad, sympathetic heart he gave faith and courage to all who touched him. He was not a victim of the fateful years but a conqueror, for his spirit ripened for its flitting even in the midst of his sufferings. Richard Watson Gilder, out of a triumphant faith, said: "Call me not dead when I have gone into the company of the ever-living." Marion Washington Everhart is not dead, but with like triumphant faith has gone into "the company of the ever-living."

MRS. O. B. HESS.

Grace Beatrice Eckard was born at Topeka, Ill., April 19, 1881, and was called to her Heavenly home March 30, 1916, at Wesley hospital, Chicago, Ill. For twenty-three years her life was spent in the town of her birth, and here, during the pastorate of Rev. O. B. Hess, she was converted and was baptized and received into the church by him. Attracted by her gifts and graces he won her love and was married to her, at the home of her parents, September 14, 1905. For eleven years she was the inspiration of his life, and his counselor in all his work.

She was possessed of that rare personality that won her many friends and admirers. She had strength of character and always looked on the brighter side of life.

She was a devoted supporter of her husband in everything that he undertook, was a splendid musician, and was his assistant in the leadership of the music during his revival work.

Rev. Hess and wife came to the Villa Grove pastorate last September, Mrs. Hess seemingly in perfect health. Their pastoral work began under auspicious conditions and during the few months of her work there she became closely identified with every department of the church activities, and her influence was a great inspiration to all.

During the revival work in January Mrs. Hess' health began to fail, but she assisted in the work to the close of the meeting. Then she went to Chicago, where, in Wesley hospital, she underwent an operation for the removal of a fibroid tumor. She passed through the operation successfully and improved rapidly, and in a few weeks returned to her home, anxious to be restored to health and again take up the work with her husband. But Mrs. Hess' work begun there was to be soon finished. Complications set in, and in the same hospital a cranial operation was performed. Her suffering was intense. The best physicians could not save her life. Mrs. Hess realized that she could not recover, and, after calling her husband to her bedside and giving him her last messages of love, she gently said "It is God's way—Bennie, good bye," and her pure spirit was wafted to God.

The body was brought to Villa Grove and conveyed to the parsonage home, where it remained three days. Then the funeral was held in the Methodist Episcopal church, the services being conducted by Rev. W. N. Tobie, District Superintendent, assisted by Rev. George Scrimger, Rev. J. C. Enninger, and a number of ministers of Villa Grove, who paid beautiful tributes to her life and character.

Many of the fine floral offerings came from friends and churches where they had ministered, and were symbolic of her charming influence. She has been transplanted into the garden of God.

"There like an Eden blossoming in gladness, Bloom the fair flowers the earth too rudely pressed."

The remains were taken to Havana, Ill., where interment was made in Laurel Hill cemetery.

MRS. JAMES MILLER.

Mrs. James Miller, widow of Rev. James Miller, passed to another realm May 21, 1916, in Decatur, Ill. Her husband was a prominent member of the Illinois Annual Conference for twenty-seven years, serving a number of important churches, among which was the First church, of Decatur, where his pastorate covered a period of five years, beginning in the fall of 1888, and whose death occurred in that city twenty years ago.

Mrs. Miller was born in Scarborough, England, December 21, 1841. She was the mother of six children, only two of whom survive her, George Miller, of Chicago, and Dr. John Miller, of Decatur.

Funeral services were held in Decatur, May 23, at the home of Mrs. Lunn, where Mrs. Miller had made her home for the past four years, and interment was made in Greenwood cemetery, Rev. H. C. Gibbs officiating.

MELVIN STONER McCOY.

Melvin Stoner McCoy died at his home in Mt. Sterling, Ill., February 24, 1916. He had been in failing health for several years, but the final illness was of about three weeks' duration. He was a native of Brown County, Ill., being born near Hersman, January 9, 1855, the youngest of the eight children of John W. and Sarah E. McCoy. His early life was spent on a farm near Versailles, where he was converted February 12, 1872. At the age of 17 he began teaching school, which he followed for about nine years, teaching during the winter and working on the farm in the summer. Some time was spent in this period at Northwestern University.

In 1881, feeling the call to the ministry, he was received into the Illinois Conference and appointed to Time Circuit. The next two years he served at South Jacksonville and New Hartford, and then in 1884 transferred to Northwest Kansas Conference on account of a throat affliction. Here his appointments were Portis, Osborne, Jewel City, and Wakeeny. After five years he returned to Illinois Conference, in which his ministerial record is as follows: Deland; Monticello; Bement; Trinity; Quincy; Virden; Mechanicsburg; Mt. Sterling, and Bowen. At the Conference Session of 1901 he felt compelled to ask for the Superannuate relation because of the continued illness of his wife.

For a short time he was owner and publisher of the Bowen Chronicle. In 1902 he purchased the Brown County Republican and removed with his family to Mt. Sterling. Ten years later he sold his interest in this paper, the name of which had been changed to The Mt. Sterling Mail. He and his son, Melvin, then engaged in the business known as McCoy's Variety store. This venture, not proving financially profitable, was disposed of in a few years, and, just before his death, he again became the owner of The Mt. Sterling Mail. For a year or more in company with others he was the publisher of the Illinois Methodist.

During the ten years of his newspaper work Brother McCoy wielded an influence for righteousness and truth which can not be measured. At considerable loss in the advertising department he made The Republican the outspoken organ of the anti-saloon party in the long fight which finally put Mt. Sterling and Brown County in the dry column. It is not too much, but only justice, to say that through his personal influence and his paper he was the leader in this winning battle. Also it should be said that he was the efficient helper and loyal friend of every pastor who served the Mt. Sterling church. Never seeking prominence or place he was always ready to help when called upon. To the duties and cares of his ministerial and editorial life there was the added burden of the home, where an invalid wife was confined to her bed for the most of the time during the last sixteen years. None but members of that household can know how tenderly and faithfully the husband and father fulfilled his vows and obligations. Uncomplainingly, manfully, this Christian hero kept to his appointed tasks, standing "foursquare to every wind that blows," until the Master said, "It is enough; come up higher."

Besides the wife to whom he was so devoted his family consisted of two sons, Ralph O. and Melvin W., and a daughter, Mrs. May Witty. There are also three grandchildren, Sybil and Esther Campbell, and Ralph Edward McCoy; one brother, Barlow A., of Versailles, and two sisters, Mrs. Clarinda McGaugh, of Oklahoma, and Mrs. Elizabeth Honefenger, of Taylorville.

Funeral services were held February 26, 1916, in the Baptist church, the Methodist church being torn down to make way for the new building. Rev. A. S. Flanigan, Superintendent of the Quincy District, had charge, and was assisted by P. R. Powers, pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. W. H. McGhee, Rev. T. L. Hancock, Rev. Fred Reed, and Dr. D. W. Owen, of the Baptist church, a lifelong friend. The remains were laid to rest in the City cemetery of Mt. Sterling.

MRS. M. S. M'COY.

N. Isabel Hill was born in Raleigh, North Carolina, May 20, 1856, and died May 31, 1916, at Mt. Sterling, Ill. She came with her parents to Illinois when she was but ten years of age, and with the exception of a few years spent in Adams County, and with her husband in the work of the ministry, has lived in Brown County, Ill., the remainder of her life.

She was led to Christ early in life, and was happily converted and united with the church, with a firm purpose to live an earnest, useful life, which purpose was carried out to the fullest extent to the close. She was united in marriage to Rev. Melvin S. M'Coy in Mt. Sterling, October 7, 1880. To this union five children were born, two boys dying in infancy, and two sons,

Ralph and Melvin M'Coy, and one daughter, Mrs. Mary Witty, still living. Mrs. M'Coy was an invalid for nearly twenty-five years, and, while her suffering was often great, she maintained a sweet Christian spirit to the last. Her husband preceded her to the better land only three months before her departure, after which her constant desire was to depart and be with him and her Lord. The influence of her beautiful life of service and sacrifice will cheer many pilgrims along life's pathway through the years to come.

MRS. G. R. S. McELFRESH.

Elvira Morgan McElfresh, the youngest and last surviving child of John and Cassandra Morgan, was born in Pickaway County, Ohio, January 31, 1835. She attended schools in Worthington and Hillsborough, Ohio, and was a graduate of Xenia College, Xenia, Ohio. Soon after her graduation she moved to Monticello, Ill., where she conducted a private school for young ladies.

On June 29, 1859, she was married to Rev. Greenberry R. S. McElfresh, who died December 12, 1903.

There were four children. The oldest, John Wesley, died in infancy. The youngest, Fred Morgan, died in September, 1906. The surviving children are Mrs. Mary Crain, of Urbana, and William Edward, of Williamstown, Mass. The grandchildren are John Allan Crain, of Urbana, Chester McElfresh Crain, studying at Harvard University, and Frances Adams McElfresh, of Williamstown, Mass. There are two nieces now living at Monticello, Ill., Mrs. Wilbur F. Stevenson and Mrs. Thomas Baker.

Her husband served many of the leading pastorates of the Illinois Conference. His last active service was as Presiding Elder of the Quincy District. He retired from the active ministry in 1882 and removed to Jacksonville where he resided until his death.

In the spring of 1904 Mrs. McElfresh came to Urbana, and had made her home there ever since with the exception of one year spent with her younger son in Oregon, and several summers passed with her older son in Massachusetts.

Mrs. McElfresh united with the church in early life, and her education was planned with a view to work in the foreign field, but inability to pass the required physical tests prevented her from carrying these plans into execution.

Hers was a beautiful life. With an abiding hope for the future, and a deep sense of the service of the past, she always lived in the present, even down to the very last, with her family and friends and her God, and living for them. Hers was a thankful heart. Therefore it was so fitting that the service of farewell for her in her home should be on Thanksgiving Day (1915).

DR. CHARLES W. C. MUNSELL.

Charles Welton Casset Munsell was born September 5, 1822, at Nevil, O., and died at Eldorado, Kans., October 24, 1915. When nine years of age he moved with his parents to Paris, Ill., where his early life was spent. He early developed excellent business ability and assisted his father with his stores. Having been converted early in life he felt himself, as a young man, called to the work of the ministry and turned away from his business career and entered Indiana Asbury, now DePauw University. Having finished his education at the university, with much credit to himself, he married Miss Martha Wheeler in Greencastle, Ind., August 26, 1846. He was received into the Illinois Conference in September, 1846. For ten years he faithfully performed the work of itinerant preacher with excellent success. During this time he had some gracious revivals which he ever delighted to recall. In 1856 he accepted the invitation to move to Bloomington, Ill., and become financial agent for Illinois Wesleyan University. For twenty years he devoted himself untiringly to the cause of the university along with his distinguished brother, Oliver Munsell, who was then president of Illinois Wesleyan. He performed most heroic and sacrificial service. And this he did for twenty years, traveling up and down Illinois, arousing the preachers, awakening the laity, and raising multiplied thousands of dollars, in those early days, without one penny of salary, paying his own expenses for postage and traveling and giving besides many thousands of dollars out of his own savings. There are few institutions in the land that can show examples of such devotion and sacrifice on the part of their founders and benefactors. No more conspicuous and self-sacrificing service has ever been rendered Illinois Wesleyan than that rendered by this notable man. Without his wonderful labors and sacrifices the institution would long ago have perished. At the close of this period he was appointed presiding elder of the Bloomington District, then served for four years, which was then the limit for that office. At the end of this term he moved with his family to Eldorado, Kans., where he made his home until the day of his death. Seventeen years before, his faithful companion all the years passed to the better land. The shock of her death put his life in peril for several months. But by reason of his own efforts and the loving, faithful care of his children he was able to survive these many years, until God called him home. He was modest and retiring to a remarkable degree, but his spotless Christian character impressed all who came in contact with him. He was a saintly man whose life radiated the gentleness and beauty of the Christian life. He was a great student, and, even up till a few weeks before his death, delighted in all the movements of the day and kept posted on affairs of interest throughout the world. He read his Bible through scores of times, and even up to the last kept his Greek Testament by his side. He was greatly beloved and was held in affectionate and tender regard by the people of Bloomington, where he so arduously labored, and by the citizens of Eldorado, Kans., where he so long made his home. He was the soul of honor, and a prince among men. He sent this last message to the church, "Tell all the folks of the church over there I love them." He was the father of six children, two of whom survive: Mrs. Clara F. Fullenwider, of Eldorado, who through her entire life has been separated from her father but nine years; and Mrs. W. S. Bullard, of Mechanicsburg, Ill. He was buried at Bloomington, Ill.

MRS. DR. T. A. PARKER.

Cleora E. Parker, wife of the Rev. Thos. A. Parker, D. D., was born in Paris, Ill., June 13, 1843, and departed this life May 24, 1915, in Danville, Ill., in the Soldiers' Home, where her husband was acting as Chaplain. She was the daughter of James B. Crawford and Mary Jane Shaw, for many years highly respected citizens of Paris. After the decease of her father, her mother and family removed to Topeka, Kans., where she was united in marriage to Rev. Thos. A. Parker, then Pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, and Chaplain of the 12th Kansas Regiment. At the close of the war they moved to the state of Missouri, where they were engaged in educational work for some years. At the close of this work they were transferred to the Illinois Conference and here they served a distinguished line of churches.

Mrs. Parker was a faithful minister's wife, and in every charge there are those that rise up and call her blessed. Four children were born to them, and they give their loving tribute to the memory of their mother. It is no less than true to say of the departed wife and mother that none knew her but to love her, and none named her but to praise.

She was possessed of many fine qualities and gifts; one of the outstanding ones was her fine, rich voice; her singing has brought both cheer and consolation to thousands, and in every place she was heard with pleasure. For many years, though an invalid, she still pursued her duties as wife, mother and exemplar of her household, steadfastly. She has gone to the home which God the Father has reserved for them that love and serve Him, and there among the redeemed her voice will join in singing the "New song". She will be welcomed by a vast throng of friends, and God will say to her: "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." It brings great comfort to the hearts of her husband and children to know that she has exchanged this life with its sufferings for the life to come, where there shall be no more pain, and where the eyes of the spiritual body shall never be darkened.

"On earth the broken arcs, in heaven a perfect round."

ROBERT STEPHENS.

In a little town of Cornwall, England, on June 14, 1850, there was born into this world a child whose life and works place that town, known as Parr, far above par. The child was christened Robert Stephens, whose name has become a household word in a thousand families and is honored throughout the Methodism of the United States and dearly beloved by many thousands who have come under the influence of his personality. The humble station of his parents forced young Robert into service at the tender age of nine years. The English shipyard furnished the environment of his years of youthful toil. From this environment, he often drew illustrations in his forceful and unique preaching of the Gospel.

The conditions of toil, however, did not satisfy the aspirations of his soul; so, at the age of twenty-one years, he came to the United States and found employment at Clinton, Ill., with the Illinois Central Railroad Company.

God found Robert Stephens in the employ of the railroad as a section man, but filled with a holy delight, for he had the consciousness that God was his friend, and was calling him to preach the everlasting Gospel.

It was in September, 1873, that the undersigned first came to know Robert Stephens. Perhaps few members of the Illinois Conference knew him more intimately, believed in him more profoundly or loved him more sincerely and constantly to the end.

Robert Stephens never mistrusted God. He met in the true friend's fashion the responsibility God placed upon him. Therefore, God trusted him and he was faithful to his trust.

It required no little faith, a faith based on very intimate relations with God, to undertake the Gospel ministry with no better scholastic preparation than young Stephens had.

The showing he made during the four years in the Conference course of study and examination was most creditable, and his evangelistic spirit and tireless energy soon gave him a secure standing as a workman who need not to be ashamed.

He was uniformly successful in his pastorates. He won souls; he everywhere heartened believers, led workers and displayed not only loyalty, but the rare quality of common sense in his dealings with men and the affairs of the church. From 1893 until 1907 he held the responsible and trying office of presiding elder in the Illinois Annual Conference. In this office he displayed much more than the average ability, both in the field and cabinet, as he always did in other positions where he was counselor in the church. In 1907 he was selected to represent the Illinois Conference and lead it in securing an adequate endowment fund for the Preachers' Aid Society. That society had just been reorganized; the General Conference had established in the organic law of the church its fundamental principle that the minister is entitled to an adequate support while "effective," and no less so after he has been superannuated. He threw himself into the work with that abandon of faith that always characterized him. It was a Herculean task.

No man ever labored more assiduously, bravely or successfully. For he achieved great victories and has largely made it possible for the commission to complete the work in a reasonably short time, and secure the balance of $500,000, which was his battle cry from 1907 till the day of his death.

Because of the love his brethren bore him, he was elected three times to represent the Illinois Annual Conference in the law-making body of the church. He was not elected this last time, but on the first day of May, 1916, he answered "present", not at Saratoga Springs, but in the assembling of the first-born in heaven. He was also a member of the General Conference Commission on Evangelism for one quadrennium, and for two quadrenniums was a member of the General Committees.

He was united in marriage with Miss Mary E. Smith, of Danville, Ill., in 1873, the year in which he united with the Conference. To this union there were born five sons.

Robert Stephens was taken ill something more than one year before he passed away. He struggled bravely to live, if it were God's will that he should get well, but he was ready to go when the summons came. On the evening of the first day of May, 1916, he peacefully but quietly slipped away, to be closer to God.

WILLIAM H. WILDER.

MRS. E. S. VORBECK.

After an illness of one year Mrs. E. S. Vorbeck, wife of the pastor of the Franklin Methodist Episcopal church, died at the parsonage, April 24, 1916, the day following Easter. Mrs. Vorbeck, whose maiden name was Louie Thomas, was born near Richmond, Ind., August 19, 1881. She was reared in Kansas and in Oklahoma, receiving her education in those states, and graduating from the A. & M. College at Stillwater, Okla. For five years she was employed in the office of the Secretary of the Territory of Oklahoma.

On May 23, 1906, she was married to Rev. Edward S. Vorbeck at Cleveland, Oklahoma, and their first residence was Hannibal, Mo., where her husband was pastor of the Hope Street M. E. church. Afterward they became in turn residents of Georgetown and Potomac, in this state, and in the fall of 1914 they came to Franklin, where she soon made many warm friends who mourn her departure. Possibly no woman has resided among us so short a time and made more friends than did Mrs. Vorbeck. Her public service in early womanhood and a trip to Europe following her marriage, with a natural business instinct and intellectual ability, gave her a breadth and depth of character possessed by few individuals. She was one who felt and thought deeply and who took a firm stand for her convictions of right. Her interest in the sick and suffering, her entire forgetfulness of self, the fortitude with which she bore her pain, the smile with which she greeted every visitor, her resignation and calm preparation for the final summons, all spoke far more eloquently than any words could do of her high character and Christian womanliness. While we part with her with much regret we are confident that a rich reward awaited her in that other land, the portal of entry to which is the gate of death.

MRS. L. F. WALDEN.

Catherine Coffman, second daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Coffman, was born April 7, 1835, at Lynchburg, Va. When she was a small child her father's family moved to Hannibal, Mo., where she grew to womanhood. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church in 1852, of which she remained a faithful member till death.

Public schools in that day being far from strong, her education was gained in a private academy. In 1853 she was joined in marriage to L. F. Walden, who entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church in 1858. For forty-two years in the itinerant ministry she was ever the faithful helper of her husband, sharing his trials and his triumphs. Mrs. Walden was particularly interested in Foreign Missions, and she gave of her means for the education of a native of Murat, India, who subsequently took the name of her husband, and is now preaching the good news of the Kingdom in India in the name of Jesus. Her first twelve years as a preacher's wife were spent in Missouri and Kansas in pioneer days.

Mrs. Walden was a model wife and mother. Her house was a home, so that her family found their chief delight and joy therein, while her guests always received a warm welcome.

Her noble and beautiful life was overclouded for the past ten years by the affliction which came upon her, precipitated by a fall which broke both her arms and caused other injury. But through all these years of affliction there broke beautiful scintillations of light. Through all these days of clouding affliction the basal heart impulses of a rich heart life were ever apparent. For every kindness done she continued her—"I thank you," with a face that showed its meaning. She was "perfected through suffering."

Besides her husband, five daughters survive her: Mrs. Maggie Sweet, of Urbana, Ill.; Mrs. Susie Easterbrook, of Saybrook, Ill.; Mrs. Anna VanVeler, of Jonesboro, Ind.; Mrs. Lucy Colison, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Jennie Bacon, of Pasadena, Calif.

Mrs. Walden lived and labored with her husband in a beautiful companionship. For sixty-two years midst earth's joys and sorrows these two have journeyed together, a woman of strong convictions, and always loyal to Christ and His church. Funeral services in the home, January 10, A. C. Piersel in charge, addresses by A. M. Daneley and W. A. Smith and interment in Urbana cemetery. She now rests from her labors, and her works do follow her.

E. A. WANLESS.

Rev. E. A. Wanless died in Danville, Ill., November 7, 1915. The funeral was held at the residence, conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. L. T. Ewert, assisted by Rev. W. H. Webster, Rev. S. H. Whitlock, Rev. W. N. Tobie, and Rev. M. N. English. The remains were taken to Hillsboro for burial.

Rev. Wanless was born in Canada April 8, 1837. At the age of nineteen he moved, first to Illinois, and then to Wisconsin. After working a few years as a miller, he felt a call to go as a missionary. In order to do this, he realized the necessity of an education. Poor, and without much preliminary educational advantages, he nevertheless resolved to begin. When twenty-four, he took his first lesson in English grammar. On April 15, 1863, he entered the preparatory school of Beloit College. After he graduated there, he entered the college and received his degree in 1868. During all these years he had to work in order to pay his way, and contracted a debt which he soon discharged. After this was accomplished he presented himself to the Conference for admission on trial. He had been a local preacher during his college life.

At the session of the Wisconsin Conference held at Beaverdam, he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Simpson, October 6, 1867, and, May 14, 1868, at the seat of the General Conference in Chicago, he was ordained Elder under the missionary rule by the same Bishop. This was done that he might go as a missionary to Bulgaria. He married Miss Sarah Kinsman May 12, 1868, who was also a graduate of Beloit College.

In June of the same year he and his wife started for Bulgaria. Here they labored happily together, when, on March 18, three years later, his wife died, leaving him with a babe only a few weeks old. In October he started for home with the little one, reaching Wisconsin in December. Here he resumed his ministerial work. In 1872, he received his Master of Arts degree from Beloit.

In the Wisconsin Conference he served the following charges: Wauwatosa, Port Washington, Waterloo, Watertown, Elo, Dartford, Rosendale, Sheboygan Falls, and Shawno. He transferred to the Illinois Conference in 1887, where he served these charges: Mansfield, Astoria, Raymond, Roodhouse, Danville, Grace Church, Blue Mound, San Jose, McLean, Bismarck, and Villa Grove.

Rev. Wanless was married, the second time, to Miss Sarah M. Earl, who proved a most devoted wife. She co-operated with her husband in every good work. In his last days she was a ministering angel to his every need. His daughter married Dr. C. A. Clotfelter, of Hillsboro, Ill.

Rev. Wanless was a faithful minister of the Word. His life was a constant witness for Christ in word and life. *

BENJAMIN DIAMOND WILEY.

The Rev. Benjamin Diamond Wiley was born in Queen Anne's County, Maryland, July 19, 1850, and departed this life at the Methodist parsonage at Ogden, Ill., on April 16, 1916. At an early age he came to Illinois with his parents. The family settled near Shipman, Macoupin County, in which locality the lad grew to manhood. He was converted at eight years of age and united with the Methodist church, even his boyhood being characterized by activity and earnestness in his Christian profession. In 1873, at the age of twenty-three, he was licensed as a local preacher by the Quarterly Conference of the Shipman charge, Southern Illinois Conference. In the fall of that year he entered Northwestern University at Evanston, continuing in the university until his graduation in 1887. During the period his church and Quarterly Conference relation as local preacher were transferred to Evanston.

On August 29, 1877, at Litchfield, Ill., he was united in marriage with Miss Josephine Carson, who survives him. During the ensuing five years he was principal of schools successively at Rockbridge, Ill., where he was active in organizing our Methodist Society, at Medora, Ill., and at Buffalo, Ill. It was while at Buffalo that Brother and Sister Wiley determined to give themselves thenceforth entirely to the service of the Kingdom. The Rev. W. S. Calhoun was then pastor at Buffalo. The Rev. W. S. Prentice, as presiding elder, was the leader of the old Mechanicsburg camp meeting, near Buffalo. It was under the influence of these men and their colleagues, and by a Quarterly Conference held during the camp meeting, in August, 1882, that Brother Wiley was recommended for admission to the Illinois Conference. He was received into membership in the latter at Lincoln, Ill., September 26, 1882, Bishop Henry White Warren presiding.

These thirty-four past years of faithful and successful ministry ensued. The successive pastorates were: Edinburg, Rochester, Pawnee, Danville Circuit, St. Joseph, Gifford, Seymour, Potomac, Bellflower, Stonington, Harris-town, Bethany, Warrensburg, Charleston Circuit, Jacksonville Circuit, Pleasant Plains, LaPlace, Arrowsmith, Elkhart, and Ogden. A perhaps unusual present-day feature of this ministry is the fact that it was all and always upon circuits. Three times upon each returning Sabbath day for thirty-four continuous years this devoted servant of God has preached the unsearchable riches of the Gospel of his Lord. There has been but little of intermission, or vacation. It has included the experiences common to our ministry. And, gloriously, it claimed the final, enduring victory.

The life and ministry of Brother Wiley were fittingly crowned in the manner of his leaving us. He had entered upon his new work, after Conference last fall, with an optimism and high purpose which were characteristic of him. All unexpectedly about New Year's time there developed a condition of illness which finally proved to be an internal cancer. Despite increasing discomfort amounting at times to great suffering, he went about his daily tasks, preaching three times during the last Sunday of his active work. Even during the lingering, weakening days which followed he was always hoping and planning new things for his work as pastor. Toward the end spells of delirium came, and in these he was constantly going over the work of a Methodist preacher, planning the affairs of his charge and especially his Easter service and sermon, as he thought, near at hand. It was the evening of Palm Sunday, April 16, that he fell asleep. Dear, faithful "Ben" Wiley, as comrades of his years in the Conference knew him, went on to spend Easter Sunday with his risen Lord.

Brother Wiley is survived, besides his wife, by their sons, Raymond S. Wiley, Los Angeles, Calif.; Carroll C. Wiley, of Champaign, and by their daughter, Neva B. Wiley, of Barry, Ill. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Episcopal church at Ogden, April 18, by J. C. Nate, District Superintendent, assisted by J. P. Edgar, J. L. Settles, M. P. Wilkin, W. A. Boyd, Leo Howard, and S. H. Whitlock. Many other ministers of the District and Conference were present, as well as representatives from former pastorates. Local places of business were closed and the church was crowded by the people of the community who came to pay this last token of love and respect. The interment was at beautiful Rose Lawn cemetery at Champaign.

"Life's race well run;
Life's work well done;
Life's crown well won."

PRESTON WOOD.

Preston Wood, Superintendent of the Springfield District, Illinois Conference, and delegate to the General Conference, died on Saturday, March 18, in St. John's Hospital, Springfield, following an operation for relief from appendicitis. He was taken suddenly ill on Thursday morning and was operated on that night. He seemed, at first, to be resting well and gave promise of rapid recovery, but complications set in which brought the end on Saturday night. The shock and sorrow of his many friends was too much for words. Brief and simple funeral services were held at the First Methodist church, in Springfield, March 20, conducted by the Springfield Methodist pastors, T. N. Ewing, A. B. Peck, A. S. Chapman, and J. D. Kruwell, after which the body was taken to Jacksonville, Ill., for burial.

In Jacksonville services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Bronson, parents of Mrs. Wood. F. A. McCarty, J. C. Nate, A. S. Flanigan, J. W. Van Cleve, B. F. Shipp, and T. N. Ewing took part in these services. Bishop McDowell was unable to be present at either of the services but sent a beautiful and comforting letter which was read by F. A. McCarty. Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery, W. N. Tobie and C. F. Buker officiating.

The outpouring of expressions of grief and keen appreciation of loss on the part of his many friends was a marvelous tribute to the sterling worth of Preston Wood. Ministers and laymen alike were "hurt in heart" beyond all measure by this strange providence. Now as never before we thank God for the comfort of the Christian faith.

Dr. Wood is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eliza Wood; two brothers, the Rev. Bert Wood, of Valley Falls, Kans., and Colonel William T. Wood, U. S. A., of Washington, D. C.; his mother, Mrs. Jayne K. Wood; and three sisters, Miss Katheryn Wood, of Jacksonville; Mrs. W. S. Phillips, of Cerro Gordo, and Mrs. James Galford, of Clear Lake, Ia. He was born in Lincoln, Ill., May 26, 1867. His father, the Rev. Preston Wood, Sr., was one of the best-known and best-beloved men in the Illinois Conference and helped to lay, broad and deep, the foundations of the Methodist Episcopal church in the state. The son was worthy, in every way, of the best traditions of his father's life. A large portion of his boyhood was spent in Springfield, Ill., his father being presiding elder of the Springfield District. He graduated from the Springfield high school with the class of '88, and afterward completed a course of study in the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, graduating with the class of '91.

Associated with Preston Wood in the Wesleyan, as fellow students and classmen, were the Rev. A. B. Peck, Secretary of the Conference, and the Rev. Walter Mitchell, who testify to the unusually high tone of his life while a student and his consistent and industrious application to his tasks.

His career in the Conference was one of steadily increasing usefulness and inspiration. There were no breaks in his ministry until he fell at his post. The steps of his itinerary are as follows: Received on trial, Topeka, 1892; Kenney, 1893; Maroa, 1894-96; Jacksonville, Brooklyn, 1897-9; Delavan, 1900-03; Taylorville, 1904-07; Danville, Kimber, 1908-13. In the Conference which met in Shelbyville, September, 1914, he was appointed by Bishop McDowell Superintendent of the Springfield District.

Preston Wood was married to Miss Eliza L. Bronson, September 12, 1900. The marriage ceremony was performed in Centenary church, Jacksonville, by his father, assisted by the pastor of the church. Mrs. Wood proved herself a most capable and sympathetic wife and mother. The one cloud over their home life was the death of their little daughter, Eliza, which occurred six years ago while their home was in Danville.

Preston Wood was ordained deacon by Bishop Bowman at the Conference Session in Champaign in 1894, and ordained elder by Bishop Andrews in Tuscola in 1896. His assignment to the Springfield District was an especially fitting and acceptable one. He had always devoted himself consistently to the pastorate and seemed without thought of any other phase of ministerial labor. But when once appointed to the superintendency he took to it as if he had been in it from the beginning. And his administration was abundant witness to his ability and fine spirit. He had an affection for the church which was intuitive, like the clinging of a child to a parent. But also like the child, full grown, he was a resolute and courageous defender of the parent faith. And his affection for the Illinois Conference, living as he did, in the light of those heroic days of old, made him in a very real way a "son of the Conference." He believed profoundly in Methodism as a whole and he believed therefore in every integral and vital part of Methodism. And since he knew his own Conference so much better than any other he loved accordingly.

He was a conservative in regard to all that was fundamental and the tone of his preaching was always without falter and yet he was progressive in methods, always ready to try any new plan which commended itself as a means of obtaining results.

He was a true and a genial friend. To love him it was only necessary to know him and this was not a difficult thing, for he was always giving of himself to others. And to love him was to miss him, at the last, in such a hard way that many a pastor and layman all over the Illinois Conference, when they knew he had fallen, felt as if the sword had pierced their own hearts. He was a princely Christian and the great comfort of this strange bereavement is the presence he brought when he preached—the One who is our hope and everlasting life.

RESOLUTIONS.

APPRECIATION, J. C. NATE.

Resolutions of appreciation of the work of the Rev. Joseph C. Nate, D. D., adopted by the joint Board of Education, and submitted to the Conference by its Committee on Education for its approval.

Whereas, The Central Illinois and the Illinois Conferences did five years ago enter upon a united campaign known as the Educational Forward Movement, and during this period have worked together in raising more than a million and a half of dollars for the institutions concerned, and have awakened an interest in educational matters such as neither Conference has heretofore known, and are today working in mutual helpfulness as never before; and

Whereas, Our most conspicuous leader during these five years, for two years as official Secretary and three years as a volunteer worker, has been the Rev. Joseph C. Nate, D. D., who for the whole period has served as Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Movement; therefore,

The Joint Board of Education, composed of all the members and advisory members of the respective Boards of Education of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences, desires to transmit to the respective Conferences for the approval of each, in its session of 1916, concluding the Forward Movement, this expression of appreciation of the services of the Chairman of this Movement, and of the tact, skill, enthusiasm, brotherliness, vision, and fairness he has shown in handling the complex situations that have arisen in leading this campaign to a successful completion. We express to him our heartiest thanks and pray that God will spare him to lead us in other great causes. We recommend to our successors that they find some way to avail themselves of Brother Nate's continued leadership in the unification of our various educational interests.

M. N. English, Chairman.

C. F. Juvinall, Secretary.

APPRECIATION, H. B. PRENTICE.

Be it resolved, That this Conference express its gratitude and appreciation to H. B. Prentice, the honorable son of the Rev. W. S. Prentice, who, for twenty-seven years, has given faithful and highly expert service as Treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society, for which he has never asked any remuneration whatever; and we request that his annual report to the Preachers' Aid Society be published in the Minutes of this Conference.

APPRECIATION, H. B. PRENTICE.

Whereas, For the past five years the Hon. Hiram Buck Prentice, L.L.D., has served the cause of education in the Illinois Conference as Treasurer of the Educational Forward Movement, rendering efficient and devoted service in that capacity;

Resolved, That the Conference extend to Dr. Prentice its deep appreciation of his work, and its gratitude that the spirit of his father, Rev. W. S. Prentice, and of the Rev. Hiram Buck, whose name he also bears, is so worthily perpetuated in the son and namesake.

ARCHIVES.

Whereas, The Archives of the Illinois Annual Conference, containing papers and records of great value, are in danger of fire; and,

Whereas, Free space can be obtained for such records in the Capitol Building in the rooms of the Historical Society of Illinois, providing a steel cabinet-safe is furnished by the Conference; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Conference be and are hereby instructed and directed to purchase such safe, and that the custodian of the Historical Society be directed to see that the Archives are placed therein as soon as practicable.

COURTESIES.

The present session of the Illinois Conference is the tenth held in Springfield, Illinois. For two consecutive sessions Springfield, Methodism has been the generous host of the Conference. The most courteous resolutions would not fully express the pleasure and satisfaction of the ministers, laymen, and their wives at the delightful hospitality of the Methodists of the State's Capital.

A long list of the most illustrious men of Methodism have presided over the Illinois Conference, from Bishop Robert R. Roberts, October 23d, 1824, down to the present hour, ninety-three in all, of whom all but five "have been gathered to their people." Their lives and words have blessed and inspired thousands of men who have labored in the Illinois Conference. Last but not least among our Conference presidents, the administration of Bishop Luther B. Wilson will be held in pleasant memory for its dignity, brotherliness, and wise counsels. It is the hope of every one of us, that we may again at some future time have this honored Bishop and brother-hearted man to preside over us.

The presence of Bishops Hamilton, Oldham, and Nicholson, at this Conference session, have multiplied our benefits and increased our esteem for these noble men, with the last of whom we hope to bear acquaintance.

The reception given the Conference by his Excellency, Gov. Edward F. Dunne, at the Executive Mansion, was an unusual pleasure and an honor to the Conference. The fine courtesy of Gov. Dunne and his family to the Bishop, the Cabinet, and the Conference has won the admiration of us all.

The fraternal good will of the other Christian Churches of Springfield in opening their churches for our use, and the offering of their pulpits to our ministers, merits and receives our hearty appreciation.

The strong and manly gospel messages of Dr. H. V. Holt have helped and strengthened our faith, quickened our zeal, and have endeared Dr. Holt to us as a worthy comrade in the Church Militant.

The Conference and community thank Adjutant General Dickson for the use of the Arsenal, and the splendid music of the First Regiment Band.

For many accommodations, we are indebted to the First National Bank, of Springfield.

The Striffler Ice Co. has added to our comfort by the use of their commodious drinking fountains.

The press has given ample space, and fair and just treatment in all of their accounts of the business of the Conference.

The visit of the Conference to the historic spot where lies the dust of Rev. Peter Cartwright was made the occasion of many courtesies and accommodations by the citizens of Pleasant Plains.

We are grateful for the Christian fellowship of God's people during our session, for the kindly Providence that has guarded the lives of Conference members and visitors, so that no accident nor illness has befallen any. We trust that this happy and blessed spirit shall abide here and everywhere throughout the Conference this year.

GIFT TO CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

Resolved, That the members of this Conference tender their sincere thanks to the children of the late and lamented Dr. Horace Reed and wife for their generous contribution, through Dr. W. H. Webster, of $300 for the support of our worthy Conference Claimants.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

In view of the fact that, by the adoption of the Report of the Commission on Conference Claimants, every member of the Illinois Conference becomes a sharer in the benefits that shall accrue from all funds secured, ultimately including the funds and endowments of the Preachers' Aid Society; and, until a large productive endowment has been secured, the funds available for annual distribution to Conference Claimants by the Preachers' Aid Society will depend in large part upon the payment of annual dues by the members of the Preachers' Aid Society; therefore, be it

Resolved, (1) That every candidate for admission into membership of the Illinois Conference, before he is admitted into the Conference, shall be asked to pledge himself to become a member of and pay his annual dues to the Preachers' Aid Society;

(2) That with every member of the Illinois Conference it is a matter of good faith that he become an active member of, and pay his annual dues to the Preachers' Aid Society, in the benefits of whose funds he is to share; and,

(3) That each member of the Conference who shall be appointed to service other than that of Pastor or District Superintendent shall furnish the Secretary of the Conference the name of the position held, and the amount of salary or income received from said position.

STATISTICAL DATA.

Whereas, The issuing of our Conference Minutes is always greatly delayed, frequently until almost the close of the first quarter of the new Conference year;

Whereas, The District Superintendents and Pastors are greatly inconvenienced thereby, and the launching of the work of the new year is seriously hindered for lack of proper data; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Statistician and Treasurer be and are hereby instructed to furnish each District Superintendent, at the close of the session of the Conference, or as soon thereafter as possible, a correct copy of the two statistical tables of his district, namely, the Table of Ministerial Support, Membership and Property, and the Table of the Benevolences.

UNIFICATION, LEGAL PHASES.

Whereas, The last General Conference took action relating to the proposal for an organic consolidation of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and as so many legal phases are liable to be involved in the final consummation of such procedure; and, also, that such action may necessitate a ratification by the Annual Conferences; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a Standing Committee of five members of the Illinois Conference be appointed to investigate and report to the next Annual Conference (or to any subsequent Conference) the constitutional measures necessary to be observed to make such proposed consolidation valid, and in harmony with our restrictive rules.

CONFERENCE RULES.

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by _____ members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than _____, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each pastor in effective work shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his annual salary each year to a fund known as Secretarial Expense Fund, such fund to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants to the Conference in any way.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

(A) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

B. F. Shipp, Superintendent.

The work of another year passes in review, and we are here to render an account of our stewardship. We render it with emotions which swing from sorrow to joy, from regret to hope. We sorrow that our devotion to our calling may not have been all that it might have been, and rejoice that God has counted us worthy to favor us with some measure of success in the task we have undertaken for Him. Regrets that the responses to our appeals and labors have not been more hearty, and a hope for the future, because our people are ascending the heights and catching a larger vision of the nature and sweep of Christianity, the needs of the Kingdom, and the adaptability of our Methodism, as one of God's agencies, to meet those needs.

The territory included in this district is not surpassed anywhere, for fertility of soil, for its variety of agricultural resources, nor for the large material blessings enjoyed by its people. Then upon this portion of his Kingdom God never smiled more graciously than He is smiling now, and, if this people would share their blessings with the Kingdom of God proportionately, we should want for nothing to promote these enterprises we are seeking to advance for Him, the work of the Kingdom would advance with marvelous rapidity, and there would be rejoicing among the angels. But, alas, the Kingdom of God is not receiving its proportionate share of these increased blessings, but instead too many of us are lavishing them upon ourselves, to minister to our pleasures, and in not a few instances to increase our luxuries.

Evangelism.

The times of unrest, the lure of wealth and the larger opportunities afforded for securing material gain are not conducive to soul-winning, nor to increase the passion which possessed our fathers, the passion for evangelism. But, in spite of the lure of things material, I am glad to report some excellent revivals, which have brought strength to the church, souls into the Kingdom and added numbers to our membership roll. In some instances the aid of an evangelist was secured, while in several instances the pastors have led in the effort. The churches sharing more largely in these evangelistic results are the three churches in the city of Bloomington, as the result of the "Bob Jones" meetings, Clinton, Easton, Green Valley, Havana, Lincoln and Waynesville. These facts give the assurance that a goodly number of the churches will show a worthy increase in membership.

District Gatherings.

In connection with the District Stewards' meeting, other laymen were present, and all the ministers of the district. Here plans and methods were discussed for the carrying out of the District program, and other matters of importance, having to do with the success of our work. Bishop Lewis favored us with his presence, and gave us a world outlook and brought to us inspiration and cheer.

Later in the fall a largely attended and very helpful and instructive Sunday School Institute was conducted at Lincoln, under the direction of our Board of Sunday Schools. The results of this Institute are rich and are manifest in nearly every Sunday School on the district, in the organizing of Teacher Training classes, in the proper grading of many of the schools and in better teaching methods.

The Epworth League convention, held at Waynesville in June, was largely attended. Under the leadership of the District President, the Rev. Clyde R. Booth, it proved to be most instructive and a great inspiration. The renewed interest displayed in many chapters proves the value of the gathering. Sub-district rallies have been arranged for with special features, with a view to keeping the interest at high tide through the entire year.

Group meetings were held in the district in the interest of the Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund. Addresses were delivered by the leading laymen as well as the ministers. The amount pledged to that Fund, which, I think, will exceed $26,000.00, bears testimony to the fruitfulness of these gatherings.

Improvements.

A number of substantial improvements have been made upon our properties at different parts of the district. Needed improvements have been made on the parsonage property at First Church, Bloomington, and the pastor enjoys the convenience of a new garage. Improvements have been made on both the church and parsonage at Chestnut. The Delavan parsonage has had conveniences added, while the church at Downs has been retouched. Some improvements have been made on the church and parsonage at Le Roy, while the church has had some new furnishings. Decorators and painters have improved the appearance of both church and parsonage at McLean. At Middletown, as well, improvements are being made on both church and parsonage property, new furnishings have been added to the church, while Lucas Chapel, on this charge, has been refrescoed and otherwise improved. As well as these improvements, on the first Sunday in January, the society at Middletown burned a mortgage which was given shortly after the church was dedicated, nine years ago, which was then in amount of $5,000.00, but had been reduced to a little less than $3,000.00. This mortgage burning fitted into a suitable program, and while it was being burned out of grateful hearts the people raised their doxologies. At Waynesville all the indebtedness on their attractive building has been liquidated. This is regarded as an unusual achievement in church building, because, from the time the contract was let for the new building, only eleven months had elapsed when the building had been erected, dedicated, and every cent of cost had been met.

New Buildings.

If suitable buildings are essential to the solution of the rural problem, we are certainly addressing ourselves directly to that task. The only specifically rural charge is the Ebenezer Circuit, which embraces a large territory west of McLean. The Ebenezer church, from which the circuit is named, is the center church of the circuit. This church is being thoroughly remodeled, making it practically a new church; this is with a direct view of making it a model rural church, having in mind the social, recreational and spiritual needs of the community. Though distant from either town or city they are planning to install their own electric lighting plant for the lighting of the church and parsonage. When Pastor Batty and his people have consummated their plans, they will have every equipment for a real community center.

What has been said of Ebenezer may be said of the Harmony appointment on the Lincoln Circuit, which circuit is under the pastoral care of Bro. N. R. Johnson. Here they are building a new church of brick and stone, beautiful in architecture, and all of its appointments have been made to meet the community needs. When finished it will be one of the most complete rural churches found anywhere. It has all modern equipment, is commodious in size, and convenient in arrangement.

Perhaps the climax in this particular has been reached at San Jose, where the people and the pastor, E. L. Tobie, are not without vision. Here a church is being erected which in cost will exceed $20,000.00. A new central location has been secured that the needs of the community may be better served. As a real community center, for location it can hardly be excelled. Besides containing an ample auditorium, there is nothing else wanting to make it complete. There is a rest room, a club room, library or reading room, a gymnasium, in size thirty-five by sixty feet, without an obstruction, kitchen, dining room, and all other accessories, besides every need of the Sunday School has been anticipated. These churches are all under roof and will be dedicated early in the new Conference year.

Benevolences.

Many of the pastors gave early and faithful attention to the Benevolences. But I would that fewer of them were willing to take the last chance to succeed in this important duty. This year there have been so many additional appeals, which came early and have distributed themselves through the year; such as the Liberty Bonds, Army Young Men's Christian Association, our Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund, and the very urgent appeal of the Red Cross. From the reports at hand, I am not anticipating any decline in our offerings for these causes. Neither do I think I am warranted in hoping for any considerable advance.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

Last year was a notable year in the history of the Illinois Wesleyan University. There was an increased enrollment in the College of Liberal Arts of nearly thirty per cent. The Freshmen class was the largest in the history of the institution, being seventy per cent increase over the previous year.

We can scarcely predict the future on account of the unsettled condition growing out of the war, but the indications point to the coming year as the best in its history, and the largest attendance unless it be that of last year. Many of the young men have responded to the country's call, and this may reduce the number of young men somewhat.

Miss Beth Lemen, of Rockwell City, Iowa, has been elected as instructor in Domestic Art. She was graduated from the Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa, and is an experienced and successful teacher.

Miss Ethel C. Norton, of Colorado Springs, has been elected Associate Professor of French and Spanish. She has her A. B. and A. M. degrees from Colorado College and has done graduate work in Columbia University. She also has had several years of successful teaching experience, two of which were spent in the University of Texas.

Marked improvements have been made in the department of Physics, under the efficient management of Professor J. W. Hake. The department now occupies the whole ground floor of what has been known as the Academy building, large additions have been made to the equipment to bring it on a par with the Chemistry and Biology departments, which have such an enviable reputation throughout the middle west.

The department of Chemistry can no longer be accommodated on one floor of the science hall, so a large and well equipped Organic Chemistry department has been provided on the basement floor of the building.

Thanks to the host of friends, who helped to bring the recent financial campaign to a successful conclusion, the institution came through the year with a slight surplus in operating expenses. The annual report of the treasurer on June 1, 1917, shows an increase in the grand total of nearly $240,000 over that of June 1, 1916.

Departure.

With sadness of heart I chronicle the demise of our veteran of the district, the Rev. W. C. Lacey, which took place early in the Conference year. He resided at Green Valley, where he enjoyed the highest regard and implicit confidence of all. He gave the church forty-seven years of effective service, and in his superannuation was always glad to supplement his pastor's labors as opportunity afforded. He was a good preacher, argumentative perhaps, but practical. He was always gentle, but in his days of superannuation in this and kindred graces he ripened. He died in the full hope of the gospel he preached so long. We shall long remember his gentleness and his kindly and genial bearing among us.

A Condensed Report.

In this report I would that I could recount the sacrifices, toil and achievements of all. But who can follow the preacher in all his rounds of toil, especially when in the discharge of his pastoral duties, into the homes of sickness and sorrow, as he seeks to relieve burdened hearts, and in his search for the lost? Few know how much toil is spent on the part of many of our pastors even in the gathering of the Benevolences. Not only so but it now often falls to the pastor not only to furnish the inspiration for, but to actually do a large part of the work of securing the means to meet the local church expenses. If the modern pastor meets all the demands of his calling, and the added duties imposed upon him, no other man more surely feels the stress, strain and grind of life than he. But he has his rewards in the fellowship of Him who was Himself a man of toil. So the record of the year cannot be written or recorded here; but God knows our hearts and the spirit in which we have toiled, and the record is written on high.

The fellowship of the brethren I have enjoyed, their hospitality I have shared, and my heartfelt gratitude is theirs.

THE CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT.

Joseph C. Nate, Superintendent.

The Plan of the Year.

In the Champaign District it has again been sought to unify and relate the entire year's work for definite goals. In the preceding year, under a similar plan, the programs of every Quarterly Conference and District gathering, and the necessary literature, charts, and Sunday services, were all carefully determined with a view to bringing the District aims home to the last member of every church. The final returns showed a distinct gain for the District over the year preceding for every item upon which the Methodist Episcopal Church keeps books, and a loss upon none. Under these circumstances we have felt safe in strengthening and perfecting a similar plan for the present year upon the theory that steady results will come from steady processes and that the machinery we now have as a denomination is sufficient for results if it is systematically worked and backed by the power of consecrated personality in all our pulpits.

Our District Meeting of Ministers and Laymen is held in the early fall. We believe that the reasoning by which this gathering was changed from spring to fall was well grounded, and saw no reason to shift back after a single year's trial. To be sure, in the fall we have just been at the Annual Conference, and many preachers have just moved. But the Annual Conference touches the District problem and campaign only at long range, and if preachers have moved they have moved to do the best year's work of their lives. Accordingly the time to gain our bearings, form our lines, and become inspired for the struggle of the year is at its outset, and not when so many months have gone and the absences and heat of summer can defeat our best endeavors.

The program of the Fall Meeting is set up with an exact view to all the business of the year. A half day is devoted to the preacher in his pulpit, wherein not alone the substance, but the manner, timeliness, and spirit of preaching so largely condition all other results of our work. A full day is given to the direct matters of District program and method for the new year. I am glad to testify as their Superintendent that our pastors have gone forth from these meetings to a year's work which has been characterized by power and results in every charge.

The Workers and the Work.

The District includes thirty-three charges. There are eighteen stations, and the remaining fifteen pastors minister to a total of thirty-six preaching places. Of the latter, nineteen are in towns and villages and seventeen are in rural locations apart from railroads. The appointments of last year assigned eleven men to a first year in their respective charges, thirteen to the second year, six to the third, one to the fourth, one to the fifth, and one to the tenth year. Salaries were increased one hundred dollars each at Bondville, DeLand, Mahomet, Savoy, Seymour, and in lesser amounts at Cisco, Fisher, and Sidney. It may be said that our District laymen, generally, are disposed to recognize the many actual reductions of a minister's seeming income, and to build up the salaries as conditions may permit year by year. The average cash salary of the District is now $1,344.

I should be glad if conditions permitted some statement of the work of each pastor in his own field. There is not a charge in the District whose affairs do not deserve a paragraph of special report. There is not a pastor in the District who has not skilfully worked out matters of general interest and importance, and scored noteworthy victories in one or more fields of the work, albeit there have also been the features in which all of us have fallen short of the ideals. Time permits reference only to some things which seem fairly to call for special mention. Grace Church, Urbana, which was left to be supplied, has been cared for by Brother Verne P. Mitchell, in connection with his studies at Garrett. The church has had, on the whole, its best year, reporting a significant gain in membership, and enters the one hundred per cent column for the Apportioned Benevolences. The year's work of Brother J. E. Reynolds, at Weedman, brings that charge also into the one hundred per cent column for the Benevolences; includes the winning of both the District and Conference banners under the Saddlebags offering for Conference Claimants; and reports the membership at Weedman doubled as a result of a fine revival in which the pastor had the assistance of Brother Elmer K. Towle, as evangelist. Revival campaigns of unusual scope and significant results in numbers, accessions, etc., are also reported for Bondville, Cisco, DeLand, Mahomet, Rankin, Rantoul, Rantoul Circuit, Sidney, St. Joseph, and Urbana First. Most of the remaining charges have maintained our evangelistic purpose with varying degrees of seeming result. The total of 129 weeks were devoted to special revival meetings, with 756 conversions. And yet, my reports down to September 1, showing the total of above 7000 persons now definitely upon the Constituency Rolls kept by our pastors, reveal how white ever is the field and how constant the need of earnest labor for our own share of the harvest. The rural work in the District is a matter of increasing and important interest. Its most significant developments so far have been the work of J. W. Dundas at Shiloh, O. F. Jones at Bondville, H. L. Thrall at Sadorus, J. E. Reynolds at Weedman, J. H. Singleton on Champaign Circuit, and E. A. Hedges at Savoy. The latter two are glorying in numerous prizes just taken for boys' and girls' club work at the Champaign County Fair, including the silver cup awarded for the best total showing, which went to Savoy. A complete survey of our rural church situation and needs is now on in cooperation with the Rural Department of the Home Board.

Twenty-seven charges conduct a systematic Every-Member-Canvass for the local budget, and eighteen of these now treat the Benevolences as having a like validity among their people. Seventeen charges report the holding of a mid-week prayer service with an average attendance of nineteen persons. In other words, only 319 people of our 12,000 Methodists in the District consider it necessary to have an hour in the sanctuary between Sundays for mutual encouragement, self-examination, inspiration, and prayer. It may be that there is some substitute for the strength and purpose which our fathers gained in this form of Christian endeavor but, for one, I regard this showing as a distinctly weak feature of our District work. It is not that we do not achieve many worthy things in the work of the church, but that we shall incline to achieve them by the mechanical process of organization, rather than under the leading of the spirit of God. And when the deeper crises come in the life of a congregation, its most serious tests of fealty to God or loyalty to the church under our Methodist economy, we find that all of our machinery may fail to meet the situation. I am realizing more and more for District work the truth of the saying that we do not so much need to organize the uninspired as to inspire the unorganized.

Spring Rally Meetings.

In the spring our work was given a marked emphasis by a series of Group Rallies including all the charges of the District and group sessions of the third Quarterly Conferences. The purposes of the Rallies were to report the financial and other interests of each charge, to consider practical methods of efficiency, and assure victory with the closing Conference year for every regular, required interest of the churches; information and inspiration for our Kingdom causes; organization and method for local budget and the Apportioned Benevolences; the youth, the womanhood, and the men of Methodism mobilized for service—in League, Sunday School, and church; and our evangelistic call, as related to every department of the church. We were favored with the presence and assistance throughout the week of four leaders of the church at large, Drs. W. B. Hollingshead, of the Commission on Finance; F. H. Sheets, of the Board of Foreign Missions; H. V. Holt, for the work of Evangelism; and W. L. McDowell, of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. The Rallies were held at Tolono, Monticello, Mansfield, St. Joseph, and Rantoul, with largely attended meetings at each place throughout the day. The attendance of official members averaged eight to a charge for the entire District. Every charge in the District was reported with its ministerial claims paid in full for three quarters of the year. Tabulated comparative reports upon all our main forms of District endeavor were subsequently mailed in quantities to the charges. A feature of the year in these Rallies, and in Quarterly Conference and public church services as well, is a comprehensive series of charts bringing to every charge all the main items of the year, and in conjunction with a similar record of every other charge in the District. Such charts enable us at all times to point to the exact situation as to any item in the work of the charge, and have the advantage over the usual circular reports to the pastors that the thing is brought home to all the people at many different times. To complete this publicity, small, printed duplicates of the charts are supplied for free use by pastors and local committees.

My pre-Conference reports indicate another advance for the year all along the line. Last year twenty-three charges Pulled Up in their total Benevolences, the total of $1,645, while ten Pulled Down the total of $293, leaving the net District gain of $1,352. This year, out of thirty-three reports on file, all thirty-three report definitely that they will Pull Up for the present year, thus wiping the Pull Down column off our maps. Last year Bondville reported 112 per cent of the total Benevolence apportionments; Mansfield 109 per cent, and Pesotum, Fisher, and Sadorus each 100 per cent, while Champaign and Trinity nearly reached the 100 per cent mark. This year, these seven charges and, in addition, Bement, Champaign Circuit, Cisco, Rankin, Rantoul, Rantoul Circuit, Savoy, Urbana First, Urbana Grace, and Weedman, seventeen in all, or over half our charges, expect to make a report in full of all the Benevolences, while the District percentage should show a distinct advance from the high mark of 73 per cent of the total apportionments as realized last year. The report on membership is also encouraging, yet the apparent gain of some 500 members does not seem at all commensurate with the investment of time, strength, money and personality as made by a District, any District, in its twelve months of recruiting for the Kingdom. For here is our one great task, failure in which is not covered by success in all other departments of the work combined.

Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, Etc.

The past year records for the first time the use of the graded Sunday School lessons in every charge in the District, while there is a steady annual increase in the number of classes using them. Eleven charges have regular systematic Teacher Training work. Decision Day was duly observed in only twenty charges out of thirty-three. Our Epworth Leagues will hold their West China contribution up to the fine total of $1,000. Sixty-one Study Classes are reported. The Epworth League Convention, held in the new church at Bement, was an unusually successful affair, with the record registered attendance of 247 young people, representing every Chapter in the District. Brother J. L. Settles, of Mansfield, is the resourceful and energetic President of our District organization. The Epworth League and Sunday School work are fully exhibited under the chart system of the District, and are regarded as absolutely second to nothing in their importance in the work of the year.

Our Cunningham Children's Home reports another good year. Its cause is the cause of the children, about whom should be thrown the strong arms of the church, and we pray for ever increasing interest in this beautiful endeavor of the womanhood of the Conference.

Property Improvements.

The year again presents some noteworthy gains of new church and parsonage property, as a part of the already high average of buildings in the District. At Bement on May 20, Bishop Quayle dedicated a beautiful $30,000 church, with all finances duly paid or provided. The achievement is a distinct credit to the consecration, skill, earnestness, and tact of Brother Wilbert Dowson, the pastor. The charge demonstrates that such an achievement need not be at the expense of the wider Kingdom needs by bringing up 100 per cent of its Benevolences. Brother Dowson invited to return for his fourth year at an increase of $200 in salary. On May 13, at Shiloh, the rural point on the Fisher charge, Bishop Anderson dedicated, with finances fully paid or provided, the new $10,000 church plant replacing the former inadequate structure which was destroyed by fire. Probably the Conference has no more attractive rural church building, nor one better adapted to the needs of community service, than the new church at Shiloh. I cannot do less than speak in the highest terms of praise of the faithfulness and leadership of Brother J. W. Dundas, the pastor, in this achievement. Early in the present Conference year Mr. A. D. Phillippe, a loyal and generous layman of the Champaign church, presented the congregation with a most eligible building lot of the value of $7,000, as a location for a new parsonage. Our official members and people here have seen the wisdom of promptly erecting upon this site a parsonage structure worthy of all the other affairs of this strong and important church. You will be invited to inspect the beautiful new home thus provided for Dr. R. H. Schuett, whose fifth year in this pastorate is universally regarded in the church and community as the best of his five highly successful years in this place. A fine new parsonage of the value of $3,600 has just been completed at Pesotum, where Brother O. L.

Clapper, the pastor, is completing the fourth year of a pastorate which has built up that charge successfully in every direction of the work. Numerous other churches have made substantial improvements, including the payments of final amounts on the new parsonage built last year at Mahomet and extensive repairs of last year on the church at Fithian. The enlargement and renewal of our rural church at Pleasant Grove on the Sidney work is now nearing completion at an expense of $2,500. An additional $4,000, each, has been paid upon our new churches at Gibson City and at St. Joseph further evidencing the victorious character of their Dedication Day plans and leaving the remaining situation still safely in hand under the original subscriptions. With the exception of three or four parsonages which should either be replaced by new houses or thoroughly modernized, and two or three church structures which are not up to the present-day mark, the entire Champaign District is now supplied with worthy and modern places of worship and good homes for the preachers.

The Church in War Times.

One of the most interesting developments of the year among us has been in connection with the work at Rantoul. At the beginning of the year our excellent church structure was completely repaired, renewed in the interior finishing, etc., at an outlay of $2,400. This preparation for the work of the new year has proved providential under the location at this point of the Government Aviation Field. In many ways the field has revolutionized the life and labors of this heretofore quiet community. Several hundred young men, especially selected and qualified for this branch of National service, are now at the encampment. Many of them are attendants at the local churches and Sunday Schools, and their presence, and numbers, have laid upon the latter a great new responsibility. Those things which our Board of Home Missions and Church Extension have said to us of the importance of this work and relation in our Methodism at large applies completely to the situation which we thus have in our own Conference and District. A complete co-operation of the local churches with the Y. M. C. A. workers or chaplains assigned to the field is desired and expected. In this important and unexpected development of the year, Brother M. M. Want, our pastor at Rantoul, has proved himself the right man in the right place. He has effectively organized the local situation to meet the new conditions, and, under the temporary emergency at the new camp, has served acceptably as Y. M. C. A. representative there, in addition to his duties as a pastor. Under these circumstances it is especially a matter of regret to his church, as it will be to the Conference, that Brother Want finds it necessary to retire at this time from the active work, and will ask the superannuate relation. Doubtless no appointment to be made in our present Conference session is of greater importance than that of his successor in our church at Rantoul.

I am proud to report the complete and helpful co-operation of all our pastors with every plan of our national Government and of our church at large in this time of national need. Our Sunday Schools contributed some $400 to the Red Cross offering. The American flag has a prominent place in practically every church. The special patriotic messages of Red Cross, of conservation, of our country's obligation, and of the church in war time, have been preached in every pulpit. Dr. James C. Baker, of Trinity Church, Urbana, has given the past three months as special assistant to Mr. John R. Mott and his committee in the organization of the Y. M. C. A. work at the Army Camps of the nation. Brother Howard Leach, our pastor at Ludlow, early offered himself and has been placed on the approved list for Y. M. C. A. service in the Army Camps. But, meanwhile, he has been called for examination under the Conscription Act, has been favorably passed upon, and has not claimed exemption under his ministerial calling. God grant that all these beginnings may be but the earnest of the part which the church may take under the great needs of the nation in the months which lie ahead of us. Sixty years ago our fathers accomplished a mighty work for the Republic when they made our pulpits centers of power in unifying and developing national sentiment for the great duty of the day. The malignant and disloyal influences which are working against the success of our national arms now had their counterpart then but under other names. And again it is the opportunity of the men of the Christian pulpit to stand foursquare for the cause of a Christian Republic, building sentiment for the safety of the world.

The Wesley Foundation.

The far reaching program of the Wesley Foundation has made definite progress during the year. Following the campaign for $50,000 for the new site fund completed in Champaign and Urbana last year, Dr. Baker, the Director of the Foundation, and Dr. G. E. McCammon, the Executive Secretary, have continued in successful plans and labors. Early in the year Dr. J. R. Randall, of the Rock River Conference, became associated with the work and has rendered invaluable service in winning friends and funds for the cause. This year the District at large has added some $5,000 to the amount formerly raised in the Twin Cities. Brother M. P. Wilkin, of our honored band of Conference superannuates, has increased his gifts for the Wilkin Lectureship of the Foundation, to the total of $15,000. On March 22, under the leadership of Bishop Nicholson and in co-operation with Bishop Quayle, all the District Superintendents of the state spent a day at Champaign-Urbana as the guests of the Foundation. Plans were laid for the prosecution of this important work throughout the state, under such a program as the Presiding Bishop of this Conference is able to formulate and maintain. Our own part in the endeavor, as a Conference, will be reported to you through the Conference Board of Education or otherwise, and it need not be urged here, where the Foundation has its Conference home and largest Conference attendance of Methodist young people, that we further the new program with an earnestness worthy of all these young lives thus committed to our oversight and care as a denomination.

The Conference Claimants Campaign.

The District has sought to meet its full responsibility in this great and worthy endeavor. It is a movement in which every one of us has a personal interest and yet, as in all Kingdom work, its finer aspects lie in what we may possibly do for others—for those who have already borne the heat and burden of the day, and who have so well laid the foundations upon which we are building. Eight of our charges report the standard amount subscribed in full, and fifteen others have accomplished the task in considerable part. The remainder have been delayed by conditions, but with every local purpose to make the completion of this vital task one of the high points of our District work in the ensuing year. The standard amount for the entire District is $42,000. My reports indicate that in the past year $20,000 has been raised, or nearly fifty per cent of our quota, leaving a like amount as the task against which the District must measure itself in the year to come. I desire to express our appreciation of the leadership in this work of Dr. H. C. Gibbs. He has been earnest, persistent, brotherly, and tactful, and has approached our problem helpfully at every point.

Our Parsonage Homes—Personal.

There remain for mention those things of which it is always the most difficult to speak or write. Brother E. A. Hedges was called from the last Conference session by the serious illness of his mother. On Conference Sunday night, Sept. 10, 1916, the spirit of this good woman went out into the beautiful Hereafter, leaving a home bereft of precious companionship but inspired for time to come by the memory of her gracious and helpful Christian life. It will be remembered that Brother H. F. Powell, of Cisco, was also absent from the last Conference session through the illness of the little son, Robert, of infantile paralysis. The little lad slowly recovered in considerable degree from this serious malady, while continuing to require the most constant care of the faithful parents. To this task Sister Powell poured out her strength without measure, as a mother must for childhood's need. One visiting the home was conscious that into its life was coming the new beauty which is found only in the fellowship of suffering. It seemed to me that the illumination of the sweet mother face deepened and became more beautiful with the passing of the months. Despite the burden of added cares, she continued to meet all the difficulties and exacting requirements of the parsonage home with womanly grace and tact. Early in May Sister Powell sustained an illness requiring surgical treatment from which, contrary to the earliest anticipations, she failed to rally. On Sunday afternoon, May 13, this radiant personality went away from us. At the funeral services held at the church at Cisco the place was thronged by the people of the church and community whose esteem and affection she had completely won, and by representatives of every former pastorate which they had served. We laid her away in the churchyard at Cerro Gordo, her childhood home, conscious that the calling of such a character from home and church is another of those providences of life and death which is not given us here and now to understand. But some day we shall know—"when the morning breaketh and the shadows flee away."

In conclusion I desire to express my thanks to my brethren for their close and helpful co-operation for every phase of the work. Where we have made progress the credit is theirs, and where we have failed there have been circumstances which have made for a real impossibility. Nevertheless they would join me in saying that we all should have done far better than we have. We are 12,000 Methodist folk in a region favored of God equally with the best and richest anywhere. If we move forward we have but kept pace with the conditions which surround us, and they are conditions which ever challenge to new and better things.

DANVILLE DISTRICT.

W. D. Fairchild, Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren:

The past year on the Danville District has been characterized by industrious, persistent and prayerful endeavor on the part of both ministers and laymen. Almost all our pastors have realized the importance of their calling and have given themselves loyally to the work of their office. The year, while not marked by any extraordinary and outstanding events, nevertheless, shows progress in almost all lines of church activity.

Pastoral Relationship.

On the adjournment of the last Conference four charges were left to be supplied. These charges were filled in due time and have all been very acceptably served. Rev. F. L. Cook, appointed to Oakwood, was transferred during the Conference session to the Columbia River Conference and the Oakwood charge was left without a regular pastor. January 1st, Rev. U. M. Creath, of the Wyoming State Conference, was transferred and appointed to the Oakwood charge. He took up his work in early January and has done faithful service. By agreement Rev. Abner Clark's Conference appointment was changed from Lima to Metcalf. He has done a good year's work and the charge would be glad to retain him another year.

Revivals and Membership.

Special revival services have been held in almost all the charges this year, resulting generally in an awakening and strengthening of the churches. Some pastors have conducted their own services, and other have been assisted by neighboring pastors or by evangelists. In Danville our entire body of Methodist churches united with the other churches of the city in a special campaign led by the Stough evangelistic party. The time was not propitious, coming on the eve of the national election, and other interferences served to rob the effort of much of its prospective fruitage.

The reports from the pastors show that 151 weeks of revival meetings have been held in the District, resulting in 215 conversions and about 500 accessions. However, the results of evangelistic campaigns are not measured by mere statistics. There has been a sowing and cultivating that will, in due time, bring its harvest, and there has been created an atmosphere for righteousness that cannot be defined by numbers. But, notwithstanding all that has been done, the pastors and many laymen are keenly alive to the glaring discrepancy between resources and results. Not until the work of the Kingdom finds a larger place in the interests of our people, and the Father's business becomes the passion of their lives, will results be satisfactory.

District Meetings and Conventions.

The fall meeting of ministers and laymen was held in Kimber church, Danville, Nov. 3d, and was largely attended. The spring meeting of the Ministerial Association was held in early May, in Catlin, with almost all the ministers present, and with a number of laymen in attendance. At both these meetings strong programs were presented, dealing with matters of primary consideration. The Epworth League convention was held in Camargo, June 19 and 20, and was a success in every way.

Conference Claimants Endowment Campaign.

The Conference Claimants Endowment Campaign as planned for the Conference year now closing was loyally accepted by the churches of the District, and an effort was made to work out the full program according to the plan. We consider the results very satisfactory. The scope of the work laid out for the year proved greater than could be adequately cared for by the forces at our command, and the plan to cover the entire District in a single year was given up and the effort was confined to a definite number of charges with the thought in mind that it is better to work a limited field well and complete the canvass in that field than to open the canvass in a larger number of charges and leave the work but partially completed. The results are that up to this time 32 churches, exactly one-half of the entire number in the District, have put on the canvass, almost all of these having completed the work with splendid results. The churches putting on the canvass represent less than one-half of the total amount apportioned to the District, but the subscriptions from these same churches represent considerably more than half the entire apportionment for the District. The total apportionment is approximately $39,000.00, and the total subscriptions to date amount to about $22,000.00, with a few churches in the campaign not yet having completed the canvass. The remaining $17,000.00 will come mostly from charges that are virgin soil. In every charge that has completed the campaign the overplus has reached from a few cents to several hundred dollars. Pastors and laymen generally have fallen into line and co-operated in fine spirit. The detailed report appears in the Secretary's printed report. Special mention should be made of the splendid work done in the District by Secretary Gibbs, to whom we owe much for the success of this campaign.

Response to Our Country's Call.

In this day of our nation's peril our Methodist sons are not unmindful of their duty. Many of our splendid young men from our best homes have already joined the ranks, and others are soon to be called. Some who have responded are now in the cantonments, and others are in France preparing for active service. The call has come to ministers as well as to laymen and three of our men serving charges have enlisted. Rev. J. W. Miller, of Hoopes-ton, will soon leave for Houston, Texas, to enter the army Y. M. C. A. work; Rev. J. Fred Melvin, of McKinley church, Danville, will leave in a few days for the same line of work, and Rev. C. H. Bradley, of the Ficklin charge, is already in training at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Church Literature.

In this 20th century the people still perish for a lack of knowledge. I am not surprised at the slow progress made in many lines of church work, when I know how poorly our homes are furnished with our church literature. The total number of Advocates reported this year is 434, and of Epworth Heralds 358. This represents approximately 800 homes among more than 3000. Certainly there is need of cultivation of this field.

Property Interests.

We have no large building enterprises on hand this year. At Central Park, a suburb of Danville, a neat stucco church, with auditorium and basement, was erected last fall at a cost of a little more than $3,000.00. This is the seventh Methodist church connected with Danville Methodism. At McKendree, on the McKendree and Fairview charge, the church has been rebuilt at a cost of $3,500.00, and was re-opened Sept. 2. Lincoln church, Danville, recently purchased a parsonage property, wrecked the house and will rebuild on an enlarged and improved plan. This work of rebuilding will be done in the near future. The Villa Grove charge has almost completed a handsome brick veneer parsonage of eight rooms at a cost of about $6,000.00. This handsome parsonage will be ready for occupancy about October 1. At Chrisman, the old parsonage has been sold and removed and a new modern building will be erected next year. The improvements for the year total about $16,000.00

It is well worth noting here that, while there are many splendid churches and parsonages in the Danville District, there are more than a dozen churches and as many parsonages that need replacing by modern buildings adapted to present day needs.

During the year there has been a reported reduction of indebtedness of church property amounting to $8,253.00. This leaves a present indebtedness of a little less than $15,000.00 on a property valuation of over $600,000.00.

Benevolences.

The various Benevolent interests of the church have been given emphasis. In our District gatherings and Quarterly Conferences, we have sought to bring our people to face their duty and to inspire them to undertakings worthy the needs and commensurate with their resources. Last year but one charge in the District raised the entire amount of apportioned Benevolences. This year several charges will report in full, while many others will come well up toward the goal, which in the Danville District is every charge raising the full apportionment.

The pastors have labored hard in their efforts to stimulate the people to more generous and intelligent giving, and in large measure they have succeeded. While there is no remarkable increase, yet, considering the multiplicity of calls this year, the results are quite satisfactory. The reports indicate a substantial increase in the apportioned Benevolences amounting to about $1,200.00. This is not large, but it is an indication of the coming of a fuller appreciation of our relation to these great causes.

Ministerial Support.

During the past two years both pastors and people have, in many charges, become painfully conscious of the lack of adequate pastoral support. Some of the men are serving on charges abundantly able, but up to this time, unwilling to advance to a proper standard. However, the dawn of a better day for ministerial support in the Danville District is at hand. Many charges have recognized the critical situation and have responded more or less generously. Thirteen charges advanced the salaries at the beginning of the present Conference year and six others, thus far, have advanced for the coming year, making a total of one-half the charges of the District that have taken action in this matter in the past twelve months. The advances total $3,300.00 for the year. I am glad to report at this time that the District Statistician reports every dollar of the four items of ministerial support for this year paid in full. I am glad to say also that the claims of the Conference Claimants and Bishops are no longer considered as Benevolences and in most of the charges are placed in the budget where they rightfully belong. In a very small number of the weaker charges where these items are not in the budget they are treated as special causes. In no case is there an appropriation of Benevolent funds to these causes.

Women's Organizations.

The W. F. M. S. & W. H. M. S. have enjoyed a prosperous year and reports indicate a good advance in membership and in the regular offerings.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have been active, and, during the year, have raised fully $16,000.00. In every society in the District there is money in the treasury ranging from a few dollars to a few hundred dollars.

This has been a year of unrelenting toil. No year in my life has been crowded so full. Something has been accomplished, but far more remains to be done. I am profoundly grateful to God for health and strength enabling me to complete the year's task, and to all the brethren of the ministry and of the laity who have so generously and loyally co-operated in accomplishing whatever may have been done in this year's work for the Kingdom.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

To Bishop Nicholson and Members of the Conference:

The following pastoral changes have taken place during the year. Harry Cochran, who was appointed to Lintner and Asbury, did not accept the appointment. Lintner has been efficiently supplied by Brother A. B. Fry, of La Place, and Ashbury by A. A. Weber, a member on trial of the Central Illinois Conferences. E. E. Franklin was re-appointed to Oconee, Abner Clark going to Metcalf.

On May 3, J. C. Coleman, of Niantic, tendered me his withdrawal from the ministry of our church and requested that I transmit his Credentials to the Conference, assigning as his reason that he "finds it impossible, through the medium it offers, to perform the functions he conceives to belong to his office as a disciple and follower of Jesus of Nazareth." Rev. J. C. Berry has completed most successfully the work of the year at Niantic.

Owing to removals by death and otherwise, the continuation of the society at Zion seems no longer possible. The official members of the Long Creek church have unanimously requested the return of W. F. Gilmore as pastor, with salary equal to that previously paid by both congregations.

The relations of pastors and people have been most cordial. There has been very little serious illness in the parsonages.

Brothers J. S. Bicknell, J. W. Crane, J. W. Eckman, Joseph B. Martin, and Anthus Willard, the retired brethren resident within the District, are active in the work of their respective churches, and, by sympathetic and loyal co-operation with pastors and laymen, are most helpful in the work of the Kingdom.

District Activities.

The work of the year began with a fall meeting of pastors and laymen held in Decatur, Dr. W. E. Guthrie, of Buffalo, New York, having a large part on the program. In the spring, meetings were held at Decatur and Pana, respectively. The presence, addresses, and wise counsels of our resident Bishop, who was present at the latter, were a great inspiration to pastors and laymen.

The Epworth League Convention, held at Moweaqua, was remarkable in its large enrollment, and the fact that it was a young people's convention. A number of new chapters have been organized, and increased interest shown in many others. The Conference meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society was held in Grace church, Decatur. The Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies will show advances in auxiliaries, members, and offerings. The Ladies' Aid Societies have proven their worth, not only in a financial way, but in their social and philanthropic activities as well. Nearly all of the Sunday Schools of the District are using the Graded Lessons and are organized along the most modern lines. The need of better housing and equipment and more thoroughly trained leadership and teachers is evident in many of the schools.

Conversions and Membership.

Revival campaigns, with the assistance of professional evangelists, were held at Moweaqua and Maroa under the leadership of Evangelist Beadles and party, and at Nokomis and Lovington, under the leadership of Evangelist Thomas and party. Tent meetings were held at Witt, under the direction of the Gospel League, and on the east side of Decatur, by J. C. Brown, pastor of St. Paul's church. Nearly all pastors held special meetings, a number being assisted by brother pastors. Passion week was observed with good results in a number of places, and carefully devised plans were carried out with large results in the Sunday Schools. Gospel Teams among the men have assisted materially in the work of evangelism.

Pastors report 727 conversions, and 962 accessions. Errors in reporting membership and confusion with reference to the Disciplinary meaning of "Non-Resident" and "Removed without Letter" is evident in many places and destroy in large measure the value of such statistics. Despite the heavy losses due to the placing of so many on the list of those "removed without letter" the District will show a decided net gain in full members.

Salaries and Material Improvements.

Advances in salaries were made at Hillsboro, Macon, Niantic, Oconee, Pana, Witt and Lakewood. Owaneco has paid its pastor $125.00 in addition to the salary. These advances total $1,000.00. Further advances have already been guaranteed in several charges for next year.

On May 6th, a beautiful church, costing $16,000.00, was dedicated at Witt, C. A. Sullivan pastor. Rev. W. J. Davidson led in the financial campaign, which resulted in the raising of $8,600.00 in cash and good subscriptions, sufficient to liquidate all obligations. All things considered, the result was little short of miraculous. Since the dedication, the trustees have traded the old church and parsonage for a seven room modern house on the lot adjoining the church.

May 8, at Owaneco, W. W. Drake, pastor, Bishop Thomas Nicholson laid the corner stone of a handsome church which will be dedicated October 7, at a cost of $17,000.00.

These churches will make possible the forward movement to be inaugurated in these communities.

Bethel, a prosperous country church, on the Blue Mound charge, W. M. Carter, pastor, has already raised more than half of the $10,000.00 they propose to spend in the building of a new church in the immediate future.

Early in the year, J. L. Sturgell, of Millersville, moved into a handsome and thoroughly modern parsonage, built at a cost of $3,500.00.

At Hillsboro, a beautiful pipe organ, costing $1,500.00, part of which was the gift of Andrew Carnegie, has been installed.

The following charges have made improvement in church and parsonage property, costing in each case over $500.00, Nokomis; Elwin; Grace, Decatur; Sharon, Atwood; and Warrensburg. Less extensive improvements in other charges will bring the total expended for building and improvements up to $41,878.00.

J. D. Shouse, at Maroa, led in the raising of a $2,000.00 indebtedness on the church. E. H. Lugg has likewise led in the raising of $1,250.00 at Lovington. St. Paul's, Decatur, J. C. Brown, pastor, has further reduced its debt by $2,400.00. The remaining indebtedness is all provided for. This enterprise continues to be the marvel of all who are familiar with its history.

The heroic band at Argenta, H. B. Montgomery, pastor, have paid $2,000.00 on their church dedicated a little over a year ago and have reduced the debt to $200.00. They gratefully acknowledge a gift of $500.00 from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

The total raised for building and improvements will amount to $52,928.00.

Benevolences and Conference Claimants.

Pre-Conference reports indicate a substantial advance for the Benevolences. In many charges this is certain, though there will be decreases in some. The need of education, and the realization of the paramount claim of the Apportioned Benevolences, is evident everywhere. The chief cause, however, of failure, is the neglect on the part of the pastors and committees to provide for the apportionment by subscriptions early in the year. The churches making the best records are the ones that do this. It may not be possible in all cases, but too often the "custom" of other years rather than the possibility of the present year is what determines the attitude and labors of the pastor. Twenty-nine charges report an increase for Apportioned Benevolences. Thirteen report a decrease. The net increase is $609.00.

The responses of the churches to the calls for Red Cross, tornado sufferers, Anti-Saloon League, and other causes have been generous.

The results of the campaign for Conference Claimants Endowment have been very satisfactory in every case where serious effort has been put forth. The following churches have met their apportionment in full, many of these exceeding the amount, as will be shown by the published report of the Commission: Epworth, Butler, Montgomery, Cerro Gordo, Decatur First, Decatur Grace, Garrett, Atwood, Macedonia, Asbury, Macon, Moweaqua, Long Creek, Oconee, Zion, Prairie Chapel, and Pana.

The District total is $21,509.80.

I have had opportunity to note closely the work of Secretary H. C. Gibbs. His grasp of the problem and his intense devotion and untiring labors, which have been shared by his wife and son, who have given without measure their time and assistance, can be appreciated only by those of us who have been in close touch with his office.

Special Mention.

Periodicals: The Advocates have 575 subscribers in Decatur District, the larger portion being Northwestern. Seventeen charges show an increase of 137, while nineteen charges show a decrease of 104, leaving a net gain of 33. This is an average of one subscriber to every fifteen families, far too small a percentage if we were to have an intelligent and efficient membership.

District Bulletin: The Decatur District Bulletin, issued quarterly, to which all official members are paid subscribers, has been a helpful feature.

Program: Early in the year all pastors were requested to send me an outline of their program for the year, covering the needs of their respective communities and their method of meeting these needs. The regular work of the church, the Benevolences, Evangelism, Social Service, Recreation, Community Betterment, etc., were suggested for consideration in outlining these programs. This matter was also brought to the attention of many Official Boards in the attempt to impress both pastors and laymen with the necessity of a definite program for every church. Some fine programs were presented and successfully carried out, indicating the fact that these pastors and their Boards are alive to their responsibilities. The failure or inability to do this on the part of others indicates in part the reason why certain pastors and churches do not accomplish more.

Area Program: The Area Program adopted at the Area Conference in Chicago has been utilized by some churches, notably at Moweaqua, where, after public discussion, committees were appointed to carry out such parts of the program as were adaptable to the local community or in which they could co-operate. The entire program with suggestions and committees was printed and distributed throughout the membership.

The Small Town Church: I have been impressed with the challenge of the small town church. The increasing demands on the ministry in these places make it imperative that they have the very best that our ministry offers in preaching, pastoral labor, and community leadership. Unless this can be given, Methodism will not only fail in her task, but entirely perish in many of these places.

Disciplinary Financial Plan: I found the Disciplinary Financial Plan in complete and successful operation in only a few charges though it is in partial use in many others. My observation is that more depends upon the "man behind the plan" than the plan itself, and that, in the last analysis, success in church finance depends upon pastoral and lay leadership. Smaller boards of Stewards, all of whom, when accepting appointment, do so with the understanding of their duties and intention of performing them, is the need of many churches. The financial plans for next year had consideration at the Third and Fourth Quarterly Conference, and, in nearly every instance, the date for the Every Members Canvass was set.

The War: Loyal support of the Government and willingness to make the sacrifices the times demand is evident everywhere. None of the pastors have entered military service, though many of the sons of the parsonage, Epworth League Presidents, and others of our membership have responded to the call of the colors.

Conclusion.

I regret that it is impossible, even in so lengthy a report as this, to mention by name the pastors whose co-operation has made possible the achievements of the year.

I wish to record my appreciation of the kindly reception accorded me everywhere, and the wish, which is supreme, that the results of the year's work will justify the appointment, not only of the Superintendent, but every pastor, as made by Bishop Wilson.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

F. A. McCarty, Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren of the Illinois Conference:

When an official makes a report of a business or industrial concern, he can set forth definitely accomplishments and conditions, for the concern deals in things which can be expressed in figures and statements. Not so the work of the Kingdom of God. Here one fails to find the material for a real report, for the simple reason that the Kingdom is not material. "For the Kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost." It "cometh not with observation, The Kingdom of God is within you." It is true that the spiritual life manifests itself in visible results which can be reported. Nevertheless, those material matters which are subject to figures and statements are for the most part the instruments of the Kingdom, and, therefore, secondary. Of necessity these secondary things occupy the large place in a report of religious work. This has a tendency to make us all give an undue emphasis to the things which are related to the Kingdom rather than to the Kingdom itself, to make us value the tools and appliances of the spiritual life, rather than the real life.

There is genuine cause for alarm in this drift of emphasis toward secondary things. Plans, campaigns, reports, organizations, and movements are all means to an end. These must not be left undone but the end itself, the spiritual life, is the thing of supreme importance.

The work of the minister and the Christian layman is not like that of the manufacturer who fashions after a design, nor like the carpenter who builds according to a plan, but rather like the work of the farmer who prepares the ground, plants the seed, cultivates the growing plant, and patiently waits for the fruit which "grows, he knows not how, first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear." He plants and waters, but God gives the increase.

All this is not said to condone any meagerness in this or any other report, but to point out a real weakness in the present day viewpoint.

For the first time in some years, the Conference of 1916 closed with a pastor assigned to every charge in the Jacksonville District, and every man has stood faithfully at his post.

Revivals.

The pastors and churches began their revival campaigns early, and pressed them faithfully. For the most part, the pastors have held their own revivals, or with the aid of brother pastors. Eight of the charges have had outside help. The charges generally report conversions and increase, but there have been no outstanding revivals, much to our sorrow. Never before have we been so interrupted by quarantine for contagious diseases. If this custom becomes more general, it will be wise to abandon the winter season for the revival campaign. It would also be interesting to know just how much the uneasiness caused by present world conditions has militated against revival work.

Benevolences.

The Benevolences have been faithfully presented. This has been a year of unusual demand on philanthropy, and the people have responded most generously. But the pastors have urged that these great Boards belong to us, and that we must not decrease our offerings to them because of other demands. There has been a deal of uncertainty in the minds of the people as to the future. They have been wondering what the President was going to do with the coal operators, what Mr. Hoover was going to do with the farmers, and what the Kaiser was going to do with the world. This spirit of unrest has not been helpful to large Benevolent collections, and in some cases was hurt by them. But, in spite of all this we expect to report a modest increase.

New Buildings.

This has been a great year for material improvements. The beautiful new frame church at Hebron, on the Jacksonville Circuit, was completed and dedicated Feb. 4, the stormiest, bitterest day of the year. Many churches omitted services that day, but the dedication at Hebron was a great success. President Theodore Kemp, of Bloomington, preached and conducted the dedicatory services to the delight of all. The church cost $7,000, and every dollar of the amount was raised before dedication day. The pastor, Brother Wetzel, and his efficient Board deserve great credit for this unusual enterprise.

Waverly is now building a fine $20,000 brick church, modern in every way. This will meet a need of which the church has been conscious for a long time. Brother Smith has led his forces to this splendid victory through great difficulties.

Ashbury, on the Greenfield Circuit, is just beginning a new church, which has been greatly needed. Pastor Mallinson and the Board hope to have it ready for dedication during the winter.

The cyclone of May 26 passed through the southern end of our District and laid waste a part of Modesto. Among other buildings, our church was completely demolished. The distressed people felt it would be hardly possible to rebuild. Palmyra, which is a part of the same charge, gave an illustration of speedy first aid. The next day, Sunday, the Palmyra Board got together, and voted to assume all the current expenses including the pastor's salary, for the remainder of the year, also all the Benevolences for the proportionate part of the year in full. The pastor, Brother Pulliam, entered with hearty sympathy into the plans for rebuilding and repairing the homes, until courage and faith returned. He then quietly took up the new church enterprise, which was successfully launched, and plans are already made for a $7,000 church to be dedicated some time during the year.

Carrollton has erected and paid for a commodious parsonage of eight rooms, modern and beautiful in every way, costing $4,200 complete. Franklin is at present building a fine parsonage much after the same plan, with added features, which will cost about $5,000 when complete. They, too, have the funds all raised and the pastor will move in some time during the fall.

Extensive improvements have been made on churches or parsonages at Bluffs, Astoria, Fairview, Palmyra, Brooklyn, Manchester, Virginia, White Hall, Waverly Circuit, Winchester, and West Jacksonville Circuit. Minor improvements have been made elsewhere.

Debt Paying.

This has also been a great year for paying off old debts. Centenary started the good work by putting on a big debt paying day in October. The new pastor, Brother Pletcher, was scarcely on the ground, but he took hold of the situation like a veteran. The campaign had been thoroughly planned under the leadership of the former pastor, Brother G. W. Flagge.

In May, Grace church put on a similar campaign, and cleared up their old debt of $11,000, much to the joy of Brother Madden and the people of Grace church. In both these campaigns, the churches were fortunate in having secured the services of Dr. John Krantz, of New York City, who is a master hand in leading a financial campaign.

Other charges to clean up old debts were Winchester, where, with Brother C. W. Caseley to lead, they have ridded themselves of an incubus which has clung to the church ever since it was built. Carrollton paid a debt of $1,800, which, together with the new parsonage, for which they also paid, makes a signal victory for Brother Boyd and his people. Other churches raised smaller debts and are accordingly happy.

The Conference Claimants Campaign.

Jacksonville District has the distinction of being the first District to endorse the Conference Claimants' Campaign, by every preacher pledging his part to guarantee the expenses of the campaign for the first year. We also enjoy the undesirable distinction of bringing up the smallest amount of pledges on the movement from the churches. Brother H. C. Gibbs has done magnificent service in our District, and has been most patient and considerate of the conditions with which we have had to contend. We are not claiming that our showing in this campaign is what it ought to have been. It is not. But there are reasons which explain it. As before noted, this has been an unusual year for building, improvements, and debt paying, and many of our churches, including some of the larger ones, have asked to postpone the campaign. Brother Gibbs feels the campaign should have great credit for boosting these good movements, for in many cases the Boards felt that they must get these things out of the way before the campaign was put on. It is certain the campaign is more powerful in inspiring these improvements than argument or persuasion.

The Woman's College.

The Illinois Woman's College has closed another banner year. The College is rapidly growing and stands in class "A" of standard Colleges. The Academy is being eliminated, and soon the institution will do nothing except regular college work. This has been a quiet year in that there has been no financial campaign. However, Dr Harker and his Board have not been asleep. Plans are already on foot for the $400,000 campaign, which has been announced for some time. This will carry out the long cherished ideal of a million dollar plant.

Next year will complete for Dr. Harker a quarter of a century as President of the Woman's College. This ranks Dr. Harker the senior College President of Methodism, with the possible exception of Dr. W. H. Crawford, who was elected to the Presidency of Allegheny College the same year Dr. Harker was elected. Plans are being made to fittingly celebrate this noteworthy event next commencement.

Personals.

Brother O. M. Beebe, who was appointed Chaplain of the Twelfth United States Cavalry, is stationed at Columbus, N. M., and is doing fine work. He has fully reported his work. Besides caring for the spiritual welfare of two Regiments, he also ministers to the large I. W. W. camp there.

Brother E. K. Towle has done a year of effective evangelistic work. Many of our churches have been greatly blessed by his ministry. Within the District Brooklyn, Asbury, and Meredosia have had gracious seasons of refreshing under his leadership.

In general the parsonage homes have enjoyed excellent health. Once did the death angel enter, when Mrs. Witt, mother of Mrs. C. S. Boyd, of Carrollton, was called home after a long and devoted Christian life.

World conditions have affected the work of the church during the year. There is a feeling of uncertainty and unrest, which makes the people hesitate about assuming responsibility for the future. However, withal, there is a deep spirit of loyalty, and of determination, and a firm faith that God will bring out of this unprecedented world catastrophe a better order of things which will be commensurate with the terrific cost.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

C. F. Buker, Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren of the Conference:

It is with mingled feeling of regret and delight that I present this, my final report as Superintendent of Mattoon District. Regret that I shall leave the delightful fellowship of the pastors and people of Methodism on this District, delight that I shall return to the pastoral relation, which I consider among the most blessed relationships of life. Most of the men of this District appointed by Bishop Wilson at the last session of the Conference remained at their work during the year. J. S. Grahl transferred south, and

E. H. Sauer was secured to supply the Neoga church. H. G. Swope was transferred to one of the Ohio Conferences, and E. S. Wamsley has completed a good year's work on the Findlay Circuit. F. A. Lindhorst was compelled to seek a change of climate on account of his wife's health and D. T. Black has filled out the year on the Charleston Circuit.

District Gatherings.

The central gatherings of the preachers and laymen of the District during the past year have been seasons of unusual inspiration and helpfulness. Dr. C. E. Guthrie, of Buffalo, brought helpful messages at our fall gathering. We feel greatly indebted to Bishop Nicholson for his visit to our District in May, and for the brotherly spirit manifested while among us. All who were privileged to attend this gathering pronounced it one of the best ever held on the District. We shall not soon forget the masterly and inspiring messages brought by Bishop Nicholson.

The Epworth League Convention was a decided success. Rev. Roy Smith, of Chicago, greatly helped our young people by his messages.

The Tornado.

This report would not be complete without a reference to the terrific tornado, which struck the very heart of the District on the afternoon of May 26th. In this storm, dealing death and destruction in its path, many of our people were heavy property losers and some lost their lives. Our church, at Livingston, one of the oldest churches on the District, was completely wrecked.

On behalf of the people in the storm district, I want to again thank the pastors and people throughout the Conference for the fine response to the appeal for help. A sum of about twenty-five hundred dollars was contributed. Something over one thousand dollars each went to Mattoon and Charleston, the balance to the Livingston church.

Conference Claimants Campaign.

We immediately entered into this campaign with enthusiasm and high hopes that, as a District, we would push the enterprise to a successful conclusion this year. We had not gone far, however, until we had discovered many difficulties. On the part of some we found direct antagonism. Some of the churches discovered a debt that must be immediately taken care of. A very few of the churches were probably justified in postponing the campaign because of indebtedness. So, from various causes, the campaign on this District will not be more than half completed.

The presentation of this cause has led to the discovery of the fact that many of our people seem to have forgotten their debt to the ministry. But it would also be unfair to fail to say that many of the people have shown a splendid devotion and loyalty in their contribution to the cause. The campaign will have a wholesome effect on both preachers and people. It will lead the people to a higher appreciation of the work of the ministry, it will lead the preachers to a fuller devotion to their work.

Property Interests.

During the year a new parsonage home has been built at Neoga. This is a beautiful modern home for the preacher and will add much to the attractiveness of this charge. The people of the Kansas Circuit have purchased a parsonage home. This leaves but three of the charges of the District without parsonages.

Extensive improvements have been made on the churches at Long Point, Shiloh, and Humbolt. The Dorans people are now in the midst of quite extensive improvements on their church. Oakland people have spent several hundred dollars improving their property.

The indebtedness on the Marshall church has been fully paid. This has been done at a great sacrifice on the part of many of the people. Westfield has paid off the indebtedness against their church. An accomplishment deserving special mention is the paying of the debt on the Redmon church.

At the beginning of the year the people were greatly discouraged because of the heavy indebtedness, but the pastor soon inspired courage in his people and has led them to victory. There is no indebtedness against this church now.

During the past six years six new churches have been built on the District and five parsonage homes either built or purchased. A total of nearly one hundred and fifty thousand dollars has been expended on building and improving property. I am happy to report that the new building for Memorial Methodist Hospital, at Mattoon, has been completed and is being used. This is one of the most complete and up-to-date hospital buildings in the country, and one of which this Conference should be proud.

In this connection I may report some advance in pastors' salaries during the past year and also some advances for the ensuing year. During the past six years salaries on the District have been advanced between three and four thousand dollars. Salaries, in too many instances, are still woefully inadequate, especially is this true of the charges in the rural sections.

Evangelism.

There have been no outstanding revivals in the District during the year. Every pastor, however, has given himself untiringly to the task of winning men to Christ. The results of these soul-winning efforts have not been as gratifying as all concerned had hoped for. Some good harvests have been reaped and additions to some churches have reached as high as forty and fifty. I think there will be a small gain in membership.

The conviction has grown on me through the years that we, as pastors, must not excuse ourselves nor our people from this supreme task of bringing men to Christ. And we must not be satisfied when we have accomplished many other good things but have failed to do this supreme thing.

It is good to build churches and colleges and to raise endowment funds, but the thing of prime importance, plainly written in our commission, is the bringing of men in glad surrender to the feet of our sovereign Lord.

Another conviction that has come to me with tremendous emphasis is, that we must not be satisfied with merely enlisting the recruit, we must give attention to training for service and efficiency.

The Country Church.

We have talked tremendously about the solution of this problem. We have worked at its solution a little. One of the best things done in this connection during the year was the bringing of Prof. Nolan, of the University of Illinois, to deliver an address at our District meeting, and an arrangement made through him to hold a pastors' conference or school this fall in the interest of the country church. Two chief hindrances I have noticed in the way of working out this problem.

One relates to the preacher. Most preachers are aware that there is something the matter with many of these country churches, but fail to carefully diagnose the case.

I think one of the first things necessary in solving this problem is to find out what is needed in a given community. Let the pastor discover his task.

The other hindrance relates to the people. When you present a forward movement program, many of the people will settle back and tell you that this is the way we long have trod, and we propose to continue in the good old way. The trouble is it is not the good old way. It is just any old way.

I have noticed that, when a genuine revival of religion comes to a country church or any other church, the social and recreational activities are much more easily taken care of. In fact, these things almost spontaneously spring out of a revival. It was when the Holy Spirit was poured out at Pentecost that it was said concerning the people that they had all things in common. It was when John Wesley preached a spiritual religion and the people were converted that all the other activities that characterized the Wesleyan revival sprang into being.

Let us be careful to put first things first.

Benevolent Interests.

I am hopeful that, notwithstanding the numerous calls that have come to our people for help for outside causes, our great Benevolent interests shall not suffer. Most of the pastors reported in the Quarterly Conferences that they hoped to reach last year's amount. Some churches have made substantial gains, for example, First church, Paris, will make a fifty per cent advance.

The Woman's Foreign and the Woman's Home Missionary Societies have kept up their usual activities and will give a good account of themselves in their annual reports.

The loyalty and devotion of the Ladies' Aid Societies has a very important bearing on the success of many of our churches.

Retired Brethren.

A number of brethren in the retired relation live within the bounds of the District. In every charge where they reside, they are a blessing to pastor and people. One of these brethren is deserving of special mention. I refer to Father Ellis, of Shelbyville. To the church where he worships, to his pastor, to his District Superintendent, he is ever a benediction.

If it had not been for the fact that this Conference has expressed a desire that the reports of the District Superintendents be brief, I would have gladly mentioned the name of every pastor of the District in this report. They have all labored faithfully, many of them under very discouraging circumstances.

The Pastor's Place.

The key man of Methodism, who is he? Some say the Bishop, he occupies an important place in our economy, some say the District Superintendent, he counts for much in the leadership of the church, but the man who touches the people is the pastor. And if the people be not touched and moved, all our programs and movements fail. The pastor is the real leader of Methodism. In a certain sense, the Bishop, the Superintendent and the Secretaries of the General Boards are the servants of the pastor to help put over all the big things of the Kingdom. Let us ever be mindful to give the pastor his rightful place.

And now finally, brethren, six years ago in the church in which we are now assembled, Bishop Moore gave me my commission as Superintendent of a District. Bishop McDowell renewed that commission four times, Bishop Wilson once. If the Kingdom of God has been furthered a little by the work that has been done through these years on the Mattoon District, the credit is largely due to the splendid body of men with whom it has been my privilege to labor. I desire to extend to these men my sincerest thanks for their kindness and co-operation through the years. And here and now I wish to pledge anew to the brethren of this Conference my love and devotion and to again dedicate to God my life, my love, my all.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

A. S. Flanigan, Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brothers:

With a grateful heart we rejoice in the harvest granted to forty men of God toiling and praying in faith together with Him, and we here record to His glory some things thus done:

Things Material.

Early in the Conference year, Mt. Sterling dedicated their new $25,000 church; a great triumph for Methodism in that county seat. The pastor at Littleton about the same time moved into the new parsonage there, one of the best in the District. On the Camden charge, a new church has been organized of some seventy members, only a few of whom were Methodists or even professing Christians a year ago. They now have a new church building about completed, the finest country church in the county, and it is christened Fairview. F. H. Lathrop held a gracious revival there last fall, and this prosperous church is the result. Detroit and Pleasant Grove, on the Columbus charge, have made their plants new and modern, and have much more than doubled their value. Hull has just begun on an extensive remodeling of their church, which, when completed, will be adequate to our growing needs there. Improvements of some kind have been made in nearly every charge.

I record with joy the evidences of progress in our country churches. Many have remade their plants so as to make them models for all kinds of up to date church and community work. Nearly every rural church in the District that has not so improved is seriously considering doing so in the very near future. The Sunday Schools of our rural churches are well organized, and, to some extent, graded. The officials of these churches are seeking our finest talented and best trained men for their ministers. They are thus not only making fine places to grow Christian manhood, but will be more and more the centers of moral and spiritual poise and power for the church and nation. The laymen of the District believe in an ampler support for their ministers, and showed it in a practical way by increasing the salaries $1,800 over the year before, and, for the coming year, an increase is already promised approaching the advance of the year now closing.

Conference Claimants Endowment.

Soon after Conference we began our campaign for the Conference Claimants Endowment Fund. Early in October, H. C. Gibbs, the Secretary, met the preachers of the District and many laymen. He presented to them the grand goal, and the standard for each church, and plans for the attainment. There has been from that day sympathetic and enthusiastic co-operation in the District. As a result, the Cause has been presented in nearly all of the churches of the District. Quite a number have met the standard in full, some more than full, many others have made a fine start. Quite a number have not yet taken the offering for reasons satisfactory to the Secretary and the Superintendent, but have done much preparatory work and will do so soon after the Conference. We cannot conceive of anyone being a finer leader for this great cause than H. C. Gibbs has proven to be. It is manifest that the cause has his head and heart. And he has made hundreds of friends for the cause by his clear presentation of it, by his genial spirit, by his readiness to help any of the preachers, and by his unswerving devotion in season and out of season for its success.

Chaddock Boys' School.

The authorities of Chaddock Boys' School announce the past year to be the best in its history. The following facts give an idea of the great work being done in a school year.

Last year sixty boys were enrolled, thirty-six of these were under fourteen years of age, nine of them graduated from the eighth grade, twenty-four of these were widows' boys and dependent on the mother for support, and ten both parents were dead. Five were entirely supported by their parents, and eighteen were entirely supported by the school. Six thousand dollars was given to the school to support needy and worthy boys. The first of the new buildings was completed and ready for use at the opening of the school last September, and another building similar to it is now in process of construction. This building is made possible by a gift of $5,000 by Joseph Hoyt, of Augusta. Many other things might be mentioned indicating the progress of the school, but space forbids recording any other but the most important events in the history of the school as a boys' institution.

May the 24th, Bishop Nicholson called together, at Quincy, the District Superintendents, the School Presidents, and a committee from the Board of Education of the Conference, with a Committee from the Board of Trustees of Chaddock, and, when the Conference approves of the action of this meeting, a new, brighter, and bigger day is ahead of Chaddock.

Benevolences.

A few months before the Conference we were fearful that, while "Other Benevolences" would report a large increase over other years, the Disciplinary Benevolences would have a corresponding decrease, owing to the special campaigns for a great cause, and the many calls and generous offerings made on account of our state of war. But less than half dozen preachers reported to me a slight decrease, while most have reported some increase over last year. And both the W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S. will report a large increase.

Sunday Schools.

Our Sunday Schools are encouraging in every way. The enrollment will show an increase and the average attendance a much larger one. Many of the schools are highly organized, and most of them use the graded lessons in part at least, and many have the "Teacher Training Classes." A very large percentage of the Sunday School membership has been won to Christ and the church, and some very successful efforts have been made to hold the children to the public worship. We are sure that "what a child cannot understand of Christianity no one need to try to."

Epworth Leagues.

While some of our Epworth Leagues are like some preachers (not of the Quincy District, however), dead before they expire, and should be prayed for rather than loaned money, yet they will report the largest increase in membership for some years, and are real factors in making our church a power in the District.

Revivals.

As a moment of spiritual insight or a vision is worth a life time on the dead level, and as such insight and vision are part of every real revival, so we pray, without ceasing, "O, Lord, revive us again." Revivals in the District began with the year. At Bowen, a union revival was in progress during last Conference, and closed some time afterward with quite a number of accessions to our church. A little later Augusta had such a meeting with similar results, and Bob Jones led such a meeting in Quincy, which resulted in some 200 accessions to our churches, while the "Gospel Team" of laymen of Fairfield, Iowa, held one of their union and successful meetings at Rushville in the spring. During the summer, we held three gospel tent campaigns, viz.: at Warsaw, Griggsville, and Payson, which resulted in scores of conversions, many reclamations, and many additions to our church, and in every way to preachers, churches, and communities a new and firmer grip on things visible and eternal.

The pastors at Hull and Camden were in revivals for most of the time for the first six months of the Conference year with a large and most gracious harvest. Many other preachers and churches were blest in special evangelistic efforts so that the District will report more professed conversions than in any other year of my administration.

Charles E. Taylor.

On February the 8th, the call to come up higher was responded to by Charles E. Taylor, who was serving his fourth year as pastor at Camp Point. He was a man finely fitted by nature for the ministry. He had had the advantages also of the best schools; he was entirely dedicated to his high calling, sanely zealous to push every department of the church to which he was appointed, and aggressively and intelligently loyal to our world wide church program. A positive preacher of the Word, a true pastor of the flock. He had a tinge of that pure, true, ennobling sadness, while the sunshine of the Gospel was always with him, a saintly man. And, as long as my church is able to produce such Christian manhood and hold it, our ministry, our rising power and continuance in progress is assured.

On July 20th, as J. F. McAnally, our pastor at Bowen, was returning home from a vacation, as he went through Hamilton, Illinois, cause not clearly known, his automobile "turned turtle," fatally injuring his son, Allen, who died a few hours afterward in a hospital, at Keokuk, Iowa. Brother McAnally was seriously injured also, and, in addition, suffered a great nervous shock. His physicians, in consequence, advised him to take some months rest, assuring him, if he would do so, there was no reason why he should not fully recover. This he decided to do. Our deepest sympathy and constant prayers go with this manly man of God and great preacher of the word in this hour of trial.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

A. C. Piersel, Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

During the year, Brother M. V. B. Hill, one of our retired veterans, who had seen many years of effective service, stepped out of this life up to glory and to God. Also our Brother J. J. Dugan was bereft of the faithful and beloved companion of his life.

As to things material done and doing on the District, I mention these charges in order. Athens has spent $300 on its church. Waggoner, on the Farmersville charge, is the outstanding point in material improvement. A practically new church costing approximately $5,000, all provided for, supplants the old. A thing of beauty and service is the little brown church in Waggoner. Grove City has basemented itself in splendid shape. Laurel, Springfield, has beautified itself within at a cost of $1,000. Mechanicsburg has put its lower story in fine shape. Mt. Auburn has spent $500 on renovating and renewing itself. Rural, on the Nilwood charge, has basemented itself. Raymond is in process of renewal within and without. Lowder, on the Thayer charge, has the pastor in a good parsonage purchased last fall. Williamsville has spent $600 on church and parsonage.

As to matters not material, Kincaid has doubled its small membership. Helpful revivals were held in several charges. Mechanicsburg reports a gracious meeting. Kumler had a hearty response, with Evangelist E. K. Towle assisting. Brother Towle was also the evangelist for the summer tent meeting on the Curran charge. Brother Towle has our heartiest commendation for the manner and method of his conduct of a meeting. We recommend him to the brethren. Eighteenth Street church, Springfield, is the outstanding charge as to revival and ingathering; the membership has been more than doubled. Special revival services with them are the outgrowth of continuous evangelism. In the immediate future they must have enlarged accommodations.

Matters in General.

The purpose a year ago to have a central Sunday School Institute for the District, with follow-up sub-District Institutes, was carried out last fall, with marked benefit to all charges, the benefit being pro rata to the interest taken.

The cause of the endowment campaign for Conference Claimants received large consideration, but not as large as its merits demanded. It is planned, however, to push the campaign to completion as rapidly as possible. For the help and leadership of Secretary H. C. Gibbs, we have unlimited praise.

One of the finest and most effective fields for service has been found in the Efficiency Quarterly Conference, a Conference congregational in its nature, in which the mere formal routine of a Quarterly Conference is subordinated to the larger and more vital things of the Kingdom, both general and local.

Christian stewardship and evangelism are the two pre-eminent things that shall be emphasized, if the present administration of the District is continued. Moreover, the increased circulation and reading of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, our official paper, that is having an increasingly vital message for all Illinois Conference Methodists, as well as for others of its area, is absolutely essential.

In my report of a year ago, mention was made that the ministers of the District and the laymen, too, need for the summer a central camping place for recreation and inspiration—a revival of the old camp meeting in new form.

It now seems that there is the possibility of the fruition of that hope. If so it should be, and there should be somewhat of the realization of the vision we have, my little part in relation thereto will constitute my largest contribution to and for the work of the District, even though I be permitted to continue in this relationship for the period of six years.

It was a capital idea—the putting of Springfield “dry” last April. In the doing of this, our pastors of Springfield played no mean part. They were in the game. The District Superintendent was not on the bleachers. Just as faithful service was rendered in similar battles at other points on the District. From now on, I am committed to the encouragement of the pastors and laymen of the District to do all within their power to defeat for reelection and election any and all legislative candidates, who are unwilling to give their pledge and promise to stand for the elimination of beverage liquor in state and nation, for the sake of God and humankind. We count that such a one, be he U. S. Senator, Congressman, or State legislator, who is unwilling to give the people of Illinois a chance to vote on National Prohibition, is, by reason of his lack of intelligence or integrity, or both, unfit to be a representative of the people of Illinois.

The fellowship with the brethren, and in their homes, is one of the finest things on earth. It has been strengthening and heartening to me. It furthers me on the way to Heaven. But some of us ministers, by reason of the drive of many duties, or for other reason, have somewhat lost out in that finer thing—communion with God. And, as a result, we have lost out in effective leadership for the sake of the Son of God, Christ—the Crucified—the Glorified. We are minded, however, by God's good grace to do better for next year and for the years.

(B) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCES.

Our regular Benevolent Causes are robbed by the failure of the official boards to conform to the disciplinary plan for the raising as a part of the pastoral support the apportionment for the Episcopal fund and the Conference Claimants. Money which should go to the Benevolent Boards is appropriated for these causes. Consequently, the Benevolences are stinted. Let the pastore and District Superintendents urge every official board to adopt the authorized method of pastoral support and endeavor to give the Disciplinary Benevolences a square deal.

Your committee desire to call attention to the fact that the pastor's responsibility for the Benevolent collections does not cease when the every member canvass has been completed. Frequent presentations of the Benevolent work from the pulpit and faithful effort to follow up the results of the canvass are imperative, if the interests of these great societies are not to suffer.

The world war opens before our Benevolent Boards strategic opportunities. If our church is to fulfil her mission in these great days, we must rally as never before to the support of these Benevolent causes. Clergy and laity alike need a new and clearer vision of the intimate relation between the work of these Benevolent organizations and the solution of the world problems of our times. We recommend that the Commission of Finance and the various Benevolent Boards provide literature showing the vital relation of the Benevolent work of our church to the world war which is the paramount concern of the people. Thus the appeal will be more commanding and the response more generous.

The multiplied calls of the Red Cross and war relief work instead of detracting from the Benevolent Causes are, and we believe will continue to be, deepening and intensifying influences upon the benevolent impulses of our people.

We furthermore call the attention of our people to the fact that the Apportionments for the several Benevolent Board are simply the minimum requirements, and not the full measure of responsibility, that the General Conference has fixed as the true ideal of benevolent giving, the standard of the Golden Rule, "As much for others as for ourselves." We therefore recommend that each church endeavor to measure up to this ideal, at the same time accepting the Apportionments for Benevolences, as the minimum standard below which it must not and will not fail.

Chairman, Chas. H. Thrall,
Secretary, W. R. Leslie.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' CAMPAIGN FOR ENDOWMENT FUNDS.

The report of the Field Secretary indicates that, in round numbers, $130,000 have been pledged by the churches of the Conference during the Conference year, that $29,649.33 has been turned over to the Treasurer of the Commission, that 81 churches have pledged the full amount, that 148 have made a partial canvass, that 180 have taken the Saddlebags Offering only, and that 136 have made no report. This report is evidence that our task has not been completed, but that a good beginning has been made.

We believe that the completion of this Endowment Fund for the support of the Conference Claimants is of first importance in the Illinois Conference, and that to fail to carry this work to a successful conclusion would mean that we have been unfaithful to a high and noble duty.

We therefore recommend:

(1) The continuation of the Commission, with the powers conferred last year.

(2) The appointment of Henry C. Gibbs as Field Secretary of the Commission and ex-officio member of it, who shall work under the direction of the Commission; also that you authorize and direct said Commissioners to fix the salary of the Field Secretary and provide for all the necessary expenses incident to the prosecution of the work of the Commission.

(3) That, instead of a Saddlebags Day as a part of the program for next year, one Sunday be set apart and observed as Veterans' Day, the details of which are to be planned and carried out under the direction of the Commission.

(4) That you reaffirm your action of last year concerning the standard amount to be raised by each church of the Conference.

(5) That, since the successful completion of the Endowment Campaign and the satisfactory distribution of the income from these funds demand the greatest care on the part of the Conference, we emphasize the necessity of carefully protecting the church and the Conference from inefficient men in our ministry. We, therefore, recommend:

(a) That especial care be used in admitting men into the Conference.

(b) That members who have become inefficient because of entanglement in secular affairs should be given a certificate of location rather than a supernumerary relation.

(c) That the most careful consideration be given to each person who asks to be retired, so that no one may be permitted to hold this relation who does not meet the Disciplinary provisions.

(6) We also recommend that the Conference direct the Board of Stewards in the distribution of the available funds for Claimants to observe the annuity principle so far as it is possible, and as rapidly as possible increase the per cent distributed upon this basis.

(7) That, while stress must now be laid upon the "every church canvass," it must not be forgotten that when the standard amount has been paid into the treasury by the churches of the Conference, and the $500,000 has been raised, before our task is fully completed, an additional sum of $250,000 must be secured; that before all just claims can be fully met either the 6 per cent apportionment of the charges of the Conference must be raised or a sum equal to $750,000 must be in hand and producing an income which can be used for the benefit of the Conference Claimants.

We, therefore, recommend that every preacher be upon the lookout for large gifts, annuity gifts, and bequests for the Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund.

B. F. Shipp, President.

R. Y. Williams, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

1. The Paramount Duty.

In view of the action of this Conference to push the great campaign for the $500,000.00 endowment for the Conference Claimants, and the splendid results so far attained, we urge it as the paramount duty of every charge to see that the standard amount asked of the charge for this fund be raised in full this year, also that full support and assistance be accorded those who have this campaign in charge.

2. Special Attention.

We would call special attention to the report of the Secretary of the Board of Stewards, with reference to needs of this fund, and specially to the comparative statements showing the advantages of all members of the Conference becoming members of The Preachers' Aid Society.

3. The Preachers' Aid Society.

In view of the fact that, by the adoption of the Report of the Commission on Conference Claimants, every member of the Illinois Conference becomes a sharer in the benefits that shall accrue from all funds secured, ultimately including the funds and endowments of The Preachers' Aid Society; and, until a large productive endowment has been secured, the funds available for annual distribution to Conference Claimants by The Preachers' Aid Society will depend in part upon the payment of annual dues by the members of the Preachers' Aid Society; therefore, be it

Resolved, (1) That every candidate for admission into membership of the Illinois Conference, before he is admitted into the Conference, shall be asked to pledge himself to become a member of and pay his annual dues to The Preachers' Aid Society;

(2) That with every member of the Illinois Conference it is a matter of good faith that he become an active member of, and pay his annual dues to The Preachers' Aid Society, in the benefits of whose funds he is to share; and,

(3) That each member of the Conference who shall be appointed to service other than that of Pastor or District Superintendent shall furnish the Secretary of the Conference the name of the position held, and the amount of salary or income received from said position.

4. Requests.

Appreciating the earnest and wise work of the Field Secretary, H. C. Gibbs, we most sincerely request his reappointment to this office for the coming year.

W. S. Phillipps, Chairman.

E. L. Pletcher, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

I submit a brief report of The Preachers' Aid Society for the past year, together with a condensed report of the Treasurer and of the Disbursing Committee, which shows that some $5,000 is being distributed to the several Beneficiary Claimants of the Society. The disbursement in detail will be printed with the table of Distribution in the report of the Board of Stewards.

While all the efforts of the Society have been joined with the Conference Claimants Commission Campaign, the assets of the Society have been considerably increased during the year. The duties of the Secretary, A. M. Wells, though arduous and trying, have been most faithfully performed, and he can be found at his desk at almost any hour during the Conference to wait on members of the Conference in adjustment of claims and answering questions pertaining to the Society. His report shows that nearly 200 members are now paying their dues. We confidently expect that every member of the Conference will now see that his interest lies in keeping up his annual dues.

It is with great satisfaction that we report that the pledge made by the Board of Control last year to amend the constitution of the Society and thus ratify and make binding the "Basis of Agreement" entered into at that time between the trustees, the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society, and the Conference through its Board of Stewards, has been fulfilled. The proposed amendments have been adopted, and the new constitution has been made to conform strictly to all of the requirements of the law of the Church.

However, the advantage to the widow of a beneficiary member of the Preachers' Aid Society, over that of a brother who has not paid or kept up his annual dues, is retained for the reason that it is both equitable and right, and, further, because vested rights are involved which we are legally bound to guard.

The following statement signed by the President and Secretary of the Society is a formal notice to the Conference of the action of the Society in the matter of the nunification and administration of all permanent funds for Conference Claimants:

"This is to certify that on the 8th day of September, 1917, The Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at its annual meeting, revised its Constitution by adopting the amendments which had been proposed, and agreed upon, at its annual meeting at Springfield, September 16th, 1916, and by so doing completed the action required to make binding and effective the agreement entered into between the Society and the Conference, its Board of Trustees, and its Board of Stewards, in the matter of the nunification and administration of all the permanent funds for Conference Claimants on the basis of the agreement as printed on pages 66 to 69, inclusive, in the Conference Minutes of 1916.

Signed by order of the Society by its President and Secretary.

Wm. H. Wilder, President.
A. M. Wells, Secretary."

It is the purpose of the Society to do all within its power to create a permanent fund of one million dollars for the care of claimants. We expect to stay in the every church canvass with the Commission until the minimum standard has been reached by every church and then seek by larger gifts and requests to add to these funds until they are adequate to provide that "comfortable support" long since promised and hoped for by our worthy fathers.

I present herewith a condensed report of our most faithful Treasurer, Hiram Buck Prentice, who after the close of this Conference session becomes the custodian of the funds now being raised by the Commission.

REPORT OF THE DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

The annual reports of our two Conference Deaconess Institutions, the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Chaddock Boys' School, indicate a year of progress. The Cunningham Deaconess Home is nobly fulfilling the hopes of its founders and friends. The capacity of the Home is taxed to care for the unfortunate children who desire to share in its beautiful home life and capable instruction. Chaddock Boys' School is surely growing to meet the wide need of a school of the orphaned boys of the church. This year the school enters upon a new relationship in that it withdraws from sharing in the Conference educational funds to enter the field for public presentation of its needs to each Methodist church in the Conference. We earnestly request the pastors and churches to freely accord Chaddock Boys' School this privilege and generously co-operate in sustaining this noble Conference institution.

The licenses of the following deaconesses were renewed:

Emma S. Haverly, Lillian V. Chapin, Annie L. Logan, Mabel G. Millard, Bertha A. Beadles, Anna M. Kellogg, Mary E. Williamson, Mary L. Brewer, Harriet L. Severns, Eva C. Frieids, Grace Coventry.

John W. Miller, Chairman.

M. G. Coleman, Secretary.

THE EDUCATIONAL REPORT.

The Committee on Education submits the following:

The period of the last six years has been most fruitful in securing an educational spirit and in producing revenue for our colleges. The benefits of the united endeavor of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences have secured for our schools more money than in over sixty years of previous labors. Six years ago the Educational Forward Movement was launched with hope that for the various institutions involved a million and a quarter of dollars would be secured, but with the close of the campaign of Hedding College and Grand Prairie Seminary last January it gives us pleasure to report that something over two million dollars have been raised. We regret that the interests of other institutions have required the pushing aside, during this period, of the interest of Chaddock Boys' School and the Wesley Foundation at the State University, but we commend the plans of these institutions as outlined in the further report.

The closing of the campaign of the two Conferences necessitates the closing of the working agreement between the two Conference Educational Boards and requires the changing of the distribution of educational monies. We recommend that hereafter the educational collection be distributed as follows:

Two-tenths to the Board of Education in New York as required by the Discipline.

One-tenth to the Wesley Foundation.

Three and one-half tenths to the Illinois Woman's College, and three and one-half tenths to the Illinois Wesleyan University.

The spirit of unity which has prevailed among our educational institutions in the past six years has proven very advantageous for all of them, and we recommend that arrangements be made whereby the spirit of unity may in the future be conserved, and urge that the interested institutions provide a common fund to provide the necessary expenses for this cause. We further recommend that the Conference Educational Board consist of two ministers and two laymen for each district and nominate for members of the Board, for the class of 1920, the following:

A. R. Grummon, E. M. Antrim, Lloyd Snerly, L. H. Irwin, O. T. Purl, F. R. Dove, W. A. Orr, George Wilson, John Kissack, Cliff Guild.

THE ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

We are gratified to note and are pleased to report the improvements made in the interior of the main building of the Illinois Wesleyan University. The decorators have made the halls and recitation rooms both clean and artistic, while the large basement has been completely rearranged and improved, securing results in beauty and convenience. And we were pleased to note that the Trustees have voted to have the Science Hall similarly treated during the summer vacation.

The large increase in students during the past year, making it the largest student body in the history of the school, is both a matter for congratulation and grave concern, and it has put straight to the Trustees for settlement a matter that has been under consideration for some time, namely, the future policy of the school.

With three great universities already within our state, it becomes more and more evident that the part of wisdom on the part of the Illinois Wesleyan is to openly declare its policy to be that of a strong small college. It is very evident that to attempt to do otherwise would be to require the expending of several millions of dollars, which is not forthcoming; but that, on the other hand, if we pursue the policy of the small college, we shall by the raising of a modest sum for buildings, grounds and endowment, be able to do work as far as for, second to no school in the state.

The first step in this line was taken by the Trustees, when they voted to eliminate the Academy by dropping the first two years this fall, and one year each for the next two years, so that the commencement of 1919 will see the elimination of the Academy. Provision will be made, however, for sub-freshman work for a time so that those that are not prepared to do full college work shall still be able to enter the school. Discussion was also had as to the advisability of changing the relation of the Law school to the University, but the matter was postponed till next commencement, and a committee was continued to make recommendations at that time.

The increase in the number of students as well as the demands of the times have also brought to the fore the matter of new buildings, which must be erected in the near future, if we are adequately to perform the tasks we have set for ourselves, and if we continue to invite students from our best High Schools. When towns of three or four thousand inhabitants are erecting school buildings equal to any we have on the campus, and cities like Bloomington, Decatur, and Springfield are erecting buildings with equipment that cost half a million dollars, it becomes evident that the college must properly prepare for its task. Two new buildings are practically assured, one to be erected by the Buck estate as a memorial building, and a gymnasium to be erected by the alumnae of the school.

New buildings will require additional ground and this has raised the matter of a new site, and a committee is now working upon this important matter, and will report at the December meeting of the Board.

We are pleased to report that there was no deficit this year in the running expenses.

Faculty and students are working together as a great happy family, preparing for the world task.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

The past year has been a rather quiet one from an outside viewpoint, on account of the absence of any financial campaign. However, on the inside it has been one of vigorous activity and highly gratifying results.

Following the recommendation of the University Senate, the College is giving up its Academy Classes. For the coming year, only the third and fourth years of academy students will be received, and by 1919 the academy will be eliminated altogether. There was an increase of college students last year, the incoming class numbering one hundred and nineteen.

For twenty-two years the College had no deficit in current expenses. A year ago there was a small deficit. The past year, because of the greatly increased cost of living, and the large demands arising from the high grade of work, and the large increase of the college departments, the year closed with a deficit of $5,000. This is largely accounted for by the fact that during the year several thousand dollars were spent on special repairs and improvements. But it proves very clearly the imperative need of additional endowment to meet the constantly increasing demands.

In the year an addition to the library has been built, providing a stack room for more than 20,000 volumes. By gift and purchase more than a thousand volumes have been added. The library has now over 5,000 volumes well selected and a library endowment has been started with now something over $6,000.

A beautiful and substantial new gymnasium has been built and is ready for use the coming year. In addition to the regular gymnasium floor, the building has a fine swimming pool, a large stage and auditorium for college plays, and provides fine equipment for all social and recreational purposes.

The highest college and university authorities of the country attest the standards of the work done by the college by ranking it permanently in class A, and by honoring its graduates with scholarships for advanced degrees. The religious life of the college is well sustained.

The Diamond Jubilee, which is to be celebrated in 1921, is drawing nearer, and should be marked by the addition of $400,000 for endowment and buildings and equipment, making the total value of the college plant one million dollars. The college is paying out for each student twice as much as she pays in tuition. Gifts for endowment and equipment are urgently needed.

We cannot speak too highly of the magnificent work of President and Mrs. Harker. Their outstanding ability and fitness for this work have commanded the admiration and gratitude of all. Their noble spirit of devotion and self-sacrifice has touched all hearts. We are justly proud of the high rank Dr. Harker has taken among the college Presidents of America.

Next year will complete twenty-five years of this faithful and efficient service. This is a record among College Presidents in Methodism. There is only one who shares this honor with Dr. Harker, and that is President W. H. Crawford, of Allegheny College, who was elected the same year. But, the Woman's College Commencement coming earlier, we assume that Dr. Harker is the senior.

Arrangements are being made by the Board of Trustees for a suitable celebration of this significant event, in which the Illinois Conference will be glad to participate.

WESLEY FOUNDATION.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois is planning a state-wide campaign for funds with which to erect a Church and Social Center Building, and, since the work there has become imperative, we recommend:

First—That the Wesley Foundation is entitled to a clear field throughout state-wide Methodism, to the end that this shall be the only Conference-wide campaign initiated during the ensuing Conference year.

Second—We endorse the campaign being worked out by the Board of Trustees of the Wesley Foundation and the District Superintendents of the state.

Third—We approve of the amount of money asked, $500,000.00, and the purpose for which it is to be used, namely: The erection of a church and Social Center Building and the beginning of an endowment.

Fourth—We herewith accord to the Wesley Foundation the official approval of and authority for the promotion of this campaign and pledge the hearty co-operation of the preachers of the Illinois Conference. We urge upon our people the necessity of liberal support of this important undertaking.

Fifth—For the coming Conference Year of 1917-18, the Wesley Foundation Campaign shall have precedence.

CHADDOCK BOYS' SCHOOL.

After much study and conference in regard to Chaddock Boys' School, a committee composed of the President of the Conference, members of the Conference Board of Education, and the Board of Trustees of Chaddock Boys' School, the following policy and plan for the future of the school has been determined upon:

(1) Educational Policy.

The special field of the Chaddock Boys' School is to be that of the smaller boy, up to and including the work of the eighth grade, but with whatever provision can be made, educationally, for the needs of those boys who, because of homeless or other necessary conditions, shall require the services of the school and home into the ninth and tenth grades. It is not intended to make the ninth and tenth grade work a feature for which students shall be especially sought, but that the work shall be continued for meritorious and necessary cases.

(2) Sustentation.

In lieu of the present share of Chaddock in the Public Educational Collection of the Illinois Conference, the school shall hereafter be accorded an annual presentation of its cause in the churches of the Conference as a special Benevolence interest, and shall receive an offering for its work in connection with such presentation. The plan of taking the offering for Chaddock Boys' School shall be left to the individual pastor and the Superintendent of the School, or her representative.

(3) Campaign.

A five-year program is recommended to the Trustees and Conference for a total goal of $250,000 for buildings and endowment, the first unit of which shall be $100,000 to be sought in the immediate future by the method of personal canvass, or otherwise as the Trustees may provide, rather than by the method of Conference or District organization at the present time.

It is understood that this general plan of policy and procedure, as hereinabove recommended, shall not be modified except with the sanction of the Illinois Annual Conference.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

We commend our Theological Schools for their great service to the church and the Master's Kingdom. Under alert and consecrated leadership they are introducing new courses, adding new professors to their faculties, increasing their Endowment, enlarging their material equipment and adapting their curricula to the needs of our age. We note with deep satisfaction the high scholarship and profound spirituality of these schools of the prophets. We rejoice in the large registration and the fine type of students availing themselves of the rare privileges in these great centers of instruction and inspiration. We commend these splendid schools to all our ministerial candidates, believing that these theological seminaries are divinely appointed institutions to furnish those who study in their class rooms and become imbued with their spirit and atmosphere such an equipment that they may become workmen who need not be ashamed, rightly divining the Word of Truth. We nominate the following persons as Conference Visitors:

Iliff, W. F. Pitner; Boston, H. W. McPherson and E. M. Antrim; Drew, F. B. Madden; Garrett, C. F. Juvinall and E. G. Sandmeyer.

GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION

(a) The Children's Day Collection, which has aided, from the beginning, more than twenty-five thousand students, last year 2,062, is more efficient than ever. This collection is not yet large enough to meet the demands.

(b) We endorse and commend the apportionment of a religious worker to serve our own schools and tax supported schools when and where requested.

(c) The Educational Jubilee of our Church is worthy the devout support and co-operation of all our people. It means better kept campuses, better buildings and equipment, strengthened faculties, enriched curricula, and greatly increased endowments.

(d) Students attending schools of the Church, whose homes are in this Conference, were granted loans from Children's Day Fund, the total amounting to $1,685.00. The total contribution last year from this Conference to the Children's Day Fund amounted to $2,122.59 as compared with $1,960 of the year before.

Loans amounting to $1,235.00 were granted to students in Illinois Wesleyan University and Illinois Woman's College.

Trustees and Visitors.

We recommend for Trustees and Visitors of the various institutions the following:

Illinois Wesleyan University: Trustees, class of 1920, Sain Welty, William A. Smith, William M. Dever, Washington F. Engle.

Official Visitors—George E. Scrimger, Merle N. English, Rudolph H. Schuett, Arthur S. Chapman, William J. Davidson, Superintendent of Bloomington District.

EVANGELISM.

It is a historical fact that the Wesleyan Revival saved England from the bloody experiences of the French Revolution, and no less true that the burning zeal of the preachers of righteousness turned the tide of thought from French Atheism to Gospel Truth, at the time of this Nation's birth.

The all engrossing topic of the hour is this world wide war with its boundless effect upon the economic, political, moral and spiritual affairs of men.

Dismissing everything pertaining to the temporal side of the question, we concern ourselves with the deeper and more valuable aspects confronting mankind.

We rejoice to hear of a growing interest in religious things in all the lands affected by war. Men who for many years have neglected the church now seek its altars; multitudes either indifferent or antagonistic are taking advantage of its offered consolations and helpfulness; in short, both ministers and people are putting aside debatable matters, proclaiming and seeking Jesus Christ as the Savior of men.

The same condition will become increasingly apparent in this land; we are reaching the place of the Apostle who said to the Master, "To whom shall we go but Thee, for Thou hast the words of Eternal Life?"

We recommend a still more urgent spirit of Evangelism upon our pastors; all other considerations such as enlistment of armies, provision of funds or conservation of foods, while eminently necessary and patriotic, are subsidiary to the one great vital fact, the salvation of men.

We must not lose sight of the provision made by our church for assisting the pastors in revival efforts; the literature dealing with all phases of the question is timely, prolific and well worthy of our acceptance; while the oversight which the discipline provides regarding evangelists will, if taken advantage of, relieve us from the embarrassment resulting from the work of some irresponsible person and the too frequent distress and disappointment, arising from efforts whose chief aim is to enhance the reputation of the preacher.

The prevailing conditions call for a program which will be efficient and meet the necessities of the hour; we urge our pastors to make every service evangelical, to call men to immediate faith and consecration, to be faithful concerning the conversion of children, and so influence the Sunday School that it shall be means of bringing souls to Christ, as well as building them up in Christ. The attention of pastors and people is called to the Conference program for the coming year, which places emphasis on Evangelism; we trust it will be faithfully carried out. Finally we commend the plan so successfully followed by our fathers, the mutual help of pastors in revival times; our common interests make this advisable and particularly helpful.

E. S. Vorbeck, Chairman.

C. W. Caseley, Secretary.

HOSPITALS.

A fine work in winning the world to Christ is the proper and adequate establishment and maintenance of hospitals.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, though a little late in beginning this much needed and far reaching work, has rallied nobly to this crying need of humanity.

Hospitals have been and are being established in all our large centers.

The prime work of man is to win the souls of men to Christ, but, as an aid to this great cause, we think of none better as an aid than the work our hospitals are rendering.

Death has doubtless in the past claimed many treasures from our homes which might have been saved by the fine ministry now to be found in these institutions.

Wesley Hospital.

This great and well known institution, located in the city of Chicago, continues to appeal to our sympathies and our support because of the large and extended service it is rendering to humanity. We feel sure our people will not turn a deaf ear to its ever increasing needs.

Peoria Hospital.

This hospital, which has been established in the city of Peoria, is a little nearer us, and, like the Wesley Hospital, is a very worthy institution. As it becomes known, its work and its ministry will appeal to our people.

The Memorial Hospital.

This hospital, located in Mattoon, in the bounds of our Conference, naturally appeals to us. It is doing splendid work in caring for the suffering.

A new building was dedicated this year which was launched last year in a ten-day campaign for funds which was entirely successful, the entire cost of which was $70,000.00.

This structure is modern in every way and will surpass many a larger hospital in its equipment for service.

In view of the terrible cyclone which swept over Mattoon and Charleston some time ago, the capacity of this institution was taxed to its utmost valuable service.

Special favors are, we understand, extended to ministers at this institution.

The following is a report of the year's work:

From Sept. 1, 1916, to Sept. 1, 1917—

No. of Patients Received	562
No. of Patients Discharged	564
No. of Hospital Days	6810
Average Number of Patients per Day	12
Earnings of the Year.....	$14,633.85
Total Receipts	15,049.72
Amount Handed to Treasurer.....	13,856.40
Cash Expenditures	1,147.05
Bills of the Year.....	12,688.95
Amount of Free Work.....	1,100.00

Trustees.

The Conference is asked to confirm the following Board of Trustees, who have been duly elected:

Board of Trustees—S. W. Phillips, President; G. H. Cokendolpher, Vice-President; Chas. E. Odell, Secretary-Treasurer; S. G. Auer, Rev. C. F. Buker, H. W. Clark, C. W. Kincaid, Rev. R. F. McDaniel, G. S. Tarbox, Delphine Pearson, Superintendent.

S. A. McIntosh, Chairman.
J. C. Bell, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The sound of bugling nearby, the drilling of the boys in khaki just beyond these walls and the entraining of soldiers for the training camps, remind us that this session of the ministers and laymen of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is held under abnormal conditions during an unparalleled period of great world war. Our country has at length been compelled to unsheath its sword in the name of humanity and in defense of the sacred rights we cherish as a nation as well as for the protection of the life and property of our citizens. The proud and vaunting ambitions of an unscrupulous military autocracy seeking to dominate the world have compelled us to take up arms and wage war, not only to protect the lives of our citizens, but to defend our free institutions and our dearly bought liberties. These solemn issues are now at stake.

Though we did not seek it, and were slow to acknowledge it, it was as inevitable as Fate that we should be called upon to join the allied nations in waging a war of righteousness, if such a war was ever waged. That same Fate, that is to say Divine Providence, will as inevitably remove the crowns from the heads of a wild and wilful military autocracy that has plunged the whole world into suffering and misery and, with the aid of the great democracies joined in this mighty cause, will place these crowns on the heads of some millions of freemen, both within and without the bounds of the Central Powers, who have a Divine right to reign over themselves unmolested and unhampered by their military oppressors. We are fighting a battle as much to free the German people from their military masters as to protect ourselves. Some day, soon we trust, they too, will see this. The United States having put its hand to the sword will not draw back till its task is done. It would be impossible to live in peace again on the same planet with a victorious Prussian autocracy. God and some millions of freemen will see to it that it is not victorious. The world must be made safe for democracy and for any people, big or little, who have a right to live at peace in the great brotherhood of nations.

The Methodist church has ever been noted for its patriotism in every national crisis, and, by reason of its numbers, is prepared to give large and enthusiastic proof of it. The Methodist church will not fail our country now. We pledge our hearty and loyal support to President Wilson and the administration in all the great plans for the successful prosecution of the conflict. We believe that the strength our country gives to the allied cause will, in the Providence of God, be the deciding factor. We must, however, strike mightily, that the end may come the more quickly. Some day, soon we devoutly pray, grim war with its blood stained boots, its frightful visage, and its glutted sword, will be driven forever from the bounds of civilization, and in its place we shall have a peace that shall abide forever.

In the meantime, we deplore the misguided words and actions of those agitators who are attempting to thwart and obstruct our national preparations and the traitorous propaganda of those who thereby give aid and comfort to the enemy, whose only result will be the prolongation of war and the delay of peace.

We commend Governor Lowden for his patriotic attitude and efforts as worthy of the best traditions of the state of the great Lincoln and deplore the equally unpatriotic attitude of the mayor of our greatest municipality, whose erratic and unAmerican utterances and actions so grossly misrepresent true Americanism.

We pledge our prayers and our loyal support to the boys who will fight our battles on land and sea. We feel confident that they will prove true defenders of the Stars and Stripes when the supreme test comes. We would fling out this challenge to every one of our brave soldiers, "Be thou strong and show thyself a man."

We commend the earnest efforts of our government, the Y. M. C. A. and our own church officials to look after moral conditions, in and around the great cantonments and at the front, and pledge them our loyal co-operation. We particularly recommend the efforts of our Board of Home Missions, to raise a fund of $250,000 to provide for religious work at the training camps in accordance with the request of the Secretary of War, to the generosity of our people. They must be made safe from the solicitations of booze and lust, and made clean, wholesome, and uplifting soldier-homes for the flower of our young manhood. Bullets may slay thousands but booze must not be permitted to slay its tens of thousands.

We pledge to our government hearty co-operation in the work of the Red Cross Society, as well as the campaign for the conservation of our food supply. America must feed half the world to win the war. While millions are lifting an agonizing prayer to high heaven for daily bread, we believe it is our patriotic duty to help answer that prayer by every means at our command. To this end we call upon the President to speedily exercise the power given him by Congress to cease the destruction of food stuffs through their conversion into intoxicating liquors of all kinds, beer and wine, as well as whisky. We urge total prohibition as a war measure, as a means of efficiency among the workers at home as well as the soldiers at the front, and as one of the most effective means of winning the war. We look forward with eagerness to speedy enactment of an amendment to our Constitution, forever prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors from one end of our country to the other, and will only give our support to those public officials seeking election at our hands who will stand on that platform. We call upon Congress to speedily give authority to the several states of the Union to ratify the proposed Constitutional Amendment.

And, finally, we urge all our citizenry to conduct themselves at all times as true Americans and genuine Christians in these trying days, to be chivalrous as foes, generous as friends, true to God and humanity. We pledge ourselves in the spirit of Christ to help work out the problems of our democracy in the great days of reconstruction that will follow the war, and will never knowingly allow ourselves by word or deed to bring dishonor upon the flag in which we all glory. We will be true to the cause to which our nation has pledged its substance, the lives of its citizens and its sacred honor.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The Anti-Saloon League and Church Board of Temperance—Public Morals and Prohibition.

Information comes to this committee that it is becoming increasingly difficult for the Anti-Saloon League to secure the co-operation of pastors and churches in carrying on the important work of the League. Doubtless the recent great strides toward the goals of state and national prohibition have led many to conclude that triumphant victory is assured and that the usefulness of the League is nearing an end. Let none be deceived. The victory is not yet complete, and much remains to be done. The death of John Barleycorn is still greatly exaggerated. Let us not have done with him until he is so safely interred that no resurrection for him can come. Therefore, we ask that our pastors and churches energetically continue to co-operate with the League until that result be fully assured.

We nominate as trustees of this League for this Conference: T. N. Ewing, Chris. Galeener, Joseph R. Harker, and T. E. Lyon.

We heartily commend our church Board of Temperance, the success of which so largely comes from the untiring efforts of Secretary Clarence True Wilson, and urge the fullest co-operation of our church.

State Support of Sectarian Institutions.

This committee also desires to bring to the attention of the members of this Conference the fact that in violation of the Constitution of the State of Illinois public funds have been and continue to be diverted to the support and maintenance of institutions which are of church or sectarian purpose. Investigation proves that between the years of 1905 and 1915 a quarter of a million of dollars were thus diverted to the support of Roman Catholic institutions. About six thousand have gone to the support of Protestant institutions. In the year of 1916 alone a quarter of a million dollars went to the support of Roman Catholic institutions, (institutions which have mainly as their excuse for existence the teaching of Roman doctrine and the extension of Roman influence) showing the rapidly increasing development of this peril. Little, if any, support during this year has gone to Protestant institutions.

In the days of the foundation of our national and state governments our fathers wisely foresaw that the union of church and state leads to grave difficulties and wisely provided for their perpetual separation. However, in enacting such provision into national and state constitutions no penalty was attached for its violation. We, therefore, call upon our state legislature to enact such punitive measures as will cause a cessation of this infraction.

Plainly it is the duty of the state to care for all its dependent inhabitants and this without religious bias. We urge speedy provision for the same.

In the interval of such state provision we urge Methodist institutions to spurn the proffer of aid from public funds and we call upon our membership to rise to the occasion with generous support.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

1. Sunday Schools.

In view of the fact that the Sunday School and Epworth League are honored and indispensable agencies of our great church and have molded the spiritual and moral lives of multiplied thousands and equipped them for Christian service.

Be it resolved, first: that we pledge our loyal co-operation in the forward movements of the Board of Sunday Schools, and urge that every charge strive to reach the goal of a standard school embracing the eight essential features as outlined for a standard school by our Board.

Second: We would emphasize particularly the work of organized adult classes, whose reason for existence is "not to be ministered unto but to minister."

We would also recommend that teacher training classes be organized and maintained as an indispensable provision for the future prosperity of our Sunday Schools.

2. Epworth League.

The Epworth League, wherever given a chance, has proven itself a veritable training school for our young people. The far-reaching scope of its comprehensive program includes every phase of Christian culture and equipment.

We also commend the work of the Junior League as an organization performing service not touched upon by any other department.

We wish also to endorse the Institute plan so intensively being wrought out by our efficient Secretary, Dr. W. F. Sheridan. We realize the need and demand for such an institute within the bounds of our Conference; therefore, we recommend that the Conference President and Secretary, with the Presidents of the various Districts, constitute a committee to act in conjunction with the District Superintendent in making provision for an Epworth League Institute in the Illinois Conference.

We nominate for Conference President, C. R. Booth, and for Secretary, C. M. Barton.

W. A. Boyd, Chairman
J. H. Pence, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN AND WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

We recognize the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society as a potent factor in preaching Christ in foreign fields and the Woman's Home Missionary Society as an efficient helper in giving the gospel to the millions coming to our shores and in establishing and maintaining churches and the work on the frontier. We view with satisfaction the noble work which these societies are doing and rejoice in their growth, the large increase in their collections, and their spiritual influence in the church. Further, the terrible conditions in Europe, resulting from the war, demand unusual sympathy, generosity, and co-operation on the part of our entire constituency. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as pastors of the Illinois Conference, pledge to the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies our hearty support, and promise them every possible aid in the great work they are doing.

A few words additional may be helpful in rendering the report more clear.

By the sentiment of the members of the Conference as we understand it, as well as by the direct action of the Conference, the funds of the Preachers' Aid and those in the hands of the Stewards are complementary to each other, and when the present activities of the Conference are completed the monies handled by the Stewards may rightly be said to be supplementary to that of the Preachers' Aid.

But that both are essential in securing the Disciplinary allowance may be seen by a brief observation of the facts.

The total claims to meet Disciplinary requirements are upward of $60,000.00. The possible income from Book Concern, Trustees, etc., would still leave a balance to be raised of at least $50,000. Assuming that the Preachers' Aid and the Conference divide this sum between them, the Preachers' Aid would require a principal of $500,000 bearing a steady rate of 5 per cent above all expenses and the Conference would require an assessment of 8 per cent of the support allowed to effective preachers, and this is the minimum if the requirements are to be met. We thus clearly see the absolutely necessary demand for securing the Preachers' Aid Endowment in full and also enlarging the total fund above the $500,000 contemplated.

It is also clear that the entire amount of $50,000 can not or will not be raised from the charges but rather that what is thus raised will more and more appear as supplementary to the permanent fund. It is also evident, we think, that it is very necessary for the preachers to regularly meet the payment of dues in the Preachers' Aid as otherwise, owing to the relation of these two funds, failing to pay dues would mean, on retiring, a loss in the total amount received from Conference. Perhaps a few concrete cases will illustrate.

No. 1 Years of service	24
Total	$ 168

Had he paid the Preachers' Aid dues for 24 years he would have received $80.08 additional or a total of $249.90; that is, instead of receiving $7 per year he would have received $10 2-5 per year annuity.

No. 2 Years of service	30
Annuity by Conference at $7 per year.....$	210.00
Preachers' Aid for 15 years at $2.75 per year.....	41.40
Total	$ 251.40

Had he paid the full time allowable, he would have received $322.50, or from Stewards $7 per year, plus the Preachers' Aid, $3.75 per year, or $10.75 annuity.

No. 3 Years of service.....	40
Conference Annuity at $7 per year.....$	280.00
No. 4 Years of service.....	40
Conference Annuity at $4 per year.....$	280.00
Preachers' Aid for 30 years at $3.75 per year.....	112.50
Total	$ 392.50

Number 3 received a total of $7 in annuity.

Number 4 received a total of $9.45 annuity because he supported the Preachers' Aid.

Owing to the plan of giving the same amount to the widow as the retired minister the exhibit would be much more noticeable in favor of supporting the Preachers' Aid.

No. 5 Years of service	30
Conference Annuity at $5.25 per year.....$	158.00
No. 6 Years of service	30
Conference Annuity at $5.25 per year.....$	158.00
Preachers' Aid Annuity at $3.75 per year for 30 years.....	112.50
Total	$ 270.50

Number 5 received just the Conference Annuity of $5.25 per year.

Number 6 received Conference Annuity of $5.25 plus $3.75 per year, or $9 annuity per year.

One received less than $\frac{1}{2}$ the legal rate, the other over $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent of legal rate.

Briefly, then, is it not plain, (1) that the required sum will not be raised from the charges; (2) that both funds are essential if all claims are met; (3) that failing to meet dues of Preachers' Aid is in general terms to fail to that extent in receipt of yearly claims on retirement.

This is not a plea for the Preachers' Aid but to show the relation of the two funds and the unavoidable loss that necessarily must come to those who fail to support the Society.

Please bear in mind that the Annuity allowed by the Stewards is the minimum amount received. Contributors to the Preachers' Aid receive from $1.75 to $3.25 per year additional. Thus this year men receive from the Stewards $7 per year or over one-third of the legal rate. Members of the Preachers' Aid receive from $8.75 to $10.75 per year.

Women receive from Conference $5.25 per year. Supporters of the Preachers' Aid receive from $1.75 to $3.75 per year additional or from $7 to $9 per year.

It is especially necessary to bear this in mind when the Annuity paid by our Conference is compared with the Annuity paid by other Conferences.

R. Y. Williams, President,
W. G. Loyd, Treasurer,
Walter Mitchell, Secretary,
Board of Stewards.

(C) SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

CAMP MEETING GROUNDS.

Whereas, There is a growing need within the bounds of the Illinois Conference for some central meeting place where our preachers and people may be refreshed and their spiritual life may be quickened; and

Whereas, A proposition has been submitted to us whereby the Mechanicsburg Camp Meeting Grounds may come into the possession of the Illinois Conference at the cost of Five Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($5,250.00) with the understanding that the Conference does not give support, and in no way will be financially involved except as it may hereafter determine; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a Committee of Direction be appointed by the Annual Conference with power and authority to proceed in the purchase of the grounds and in providing a suitable program for the Camp Meeting.

The Committee of Direction to consist of the District Superintendents of the Bloomington, Decatur, Jacksonville, and Springfield Districts, Pastors of Decatur and Springfield First Churches, Pastors of Mechanicsburg and Buffalo, and an equal number of laymen selected by them following the Conference Session.

E. L. Pletcher, Chairman.
E. S. Vorbeck, Secretary.

CHURCH UNIFICATION.

Your Standing Committee which was appointed during the Session of last annual Conference, to investigate the legal and other phases of the proposed consolidation of the M. E. Church, South, with the M. E. Church, beg leave to report, viz.: That we have been trying to reach every available source of information concerning the interests which may be involved in the proposed consolidation; and, as the General Conference Commission has not completed its work, we are not prepared to make any specific report.

If it is the pleasure of the Conference to continue the committee, with any additions or changes which may be desired, we are hoping to be able to make such investigations, and furnish a report which may be helpful towards the protection of every interest which may be involved.

S. H. Whitlock, Chairman.
J. R. Reasoner, Secretary.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM.

The Committee on Conference Program met at seven o'clock Thursday evening to consider the recommendations of the District Superintendents concerning general campaigns in the Illinois Conference in the interest of the various causes demanding attention. The following action was taken;

(1) Paragraph one was amended by striking out the words "among the Superintendents"—so as to read: That special emphasis be laid this year on Evangelism and Christian Stewardship. That team work to this end is highly desirable. That these two worthy objects be kept before the people is among the first and most important interests of the Kingdom.

(2) Paragraph two was amended by substituting the word "charge" for "district" so as to read: That the Conference Claimants Endowment Campaign should be carried to a successful completion in every charge where not already completed. In justice to other causes this campaign should be completed at the earliest possible moment, and wherever practicable by January 1, 1918.

(3) Paragraph three was stricken from the report and there was substituted therefor the following: The Wesley Foundation is entitled to a clear field throughout State Wide Methodism, to the end that this shall be the only Conference-wide campaign initiated during the ensuing Conference year.

(4) Paragraph four was stricken from the report and there was substituted therefor the following: We express our sympathy with the Garrett Biblical Institute Campaign and the Board of Education Million Dollar Campaign and commend these causes to our people but agree that no public presentation of these campaigns be made to our congregations this year.

(5) Paragraph five was adopted as follows: That the Chaddock Boys' school interest be cared for in accordance with the plan agreed to by the District Superintendents and the Trustees of the Institution at a meeting held in Quincy, May 24, 1917.

(6) Paragraph six was altered by inserting the word "Conference" after the word "active" so as to read as follows: That we pledge our fullest sympathy and co-operation with any well-matured plans of the Missionary Boards for their Century Drive, but we express the judgment that the best interests of all the causes will be conserved if we do not take up any active Conference campaign for these special Missionary interests until after the next Annual Conference, having in mind that they shall be among the objects for prime consideration for next year.

The Secretary was authorized to have the report as amended printed for distribution in the joint Conference session and the committee recommended that a committee similar to the present one be created at the present session of the Conference to bring in a report for the Conference session of next year.

George H. Wilson, Chairman.

T. N. Ewing, Secretary.

They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange with a member of the conference as special supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

As early in the conference year as possible all applicants for admission on trial shall send to the chairman of the board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the chairman. All such candidates may take their examinations as above.

4. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Registrar of the Board three different sets of questions, 90 days or more before the examinations take place in June. The Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time in the hands of the district supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special. Set No. 1 shall be used in the first examination; set No. 2 for all who fail at the first trial; and set No. 3, "doubly difficult," for all who postpone the examinations until the day before the Conference session.

5. Before the examination in June the Registrar will supply the supervisors with questions on the entire course of study.

6. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study, or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time of examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the registrar of the board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the board.

7. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their annual conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for prepayment.

8. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

9. The examination questions shall conform to the requirements of the Commission on Conference Courses of Study and the markings on both examinations and collateral reading shall be upon the scale and according to the method established by the Commission, and no mark below 70 per cent shall pass.

10. All credits from Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the annual conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. All grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the conference examiners, shall be designated by the letter "P", as an indication of passing grade, which neither adds to nor detracts from the general average of the undergraduate.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the board. This fee shall be paid to the registrar of the board within thirty days after the adjournment of the conference session, for which the registrar shall furnish receipt. District supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. The financial accounts of the Registrar shall be audited by the board at their annual conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the chairman and registrar of the board.

13. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the board of examiners; and it shall be the duty of the board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant. District superintendents are requested to report to the chairman of the board of examiners, all candidates for admission on trial or from other churches, and candidates for admission into full membership, and for recognition of orders, at least thirty days before Conference, or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the chairman may have ample time to investigate.

14. It shall be the duty of district superintendents to report to the chairman of the board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the board of examiners shall be held at the seat of the annual conference at 2 o'clock p. m., on the day preceding the opening of the session, to consider matters involved in Rule 14, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the ensuing year. Examinations for those who are eligible shall be conducted on the same day, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., and closing at 6:00 p. m.

16. "Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success, will be conferred at each annual conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but no one can be "Honor Man" who shall not have done at least 50 per cent of his work under this board, or whose standing in the course of study is irregular.

Examinations deferred to the day before Conference will be doubly rigid, and no examination will be given after 6 p. m. on day preceding Conference.

17. All examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipt for the same shall be brought to the chairman at the seat of the Conference.

18. The Board will deduct 10 per cent or less on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing or general execution is slovenly, deductions being made on each of these points. On all written work not in before August 15th, a reduction of 5 per cent, and after September 1st, 10 per cent, will be made from the grades. All written work must be within the required limits, or deductions will be made.

Undergraduates will give especial attention to paragraph 599, Sec. 1, of the Discipline of 1916.

Memoirs.

MRS. GEORGE J. BARRETT.

Mrs. Ellen Watson Barrett, widow of the Rev. George J. Barrett, who was one of the well-known pioneer preachers of the Illinois Conference, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Cannon, in Jacksonville, Ill., May 22, 1917. Ellen Watson was born in Pittsfield, Ill., Jan. 18, 1835, her parents having moved here from Syracuse, N. Y., and were among the pioneer settlers of Pike county. She grew to womanhood in this community and graduated from Monticello seminary at Godfrey, Ill., with the class of 1854. For some time previous to her death she had the honor of being the oldest living alumna of this institution. Her family being members of the Congregational church, she was reared in this church, and met the Rev. George Barrett, then a minister in the Congregational church. They were married Oct. 22, 1857, and made their home at Summerville, Ill. Shortly after their marriage, Rev. Barrett entered the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, where they served the following charges: Carrollton, Marshall, Paris, Pana, Taylorville, Brooklyn in Jacksonville, Butler, and three years as agent for the Freedman's Aid Society. During these latter years the family lived in Jacksonville. While preaching at Bluff Springs, Rev. Barrett was stricken with apoplexy and died shortly afterwards, in 1877. After his death Mrs. Barrett made her home at Pittsfield, Ill. For the last eight years she has spent her winters in Jacksonville, at the home of her daughter. She was the mother of seven children, but only two survive her—Mrs. T. L. Cannon of Jacksonville, and Oliver R. Barrett of Chicago; also two children of her husband by a former marriage, Fred P. Barrett of Atchison, Kansas, and Mrs. Grace Van Dewater of Long Beach, California. During the twenty years of her life in a Methodist parsonage she graced her position with rare ability and sweetness of character. She was a very great help to her husband, and all who came to the home felt a sense of refinement and cordiality which seemed to be always present. In her home at Pittsfield she was always greatly interested in her church and most loyal to her pastor. She took especial interest in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and always contributed liberally to these causes. Up to the very last she retained a clear mind and a marked literary ability. For years she kept a daily record and filled it with choice selections and thoughts of great beauty and spiritual insight. Short services were held in the home at Jacksonville by Rev. F. A. McCarty, assisted by Rev. E. L. Pletcher. At Pittsfield the sermon was preached by Rev. W. R. Leslie, her pastor, assisted by Rev. Hanscom of the Congregational church. The interment was in the family lot at Pittsfield, Ill.

MARTIN VAN BUREN HILL.

Rev. Martin Van Buren Hill was born in Ohio, May 16, 1840. He passed to his reward November 26, 1916, aged 76 years, 6 months and 10 days.

He was married to Miss Josephine Schooley of Warren county, Ohio,

September 22, 1874. Mr. and Mrs. Hill came to Illinois shortly after they were married.

They were the parents of eight children. Five of the number are still living: Mrs. Emma Wren, Homer, and Orin Hill, of Niantic, Ill.; Ernest Hill, of Rushville, Ill., and Earle Hill, of Springfield, Ill.

Mrs. Josephine Schooley Hill died at Oconee, Ill., November 9, 1899. October 26, 1905, Rev. Hill was married to Mrs. Maria Higdon of Rushville, Ill.

In 1883, the decedent became a member of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Previous to that time he was engaged in the grain and implement business.

For a number of years before he became an ordained minister he held a local preacher's license and did much supply work.

For twenty-nine years Rev. Hill was an active and influential member of the Conference. He served faithfully and well the pastorates assigned to him by those in authority. The following named places have been his fields of labor for the Master: Hume, Edgar, Pilot, Butler, Rushville, Huntsville, Rochester, Mt. Auburn, Hammond, Oconee, Rosemond, Waverly and Bethany. He served his entire time within the bounds of the Illinois Conference.

In 1912 he retired from the active ministry and located in Edinburg, Ill., and there remained until the time of his passing away.

Rev. Hill was not only an active and devoted worker in the church, but was also a beloved member of the Masonic and I. O. O. F. fraternities for many years. At the time of his death he was a member of the orders named at Palmyra, Ill. Rev. Hill was a man admired and appreciated by the people among whom he labored. He loved folks and they in turn loved him. The family are bereaved because of his going, but they have the sincerest sympathy of their associates and friends everywhere.

The funeral services were held in the Edinburg Methodist Episcopal church, November 28, with the pastor of the church in charge. Rev. Chris Galeener of Gibson City, Ill., delivered the funeral discourse. A number of the members of the Illinois Conference and the pastors of the local churches were present and assisted. Revs. C. E. Holyoke, C. W. Hammond, H. F. Cusic and A. L. West comprised the quartette that sang appropriate and beautiful funeral hymns. Masons and Odd Fellows attended the funeral in a body. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The body was conveyed by auto to Decatur for burial.

MRS. J. JAY DUGAN.

Miss R. Florence Denton was born in Canton, Ill., June 29, 1851, and departed this life at the home of her daughter in Springfield, Ill., September 22, 1916, of paralysis.

When a small child her parents moved to Wataga, Ill., where she received her education in the public schools. When 16 years of age she engaged in school teaching, which profession she followed for five years. She had charge of the public school at Middletown, Ill., where, on the 6th day of October, 1872, she met the Rev. J. Jay Dugan. It was the twenty-fourth anniversary of his birth, and the day of his first appearance as pastor of the Middletown circuit of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Having work in common, these two young people were together much of the time, and they soon agreed to unite and work together the balance of their lives. So, on the 15th of February, 1873, they were united in marriage by the Rev. M. M. Davidson of the Illinois Conference. The ceremony was solemnized in the Methodist Episcopal Church of Middletown.

More than forty-two beautiful years of unfailing love and devotion to her home and church have proven that Mr. Dugan made no mistake when he chose Miss Denton to be his life partner in the work of the ministry of Jesus Christ.

She was especially gifted as a teacher and instructor of youth. It was her delight to form classes of children and youth and teach them in the fundamental principles of Christianity. In different places she served as superintendent of the Sunday school with great efficiency and acceptability.

She was a great help to her husband in the work of the Gospel ministry, frequently leading the song service during a revival campaign, and working among the congregation and conducting many a penitent to the altar of prayer. She believed in the teaching and experience of Christian love and exemplified it in her life.

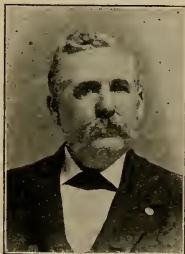

She was a devoted wife and mother. She loved her home and family. However humble, her home was her palace. She was the mother of four children. They are: Dr. W. J. Dugan, Paris, Ill.; Dr. J. C. Dugan, Dexter, Mo.; Dr. R. D. Dugan, Illiopolis, Ill., and Mrs. Pearle D. Crenshaw, Springfield, Ill. She taught them in the doctrines and faith of Christianity. It was her highest hope and constant prayer that they live true, godly lives. Her prayers and efforts have not been in vain. There are also five grandchildren, two of whom she had the care for the past eight years. Besides these, she leaves an only sister, Mrs. Mary E. Hamilton, of Galesburg, Ill., and her much bereaved husband, J. Jay Dugan, a retired minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was loved and respected by all who knew her.

She had been in failing health the past few years. The beautiful, erect form began to fade and decline. In June, 1915, she was stricken with paralysis, and from then on fought a losing battle till the end came. The funeral services were brief, conducted by the Rev. W. A. Smith of the Illinois Conference, assisted by Rev. T. N. Ewing, her pastor, and Rev. A. B. Peck, pastor of Laurel M. E. Church of Springfield.

Interment was in Pleasant Plains (Ill.) cemetery. Her body lies beneath the sod, near the foot of the western slope of this beautiful burying ground, awaiting the call to the first resurrection.

She gave her whole life to the cause of humanity. She now rests from her labors, and her works do follow her. Peace to her ashes and undying memory to her beautiful Christian character of sacrifice, devotion and love. Let nature be kind to this place—the last resting place of the beloved.

WILLIAM CHARLES LACY.

On the 27th of November, 1916, the word went forth that Rev. William Charles Lacy was dead. It was not unexpected news. For many months he had been dwelling on the border line. With a whole neighborhood solicitous for his welfare, a loving wife attentive to every need, and anxious children watching by his side, while the tide was low, he slipped the moorings and sailed away to greet the beloved on the unseen shore.

He was born in Scarborough, England, July 1, 1837, and was at the time of his going 79 years, 4 months and 26 days old. He came to America with his parents when four years of age and settled near Jacksonville in Cass county, this state. Here he grew to manhood, spending his boyhood days on the farm. At the age of 14 he was happily converted, and at once recognized his distinct call to the ministry. At 17 he was granted license to preach, signed by Peter Cartwright. He preached the Gospel for over 50 years. In 1858, when he was 21 years old, he was received on trial into the Illinois Conference, and from that time till the fall of 1905 he was in the effective ranks of the Methodist Episcopal ministry. In that time he received into the membership of the church 2,775, while about 700 went to other churches. What a record to be entered in the chronicles of eternal years! "They that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever." In 1862 he was made Chaplain of the 70th Illinois Volunteer Infantry. On September 8th of that same year, while still serving as Chaplain, he was married to Miss Sarah Bradshaw, a daughter of Rev. Arthur Bradshaw, one of the pioneer preachers of the Illinois Conference. Eleven children were born to them, three of whom have gone before to await his coming. Mrs. Lacy, the faithful wife and mother, whose life has been largely spent in a Methodist parsonage, is cheerfully waiting till the time of the sweet reunion in heaven.

When Brother Lacy took the retired relation in 1905 they located at Green Valley, where he had served his last pastorate. Here for eleven beautiful years he and his faithful wife lived among the people they loved so well, and who returned in full the measure of their devotion. Here, in 1908, the entire community celebrated the semi-centennial of his entrance into the Christian ministry. Four years later, with many visiting ministers, and with many golden gifts from friends far and near, they celebrated their golden wedding.

While life's evening came on, not amid deepening shadows, but along the glory path, he walked into the valley with the Son of God, and at the setting of the sun he passed through the open portals into the light of the perfect day. Funeral services were held in the Green Valley church, November 28. The main address was given by T. H. Tull, himself being the fruit of Rev. Lacy's ministry, with interment in Greenwood cemetery, in Decatur, Ill.

MRS. J. T. ORR.

Martha Ann, daughter of Louis Alfred and Maria Burd, was born at Morristown, N. J., December 29, 1835. She moved with her parents to Ohio, and later to a farm near Armstrong, Ill. She died near Goodwine, Ill., June 10, 1917.

She was one of a family of ten children. Two sisters and one brother survive her.

She was married to Rev. James T. Orr, a member of the Illinois Conference, October 31, 1861. She was the mother of five children, Lilas Ada, who died in infancy, Jennie May Pawson, also deceased, Emma Kate Pawson, James R. Orr, and Elbert R. Orr.

Ten grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive her.

Mrs. Orr was converted early in life, joining the Methodist Episcopal Church at Mann's Chapel near Rossville, Ill., and was ever loyal and faithful to the doctrines and teachings of Christ and the church.

She sought and found a clean heart at a Camp Meeting held near Hillsboro in 1875, and ever after joyfully witnessed to the cleansing and keeping power of Jesus Christ.

With her husband she served faithfully in the charges to which he was appointed, putting the Master's service first, seeking only the lowly places where she might be of use to Him whose she was and whom she served, desiring only that it might be said of her "She hath done what she could."

Her life was one of sacrifice and service to her family, the church and the communities in which she lived. Never strong, physically, she worked with an energy far beyond her strength. She was an attendant at all the services of the church whenever able to be present. Her stated times of secret and family prayer and her constant study of God's word were her sources of strength and power. Hers was a Christian character of remarkable beauty and sweetness, formed of a life spent on the higher levels.

On Sunday morning, June 10, she was unable to rise from her bed, and at "eventime it was light", for she had gone to be "forever with the Lord."

MRS. H. F. POWELL.

On Sunday afternoon, May 13, 1917, there went out from the parsonage home at Cisco the spirit of Mrs. Audrey Green Powell, the wife of Rev. H. F. Powell, pastor of that charge. In this going away the home has lost a devoted wife and mother, and the church and community a beautiful Christian character and inspiring influence for good. Audrey Green was born at Wilcox, Ariz., Jan. 8, 1887. Both of the parents died during her early childhood, first the father and a few years later the mother, while she and her children were living in California. Following the death of the mother, Audrey and her two brothers, Karl and Roy, came to Cerro Gordo, Ill., and had their home henceforth with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wimmer, their uncle and aunt. To these, their foster parents, the three children were as their own, and grew to maturity with every advantage which the affection of the home could bestow upon them. Audrey was graduated from the High School at Cerro Gordo, and subsequently attended the Illinois Woman's College, at Jacksonville.
